Student Responsibility

The statements set forth in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and the University of West Georgia. University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student's responsibility to check his or her email.

Inquiries concerning requests for application forms and other material should be addressed to Office of Admissions, University of West Georgia, Carrollton, Georgia 30118-4400, or by calling 678-839-5600.

While every effort will be made to ensure accuracy of the material stated herein, the University of West Georgia reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation and availability of courses and programs of study without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of such changes.

Information regarding academic requirements for graduation will be available in the offices of the Registrar and Deans of major schools and colleges. It is the responsibility of each student to keep himself or herself apprised of current graduation requirements for a degree program in which he or she is enrolled.

In the event that an administrative hearing officer or a court of record determines that "publications" issued by the college create a contractual or quasi-contractual relationship with any person, the amount of damages recoverable by the parties shall be limited to the amount of consideration paid by the person for the privilege of admission, enrollment, continued enrollment, or other service rendered by the institution to such person. As used herein, the term "publications" (without limiting the generality of the normal meaning of the term) shall be deemed to include any and all written forms or other documents issued by the institution concerning applications for admission, enrollment or continued enrollment, waivers of liability, consents to medical treatment, dormitory occupancy, and any and all other written forms, documents, letters or other materials issued by the college in furtherance of its educational mission.

Compliance

This University of West Georgia is in compliance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other applicable laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, creed, religion, sex, age, or disability.

Inquiries concerning compliance should be addressed to the Affirmative Action Officer, Human Resources, or call 678-839-6403.

Privacy of Information Act

Under the Provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, each West Georgia student (past or present) has the right of access to all educational information and data maintained on him or her by the University of West Georgia.

How to Find Information Related to Academic Programs and Courses

This catalog includes directional tools customarily included in such publications. The Table of Contents, the Glossary, the Index to Course Listings, the general Index, and the Index of Abbreviations are all essential tools for anyone using the catalog. By turning to these sections, readers can find information related to the structure, policies, and procedures that govern the University's operations as well as information about programs the University offers. This section supplements those listed above by providing directions in finding and interpreting information related to academic programs, academic departments, and courses.

Colleges & Schools

The chapter titled "Degree Programs" organizes information on programs within each of the six major academic divisions of the University: The College of Arts and Humanities, the College of Education, the College of Science and Mathematics, the College of Social Sciences, the Richards College of Business, and the Tanner Health System School of Nursing. Information relevant to each college, the dean, the web address, general information, and specific requirements and options for the college, are included in an introductory section.

Departments

All academic departments are listed in the general Index. Information about each academic department is arranged alphabetically for each college. This information includes, in order, the department Web address, the department faculty, descriptions of programs and program requirements, including majors, minors, and special tracks, and, finally, a list of courses offered by the department with a description for each course in a separate section.

Programs

All academic programs of study are listed in the general Index.

Courses

Though all the course descriptions in the catalog follow the same basic pattern, a number of variables determine the specific information contained in each. The following example contains labels to illustrate how to read a course description:

* A complete list of courses can be located in the Course Descriptions.

Glossary

- Academic Advisor - A faculty or staff member assigned to help students select courses and plan programs.
- Academic Coach - A staff member or trained peer educator who helps students define and achieve academic goals and improve study skills and strategies.
- Academic Dismissal - Dismissal from the University or a program for not maintaining the required grade point average (GPA) or for not completing the required number of credits.
- Advanced Placement - Eligibility to enroll in courses beyond the entry level through transfer credit or examination.
- Associate Degree - A degree granted after completing at least two years of full-time academic study beyond the completion of high school and fulfillment of graduation requirements.
- Auditing - Registering for and attending class(es) regularly without being held responsible for the work required for credit. (No credit hours are earned and full tuition must be paid. The grade "V" appears on the record.)
- Baccalaureate Degree - A degree granted after completion of at least four years of full-time academic study beyond the completion of high school and fulfillment of graduation requirements.
- Classification - A term based on the number of credit hours earned to classify a student at the freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior level.
- Concentration - A designated group of courses within a major program.
- Core Curriculum - Sixty semester hours of credit comprising the four major areas of humanities, sciences and mathematics, social sciences, and courses related to the major.
- Continuing Education Unit - Recognition for participation in a non-credit program or workshop.
- Credit/No Credit - A method used to evaluate performance in courses which is separate from the grade point system. (The grade "S" or "U" appears on the record.)
- Credit By Examination - Credit granted upon the successful completion of a standardized test such as the examinations offered by the College Level Examination Program (CLEP). (The grade "K" appears on the record.)
- Credit Hour - A unit of academic credit measured in semester hours or quarter hours. One credit hour usually represents one hour of class time per week.
- Credit Load - The total number of credits for which a student registers during a given semester.
- Deadline - The date by which certain information must be received by any given office or unit. (Current deadline dates are printed in the catalog and course schedule.)
- Dean's List - An announcement at the end of each semester listing students who have achieved a specified grade point average.
- Degree Requirement - A specifically identified course or examination which must be satisfied in order to become a candidate for a degree. (West Georgia has both general University and specific program requirements.)
- Drop and Add - The process of making certain changes (dropping and adding classes) in a student's schedule of courses at the beginning of the semester. Adding courses is possible only in this three day period. (See the course schedule for specific dates.)
- eCore - eCore stands for 'electronic core' - these are fully online core courses that are part of a state-wide initiative (meaning students could be in classes with students from around the state and your instructor may or may not be a UWG instructor). One or two proctored exams are required but can be taken at sites around the world. See <http://ecore.westga.edu>
- Elective - An elective is a course elected from several. It implies options and choice; however, it should be stressed that physical education and recreation activity electives will not count as general academic electives. Also, programs require a certain number of hours to be upper-division and some lower-division. The term elective can refer to either of those; therefore, every use of the term elective is not the same.
- Fees - The expenses payable by the student to the University in order to be officially enrolled. Examples of such fees include the application fee, matriculation fee, and activity fees.

Full-time Student - A student enrolled for a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester. The normal full-time course load is 15 credit hours per semester.

GPA - The term simply means Grade Point Average; however, all GPA's are not the same. In fact, there are several different uses and methods for calculating GPA. Below are listed some of the most common.

GPA adjusted versus unadjusted - An unadjusted GPA means that the result is an arithmetical average of the grades of all courses attempted at a given institution; whereas, an adjusted GPA refers to the average being altered by deletions of certain grades that were either repeated or eliminated.

Transfer GPA - This refers to the average of all courses attempted at all other post-secondary institutions from which West Georgia normally accepts credit.

Institutional GPA - This is the average of all grades for courses attempted at West Georgia with adjustments for repeated courses according to the policies in place when the course was initially attempted.

Overall GPA - This term simply means the combined average of the Transfer GPA (if applicable) and the Institutional GPA.

Graduation GPA - The GPA used to determine eligibility for graduation is the average of all grades for all courses attempted at West Georgia adjusted by any graduation forgiveness policies in place in the catalog used to determine degree requirements.

Honors Graduation GPA - The Overall GPA (minus any forgiveness or repeat policy adjustments) is used to determine eligibility for graduation with honors.

HOPE GPA - This is the average of all college-level work attempted after high school graduation, including any remedial work.

Georgia Residency Requirements - The requirements for identifying or establishing permanent residency in the state of Georgia for the assessment of matriculation fees.

Grade Point - The numerical value given to letter grades. An "A" is equivalent to 4 points per semester hour, a "B" to 3 points, a "C" to 2 points, a "D" to 1 point, and an "F" to 0 points.

Grant - Financial assistance awarded to students which does not have to be repaid, usually based on need.

High School Dual/Joint Enrollment Program - A program which makes available to qualified high school students West Georgia courses for full academic credit.

Honors - Designations indicated on the university degree and transcript to reflect out-standing scholarship.

Incomplete - The grade "I" sometimes granted when a student is temporarily unable to complete course requirements because of unusual circumstances.

Independent Study - A course of study undertaken by a student under the supervision of one or more faculty members outside the classroom.

Internship - Work in a firm or agency related to a student's major program and/or career plans. An internship involves earning college credit and may involve receiving payment.

Loan - Financial assistance to students which must be repaid. Low interest loans are available, and financial need may or may not be a factor.

Major - A concentration of related courses generally consisting of 21 or more semester hours of credit.

Matriculation - The process of obtaining enrollment at the university.

Minor - A concentration of related courses generally consisting of a minimum of 15 semester hours of credit.

Non-Degree Student - A student who has been admitted to a non-degree category and is not currently seeking an associate or baccalaureate degree.

Part-Time Student - A student who takes fewer than 12 credit hours during a semester.

Portfolio - A collection of work (e.g., paintings, writings, etc.) which may be used to demonstrate competency in an academic area.

Prerequisite - A requirement, usually the completion of another course, which must be met before a student can register for a course.

Semester Calendar System - A semester is a unit of time, 15 weeks long, in the academic calendar. A full academic year consists of two semesters.

Semester Hour - A unit of academic credit. One quarter hour of credit is equivalent to two-thirds a semester hour of credit.

Registration - The process of signing up and paying fees for courses each semester.

Reinstatement - Readmission to the University after having been academically excluded or having withdrawn.

Residence Requirement - The required number of credit hours of course work that must be completed at West Georgia before a degree will be granted.

Residency Requirement - As opposed to the Residence Requirement, the Residency Requirement refers to the length of time certain students (usually depended upon classification) must live on campus.

ROTC - The Reserve Officers' Training Corps military science curriculum offers electives leading to a commission in the United States Armed Forces.

Scholarship - Financial assistance to students awarded on the basis of academic achievement. Financial need may or may not be a factor.

Stop Registration - A hold placed on a student's registration as a result of academic exclusion, an unfulfilled obligation to the University, or a disciplinary action by the University.

Student Employment - Part-time jobs made available to students with financial need through federally funded programs (work-study) and to students without need through individual departments (regular student assistant program).

Transfer Student - Transfer students are those who have previously been enrolled in any accredited college. All previous college attendance must be reported at the time of application. (High school students in dual/joint enrollment programs are not considered transfer students.)

Transient Student - Students currently enrolled at another college may apply for the privilege of temporary registration at West Georgia. Such students are those who expect to return to their home institution and who have transient permission from that institution.

Transient Student Status - West Georgia students wishing to take courses temporarily at another college or university to count towards their degree at West Georgia must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher and must obtain permission from the Dean of their major school.

The University System of Georgia

The University System of Georgia's Board of Regents was created in 1931 as a part of a reorganization of Georgia's state government. With this act, public higher education in Georgia was unified for the first time under a single governing and management authority. The governor appoints members to the Board, who each serve seven years. Today the Board of Regents is composed of 19 members, five of whom are appointed from the state-at-large, and one from each of the 14 congressional districts. The Board elects a chancellor who serves as its chief executive officer and the chief administrative officer of the University System. The Board oversees 28 colleges and universities that comprise the University System of Georgia and has oversight of the Georgia Archives and the Georgia Public Library System.

Vision and Mission Statements for University System of Georgia

"The University System of Georgia will create a more educated Georgia, well prepared for a global, technological society, by providing first-rate undergraduate and graduate education, leading-edge research, and committed public service."

The mission of the University System of Georgia is to contribute to the educational, cultural, economic, and social advancement of Georgia by providing excellent undergraduate general education and first-rate programs leading to associate, baccalaureate, masters, professional, and doctorate degrees; by pursuing leading-edge basic and applied research, scholarly inquiry, and creative endeavors; and by bringing these intellectual resources, and those of the public libraries, to bear on the economic development of the State and the continuing education of its citizens.

Each institution in the University System of Georgia will be characterized by:

- A supportive campus climate, leadership and development opportunities, and necessary services and facilities to meet the needs of students, faculty, and staff;
- Cultural, ethnic, racial, and gender diversity in the faculty, staff, and student body, supported by practices and programs that embody the ideals of an open, democratic, and global society;
- Technology to advance educational purposes, including instructional technology, student support services, and distance education; and
- A commitment to sharing physical, human information, and other resources in collaboration with other system institutions, the public libraries, state agencies, local schools, and technical colleges to expand and enhance programs and services available to the citizens of Georgia.

The University

Overview

The University of West Georgia is a coeducational, residential, liberal arts institution located in Carrollton. A state university in the University System of Georgia, it enrolls students from most counties in Georgia as well as from other states and several foreign countries. Enrollment at West Georgia reached an all-time high with 13,303 students in the 2016 fall semester.

The University is situated on the western side of Carrollton, the county seat of Carroll County and one of Georgia's fastest growing industrial areas. Carrollton, an hour's drive from Atlanta, serves a regional population of more than 112,000 as a center for retail shopping, medical and educational services, entertainment and recreational activities, and financial services.

History

The University of West Georgia originated in 1906, the date of the founding of the Fourth District Agricultural and Mechanical School, one of twelve such institutions established by the State of Georgia between 1906 and 1917. Twenty-five years later, Carrollton's A&M School became West Georgia College, a junior college established by an act of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. Dr. Irvine S. Ingram, who had been principal of the A&M School, was named the institution's first president.

In 1939, the College was authorized by the Board of Regents to add a three-year program in elementary education. In 1957, the institution was authorized to confer the B.S. degree in education, making it a four-year senior college unit of the University System of Georgia. Two years later, West Georgia College added the Bachelor of Arts degree in the fields of English, history, and mathematics.

During the following years, West Georgia College became one of the fastest growing institutions of higher learning in the South. From an enrollment of 576 in 1957, the institution's student body now numbers over 13,300.

In 1967, the Board of Regents authorized the initiation of a graduate program at the master's level.

In 1983, the Board of Regents approved the External Degree Program as a cooperative effort between Dalton College and West Georgia. Since its inception, close to 400 degrees have been conferred through the center.

The Board of Regents in 1988 approved opening the Newnan Center, a joint effort involving the Newnan-Coweta Chamber of Commerce and other business, civic and educational leaders in the area. In 2013, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia voted to approve the acquisition of the real property at 80 W. Jackson Street, the site of the historic Newnan Hospital facility. UWG began serving students from this new site in summer 2015. With an enrollment of more than 500, the Newnan Center will provide core curriculum, as well as full bachelor and masters programs, and dual enrollment for high school students. (See Public Services chapter)

In June, 1996, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia awarded the institution university status and officially changed the name of West Georgia College to the State University of West Georgia, and in 2005 it became the University of West Georgia.

The University has seen significant growth in recent years. Two phases of residential housing provide variety to on-campus students including the apartment-style Center Pointe Suites, the Oaks and the East Village Dining Hall, and Bowdon Hall. The Campus Center (student recreational facility), University Bookstore and the Visual Arts Building provide more access to students, while the Coliseum and the Athletic Operations Building offer space for UWG's expanding Athletics program. The gross asset value of the University's facilities is proximately $300 million. The University has grown to nearly 645 acres.

Presidents of the University

Dr. Irvine Sullivan Ingram served as West Georgia College's first president from 1933 to June 30, 1960, the longest presidential tenure in the history of the University System of Georgia. He was succeeded by Dr. William Hamilton Row, who served from July 1, 1960, until his death on March 15, 1961. At that time, Dr. Ingram was named acting president. He served in that capacity until Dr. James Emory Boyd was appointed president on August 16, 1961.

After a decade of service to West Georgia College as president, Dr. Boyd retired on March 30, 1971, to become vice-chancellor for academic development of the University System of Georgia. Vice-President George Walker served as acting president from April 1 to August 15, 1971. On August 16, Dr. Ward B. Pafford became the institution's fourth president. Dr. Pafford announced his resignation, effective June 30, 1975, in the fall of 1974. Dr. Maurice K. Townsend, vice president for academic affairs at Indiana State University, was named West Georgia's new president, effective July 1, 1975. Dr. Townsend served as the College's Chief Executive Officer until his death on May 16, 1993. Dr. Bruce W. Lyon, Vice President and Dean of Student Services, was named Acting President, effective June 1, 1993. The University System of Georgia, following an extensive national search, named Dr. Beheruz N. Sethna to head West Georgia, effective August, 1994. When the Board of Regents officially changed the name of the institution to the University of West Georgia in June, 1996, Dr. Sethna became the first president of the University under the new name.

Dr. Sethna retired as UWG president on June 30, 2013, after 19 years of service. The University System of Georgia performed a complete national search and named Dr. Kyle Marrero as the institution's seventh president, effective July 1, 2013.

The University of West Georgia Vision, Mission, and Values

Vision

The University of West Georgia aspires to be the best comprehensive university in America - sought after as the best place to work, learn, and succeed!

Mission

The mission of the University of West Georgia (UWG) is to enable students, faculty, and staff to realize their full potential through academic engagement, supportive services, professional development, and a caring, student-centered community. UWG is committed to academic excellence and to community engagement, offering high-quality undergraduate, graduate, and community programs on-campus, off-campus, and online.

UWG, a charter member of the University System of Georgia (USG), is a comprehensive, SACSCOC level VI, public university, based in West Georgia with multiple instructional sites and a strong virtual presence. UWG supports students in their efforts to complete degrees in relevant programs, valuing liberal arts and professional preparation. Through effective and innovative teaching, experiential learning, scholarship, research, creative endeavor, and public service, UWG equips graduates to engage with and discover knowledge. UWG is dedicated to building on existing strengths and developing distinctive academic, research, and co-curricular programs and services that respond to economic development and identified regional, state and global needs, thus empowering alumni to contribute responsibly and creatively to a complex 21st Century global society.

Values

The institutional mission and daily operation of the University of West Georgia are guided by our values that support our vision to be the best place to work, learn, and succeed.

The value of achievement is evident in our commitment to the academic and social success of our students, staff, and faculty.

The value of caring is evident in our consistent concern and regard for our students, staff, and faculty as well as the larger communities where we live and whom we serve.

The value of collaboration is evident in our commitment to shared governance, teamwork, and a cooperative spirit that shape our interactions with students, staff, and faculty, and the communities we serve.

The value of inclusiveness is evident in our commitment to celebrating our diversity, our collaborative spirit, and creating a welcoming campus that is emotionally and physically safe for all.

The value of innovation is evident in our commitment to fostering a learning atmosphere in which new methods and ideas consistent with our vision and mission are respected and rewarded.

The value of integrity is evident in our commitment to rigorous ethical standards in our classrooms and offices, in our conduct toward each other, and in service to our communities.

The value of sustainability is evident in our obligation to maintaining ecological balance in our planning and operations that make possible for future generations the same or better quality of opportunities for success available to present employees and students.

The value of wisdom is evident in our commitment to teaching and learning that emphasizes knowledge for the purpose of positively transforming the lives of our employees and students, as well as improving the world in which we live.

Accreditations and Affiliations

The University of West Georgia is accredited with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters, education specialists, and doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of the University of West Georgia.

The purpose of publishing the Commission's address and contact numbers is to enable interested constituents (1) to learn about the accreditation status of the institution, (2) to file a third-party comment at the time of the institution's decennial review, or (3) to file a complaint against the institution for alleged non-compliance with a standard or requirement). However, normal inquiries about the institution, such as admission requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be addressed directly to the institution and not to the Commission's office.

Accreditations also include the following:

AACSB International-The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business
Council on Academic Accreditation in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association
Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education
Computing Accreditation Commission of ABET
Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs
National Association of Schools of Art and Design
National Association of Schools of Music
National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration
National Association of Schools of Theatre
National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education

Organizations in which the University holds institutional membership include the American Council on Education, the American Chemical Society, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning, the National Association for Business Teacher Education, and the National Collegiate Honors Council.

The Campus

The University of West Georgia's award winning campus is a unique blend of old and new. Boasting abundant trees, shrubs, and flowers, the campus is dotted with structures of the early 1900's as well as buildings exemplifying the most contemporary modes of architecture. Front Campus Drive, a three-block-long expanse of rolling hills shaded by scores of towering oak, elm, and maple trees, features historic structures such as Kennedy Interfaith Chapel and Bonner House, two of the oldest buildings on campus. In 1964, after the Chapel was moved to the campus, the late Robert F. Kennedy dedicated it to the memory of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy. The Bonner House, constructed in 1843 as a plantation home, is the oldest building on campus. The frame colonial structure has served various purposes through the years.

A modern academic complex composed of a renovated library, the Technology-enhanced Learning Center, as well as social science, humanities and math-physics buildings lies beyond Front Campus Drive. Other buildings in the area include the Richards College of Business; the three-story University Community Center; the Campus Center, which boasts a full gym, indoor track, and rock-climbing wall; the Townsend Center for Performing Arts; and the newly-constructed Visual Arts Building.

UWG also features some of the region's most impressive athletic facilities. The Coliseum, with a capacity of 6,500 for athletic events, has hosted concerts, graduations and community events.

University Stadium, a 9,500-seat home to UWG football, anchors the university's Athletic Complex. There are also football and soccer practice fields, as well as the Women's Complex, which features competition soccer and softball fields.

The Greek Village and suite-- and apartment-- style residence halls offer comfortable and convenient living options for students on campus. The most recent additions include Center Pointe Suites and The Oaks residential community.

The UWG Bookstore, conveniently located across the street from both the TLC and the Greek Village, offers textbooks, spirit wear, snacks, and more.

The university's newest facility is the Tanner Health System School of Nursing building. With 64,000 square feet of technology-equipped space, the new building provides nursing students with unprecedented access to state of the art equipment.

In 2017, the University broke ground on a two-phase $24-million expansion of its Biology Building, which is expected to be completed in spring of 2018.

A commitment to campus growth and expansion will continue to be a priority for our institution, with several construction projects on the horizon.

Irvine Sullivan Ingram Library

<https://www.westga.edu/library/>

As the academic heart of the campus, Ingram Library provides both online and in-house collections and services to meet curricular needs. The four story building provides seating space for 800, three electronic classrooms, small group study rooms, and computers and other equipment for accessing materials retained in print, online, recorded and micro for-mats. Wireless access to internet resources is available throughout the building as well as in the Starbucks cafe and adjacent patio overlooking Love Valley.

The library is named in honor of Irvine Sullivan Ingram, 1892-1981, the institution's first president. The glass enclosed lobby overlooks a study garden designed in honor of Maurice Townsend, fifth president of the university. The lobby area provides study tables and casual seating and displays of new books, current newspapers and periodicals. Ingram Library houses a collection of student and faculty art, including "The Prophet," a bronze by Gary Coulter, presented by the Class of 1968. A bowl by renowned artist Phillip Moulthrop, Class of 1969, which Mr. Moulthrop donated to the College of Arts & Humanities in 2012, is displayed on the main floor. The third floor features the 1980 ceramic mural "Sporangium Disseminating Spores" by Cameron Covert and Bruce Bobick of the Department of Art.

Library collections include some 450,000 cataloged volumes, some 1,000,000 microforms, and more than 20,000 maps and charts. The library provides access to over 70,000 print and electronic serials, including magazines, scholarly journals, and newspapers. As a selective depository for federal documents, the library houses United States government publications and provides access to government information available in online and other electronic formats. Library users have access to Georgia Library Learning Online (GALILEO), an online library of databases, full text electronic journals, and reference resources available to all Georgians, as well as to an extensive range of electronic materials selected to support the university's academic programs. All licensed electronic materials are available to university students, faculty and staff through any computer with internet access. By providing access to an extensive range of online materials, through its chat reference service, by developing an electronic reserve system and online request systems for obtaining materials from other libraries, the library ensures that students enrolled at the university's remote class sites and in online courses are afforded the same level of library support as those who attend classes on the Carrollton campus; the Library's Off-Campus Services unit provides materials to such students as needed, upon request through its interlibrary loan system.

The library participates in state and regional consortia, facilitating extensive access to the collective resources of university system and other libraries. The library catalog, provided through Georgia Interconnected Libraries (GIL), lists materials available in Ingram Library collections, and provides links to catalogs of other libraries. West Georgia students, faculty, and staff may request books from any university system library through the online GIL Express service, a feature of the universal catalog, and they also have check out privileges when visiting system libraries. In addition, the University of West Georgia is a member of the Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education (ARCHE), which allows students, faculty and staff to utilize the resources of member libraries. Ingram Library provides interlibrary loan service through its web site, facilitating the borrowing of books from libraries throughout the country. Articles requested through interlibrary loan are transmitted to patrons electronically.

The library pursues an active instruction program. LIBR 1101, a for-credit course which is part of Area B of the Core, is taught face to face as well as online. The course is designed to orient students to doing research in academic libraries and to critically evaluating information and media resources. Library skills classes are also arranged at the request of faculty and tailored to specific assignments and class needs. Individuals seeking assistance with library resources and research needs can utilize reference services at the reference desks, via telephone, and through the 24/7 online chat reference service available through the library web site. Students can make personal research appointments with librarians through the GoPRO service.

The Annie Belle Weaver Special Collections area on the ground floor of Ingram Library provides access to information about the history of the university and the geographic area it serves. Photographs, family histories, and other materials associated with the west Georgia region are included in Special Collections, as are materials on sacred harp music and American psalmody. The Humanistic Psychology and Parapsychology collections include the papers of Sidney Jourard, Carmi Harari, William Roll, Ingo Swann, and Edith Weisskopf-Joelson. A special effort is made to acquire the manuscript collections of individuals who have represented the region in state or national legislative bodies. One of the most notable collections is that associated with Georgia's Political Heritage Program, begun by university faculty in 1985. The collection includes taped interviews with state and national leaders, among them most of Georgia's post-World War II governors, U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young, U.S. House Speaker Newt Gingrich and Georgia House Speaker Tom Murphy. Senator Herman Talmadge was the first interview subject for the program. The Talmadge collection is particularly significant as it includes some thirty-five interviews recorded between 1985 and 1995 as well as interviews with his staff and some of his supporters. The Thomas B. Murphy Reading Room and State Capitol Office installation, dedicated in 2012, honors Georgia House Speaker Tom Murphy who left office in 2002 with the distinction of serving as the nation's longest-serving House speaker. Murphy's office was replicated as part of a library facility renovation completed in 2011 and funded with a special state legislative appropriation honoring his service to the state of Georgia. The university's Center for Public History and Thomas B. Murphy Center for Public Service are located on the ground floor of the library.

The library hosts numerous cultural programs, including nationally-touring exhibits, concerts, lectures and readings. Ingram Library's Penelope Melson Society, established in 2008 in recognition of the library's centennial, serves as the library's friends group. The Melson Society assists the library in securing and funding programs to draw the campus and surrounding community together. Information about library programs and services is distributed through publications available in the building, and through the library web site. An online announcements site outlines upcoming events, programs and classes.

Thomas B. Murphy Holocaust Teacher Education Training and Resource Center

The Thomas B. Murphy Holocaust Teacher Education Training and Resource Center, on the second floor of Ingram Library, is the only Holocaust center in the United States devoted to teacher training located in a state-supported institution. The Center is administered by the Georgia Commission on the Holocaust. With the study of the Holocaust as a catalyst, the Center encourages and supports human understanding and dignity by developing programs to open minds and hearts to the appreciation of all of humankind. The Center's multimedia resource collection includes books, videotapes, archival and electronic materials, augmented by resources available within the collections of Ingram Library. Working collaboratively with academic departments and state and regional organizations, the Center provides curriculum development assistance, teacher conferences, staff development seminars, exhibits, and other programs.

Information Technology Services

<http://www.westga.edu/its/>

Information Technology Services' (ITS) central office and Service Desk is located on the 2nd Floor of Cobb Hall. ITS provides technology leadership and support to all areas of the University of West Georgia community. ITS offers a wide variety of technical services - from support of your UWG ID to the planning and maintenance of the campus technology infrastructure including:

- Technology infrastructure providing both wired and wireless network access (connectWest),
- On campus computing lab facilities for general purpose/homework and specialized use,
- Support of all technology enhanced classrooms,
- The campus portal (myuwg.westga.edu),
- E-mail access powered by Google,
- Collaborative services powered by Google including Google Docs, Google Drive, Google Sites, and Google Calendar,
- Student Information Technology Services (SITS), located in the Cobb Hall Lobby, providing no cost labor for current students who need help with their personal computers and mobile devices,
- Residential Network Services (RESNET) providing network support to students living on campus,
- Student information system access (Banweb),
- and telephone and cable TV service.

Office of Education Abroad

UWG's Office of Education Abroad provides advising and support for all students who are interested in learning more about making study abroad a part of their degree programs. Located on the first floor of Gunn Hall, the office helps students identify appropriate education abroad programs from those offered by UWG departments, by the University System of Georgia and by our institutional exchange partners. It also provides counseling on preparation for travel, course selection and ways to finance study abroad. In addition to help for students, the office assists academic units interested in developing partnerships with universities around the world. Services for faculty include guidance for those interested in developing study abroad programs relevant to their disciplines and support for those interested in sponsoring visiting scholars from abroad. The office sponsors activities and workshops for students and faculty related to education abroad and campus internationalization.

The Antonio J. Waring, Jr. Archaeological Laboratory

<http://waring.westga.edu>

The Antonio J. Waring, Jr. Archaeological Laboratory is a unique facility within Georgia. As part of the University's Anthropology Department, it holds a large collection of historic and prehistoric artifacts from archaeological sites all across Georgia. The collections curated here for governmental and private agencies provide essential research data for the West Georgia faculty, as well as for visiting scholars from across the country, and also offer undergraduate students at West Georgia special opportunities for academic training and research experience. Anthropology majors and other undergraduate students are encouraged to enrich their academic experience through laboratory and field research methods courses in which they participate directly in active research projects under the direction and supervision of archaeologists on the faculty at the University. Once they receive basic instruction, many students also elect to participate in sponsored archaeological projects as undergraduate research assistants.

Academic Chairs

Three chairs designed to enhance the instructional quality of the University are provided through a combination of supplemental income from foundations and the regular university budget. The Fuller E. Callaway Chair in the College of Arts and Sciences was established in 1969 through support from the Callaway Foundation, Inc. The purpose of this program is to encourage the enrichment of the academic program through the retention and addition of superior faculty members. The Fuller E. Callaway Professor teaches principally at the undergraduate level on a full-time basis.

The Warren P. Sewell, Sr., Chair of Private Enterprise in the College of Business was established in 1979 through an endowment provided West Georgia by the Warren P. and Ava F. Sewell Foundation. The purpose of this program is two-fold: to attract a highly qualified professor to exemplify excellence in teaching, and to focus attention on the historic contributions and contemporary importance of the American free enterprise system.

The Marion Crider Distinguished Chair for Mathematics in the College of Science and Mathematics was established in 2002 through an estate gift of Sara Hazeltine and matching funds from the University System of Georgia's Eminent Scholars Program. This was the first Eminent Scholars Program fully endowed chair in the University's history. The chair attracts highly qualified faculty in mathematics. It memorializes Marion Crider, a beloved teacher, whose career spanned 23 years at West Georgia.

The University of West Georgia Alumni Association

Graduates of the University of West Georgia constitute the largest single constituency and represent the most valuable resource for the University. Membership in the Alumni Association is open to all former students of the University of West Georgia, West Georgia College, or the Fourth District Agricultural and Mechanical School. A volunteer-driven 54-member Board of Directors works closely with the professional staff to develop and support opportunities that steward the relationships between alumni and the University. The Association informs alumni of institutional plans, progress, opportunities, and needs. Through the Alumni Office, communication with alumni is achieved through the alumni magazine, Perspective, and Perspective Online, as well as an electronic newsletter, The Red and Blue Banner.

Major activities sponsored by the Alumni Association include Homecoming, regional alumni receptions, and many other reunions and special events that involve thousands of alumni each year.

The University of West Georgia Foundation

The University of West Georgia Foundation, Inc. (Foundation) is a Georgia charitable corporation. It receives and manages private contributions (gifts) made for the benefit of the University of West Georgia. The Foundation has been recognized as an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and gifts to the Foundation are deductible as provided for in section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation encourages both restricted (specific purpose) and unrestricted (general use) gifts from donors.

The University of West Georgia Athletic Foundation

The University of West Georgia Athletic Foundation is an independent, non-profit organization that strives to support a preeminent intercollegiate athletics program at the University of West Georgia by providing student athletes the opportunity to achieve excellence in academics, community service, and athletic competition.

Student Affairs and Enrollment Management

<http://www.westga.edu/vpsa>

The Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, as a complement to the academic programs of the University, offers a variety of educational services, developmental programs, and student activities designed to enrich the student's university life. These activities are under the direction of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management.

Students and others who desire more information about the services available or who need assistance are encouraged to contact the appropriate offices listed below:

Student Activities

Art, Drama, and Music

The Departments of Art, Music, and Theatre Arts sponsor a wide variety of activities, including plays, recitals and exhibitions of art by students and faculty as well as occasional traveling exhibits. The Department of Music offers students numerous opportunities to perform. Whether music majors or non-music majors, students participate in a wide range of music performance activities for university credit. Vocal ensembles include the Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, and Opera Workshop. The bands include the Marching Band, Basketball Band, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Combos, and a variety of small woodwind, brass, and percussion ensembles.

The Department of Theatre Arts stages major productions each semester and one-act plays during the spring. The Department of Music presents an opera each year as well.

All students are eligible to audition for major theater productions and musical performance groups.

The Department of Art hosts an annual student art exhibition every spring semester, which is open to all university students to submit art works. Additionally, the department hosts many art exhibitions, productions and lectures from visiting artist in one of the three art galleries in the Humanities Building. Furthermore, student's exhibitions are presented in Gallery 2 and the VAB Gallery throughout the academic year.

Debate

West Georgia has a phenomenal debate program. In 2010, for the 38th consecutive year, a West Georgia team qualified for the National Debate Tournament. West Georgia's consecutive year-streak of qualifying for the NDT is the fifth longest in the history, surpassed only by Dartmouth, Harvard, University of Kansas and the University of Southern California.

In the past 6 years alone, UWG Debate has been national runner up and finished top 5 in the nation three other times.

Student Media

Student publications include two campus-wide media, The West Georgian, an award-winning weekly campus newspaper, and The Eclectic, a literary magazine published each spring semester. Each of these publications has a student editor and student staff.

The WOLF Internet Radio is staffed by students and provides entertainment and information for the campus and surrounding area as well as valuable instruction and experience for students in the mass communications field. Students interested in television production create programs at WUTV which air over the local cable channel.

Publications and Printing (Your On-Campus Copy Center)

Publications and Printing, Your On-Campus Copy Center, offers full-color and black-and-white copying and printing, publications design, large-format posters printed and mounted, and more. While-you-wait-service is available, as is a computer design station in the lobby for your use. A full-time staff is available to assist students, faculty, and staff with printing needs, including banners, signs, brochures, soft-bound and hardcover books, letterheads, envelopes, business cards, fliers, promotional materials, laminating, etc. You can have your art/photos printed on canvas and mounted. Full-color, retractable promotional displays can be produced, in two sizes, as well as self-stick wall art, most any size. Files can be e-mailed for your convenience. The print shop is located off Back Campus Drive on Pub and Print Drive, across from the East Commons Dining Hall. Hours are Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Weather/Emergency Closing

Because of the difficulty in making up lost time, classes or examinations are cancelled only in extreme circumstances. In the event of an emergency University closing, announcements will be made over radio stations in Carrollton and the surrounding area, and radio and television stations in Atlanta.

At times of bad weather or other emergencies, University officials make decisions on whether or not to close the campus based on current conditions provided by University Police and other considerations. In such cases, the safety and security of the majority of the students is a prime consideration; however, we recognize that there may be special circumstances that pertain to individual students that are more serious than those that apply to the majority. Students are advised to use their best judgment about their safety and that of their families in those situations. Students should consult with individual faculty members about making up lost time.

Official announcements about class/examination cancellations will be made only by the President and/or the office of University Communications and Marketing.

The University reserves the right to schedule additional classes or examination sessions should some be cancelled.

Information on cancelled or rescheduled classes or examination sessions may also be obtained by calling the Department of University Police Weather Line, 678-839-6200 (day and night) - Please Do Not call the Emergency Number; the office of University Communications and Marketing, 678-839-6464 (daytime only); or visiting the University Web-site at www.westga.edu or enroll in Wolf Alert - the University's emergency warning system. To register, log into the Portal and within the University Police box, click on the Wolf Alert icon and enroll your phone(s) and e-mail addresses.

Awards and Honors

West Georgia encourages and rewards excellence among its students. Qualified students are invited to join approximately twenty honor societies, some representing specific academic disciplines and others representing groups of a general nature. These honor organizations, many of which have national affiliations, are listed in the Student Organizations section.

Annually, each of the thirty-one institutions in the University System of Georgia is asked to select one student as its representative for Academic Recognition Day honors awarded by the Board of Regents and the Georgia Legislature. The student chosen must be representative of outstanding scholastic achievement on his or her campus, have a GPA of 4.0 or very close to it, be an undergraduate, and be a resident of Georgia. Nominations are made to the President of the University by the Honors College Dean, who reviews the academic and University service record of the nominees in consultation with the Honors College Committee.

Held annually in the spring, the Academic Honors Convocation is devoted to the recognition of superior academic achievement by students. This occasion is marked by a procession of student honorees accompanied by faculty in academic regalia, the presentation of individual and special awards, and an appropriate program. In addition, during the winter there is a special Academic Awards Ceremony for Minority Students.

One of the most prestigious student awards is named for the late Professor of Education and Dean of Students at West Georgia, Dr. John J. Pershing. It is presented annually by the West Georgia Chapter of the American Association of University Professors to the senior who has earned the highest academic average over a four-year period. The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi also presents annual Awards of Excellence to the outstanding student in the undergraduate colleges at West Georgia. These students are selected on the basis of scholarship, character, citizenship, service to the University, and potential for leadership.

Students who excel in other ways are acknowledged through the Campus Activities and Awards Program, which is held each spring to honor students who have made outstanding leadership contributions in the areas of student life and extra- and co-curricular activities. Similarly, an annual Athletic Awards Banquet commemorates outstanding achievements among student athletes. Various individual departments sponsor occasions to recognize excellence and reward outstanding contributions by students.

Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges

The names of a limited number of West Georgia juniors, seniors, and graduate students are included each year in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Students are nominated by a student, faculty, or staff member. A campus nominating committee then selects students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

Expenses

Business Policy

The University year is divided into two semesters of approximately fifteen weeks each and a summer semester of approximately eight weeks. Expenses are charged and payable by the semester since each semester constitutes a separate unit of operation. A student may enroll at the beginning of any semester.

Students are responsible for meeting all financial obligations to the University when they fall due. West Georgia reserves and exercises the right to deny admission, to withhold transcripts and other educational records, to cancel the enrollments of students, and to delay the graduation of students who fail to meet promptly their financial obligations to the institution. Each student is responsible for keeping informed of all registration and fee payment dates, deadlines, and other requirements by referring to the official calendar and announcements published in the course bulletin, students UWG email account, and other printed and posted announcements.

Students who fail to satisfy financial obligations in a timely manner will be referred to an outside collection agency and will be held responsible for any additional charges not to exceed 33.3% associated with the collection of an unpaid debt.

To insure that financial operation is in conformity with the policies of the Board of Regents, certain regulations must be observed. Fees and charges must be paid by the published deadlines. Fees and charges may be paid in cash, by MasterCard, Discover, American Express, VISA, or by check in the exact amount of the student's bill. If any check is not paid on presentation to the bank on which it is drawn, a service charge of $25 or 5%, whichever is greater, will be made. When one fee check or two non-fee checks have been returned by any student's bank without payment, his check cashing privileges will be suspended for a year. Registration at the beginning of each semester is not complete until all fees and charges have been paid. If a student's fee check is returned for non-payment by their bank, the registration is subject to cancellation and a late fee of $75 will be due in addition to a service charge of $25 or 5%, whichever is greater. In the event, a student's registration is cancelled and the student seeks the reinstatement of classes, a $200 fee will be assessed to the student and is due upon reinstatement along with all other charges on the student's account.

Tuition and Other Student Fees

All students pay the established tuition and mandatory fees (e.g., health, athletic, technology, activity, campus center, transportation fees, and etc.) which are listed on the Bursar's website at <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/bursar> A few courses require special fees, such as private music lessons, aquatic, and science courses, and are listed at https://www.westga.edu/student-services/bursar/assets-bursar/docs/fy18_special_course_misc_fees.pdf. These fees are an estimation and are subject to change per the Board of Regents.

Table of Charges

Registration at the beginning of each semester is not complete until all fees and charges have been paid, including for previous semesters. Fees and charges are due by the published deadlines. A late fee is charged beginning the day after new student registration. See the Bursar's site at <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/bursar> for tuition and fees.

Residence Hall Charges Per Semester

Housing rates can be viewed on the Housing and Residence Life website. Contracts are for 9 months, although rates are listed per semester. The Housing Rates page includes the rates for the Application Fee, Special Interest Housing Fee, and Social Fee, which is assessed each semester to all on-campus residents except Greek Village residents (due to Comprehensive Fee). The social fee is used to support resident hall activities.

For a combined listing of meal plans and residence halls, see the Bursar's site at https://www.westga.edu/student-services/bursar/assets-bursar/docs/fy18_meal_plans_res_halls.pdf

Meal Plans

There are three convenient ways to sign up for a meal plan. You may sign up in person at the Wolves Card Office, located on the top floor of the University Community Center, via phone by calling 678-839-6525, or online through BanWeb.

Meal Plan Membership Terms and Conditions

- Meal plan memberships may only be removed before the END of the drop/add period.
- Meal plan membership changes or cancellations made before the end of the drop/add period will be charged at a prorated amount.
- Meal plan memberships purchased prior to or during drop/add period must be paid by the final drop date. Failure to pay balance in full will result in student's entire schedule being DROPPED. Payment may be made online through the BANWEB portal or in person with cash or check at the cashier's window on the 1st floor of Aycock Hall.
- The Bursar's Office now offers a PAYMENT PLAN through our University partner, Nelnet. This plan may be an option to assist you in paying for your meal plan. For more information, please visit mycollegepaymentplan.com/uwg. Please be advised -- every student is responsible for paying their entire balance.
- Meal plan memberships and/or upgrades added after the drop/add period must be paid in full immediately. Failure to pay will result in a HOLD being placed on the student's account. Holds prevent the student from registering for classes, receiving/sending official transcripts or graduating from the University. Payment may be made online through the BANWEB portal or in person with cash or check at the cashier's window on the 1st floor of Aycock Hall.
- Requests to be exempt from a mandatory meal plan must be emailed by the student to the Associate Vice President of Auxiliary Services (mreeves@westga.edu), who will in turn forward to the Meal Plan Appeals Committee for a final decision - grant or deny.
- All meal plan membership pricing is subject to final approval by the Board of Regents and is subject to change.
- Meal plan memberships cannot be used by anyone other than the purchaser of the plan; violators will be subject to campus judicial review.
- Meal plan memberships are loaded onto the student's ID card.
- Lost or stolen ID cards are subject to a $20 replacement charge. Replace your ID at the Wolves Card Office - UCC 3rd floor.
- Meal plan memberships must be used within the semester purchased.
- Balances remaining in Dining dollars will be forfeited if the student is not enrolled in the next consecutive semester.

Meal exchanges are available from 10:30am-4:00pm, Monday - Friday in designated locations (Wolves Den and Market locations across campus). Members are entitled to one meal exchange per lunch period on available days.

Parking and Transportation

Students will pay a mandatory transportation fee each semester that is used to provide students with various parking and transportation services both on and off campus. After paying the transportation fee, students must register their vehicle and will receive a parking permit. Students have unlimited access to the continuous bus shuttles that operate Sunday through Friday. Students also have access to an apartment shuttle that services several neighboring apartment complexes. Parking and Transportation also operates a shopping shuttle that runs twice per week to bring students to and from local retail outlets.

Mail Services

UWG Mail Services manages all mailing needs for the University of West Georgia. This department is also a Contract Postal Unit through the United States Postal Service, extending customer service not only to the university, but to the general public as well. The friendly and knowledgeable staff of Mail Services is happy to help customers with all of their mailing needs.

Refunds

The refund amount for students who formally withdraw from the Institution shall be based on a pro rata percentage determined by the number of calendar days in the semester that the student completed along with the total number of calendar days in the semester. The unearned portion shall be refunded up to the 60% point in time. Students who withdraw after the 60% point in time are not entitled to a refund of charges. All refunds will be issued through the BankMobile account. If a student leaves the residence hall and does not withdraw from school, they are still held responsible for the remainder of the yearly room charge. Students wishing to be considered for a housing release must apply at the Department of Residence Life. All housing refunds will be issued through the student's BankMobile account.

If a student withdraws during a semester, refund of board charges is made on a prorated basis, determined by the date of official withdrawal.

Refunds will be made approximately at the end of the sixth week of the semester. All re-funds will be issued through the BankMobile account.

A refund of all semester fees, matriculation fees, and other required fees shall be made in the event of a death of a student at any time during an academic semester.

Students who are members of the Georgia National Guard or other reserve components of the Armed Forces who receive emergency orders to active military duty are entitled to a full refund of matriculation fees paid for that semester, in accordance with guidelines previously listed.

For Financial Aid recipients, in order to meet Federal regulations, all refunds are credited back to the Federal Title IV programs, state programs, private, and institutional programs in the following order: Direct Stafford Loans, Federal Perkins Loans, Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grants, Federal SEOG, and other Title IV assistance, state, private, or institutional aid. Any refund remaining after these programs have been reimbursed goes to the student. All refunds will be issued through the BankMobile account.

Tuition Classification of Students as In-State and Out-of-State

All applicants who are accepted for admission or readmission to the University of West Georgia for Fall, 2011, or any academic semester thereafter, and who seek to be classified as in-state for tuition purposes, will be required to provide validation of residency and lawful presence in both the State of Georgia and the United States. The University System of Georgia allows students who have been admitted to the University of West Georgia as out-of-state for tuition purposes, to apply for in-state status through various tuition differential waivers. For more information, see the Registrar's site at <https://www.westga.edu/registrar/tuition-classification.php>.

Admission

General Admission Policies

The admissions policy of West Georgia is designed to admit students who will have a reasonable chance of success and who seemingly will profit from the educational program of the University. A student is considered for admission without regard to race, creed, sex, marital status, or national origin. Application forms may be obtained from the Admissions Office and are available from many high school guidance counselors. An admission application also can be found at www.westga.edu. For information on specific categories of admission, contact the Admissions Office at West Georgia. For additional admission requirements regarding specific majors, consult the particular department area of this catalog.

Every applicant must submit a formal application to the Admissions Office along with a $40 non-refundable application fee. (Georgia residents 62 years of age or older are not required to pay the application fee.)

June 1 is the fall semester application and document submission deadline date. Deadline date for spring semester is November 15; summer semester-May 15. The Admissions Office operates a rolling admission program; in other words, applications are processed and students are accepted on a revolving, continuing schedule. As soon as all items required in support of a student's application are received, the application is evaluated and the student is notified of a decision regarding admission. All required items must be received before a student will be allowed to register for classes.

The University may require the applicant to visit the campus for an interview, to supply further biographical information, or to take psychological, achievement, or aptitude tests before being accepted or rejected. The applicant will be notified of any such requirements. Students entering any unit of the University System of Georgia are required to provide official documentation of immunization prior to registration.

Acceptance or denial of each application is determined by the Director of Admissions, subject to the right of appeal as outlined by the University and as provided in the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University System. Information outlining the appeals procedure may be obtained from the Admissions Office or from the Student Handbook. An applicant should contact the Office of Admissions regarding details of the appeals procedure.

Admissions files of those who apply and do not enroll are kept in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for 12 calendar months. An applicant may update the semester for which he/she is applying within 12 months by calling the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Applicants who apply and do not enroll may update their initial application one time. After one update, an additional application and fee will be required.

Students furnishing the University with false, incomplete, or misleading information relating to their application or academic record will be subject to rejection or dismissal.

Immunization Requirements: The policy, implementation, guidelines, and the chart of required immunizations can be found at http://www.usg.edu/student_affairs/immun/.

University Admission Standards

It is recommended that prospective applicants to West Georgia contact the Undergraduate Admissions Office for specific requirements well in advance of their entrance date. Admission standards are subject to review and change.

Beginning Freshman

A freshman applicant is one who has not previously attended a regionally accredited college or university and/or has not yet graduated from high school. Freshman admission is based on standardized test scores, such as the SAT or ACT, high school grade point average (HSGPA) in college preparatory subjects, College Preparatory Curriculum (CPC)/Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) courses only, and Freshman Index (FI).

Students must have completed CPC/RHSC requirements as outlined in the second item in the following list.

1. High school graduation with a college preparatory/required high school curriculum diploma is required for admission as a beginning freshman. Both completion of the University System's College Preparatory Curriculum (CPC)/Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) and graduation must be from a high school accredited by (a) a regional accrediting association such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), (b) The Georgia Accrediting Commission, (c) Georgia Private School Accrediting Council, or (d) a public school regulated by a school system and state department of education. A student applying while in high school should have a transcript of work through the junior year sent to the Admissions Office at the time of application.
2. The University System of Georgia requires completion of a College Preparatory Curriculum/Required High School Curriculum for admission. Freshmen and transfer freshmen applicants must complete the following coursework to be admitted to the University:

Course (Units)	Instructional Emphasis
English (4)	-Grammar and usage -Literature (American & World) -Advanced composition skills
Science (4)*	-Physical Science -At least two laboratory courses from Biology, Chemistry, or Physics
Mathematics (4)	-Including Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II, and a higher math that has Geometry/Algebra II as a prerequisite

Social Science (3) -American History

-World History

-Economics and Government, or appropriate substitution

Foreign Language -Two skill-building courses of the same language emphasizing speaking,
(2) listening, reading, and writing.

*Students graduating earlier than 2012 only need 3 units of science. For more details regarding the Required High School Curriculum (RHSC), visit: <http://www.westga.edu/rhsc>

3. Each freshman applicant must submit scores earned on the SAT or ACT. Information regarding these tests may be obtained from any high school guidance office or any institution in the University System of Georgia. A freshman applicant cannot be accepted until the scores are received.
4. Minimum SAT/ACT score requirements for freshman or transfer freshman admission

SAT (UWG Code: 5900)	RSAT (UWG Code: 5900)	ACT (UWG Code: 0878)
430 Critical Reading Test	24 Reading Test	17 English Test
410 Math Test	450 Math Test	17 math Test

It is the policy of the Office of Admissions to take a student's best Critical Reading/Reading/English and best Math score should the student take the SAT or ACT more than once; however, SAT scores and ACT scores cannot be "mixed" in determining admission eligibility.

5. In addition to the minimum test score requirement, a minimum Freshman Index of 2120 is required for any level of freshman or transfer freshman admission.
6. Students whose index falls between s000-2119 may be eligible for conditional admission and attendance in Ignite, UWG's Summer Transition Program.
7. A high school senior who is earning college credit in a joint enrollment program while completing the senior year should apply to West Georgia as a beginning freshman but should indicate enrollment in a joint enrollment program on the application for admission. West Georgia will grant transfer credit for this work under the following conditions: (1) Work must be earned through an accredited college. (2) Individual courses must meet the normal guidelines for acceptability (see Transfer Student section).

Admission of Home Schooled Students

Applicants Who Have Completed an Accredited Home School Program

Applicants completing an approved, accredited home school program need only meet traditional freshman admission requirements.

Applicants Who Have Not Completed an Accredited Home School Program

Home educated applicants who have not completed an accredited home school program must submit the following:

- Application for Undergraduate Admission
- $40 non-refundable application processing fee
- Official SAT or ACT scores* (sent directly to UWG by the testing agency)
- Completed Home School Curriculum Evaluation Form, which provides satisfactory documentation of equivalent competence in each of the College Preparatory Curriculum (CPC)/Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) areas.
- Copy of current Declaration of Intent to Home School as filed with the state.

*University System of Georgia requires Home Schooled students who have not completed an accredited home school program to take the SAT or the ACT and to meet the minimum total score of the average combined score of the preceding year's enrolled Freshman Class.

The standard for home schooled applicants is the average combined critical reading and math scores of the preceding Fall class (minimum subsection scores are 430 Critical Reading and 410 Math) or the ACT Composite equivalent (minimum sub section scores are ACT English 17 and 17 Math).

Home Schooled Applicants Applying as Transfer Students

Transfer applicants who graduated from a non-accredited home school program, and who have earned less than 30 credit transferable, semester hours at the time of the UWG admission application, must meet Freshman admission requirements, including submission of the Declaration of Intent to Utilize a Home Study Program Form or a print out of your online submission. Transfer applicants completing an approved, accredited home school program need only meet traditional Freshman requirements.

Adult, Non-Traditional Applicants

Non-Traditional Freshmen

Non-traditional freshmen are defined as individuals who meet all of the following criteria

1. Have been out of high school at least five years and whose high school class graduated at least five years ago.
2. Hold a high school diploma from an accredited or approved high school or have satisfactorily completed the GED, and
3. Have earned fewer than 30 transferable semester credit hours.

Non-Traditional Transfer

1. Have been out of high school at least five years or whose high school class graduated at least five years ago, and
2. Have earned thirty (30) semester or more transferable hours of college credit.

All non-traditional applicants will be screened to determine their need for learning support courses. Students who require these support courses will not be admissible to UWG until they have satisfied this requirement.

Opportunities for Students During High School

West Georgia offers multiple options for students seeking to begin college early. these opportunities are:

- Dual Enrollment (enrolling in both high school and college during the junior and/or senior year)
- Early-Entrance-to-College (enrolling solely in college courses during a student's senior year in order to graduate from high school while living at home)
- The Advanced Academy of Georgia (please see the description below)

Move On When Ready (Dual Enrollment) Program

Admission Requirements:

10th Graders:

- Student must be a High School Sophomore when enrollment begins
- 3.5 un weighted, academic High School GPA
- One of the following:
 - 1650 Composite SAT score*
 - or 25 Composite ACT score
 - 650 SAT Critical Reading score
 - or 26 ACT English score
 - 650 SAT Math score
 - or 26 ACT Math score
 - 600 SAT Writing score
 - or 26 ACT Writing score

Composite SAT includes Critical Reading, Math, and Writing*

11th & 12th Graders

- 3.0 unweighted, academic high school GPA
- The following test scores:
 - 970 Combined Critical Reading and Math SAT score
 - or 20 Composite ACT score
 - 430 SAT Critical Reading score
 - or 17 ACT English score
 - 410 SAT Math score
 - or 17 ACT Math score

Please note: Redesigned SAT scores will be converted to the former scoring system. To convert your scores, please visit: collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/sat/scores

Steps to Acceptance

1. Take the SAT/ACT: Send your test scores directly to UWG. (Codes - SAT: 5900, ACT: 0878)
2. Apply to UWG: Log onto <http://westga.edu/applynow> and follow the directions to complete the application process.
3. Send required documentation: official high school transcripts, test scores, and MOWR Participation Agreement.
4. Questions? Contact Move On When Ready at dualenroll@westga.edu

The Advanced Academy of Georgia

<http://www.advancedacademy.org/>

The Advanced Academy of Georgia is designed for exceptional high school-aged students who wish to participate in a full time, residential college experience. This program provides the opportunity to enroll in regular university course work for credit while simultaneously completing high school requirements (in absentia). All students in The Academy are required to live in a designated campus residence hall and purchase a meal plan. The Academy offers an enriched residential component with academic advising tailored to the needs of its students.

- Combined SAT 1150 (or ACT 25)
- SAT Critical Reading 580 (or ACT English 25)
- SAT Math 530 (or ACT Math 22)
- High School Academic GPA 3.5

Students admitted to The Advanced Academy must have completed the necessary course-work to be considered on track in the College Preparatory Curriculum. Also required is a completed application <http://www.advancedacademy.org/> that includes the written recommendation of their high school principal or guidance counselor, and the written consent of a parent or guardian, and two teacher recommendations.

No student who is required to participate in screening for learning support courses may be admitted. For more information or to apply for admission, contact the Director of The Advanced Academy, Gunn Hall, 678-839-6249.

The Hope Accel Program

Funded by State appropriations and administered by the Georgia Student Finance Commission, Accel helps fund early-entrance course work. Courses pursued by students in the Accel Program must come from the approved course directory available at www.gacollege411.org. Complete Accel Program Regulations and eligibility rules can also be found at www.gacollege411.org. For more detailed information regarding Accel at the University of West Georgia, visit: www.westga.edu/admiss.

Advanced Placement, College Level Exam Programs, Departmental Exams, Cambridge International "A" Levels, and International Baccalaureate (IB) Exams

The Advanced Placement (AP) Program is available through many high schools and enables a high school student to earn credit toward college in a variety of subjects. Usually these courses are equivalent to college freshmen/sophomore level courses such as American Government, World History, Composition, and so forth. College credit will be awarded based on standardized exams administered at the high schools in mid to late May. If you have questions, contact the Admissions Office.

High school students who earn AP exam scores of 3 or higher (on a scale of 1-5) on most exams and who submit official score reports to the University of West Georgia will automatically receive credit for coursework. Scores of 4 or higher are required to receive credit for history exams. Scores of 4 or 5 count as "Honors credit." For a list of scores accepted by UWG and the UWG course equivalents, please visit the UWG Registrar's Office website at <http://www.westga.edu/registrar>.

The College Level Examination Program (CLEP) is offered at West Georgia by appointment and allows persons to earn college credit by achieving appropriate cutoff scores on nationally standardized exams. Exams available cover a range of courses including math, history, government, literature, and sciences. For a list of scores accepted by UWG and the UWG course equivalents, please visit the UWG Registrar's Office website at <http://www.westga.edu/registrar>. Test registration information is available through the Testing Office (678-839-6435).

As with AP testing, CLEP is a great way to earn college credit. Not only will a person save time by not having to take a course containing material he already knows, but he will also save money by not having to pay for a college class. Thus, CLEP enables a student to move through his or her freshman and sophomore years at a faster pace.

International Baccalaureate (IB) scores are also reviewed for possible college credit. Credit is awarded International Baccalaureate (IB) Higher Level tests with a score of 5 or higher. In some areas of study, credit is awarded for scores of 4. Credit is awarded IB Standard Level tests with a score of 6 or higher if the student completes the IB diploma. Please see specific course equivalencies on the Registrar's Office web page at <http://www.westga.edu/registrar/> Freshman and sophomore level credit is awarded for the Cambridge International "A" levels. Please contact the Assistant Registrar for Transfer Equivalency <http://www.westga.edu/registrar/> for more details.

Note: CLEP, AP, and IB scores for equivalent credit may be viewed on the UWG's Registrar's Website at <http://www.westga.edu/registrar/>

Departmental Exemptions

Several academic departments offer credit by examination, such as the English and Math Departments (see requirements below). The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures also allows students to exempt certain introductory foreign language courses. Interested students should contact these departments directly.
English Placement

Students whose old *SAT Critical Reading is at least 430, but less than 570 will take ENGL 1101. Likewise, students whose ACT English is at least 17, but less than 25 will take ENGL 1101. *For purpose of placement credit, RSAT scores will be converted to the old SAT scoring format.

Any student who scores a minimum 570 on the old *SAT Critical Reading (ACT 25) and has at least a 3.0 academic grade point average is eligible to write the English Exemption Essay. Based on this test score, a student can exempt ENGL 1101. ENGL 1102 may also be exempted. *For purpose of placement credit, RSAT scores will be converted to the old SAT scoring format.

Advanced placement with credit is offered through AP English courses taught in high school and the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), for which West Georgia is a testing center. Additional information is available through the Office of Testing, telephone 678-839-6435.

Mathematics Placement

Students whose old *SAT Math score is at least 410 but less than 480 or whose ACT Math score is 17-19 will take MATH 1101 or MATH 1111 as appropriate to their major unless approved for a higher core math course. *For purpose of placement credit, RSAT scores will be converted to the old SAT scoring format.

Any student who scores a minimum 480 on the old *SAT Math or 20 on the ACT Math and has completed at least four years of high school mathematics, including Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and one year of Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry, may be eligible to exempt without credit MATH 1111 (College Algebra) or MATH 1113 (Precalculus). The beginning mathematics course will be determined by the student's major and background in consultation with an advisor. For more information, see "Mathematics SAT Score for determining Course Placement and Credit" in the Undergraduate Academic Policies Section. *For purpose of placement credit, RSAT scores will be converted to the old SAT scoring format.

Advanced placement with credit in mathematics courses is offered through AP mathematics courses taught in high school and the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), for which West Georgia is a testing center. Additional information is available from the Director of Testing, telephone 678-839-6435.

Honors College

<http://www.westga.edu/honors/>

The Honors College is for students who have demonstrated academic success in high school. Entering freshmen who attain high scores on the SAT or the ACT, as well as a very good high school academic record in college preparatory courses, are automatically invited to become members of the program. For more detailed information, see the Honors College Chapter on page 55 of this catalog or <http://www.westga.edu/honors/>.

Transfer Student

A transfer applicant is one who has been enrolled in any regionally accredited college or university. All previous college attendance must be reported at the time of application. Those who have earned fewer than 45 quarter hours/30 semester hours of transferable work or the equivalent will be asked to comply with both freshman and transfer requirements for admission (see freshman requirements for additional details).

A transfer applicant should request the registrar of each college or university he or she has attended to send a transcript to the Office of Admissions. Credits from one former institution appearing on the transcript of another institution can neither be officially evaluated for admission nor accepted for credit until a transcript has been received from the institution originating the credit.

Transfer students will be considered for admission on the basis of their previous college records:

1. They must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 in all transferable college work attempted (non-traditional transfer students with greater than 45 quarter hours/30 semester hours of transferable work may be considered with a lower GPA on a case-by-case basis in order to determine their ability to be successful).
2. Students not meeting the minimum GPA requirement may be admitted if they hold an associate degree in a college transfer program from an accredited college and if they have not attempted any college coursework since completing the associate degree.

3. Students must be in good social and academic standing at their former institutions. Students who have been away from high school for less than five years must have completed all RHSC deficiencies and/or Learning Support requirements prior to being admissible and show both English and math proficiency through course credit. Students who have been away from high school for greater than five years may prove proficiency in English, Reading, and Math either through placement testing, valid SAT/ACT scores (less than seven years old), or completion of college coursework. Transfer students from an out-of-state institution may also prove proficiency via the placement test on a case by case basis. Please contact the Admissions Office for further policy details.
4. Admission acceptance by the Office of Admission does not guarantee admission to a specific program or department.

Transfer credit is normally awarded for all college work earned through any college or university approved by its regional accrediting association, so long as similar credit is offered at West Georgia. Credit earned at a post-secondary institution that is not regionally accredited may be accepted at West Georgia if the course work is similar to course work in the student's degree program at West Georgia and if the course work is deemed to be collegiate level work. Credit earned at proprietary schools and technical institutions that are not Commission of Colleges (COC) accredited is not reviewed for transfer credit. The following stipulations on the transfer of credit are upheld:

The amount of academic credit that the University will allow for work done in another institution within a given period of time may not exceed the normal amount of credit that could have been earned at the University during that time. The maximum number of academic hours accepted is 90 from all institutions. Not more than a combined total of 30 hours of extension, correspondence work and military education/training will be accepted.

1. The amount of academic credit that the University will allow for work done in another institution within a given period of time may not exceed the normal amount of credit that could have been earned at the University during that time. The maximum number of academic hours accepted is 90 from all institutions. Not more than a combined total of 30 hours of extension, correspondence work and military education/training will be accepted
2. According to Board of Regents policy, if a student transfers to West Georgia with an A.A. or A.S. degree from an institution within the University System of Georgia, he/she will receive full credit for having completed Core Areas A - F. If the major differs between the A.A. or A.S. degree program and the major the student decides to pursue at West Georgia, there may be additional courses required at the 1000 or 2000 level that are specific to that degree major and/or are prerequisite for higher level courses that the student would have to take (example: Some majors require the student to have had Precalculus or Calculus I in order to enroll in some higher level courses in the program of study. If the student had College Algebra as a part of his/her A.A. or A.S. program, he/she would still receive credit for having completed the Math section of Area A of the Core, but he/she would still be required to take Precalculus or Calculus I to complete the requirements of the major.). The Core credit policy does not apply to career degrees (A.A.S. and A.S.); in those cases, each course is evaluated individually and credit is given in areas where comparable courses are offered at West Georgia, including some courses that may be counted as Core or electives.

3. Dual/Joint Enrollment Credit: College credit earned at an accredited institution prior to high school graduation will be considered as transfer credit if the student was enrolled as a joint enrollment/early admission student.
4. Transfers from Technical College System of Georgia Colleges
 The Board of Regents and the Technical College System of Georgia have entered into an agreement referred to as the "Mini-Core Project." The agreement states that course credits for basic skills courses in English and mathematics with common course content will be transferable between schools in the University System of Georgia and COC-accredited institutions in the Technical College System of Georgia. Comparable placement and exit test results will be honored between the two systems as well.
 The transfer agreement is effective for students from COC-accredited Technical College System of Georgia institutions who have taken ENG 191 and/or MAT 190 or 191 since January 2002, and who meet the minimum test score requirements for exemption from developmental studies, or successfully complete and meet the minimum test score requirements for exit from developmental studies English and/or mathematics. Courses other than those approved for the mini-core agreement will be evaluated on an individual basis for possible transfer credit.
 In order to be eligible for mini-core transfer credit, students must have earned satisfactory scores on either placement or exit tests.
 Students with minimum old SAT Critical Reading 430; RSAT Reading Section 24 (ACT 17) + SAT Math 410; RSAT Math 450 (ACT 17) + high school diploma/GED and four years of college prep English, Algebra I and II, and Geometry, and a college prep math higher than Algebra II will be exempt from placement testing.
 Exit from Learning Support at a COC-accredited TCSG institution will be honored if the student has a record of meeting the TCSG minimum test score requirement for exit at UWG within the past year.
5. Students who apply for undergraduate admission and have attended a non-accredited institution will be requested to provide an official transcript from that institution. For the purposes of the evaluation of credit, the Admissions Office will request the student provide a catalog, course syllabi, and the names and credentials of the faculty who taught their courses. The student may be able to obtain this information from the institution's Website. The Admissions Office will forward all materials received to the Registrar's Office for review of credit. Lower division courses will be evaluated by the Registrar's Office and credit awarded based upon the materials provided by the student. The decision to award credit may be referred to the appropriate department in some cases. Upper division courses will be evaluated by the appropriate academic department. Departmental decisions on UWG equivalents are final. There is no appeal beyond the departmental level.
6. Provided all other stipulations regarding transfer credits are met, West Georgia will grant transfer credit for the following:
 All courses with grades of "C" or better
 All Core Curriculum courses earned at University System institutions with grades of "D" or better, with the exception noted in #7 below
 Other courses with grades of "D" provided the average for all academic courses being transferred does not fall below "C"
7. A grade of "D" in English composition is not acceptable.
8. Credit for specific courses designated as major courses will not be allowed unless grades are "C" or above.

9. A grade of "C" or above is required for all professional sequence courses in education and those courses listed under content field. None of the professional education sequence may be completed by extension or correspondence.
10. Students who experience problems with transfer of credit should contact the Registrar's Office to determine the nature of the problem. If the problem is not resolved, students should contact the University Chief Transfer Officer to seek resolution to the problem.
11. The University System of Georgia Board of Regents authorizes the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs to make decisions about exceptions on a case-by-case basis when questions arise about course substitutions in the Core curriculum.

Transfer course equivalencies may be viewed at <http://westga.edu/> transfer then click "transfer." Courses listed reflect results from previously reviewed transcripts and in no case should this list be considered a final and/or a complete listing.

Transient Student

A student who has taken work in a college or university may apply for the privilege of temporary registration. Such a student is one who expects to return to the college or university in which he or she was previously enrolled. The normal application procedure consists of filing an application form with a $40 non-refundable fee for each semester of transient study. The dean or registrar of the college where the student has been enrolled must give written approval for the student to attend West Georgia.

The following policies shall govern the admission of a transient student:

An applicant will be accepted as a transient student only when it appears that the applicant's previous academic work is of satisfactory quality. A student must not be under suspension or exclusion from the previous institution.

1. Enrollment as a transient student is limited to one semester. Exceptions may be made by special permission of the Admissions Office and with special approval of the dean of the institution from which the student comes. Application for readmission as a transient student for the second semester must be submitted to the Office of Admissions by the semester application and document deadline date.
2. Transient approval for a second consecutive term will be considered only when evidence is submitted to the Office of Admissions that the applicant meets full transfer admission requirements.
3. Transient students desiring to continue as transfer students must apply through the Admissions Office by the semester application and document deadline date and satisfactorily complete the transfer requirements listed above.
4. Since a university's primary obligation is to its regularly enrolled students, West Georgia will consider the acceptance of transient students only when their acceptance will cause no hardship or inconvenience to the institution or its regularly enrolled students.
5. Transient students are not eligible for financial assistance (grants, loans, HOPE scholarship, etc.) through the University of West Georgia. Transient students must make financial assistance arrangements with their "home" institution.
6. Transient students -who are not seeking a UWG degree- register on the first day of on-time/open registration.

Unclassified Student

All applicants who hold baccalaureate degrees should apply for admission through the Admissions Office.

Students accepted by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions as unclassified/post baccalaureate are only required to show academic proof of a degree for admittance but are not eligible for financial aid consideration. Unclassified students are eligible to begin registering for courses three days prior to the start of each semester. A student admitted as Unclassified, and who wishes to seek an undergraduate degree from UWG, must reapply for transfer admission to the Undergraduate Office of Admissions and must meet University transfer admission requirements. The undergraduate transfer application and transcripts from each college attended must be received by the announced application and document deadline date.

Auditor

Auditors are students who enroll as observers or listeners only. They are regarded as official visitors and are eligible to begin registering for courses three days prior to the start of each semester. An application form must be submitted to the Office of Admissions (including a $40 non-refundable fee) prior to the application deadline date of the semester for which they plan to enroll. Auditors who do not stay continuously enrolled must reapply each term they wish to be an auditor. The minimum requirement for participation as an auditor is verification of graduation from an accredited high school or the possession of a GED certificate. Credit is not awarded for audit and no grade other than V (symbol for audit) is given. Auditors pay the regular fees for enrollment. Students are prohibited from receiving credit for courses for which they were registered as auditors unless the course is repeated for credit.

International/Permanent Resident Student

An international applicant is defined as an individual that is not a 'legally domiciled resident' of the United States and plans to pursue studies on an F-1 (student) or J-1 (exchange student) visa. A permanent resident is an applicant from another country who has obtained permanent residency in the United States (holds a "green card"). It is recommended that international students apply four (4) to six (6) months prior to the semester of desired enrollment. UWG supports the concept of international education and welcomes applications from all students. Please note the following requirements for international and permanent resident applicants:

International Beginning Freshman

1. All applicants, regardless of immigration status, whose native language is not English, must meet English language proficiency requirements. This requirement can be fulfilled by submitting results from one of the approved English Language Proficiency options listed below.
2. Students who identify as native English speakers are exempt from having to provide an English Language Proficiency document. Native speaking students will need to submit official scores from either the SAT or ACT academic examination. Minimum SAT/ACT score requirements for freshman or transfer freshman admission are: SAT Critical Reading-430 and SAT Math-410; ACT English-17, and ACT Math-17. It is the policy of the Office of Admissions to take a student's best Critical Reading/English and best math score should the student take the SAT or ACT more than once; however, SAT scores and ACT scores cannot be "mixed" in determining admission eligibility.
3. The University System of Georgia requires completion of a College Preparatory Curriculum from an accredited institution for Freshman admission. A student applying while in high school should have a transcript of work through the junior year sent to the Admissions Office at the time of application. Students completing secondary school must provide official copies of their transcripts to the University of West Georgia for evaluation. If this official copy is not in the English language, it must be accompanied by a certified translation to the English language. The University of West Georgia reserves the right to request for a formal Academic Credential Evaluation of transcripts/documents submitted to the University as part of a student's application. If requested, the student must provide an evaluation of secondary school credentials that has been completed by a service belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES).

4. All students, regardless of immigration status, are required to obtain a foreign credential evaluation of university/post-secondary education that is not awarded by a recognized institution holding United States accreditation. The student must provide an evaluation of these credentials that has been completed by a service belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). University/Post-secondary education must include a course-by-course evaluation, and a GPA conversion.
5. International applicants, which require sponsorship for an F-1 or J-1 visa, must submit a copy of their passport and any previously issued United States visas as part of the application process.
6. International applicants, which require sponsorship for an F-1 or J-1 visa, must submit financial documentation indicating evidence of sufficient funds available for study at UWG. These documents are not required to receive a decision on an application, but are required prior to the release of any documents needed for the visa application process.

International Transfer

1. Any international applicant who has completed a minimum of 45 quarter hours/30 semester hours of transferable work must submit an official copy of transcripts from all previously attended post-secondary institutions. If this institution is based internationally, and does not currently hold United States accreditation, the student must obtain an evaluation of these credentials that has been completed by a service belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). University/Post-secondary education must include a course-by-course evaluation, and a GPA conversion.
2. Applicants must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 in all transferable college work attempted. Students must also be in good social and academic standing at their former institutions.
3. Admission acceptance by the Office of International Student Admissions & Programs does not guarantee admission to a specific program or department.
4. Students are eligible to apply for transfer credit based on previously completed studies. Please see the University of West Georgia's transfer credit policy located in the "Transfer Student" policy.
5. International applicants, which require sponsorship for an F-1 or J-1 visa, must submit a copy of their passport and any previously issued United States visas as part of the application process.
6. International applicants, which require sponsorship for an F-1 or J-1 visa, must submit financial documentation indicating evidence of sufficient funds available for study at UWG. These documents are not required to receive a decision on an application, but are required prior to the release of any documents needed for the visa application process.

*English language proficiency requirements (submit 1 of the following):

- Official test results from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum score of 193 computer-based, 523 paper-based, or 69 internet-based (www.toefl.org or 609-771-7100)

- Official test results from the "Academic" variant of the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) with a minimum score of 6.
- Official test results from the "Academic" variant of the Pearson Test of English (PTE) with a minimum score of 53.
- Official test results from the Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English (CAE) with a minimum score of 52.
- Official test result from the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE) with a passing score.
- Official test score of the Michigan English Language Assessment Battery (MELAB) with a minimum score of 77.
- Official test results from the EIKEN Test in Practical English Proficiency (EIKEN) with a minimum score of Pre-1.
- A Georgia State Test of English Proficiency (GSTEP) recommendation for full academic admission, administered by Georgia State University (404-651-3650)
- Official certificate of successful completion of an Intensive English Program (IEP) offered by a university operated by the USG.
- A grade of "C" or better in a non-remedial, college level English course (ENGL 1101 equivalent or higher level course) from an accredited college or university in the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Australia, or New Zealand.
- Official score report from a Cambridge International Examination (CIE) or EdExcel IGCSE ("O" or "A" Level) English exam, with a minimum score of D.
- Official score report from one of the five UK examination boards offering GCSE and GCE English exam, with a minimum score of C.
- Three (3) years (9th, 10th & 11th grade) of English as a second language (ESL) and a grade of "C" or higher in a College Preparatory Senior (12th grade) English at an accredited high school in the United States. Four years of ESL at an accredited high school in the United States does not fulfill English language proficiency requirements.
- Exemptions from the above requirements can be considered in circumstances when a student has completed their education in the English medium, upon the approval of International Student Admissions and Programs.

In order to attract international students, the University may waive all or a part of the non-resident portion of tuition for select undergraduate international applicants who meet certain academic criteria. Upon acceptance, an international student may apply for this waiver with the office of International Student Admissions and Program (ISAP). A limited number of waivers are available, and not all eligible international applicants will receive a waiver. Students awarded a waiver must maintain minimum requirements, including GPA, and apply for a renewal of the waiver for each academic year of their study.

Enrollment of Persons 62 Years of Age or Older

Georgia residents 62 years of age or older may enroll as regular students in courses offered for resident credit on a space available basis without payment of fees, except for supplies, technology, laboratory, or shop fees. Space available will be determined by the institution. Students enrolled for credit that elect to participate in the campus health program, student activities program, or to use the parking facilities may be required to pay the appropriate fees. They must be residents of Georgia, 62 years of age or older at the time of registration, and they must present a birth certificate or comparable written documentation of age. A Certificate of Immunization is also required.

Such applicants must meet all University System and institutional admission requirements including high school graduation, SAT or ACT scores, and Learning Support enrollment exemption, when applicable, if they wish to enroll for credit. They will have all usual student and institutional records maintained and must meet all system, institutional, and legislated degree requirements, such as History and Constitution Instruction or Exams, if they are degree-seeking students.

Applicants who wish to enroll under this program should file an application for admission but should not pay the $40 application fee. They should write across the top of the application form Georgia resident 62 years of age or older and should submit proof of age and Georgia residency (GA Driver's License or other official document showing age and residency). Other requirements for admission as listed elsewhere in the Admission section of the catalog apply.

Readmission of Former UWG Student

Students who were previously enrolled, but have not been in attendance for three semesters, and students who have been academically suspended for one year or dismissed must apply for readmission with the Enrollment Services Center at least three weeks before the semester for which they are applying begins. Students who have attended another college or university since last attending West Georgia must submit official transcripts from each institution attended. Also, students previously enrolled as transient, Senior Enrichment, Gifted Junior, Advanced Academy, or seeking a second degree must reapply through the Office of Admissions. If the student desires to live in a university residence hall, he or she must submit a housing application with the required deposit to the Housing and Residence Life Office.

West Georgia students must obtain prior written approval from the dean of their respective school to take subsequent work for credit at any other institution if the student's intention is to apply such work toward a degree at West Georgia. See Transient Student Status under Undergraduate Academic Policies.

Readmission of UWG candidates for graduation or those who have recently graduated

Student records are marked inactive for the term immediately following their scheduled graduation. Currently enrolled students who are candidates for an upcoming graduation or students who have recently graduated must complete a readmission application to enroll in courses for the next or future terms. During the readmission application process, the student will be given the option of selecting to return as a degree seeking (2nd degree) or non-degree seeking (professional development) student.

Once the readmission application is processed, the student will need to meet with an academic advisor to be able to register for an upcoming semester. Students who are not currently enrolled will be able to register during the open registration period once they have been accepted and met with an academic advisor. See Registrar Calendar inside the SCOOP for registration dates.

Graduate Student Admission

Admission to a Graduate Program involves submitting to the Office of Admissions, an application and a $40 application fee. Each program has its own unique academic requirements. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Definition of a "Georgia Resident" for Purposes of Applying and Paying Fees

A student who is not a legal resident of the State of Georgia is charged out-of-state tuition. Hence, the determination of whether a student is classified in-state or out-of-state for tuition purposes is significant, and the applicant must indicate his or her classification on the application for admission. For more detailed information, see Regents' Policies Governing the Classification of Students.

Additionally, in accordance with Board of Regents Policy 4.3.4, all applicants who are accepted for admission or readmission to institution for fall 2011 or any academic semester thereafter, and who seek to be classified as in-state for tuition purposes, will be required to provide validation of residency and lawful presence in both the state of Georgia and the United States.

Financial Aid

www.westga.edu/finaid

The primary purpose of financial aid programs is to provide assistance to those whose personal and family resources are not sufficient to pay for the total cost of their education. Federal and state governments, the University, foundations, companies, and individuals provide these funds for worthy students. The university community also believes that academic excellence should be rewarded, and, as a result, some scholarships are awarded each year based exclusively on merit.

All applicants interested in federal and state financial aid programs must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and any required documentation regarding their own and their family's financial resources. The exact composition of an aid package depends upon several factors. The extent of a student's financial need, the availability of funds, the student's academic record, and the date of application may affect the aid package. In order to receive financial aid at the University of West Georgia, students must be in good academic standing or they must be accepted for admission.

The principal programs available to the University of West Georgia students are outlined below. More detailed information can be found in the current brochure, Financial Aid Guide. To obtain more information, write to the Department of Financial Aid, telephone the office at 678-839-6421, or visit the website at www.westga.edu/finaid. Questions may be sent by e-mail to finaid@westga.edu.

Financial assistance is not available to those admitted to the University of West Georgia as transient or non-degree post baccalaureate students.

Academic Requirements for Receiving Financial Aid

In order to qualify for financial aid, students must have a high school diploma or GED or have completed homeschooling at the secondary level.

Maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements are meant to ensure that students are able to complete their academic program in a timely manner through achieving minimum academic standards. In an age of increasing accountability for the use of federal, state, and institutional student aid funds, institutions of higher education and their students must demonstrate that financial aid funds are being used to assist students in efficiently completing their academic goals. The University of West Georgia (UWG) has developed the following Satisfactory Academic Progress policy for Financial Aid recipients to encourage student success and accountability in the use of Financial Aid funds for educational purposes. While the University of West Georgia maintains an academic progress policy for the determination of a student's continued academic eligibility for enrollment purposes, the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy for Financial Aid purposes may be more stringent in some components in order to maintain compliance with Federal Student Aid regulations (34 CFR 668.34).

1. Consistency of Application of SAP Standards

Unless otherwise noted, the SAP requirements as stated apply to all students regardless of the student's receipt of financial aid funds, the student's academic classification as an undergraduate or graduate student, or the student's academic program. Exceptions (as noted below) will include but are not limited to the minimum GPA requirement and maximum time frame hours for graduate students.

2. Frequency of SAP Evaluation The UWG Financial Aid Office will evaluate all students' Satisfactory Academic Progress status at the conclusion of each term of enrollment. At UWG, the term of enrollment is the semester. Students enrolled in summer semester will be evaluated for SAP at the conclusion of the summer semester.
3. Grade-Point Average (GPA) Requirement
 1. Undergraduate students will be evaluated each semester on the basis of cumulative GPA and the total number of hours attempted. Hours transferred will be included in determining the total hours attempted; however, the cumulative GPA will be computed only on the work completed at UWG (institutional GPA). The cumulative GPA required to maintain SAP for the total number of hours attempted is given below:
 - 0 - 30 attempted hours = 1.8 minimum institutional GPA
 - 31 - 60 attempted hours = 1.9 minimum institutional GPA
 - 61 attempted hours & above = 2.0 minimum institutional GPA
 2. Graduate students will be evaluated each semester on the basis of cumulative institutional GPA. The minimum cumulative GPA required to maintain SAP is 3.00.
 3. Impacts on GPA regardless of undergraduate or graduate level:
 - Transfer credits will not be included in the quality points or GPA hours. The GPA standard is based on UWG credits only.
 - The first 30 hours of Learning Support (remedial) credits will be excluded from the GPA calculation.
 - Incomplete courses taken at UWG will be excluded from the GPA calculation.
 - Grades of W will be excluded from the GPA calculation (not from the pace of progression requirement; see next section)
 - Grades of F or WF will count in the GPA calculation as 0 quality points.
 - For courses which are repeated at UWG, the last attempt will count in the GPA calculation.
 - These Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress standards do not consider an Academic Renewal GPA. All prior institutional grades are included in the SAP GPA.
4. Pace of Progression

All students will be evaluated each semester to determine that they are making satisfactory pace of progression through their academic program. A minimum 67% cumulative completion ratio will be required at each evaluation period. Pace of progression is defined as the ratio of the cumulative number of credit hours completed divided by the cumulative number of credit hours attempted:

Cumulative hours earned/Cumulative hours attempted \geq 67%

- Transfer credits accepted toward the student's UWG academic program will count as both earned and attempted hours in the calculation of the pace of progression ratio.

- The first 30 hours of Learning Support (remedial) credits will be excluded from the calculation of the pace of progression ratio.
- Incomplete courses taken at UWG will not count as earned hours but will count as attempted hours in the calculation of the pace of progression ratio.
- Withdrawn courses (grades of W or WF) taken at UWG will not count as earned hours but will count as attempted hours in the calculation of the pace of progression ratio.
- Failed courses (grades of F) taken at UWG will not count as earned hours but will count as attempted hours in the calculation of the pace of progression ratio.
- All repeated courses will count as attempted hours in the pace of progression ratio. Whether the repeated course counts as earned hours will depend on the status of the first attempt:

> First attempt not successfully completed, subsequent attempt not successfully completed = neither course counts as earned credits, both courses count as attempted credits.

> First attempt successfully completed, subsequent attempt also successfully completed = one course counts as earned credits, both courses count as attempted credits.

> First attempt not successfully completed, subsequent attempt successfully completed = one course counts as earned credits, both courses count as attempted credits.

5. Maximum Time Frame

A student must complete their degree requirements within a specified number of attempted hours per the table below:

Degree Program	Maximum Attempted Hours
Bachelor's Degree	180 attempted hours
Master's Degree (36-hour program)	54 attempted hours
Additional Master's Degree	40 attempted hours
Ed.S. (Education Specialist) Degree	41 attempted hours
L5 Certificate (in Addition to Degree)	21 additional attempted hours
Speech Language Pathology (2-year track)	78 attempted hours
Psychology - Option I (Thesis)	59 attempted hours
Psychology - Option II (Non-Thesis)	72 attempted hours
Psychology - Option II (Licensure)	92 attempted hours
Ed.D. (Doctoral Degree in Education)	81 attempted Hours
Ph.D. (Doctoral Degree)	117 attempted hours

- A student who is pursuing two majors or a major with minor(s) is still subject to the above Maximum Time Frame limitations.
- An undergraduate student who is pursuing two undergraduate degrees (concurrently or separately) will be granted an extension to 240 attempted hours. No extension of maximum attempted hours is permitted for more than two undergraduate degrees.
- A master's degree student who is pursuing an additional master's degree (concurrently or separately) will be granted an extension of 40 attempted hours above the first master's degree requirement. No extension of maximum attempted hours is permitted for more than two master's degrees.

- Graduate students above the master's degree will only be permitted the maximum attempted hours for the programs outlined above.

6. SAP Status

- A student's SAP status will be evaluated at the completion of each term of enrollment. At UWG, the term of enrollment is the semester. Students enrolled in summer semester will be evaluated for SAP at the conclusion of the summer semester. At each evaluation period, one of the following SAP statuses will be assigned:
- Satisfactory - Student is meeting the GPA, Pace of Progression, and Maximum Time Frame requirements. Student is eligible to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid.
- Warning - Student is not meeting either the GPA or Pace of Progression requirements (or both). Student is eligible to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid for one semester only. Continued eligibility beyond the warning semester will be contingent on the student bringing the deficient requirements to the required minimum standards.
- FA Suspension - Student is not meeting either the GPA or Pace of Progression requirements (or both) after a Warning semester. Student is not eligible to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid until the deficient requirements return to the required minimum standards.
- Maximum Time Frame Warning - Student is within 10 attempted hours of the allotted attempted hours for Maximum Time Frame for the student's degree program. Student is eligible to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid until the completion of the semester during which allotted attempted hours is crossed.
- Maximum Time Frame - Student has exceeded the number of attempted hours for the academic program. Student has exhausted all eligibility to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid.
- FA Probation - Student placed on FA Suspension or Maximum Time Frame provided an SAP Appeal which was approved by UWG review procedures. Student must complete the requirements of an academic plan which will be monitored by the Financial Aid Office in conjunction with other academic support offices. Student is eligible to continue receiving federal, state, and institutional financial aid for one semester only in coordination with the details of the academic plan. The student's continued eligibility beyond the probation semester will be determined at the conclusion of each semester in coordination with the details of the academic plan.

7. Appeals

A student who has been placed on FA Suspension or Maximum Time Frame may appeal the SAP status decision only in cases of extenuating circumstances. Examples of extenuating circumstances for which a student may file an SAP appeal may include a student's injury or illness, serious illness or death of an immediate family member, or other special circumstances. Each SAP appeal will be reviewed individually and decisions are made on a case-by-case basis as outlined in the procedures given below.

The SAP appeal process requires the submission of a written statement by the student outlining the extenuating circumstances which led to their academic difficulties, how the circumstances have now changed, and the student's plan for improving the academic status. The written statement must be typewritten, signed by the student, and must specifically address the courses, grades, and terms of enrollment which are affecting the insufficient SAP standing. The appeal must be accompanied by supporting documentation from at least two individuals who can corroborate the student's circumstances. If the documentation is provided by a professional (business, medical, counselor, clergy, etc.), the documentation must include the institution's professional letterhead, the professional's credentials, and must be signed. If a letter of support is provided by a personal reference (teacher, family friend, etc.), the documentation must be signed by that reference.

SAP appeals will be reviewed by a UWG committee comprised of FA staff and other faculty/staff representatives. A student who wishes to appeal the decision of the SAP Appeals Committee may submit a second appeal to the Director of Financial Aid. The decision of the Director of Financial Aid is final.

If a student's SAP appeal is granted by either the SAP Appeals Committee or the Director of Financial Aid, the student will gain eligibility for continued federal, state, or institutional Financial Aid eligibility for one semester only. The student and a representative from the Financial Aid Office will work cooperatively with the student's academic advisor and the Center for Academic Success to put together an academic plan that will be monitored throughout the semester to be sure the student is making proper academic progress. In cases where it is mathematically impossible to bring the GPA or Pace of Progression ratio to required standards within one semester, the academic plan may be developed across multiple semesters, but it will be evaluated at the conclusion of each semester to be certain that the requirements at each checkpoint are being properly achieved by the student. If a student's SAP appeal is denied by either the SAP Appeals Committee or the Director of Financial Aid, the student will not be eligible for federal, state, or institutional financial aid until the student returns the GPA and Pace of Progression ratio to required standards.

8. Notification of SAP Status

At each SAP evaluation period, the student's SAP status will be recorded in BanWeb. Students who are placed on FA Probation, FA Suspension, or Maximum Time Frame will be notified via e-mail to their UWG email account as well as via a postal letter mailed to the permanent address as recorded in BanWeb. Students who are placed on FA Warning will be notified via e-mail to their UWG email account. All notifications will occur within 3 weeks of the conclusion of the semester against which SAP is evaluated.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

The University of West Georgia requires that a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) be submitted by each student who applies for federal or state financial assistance each academic year. This form is evaluated by a central processing center using federal guidelines. The University uses this information as one of the main factors in the determination of a financial aid package for the individual student. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid may be submitted on-line at www.fafsa.gov.

Federal Government Programs

All federal programs are subject to change including cancellation and reduction of funds.

Federal Perkins Loan

This loan is awarded by The University of West Georgia to students who demonstrate extreme financial need and are enrolled at least half-time. No repayments are due and no interest accrues until nine months after the student graduates, leaves the University, or ceases to be a half-time student. The simple interest rate is five percent. The minimum repayment is $40 per month, providing the entire loan can be repaid within ten years. A portion of the debt may be cancelled for teaching in certain communities or neighborhoods, or teaching in a Head Start or special education program.

For information concerning repayment, contact the Bursar's office, 678-839-4737.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG)

FSEOG funds are awarded by The University of West Georgia to Pell Grant recipients with exceptional financial need.

Federal Pell Grant

The Federal Pell Grant program provides federal grants to help eligible students meet their educational costs. Like all grants, the Federal Pell Grant does not have to be repaid and is awarded on the basis of need to students who are citizens or permanent residents of the United States without a previous bachelor's degree. The Federal Pell Grant award is based on hours of enrollment. To receive a full Federal Pell Grant award a student must be enrolled in at least twelve hours. Students are now limited to receive 600% of Pell awards.

Federal Work Study Program

This is a federal program through the University of West Georgia offering employment opportunities for students demonstrating financial need. The types of jobs available include clerical, technical, and manual labor as well as positions in the library and laboratories, and community services.

Federal Direct Subsidized Stafford Loan

The Federal Direct Stafford Loan program allows students to borrow money from the federal government at a low interest rate. Interest rates are fixed based on current federal Stafford loan rates. No repayments are due and no interest accrues until six months after the student graduates, leaves the University, or ceases to be a half-time student. Origination and processing fees are deducted from the loan amount borrowed.

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan

Any eligible student, regardless of need, may borrow from the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan Program. The annual loan limits are listed below and include any funds borrowed through the guaranteed program. Repayment of the loan is deferred as long as the student is enrolled at least half-time; however, interest on the loan continues to accrue while the student is enrolled in school. The interest can also be deferred, but would be compounded to the principal of the loan.

Listed below are the maximum amounts a student may borrow each academic year of college:

Freshmen (up to 29 earned hours)	$5,500
Sophomores (30-59 earned hours)	$6,500
Juniors and Seniors (60 or more earned hours)	$7,500
Provisional/Certification Students	$7,500
Graduate Students	$20,500

An independent student may borrow the following amounts from the unsubsidized loan in addition to the Federal Direct Stafford Loan limits:

Freshman/Sophomore	up to $4,000 a year
Junior/Senior	up to $5,000 a year
Provisional/Certification Students	up to $5,000 a year

 Not to exceed UWG costs of attendance for the academic year.*

Veterans and Dependent Benefits

GI Bill benefits are available to qualified veterans and family members of deceased or VA determined 100% disabled veterans. For information contact the Muskogee, OK Regional Veterans Administration Office, P.O. Box 8888, Muskogee, OK, 74402-8888, or telephone 1-888-827-1000. More information is also available by accessing the website www.gibill.va.gov.

Additional information may be found under Military-Connected Students on the Center for Adult Learners and Veterans website, <https://www.westga.edu/calv/>.

Veterans Certification

The VA School Certification Official (SCO), located in the Center for Adult Learners and Veterans (CALV), completes all GI Bill enrollment certifications for students participating in any of the Veterans Affairs educational assistance programs. As early as possible, preferably after being accepted by the university and at least one month before entering the university, any student planning on enrolling under one of these programs should contact the the SCO in CALV to initiate enrollment certification procedures. Students requesting enrollment certification for the first time should already be in possession of a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the VA. Each VA educational assistance program has its own set of rules/guidelines and students should be prepared to sustain initial university costs since benefits will not begin until several weeks after certification. Veterans and family members planning to study using GI Bill benefits at the University of West Georgia should apply for admission as any other student. Eligibility for Veterans benefits has no direct relationship to the institution. All financial transactions are directly between the student and Veterans Affairs. The institution serves only as a source of certification and information to Veterans Affairs.

Students receiving Veterans benefits must adhere strictly to a planned program of study as indicated on the schools as well as all VA forms. Program changes must be reported promptly to the university's SCO in CALV.

Students receiving VA educational benefits are also required to report to the university's SCO in CALV any changes in course load; or interruptions in attendance in order to minimize personal liability resulting from overpayment of benefits. Veterans Affairs regulations indicate that students receiving benefits are expected to attend classes regularly.

Vocational Rehabilitation Benefits

Vocational Rehabilitation (Voc Rehab) benefits are provided to promote the employment possibilities for disabled individuals. Applicants may be eligible to receive grants covering tuition, fees, books, and supplies. For further information, contact the Atlanta Regional Voc Rehab Office at 1700 Clairmont Road, Decatur, GA 30033. The Center for Adult Learners and Veterans will work with VOC Rehab and the Bursar's Office to assist eligible students.

State of Georgia Programs

Hope Scholarships

The State of Georgia provides the HOPE Scholarship to students who have graduated from a Georgia high school since 1993 with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average on all core coursework. At 30, 60, or 90 attempted hours (including transfer work and GPA), a Georgia resident may gain eligibility for the HOPE Scholarship despite not meeting incoming freshman criteria. Students must use their HOPE scholarship within 7 years of graduating from High School. Students must complete the GSFAPP application found on the GACollege411.org website or the FAFSA. Students remain eligible if they maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 at 30, 60, and 90 attempted semester hours. All HOPE Scholarship recipients must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 at the end of each spring term in order to continue their eligibility. Exceptions are freshmen (1st tier) recipients who enrolled in less than 12 hours for each of their first three terms. The scholarship covers a portion of tuition only.

Zell Miller Scholarship

The Zell Miller Scholarship program is available to students who have graduated from a Georgia high school with a minimum 3.7 grade point average combined with a minimum score of 1200 on the math and reading portions of the SAT test or a 26 composite score on the ACT test in a single test administration. (Test score must have been prior to high school graduation) This is available to students who graduated after 2011 only. Students remain eligible if they maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.3 at 30,60, or 90 attempted semester hours. Zell Miller Scholarship recipients must have a cumulative GPA of 3.3 at the end of each spring term in order to continue their eligibility. The scholarship covers tuition only.

HOPE GED Voucher

Students who have received a GED since July 1, 1993, may be eligible for a one-time award and may gain the HOPE Scholarship once they have attempted 30, 60, or 90 hours.

Refund Policy

Refunds of fees and charges for COMPLETE withdrawal from the university will be based on a pro rata percentage determined by dividing the number of calendar days in the semester that the student completed by the total number of calendar days in the semester. Students who withdraw after 60% of the semester has been completed are not entitled to a refund of charges. Refund schedules and a copy of the Board of Regents policy may be obtained from the Bursar's office, the Enrollment Services Center (ESC), or the Financial Aid Office.

For any questions regarding this policy, contact the Bursar's office in Aycocock Hall or call 678-839-4737.

In order to meet Federal Regulations, all refunds will be credited back to Federal Title IV Programs, State Programs, and Private and Institutional Programs in the following order:

- Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan
- Direct Subsidized Stafford Loan
- Federal Perkins Loan
- Direct Plus Loan
- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal SEOG
- Other Title IV assistance
- State Programs

Scholarships

The University of West Georgia offers outstanding students a wide variety of academic and performing arts scholarships. Most scholarships are awarded solely on merit and performance. Some academic scholarships are available to students regardless of their major and others are for students majoring in particular fields. Still others are designed to encourage students from a specific county or minority group to attend West Georgia.

Performing arts scholarships are awarded to students in the fields of music, art, drama, and debate. Recipients are selected on a competitive basis by individual departments.

For more information on the scholarships offered through the Department of Financial Aid at the University of West Georgia, see the General Scholarship information, and download the application on-line at www.westga.edu/finaid between January 1st and March 1st each year.

Presidential Scholarships

The Presidential Scholarships are designed primarily to reward incoming freshmen who have demonstrated superior academic ability and potential for success at the University. For more information, see chapter labeled Honors College.

Private Scholarships

Scholarships may be available from private sources such as organizations, church groups, employers, and businesses. The UWG Financial Aid website lists several with information on qualifications, how to apply and deadlines. A limited number of search engines are also included.

Athletic Scholarships

University of West Georgia provides a number of athletic scholarships in several men's and women's sports in accordance with National Collegiate Athletic Association - Division II rules. Scholarship recipients are selected by the coaches of the various athletic teams.

Student Assistantships

These limited on-campus jobs are available regardless of financial circumstances. The types of jobs available are similar to those offered through the Federal Work Study Program.

Emergency Short-Term Loans

Short-term loan funds are available to assist currently enrolled students who need temporary financial assistance. The maximum amount a student may borrow depends upon the availability of funds but may not exceed $450 per semester. In general, loan funds are available within five to eight days. These loans must be repaid before the end of the semester. A minimal interest rate and/or service fee is charged. Previous borrowers may be denied an emergency short term loan if they have been delinquent on past loan repayments. Application is made through BANWEB. Contact the Bursar's office for additional information.

Honors College

Janet Donohoe, Dean
<http://www.westga.edu/honors/>
678-839-6636

The Honors College includes all Honors curriculum and activities, the Office of Undergraduate Research and is the clearing house for Presidential Scholarships and the Select Student program.

Honors College Curriculum and Activities

The Honors Program was initiated at West Georgia College in 1975. In 1999 the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia elevated the status of the program to Honors College thereby creating the first Honors College in the State of Georgia. Unlike the other undergraduate colleges (Arts and Humanities, Education, Science and Mathematics, Social Sciences, Richards College of Business, and Tanner Health System School of Nursing), the Honors College does not award degrees. Instead, like almost all other honors colleges in the United States, the Honors College offers a distinctive curriculum featuring two types of courses - special sections of courses required in the core curriculum and junior and senior seminars. Because Honors classes are small, they typically provide more opportunities for discussion and more individual attention than is possible in the regular curriculum. Honors courses are designed to offer more opportunities for research in preparation for graduate or professional school; consequently, they are more challenging, and they do place more responsibility on the individual student. The Honors College is open to students in all undergraduate degree programs offered by the University.

Admission to the Honors College is open to entering freshmen who meet any two of the following five criteria: (1) a composite SAT score of at least 1250 or an ACT Composite score of at least 26, (2) a minimum score of 35 on the Reading portion of the SAT or an ACT English score of at least 28, (3) a minimum score of 670 on the Math portion of the SAT or an ACT Math score of 28, (4) a minimum score of 33 on the Writing and Language portion of the new SAT/ or an ACT English Language Arts score of 26, (5) a high school grade point average of 3.5 or higher. SAT Scores for tests prior to March 5, 2016 will be converted to the Redesigned SAT scores based on the conversion table at sat.org/concordance. The Honors College is also open to any student who has completed 15 or more hours at West Georgia with an overall GPA of 3.2 or higher. To have a realistic chance of completing the Honors College Curriculum, however, students are strongly advised to enter no later than the beginning of their sophomore year.

To graduate with Honors College distinction, students must (1) earn credit for ten or more Honors courses, including two courses at the junior or senior level; (2) complete an Honors senior thesis or research project in their major; (3) maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.2 in Honors College courses and in all other academic work; (4) participate in community engagement and reflect on the impact of their contributions of service; (5) participate in undergraduate research. For additional details, visit <http://www.westga.edu/honors>. Completion of this distinctive curriculum is a mark of scholarly excellence and is appropriately recognized on all official West Georgia transcripts and diplomas. Honors College graduates are also recognized at commencement ceremonies where they alone may wear Honors College cords of the University's official colors of red and blue.

West Georgia's Honors College is affiliated with the National Collegiate Honors Council and conforms to its recommended policies and practices. For application materials and any other information, please contact the office of the Honors College Dean, Honors House.

Honors College Learning Environment and Outcomes

The Honors College enables undergraduate students to realize their full potential through academic rigor and scholarship, leadership development and community engagement.

The Honors College of the University of West Georgia is designed for highly motivated students who have demonstrated superior academic achievement and express a desire to continue on that path. Students accepted into the Honors College become immersed in a learning community, where they are expected to be actively engaged in an ongoing, interactive learning process with like-minded faculty and peers, both in and out of the classroom. To support and nurture such an environment, Honors classes are small, seminar-based, and taught by faculty members approved by the Honors College. Honors course work differs from general course work in both breadth and depth of exploration of subject matter, and as much as possible, inclusion of primary sources of information. Honors students are expected to exhibit and further develop genuine emotional and cognitive engagement in the learning process and reflect on the meaning of what they are learning in their own and others' lives, including a consideration of ethical ramifications when applicable. Ultimately, the goal of the program is to produce young adults who will become leaders and serve as transformation agents among their peers, in the campus community, and in the larger social world. To this end, all courses in the Honors College will incorporate one or more of the following learning outcomes:

- Students will demonstrate the ability to examine topics and issues from diverse perspectives.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to engage in higher order abstract, creative and critical thinking.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to explore, and if feasible, experiment with possible applications of their learning toward the solution of "real world" problems.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to explore and conduct discipline-specific independent research and creative activities using a variety of resources.
- Students will demonstrate superior oral and written communication skills.

UWG Honors College Academic Integrity Policy

Students in the Honors College at the University of West Georgia are expected to have exceptional academic integrity, based on honesty, trust, respect, fairness, and responsibility. Participation in the Honors College is based on academic performance, and all forms of cheating call into question the legitimacy of a student's grades. All Honors students are expected to adhere to the University's Honor Code and Policies of Academic Integrity. See Academic Honor section, or Connection and Student Handbook. Participation in the UWG Honors College is a privilege, as Honors students receive many advantages. Any violation of the University's Honor Code may result in "penalties up to and including" dismissal from the Honors College. All final decisions will be made by the Dean of the Honors College.

Select Students

The Select Student Program is intended for students who have demonstrated superior scholastic achievement and who wish to pursue advanced course work in an individualized curriculum in their majors under the guidance of their department chairs. A student who attains a 3.75 or above grade point average in the first 40-60 academic hours of credit at West Georgia is eligible to apply for the program. A Select Student must maintain a minimum cumulative average of 3.2.

A student seeking Select Student status must be recommended by his major department chair or the Honors College Committee and approved by the Office of the Honors College Dean. Students must make application to the department chair by the time they have earned 90 hours and obtain approval of specialized curriculum. A student completing the program will have Select Student designation recorded on the transcript. A Select Student may:

- take advanced courses without prerequisite;
- take designated courses which allow credit by validation for lower level courses;
- elect to substitute other courses for three credit hours of physical education activity courses;
- design with the chair of the major department a special course of study to meet major requirements.

Presidential Scholarships

Presidential Scholarships are funded by donations to the University managed by the University of West Georgia Foundation. They are intended primarily to reward incoming freshmen who have demonstrated superior academic ability in high school and potential for academic success at the University. These scholarships are renewed annually for four years or eight semesters, provided that the students continue to meet established Honors College academic criteria and remain on track to complete the Honors College curriculum requirements. For more detailed information, please contact the Honors College, Honors House, 678-839-0628.

Extended Learning

The Office of Extended Learning has responsibility for the administration of the Distance and Distributed Education (UWG Online), Continuing Education, and USG eCampus.

UWG Online/Distance Education

The University offers credit classes and degree programs to students at times and locations outside of the traditional classroom. The University of West Georgia was one of the first institutions in the University System of Georgia to offer partially, fully, or entirely at a distance credit course, courses which utilize the Internet to deliver course materials and assignments, and to facilitate discussion and other appropriate interactions. Distance Learning credit offerings are currently delivered partially, fully, or entirely at a distance through two-way live videoconferencing or through a combination of these technologies. They are primarily delivered online through CourseDen (<http://westga.view.usg.edu>). Online degree offerings, services and information for online students, and additional details are available at UWG Online (<http://uwgonline.westga.edu>).

By providing support for fully online and partially online courses and programs, UWG Online makes higher education a possibility for those who face obstacles to taking undergraduate or graduate courses in a traditional face-to-face classroom setting. UWG seeks to extend the ability to earn credit toward a degree or certification program to those whose life circumstances, such as work, family, or distance, make attending face-to-face traditional classes impractical. Through distance learning (online learning), students can attend class whenever and wherever is convenient to them, with just the use of a computer and an internet connection. UWG was one of the first public schools in the state to offer online classes in 1997. Today, our diverse student population is spread across the country and internationally.

Our online courses are web-based and allow students to interact with the instructor and other students through discussion boards, email, and other various online tools. Course notes, assignments, projects, and grades are delivered using an online course management tool referred to as CourseDen (Brightspace powered by Desire2Learn). Some courses incorporate live sessions through two-way live videoconferencing technologies or other synchronous technologies.

Many of our online courses are fully online and do not require students to travel to our campus or other instructional sites. However, some courses may be only partially online and may require you to travel to the main campus or other sites for an orientation, exams, or meetings. Be sure to check the 'instructional method' listed beside each course section in Banweb (the public course bulletin). Some instructors may require students to take proctored exams which can be taken at any approved testing center worldwide. Additional proctored testing site fees may apply, and tuition rates may be different. Review the special instructions noted in the online course bulletin, and review your bill carefully.

Online learning generally provides considerable freedom, allowing students to often choose when and where they'll participate in class activities. Nevertheless, online courses at UWG are not typically independent study or self-paced courses where students work by themselves or at their own pace. Each course has a syllabus and schedule to follow. Instructors specify the content to be covered in the course, dates for exams and quizzes, individual and group assignments, and other activities that students must complete by a particular date. Students who do not log in and participate by the initial participation deadline may be dropped for non-participation.

Online core courses - UWG offers options to meet all core course requirements completely online. Some of these online core courses are designed and taught exclusively by instructors at UWG while others may be part of a statewide initiative referred to as eCore (electronic core). eCore courses may include students from other University System of Georgia schools and may be taught by non-UWG instructors. Start dates, end dates, policies, and procedures may be different for eCore than for other UWG courses. See <http://ecore.westga.edu> or contact 678-839-5300.

Upper-division undergraduate courses - Some upper-division courses may be offered fully at a distance or 94-99% online, requiring one face to face meeting, while some are offered partially at a distance or 51-94% online. Others may be listed as Entirely at a Distance or 100% online. Always be sure to check the special instructions noted on the public course bulletin site: <http://banweb.westga.edu>

Online undergraduate degree program - Though many upper-level undergraduate courses are offered partially, fully, or entirely at a distance, UWG offers several hybrid programs, including a Bachelors of Business Administration in Marketing and a Bachelors of Business Administration in Real Estate. Five undergraduate programs are available completely online - the Bachelor of Science in Criminology, the Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership (eMajor), the Bachelor of Science in Political Science, Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN), and the Bachelor of Science in Sociology. In order to create the most convenient schedule possible, select undergraduate online programs are also taught on campus and allow students to enroll in both online and face-to-face courses. See https://uwgonline.westga.edu/academic_programs.php.

Other online offerings - UWG offers many other online degree programs and courses at the graduate and certificate levels. Online degree offerings, services and information for online students, and additional details are available at UWG Online (<http://uwgonline.westga.edu>).

A primary function of UWG Online/Distance and Distributed Education Center is to provide support services and training for faculty members and students participating in these courses. The Center also provides opportunities for collaboration and research for those who manage and administer Distance and Distributed Education programs throughout the nation through its online academic journal, its online non-credit certificate program, and its annual conference. For more information about Distance or Distributed Education (UWG Online), please visit the Honors House, telephone 678-839-6248, or visit <http://uwgonline.westga.edu>

For a complete description of student services, see the UWG Online Student Guide at: <http://uwgonline.westga.edu/online-student-guide.php>.

UWG Newnan Center

The Board of Regents approved and established a University of West Georgia off-campus center in Newnan, GA, in August 1988. The University began offering courses in the Georgia Power Company's Shenandoah Environment & Education Center in 1990. In 1998, Coweta County purchased the Shenandoah Center from Georgia Power as a permanent location for the University's exclusive use. In 2009, the Shenandoah Center was presented as a gift from Coweta County to the University System of Georgia Board of Regents and the University of West Georgia. The University utilized this site in the Shenandoah Industrial Park for 25 years. In the summer of 2015, UWG Newnan relocated to 80 Jackson Street in downtown Newnan into the historic Newnan Hospital which was renovated for University use. The $15M project was spearheaded by the City of Newnan in collaboration with Newnan Hospital, Inc., the University of West Georgia, USG Board of Regents, and Coweta County Commission. The new building includes a 120-seat lecture hall, classrooms, computer labs, science labs, seminar rooms, study areas, and nursing skills and simulation labs.

In addition to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing and the Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education, UWG offers undergraduate courses in the University's core curriculum at UWG Newnan. The renovated facility will provide access to over 3,000 students and allow expansion of current programs and addition of new ones, such as full or partial programs in criminology, undergraduate business, sociology and psychology. Through the ACCEL program, high-performing high school juniors and seniors are encouraged to "Go West Early" and enroll in core classes at UWG Newnan while still in high school.

UWG also offers graduate degrees in Newnan: Master of Business Administration and the Ed. S. in Educational Leadership.

Test Proctoring

UWG Newnan is a test proctoring site for eCore classes, UWG Online, and for online courses from other universities. For more information, visit the Test Proctoring page on the UWG Newnan website (<http://www.westga.edu/newnan/test-proctoring.php>).

Admission

The requirements for admission to UWG Newnan are the same as admission to the University. Applicants for undergraduate admission must consult the "Admissions" section in this catalog. Graduate students should see the Graduate Catalog for admission requirements for the Graduate School and the particular requirements of the degree program for which they are applying. The catalogs and applications are available online.

Registration

The course schedule for UWG Newnan is viewable on the University's schedule of classes each semester. Links to the Newnan section of the class bulletin can be found on the Center's website (www.westga.edu/newnan). Registration for UWG Newnan courses is conducted in the same way as for courses on the main campus. Students may register on Banweb during scheduled registration time. For more information, visit the Registrar's website (www.westga.edu/registrar).

Advising

Advising for eCore classes, and some general advising are offered at UWG Newnan. In addition, advisors from College of Education, RCOB, Tanner Health System School of Nursing, and Dual Enrollment may periodically schedule advising days at Newnan. For more information, visit the Advisement page on the UWG Newnan website (<http://www.westga.edu/newnan/advisement.php>).

Public Services

<http://www.westga.edu/conted>

Traditionally, public institutions of higher education state that they exist for the purpose of instruction, research, and public service. The public service mission has been paramount at West Georgia since its beginning. The faculty and staff have become well known for their efforts in extending the University into the communities of the West Georgia region. Furthermore, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia has placed special emphasis upon the role of public service and continuing education to serve as a catalyst for economic development.

Continuing Education and Public Services have emerged as an extension of the traditional on-campus learning process, available to adults wherever sufficient interest has been found. The Continuing Education/Public Services Department is responsible for coordinating and providing support relating to cooperative vocational and professional programs, institutes, workshops, conferences, and other community educational programs. Short courses and other non-credit studies, such as in-service training and customized training to local business and industry, are responsibilities of the Department of Continuing Education. Courses are conducted on campus and off campus with some in-plant workshops held at various facilities throughout the area and regularly feature West Georgia faculty as instructors.

The Department of Continuing Education

Traditionally, public institutions of higher education state that they exist for the purpose of instruction, research, and public service. The public service mission has been paramount at West Georgia since its beginning. The faculty and staff have become well known for their efforts in extending the University into the communities of the West Georgia region. Furthermore, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia has placed special emphasis upon the role of public service and continuing education to serve as a catalyst for economic development.

Continuing Education and Public Services have emerged as a non-degree extension of the traditional learning process. The Department of Continuing Education is responsible for the assessment, development, and implementation of non-degree programs for those who wish to improve their job skills or otherwise enhance their personal development. This includes the coordination of community educational programs, institutes, workshops, conferences, and specialized training programs which serve as a catalyst for economic development.

Continuing Education Unit

The Continuing Education Unit (CEU) is defined as ten contact hours of participation in a qualified continuing education program. The CEU is recognized as the national standard for measuring an individual's participation in and an institution's production of non-degree programs. The CEU may be used within an institution in at least three ways. First, the CEU serves as a unit of measure to recognize an individual's participation in non-degree activities that meet appropriate criteria. Second, the CEU may serve as the accounting unit of the institution's total non-degree courses, programs, and activities. Third, the implementation of CEU criteria provides the basis for quality assurance in continuing education programming. The University of West Georgia follows the criteria and guidelines as set forth by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Undergraduate Academic Policies

Academic Credit by Examination

The Advanced Placement (AP) Program is available through many high schools and enables a high school student to earn credit toward college in a variety of subjects. Usually these courses are equivalent to college freshmen/sophomore-level courses such as American Government, American History, Composition, and so forth. College credit will be awarded based on standardized exams administered at the high schools in mid to late May.

High school students who earn AP exam scores of 3 or higher (on a scale of 1-5) on most exams and who submit official score reports to West Georgia's Admissions Office will automatically receive credit for coursework. Scores of 4 or higher are required to receive credit for history exams.

The College Level Examination Program (CLEP) is offered at West Georgia by appointment and allows persons to earn college credit by achieving appropriate cutoff scores on nationally standardized exams. Exams available cover a range of courses including math, history, government, literature, and sciences. Test registration information is available through the Testing Office (678-839-6435).

As with AP testing, CLEP is a great way to earn college credit. Not only will a person save time by not having to take a course containing material he or she already knows, but the student will also save money by not having to pay for a college class. Thus, CLEP enables a student to move through his or her freshman and sophomore years at a faster pace.

Departmental Exams. A few of the academic departments at West Georgia also offer the opportunity for credit by examination. The English Department, for example, allows persons who feel confident about their writing skills to write an essay evaluated by a departmental committee. If a passing credential is earned, the person will be allowed to exempt English 1101 and/or 1102, depending on the score. The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures also allows students to exempt certain introductory foreign language courses. To receive credit by examination, the student must pay a fee of $6/credit hour fee.

Test dates vary, so interested persons should contact the departments (English 678-839-6512; Foreign Language 678-839-6515) for details.

Advanced Placement Policy (AP)

Advanced Placement (AP) scores must be reported to the University of West Georgia directly from the College Board. The UWG college code is 5900. More information can be found by visiting the College Board's website at <https://apcore.collegeboard.org/scores>.

Please refer to the chart below to determine course equivalency, credit earned, and exemption information.

Scores of 4 or 5 on AP exams are granted "Honors credit" for the UWG course equivalents. These courses count toward the 10 honors classes required for Honors College graduation.

Questions concerning the policy should be directed to the Registrar's Office Transfer Team by emailing transfer@westga.edu or calling (678) 839-6438.

Mathematics - Credit-by-Exam (SAT Score) for Determining Course Placement and Credit

Students who earn a score of 650 or higher on the Math-SAT are placed into MATH 1413 or MATH 1634. If a final grade of C or higher is earned in the UWG course on the first attempt, the student is awarded credit for the prerequisite math course. A fee of $6 per hour is assessed to transcript the credit.

Mathematics	Math-SAT Exam Score	Math Course Placement	Prerequisite Math Course	UWG Academic Credit
-------------	---------------------	-----------------------	--------------------------	---------------------

Mathematics	650 or higher	MATH 1413 Survey of Calculus	MATH 1111 College Algebra	A student who is placed into MATH 1413 on the basis of the Math-SAT score and earns a grade of C or higher on the first attempt will be awarded credit for MATH 1111 (3 credit hours).
Mathematics	650 or higher	MATH 1634 Calculus I	MATH 1113 Precalculus	A student who is placed into MATH 1634 on the basis of the Math-SAT score and earns a grade of C or higher on the first attempt will be awarded credit for MATH 1113 (4 credit hours).

Academic Honor Code

At West Georgia, the student is expected to achieve and maintain the highest standards of academic honesty and excellence. Not only does academic honesty preserve the integrity of both the student and the institution, but it is also essential in gaining a true education. The West Georgia student, therefore, pledges not to lie, cheat, steal, or engage in plagiarism in the pursuit of his or her studies and is encouraged to report those who do. See Connection and Student Handbook, Appendix E, Academic Dishonesty. The Pledge follows:

Pledge:

Having read the Honor Code for UWG, I understand and accept my responsibility to uphold the values and beliefs described and to conduct myself in a manner that will reflect the values of the Institution in such a way as to respect the rights of all UWG community members. As a West Georgia student, I will represent myself truthfully and complete all academic assignments honestly. I understand that if I violate this code, I will accept the penalties imposed, should I be found guilty of violations through processes due me as a university community member. These penalties may include expulsion from the University. I also recognize that my responsibility includes willingness to confront members of the University community if I feel there has been a violation of the Honor Code.

Academic Load (Course Load Limits)

Although a typical course load is 15 semester credit hours, a student may register for 18 semester credit hours without special permission (see summer exceptions below). A student on the Dean's List may register for 20 hours without special permission. Students within 30 credit hours of graduation with a cumulative average of 2.0 may carry up to the maximum of 21 credit hours for two semesters without special permission. A student who is required to enroll in Regents' Test remediation may not carry more than 18 credit hours. During the semester of student teaching, students may take one additional course. Students are advised not to take more than 10 credit hours if they work full time. Special permission must be obtained from the appropriate academic dean before any student may exceed loads authorized above. Academic deans may approve course loads of up to 25 semester credit hours in justifiable circumstances.

Due to varying session lengths for summer semester, the following schedule presents the maximum hours that can be taken by a student without special permission given by his or her dean. The maximum total load permitted for any combination of sessions without the permission of the appropriate dean is 18. If the student attends Session I for 6 hours, they can only enroll in an additional 12 hours total for the remaining sessions.

Session	Hours
Session I	6
Session II	18
Session III or IV	9 (each session)
Maximum Load for Summer Term (any combination)	18

Please note that some insurance and loan agencies require that students be enrolled full time (12 or more semester hours) in order to qualify for their services.

Academic Renewal

The Academic Renewal policy allows the University of West Georgia degree-seeking students who earned less than a 2.00 cumulative grade point average at the University of West Georgia to have one opportunity to make a fresh start at UWG after an absence of five calendar years from any postsecondary institution.

1. Students must apply for Academic Renewal.
 2. All previously attempted coursework continues to be recorded on the student's official transcript.
 3. An Academic Renewal Grade Point Average is begun when the student resumes taking coursework following the five-year period of absence once Academic Renewal has been granted. The institution will place a statement on the student's transcript indicating the Academic Renewal status and the beginning of a separate Academic Renewal GPA in addition to an overall UWG GPA.
 4. The Academic Renewal GPA will be used for determining academic standing and eligibility for graduation. At least 50% (60 hours) of course work must be completed after the granting of academic renewal for a student to be eligible for graduation with honors.
 5. Academic credit for previously completed coursework - including transfer coursework - will be retained only for courses in which an 'A', 'B', 'C', or 'S' grade was earned. Retained grades are not calculated in the Academic Renewal GPA, but are counted in Academic Renewal hours earned.
 6. Transfer credit
 1. Suspended/dismissed students: a student who has been suspended or dismissed from UWG and has attended one or more System institutions during the period of suspension or dismissal will not be eligible for Academic Renewal.
 2. Non-suspended/dismissed students: a student who has not been suspended or dismissed from UWG, but who has been absent from UWG five years or more and who has attended a school other than UWG may choose only one of the following options:
 - A student may return to UWG subject to all relevant transfer and reentry policies. No renewal GPA is calculated and transfer credit will be granted for applicable courses taken during the absence, or
 - A student may apply for Academic Renewal. If Academic Renewal status is approved, no transfer credit will be granted for course work completed during the absence.
1. To earn a degree, a student must meet the University of West Georgia's residency requirements. UWG will apply the retained hours earned prior to Academic Renewal toward the residency requirement.
 2. All remaining courses for the current degree objective must be completed at UWG. No transient credit will be accepted.
 3. A student can be granted Academic Renewal status only once.

4. Any previous notation of academic probation, suspension, and dismissal will remain recorded on the student's transcript.
5. A student re-enrolling after an absence of five or more years must apply for Academic Renewal within three semesters of enrollment or within one calendar year, whichever comes first.
6. The Academic Renewal GPA begins with the first term following re-enrollment.
7. Admission or re-entry into any specific degree program (such as teacher education, nursing, business majors, selected majors in the College of Arts and Humanities, Science and Mathematics, and Social Sciences) is not automatic. Admission criteria for specific programs are determined by the department where the program is housed.
8. The granting of Academic Renewal does not supersede financial aid policies regarding Satisfactory Academic Progress.
9. United States and Georgia history and constitution requirements and Regents' Test scores met prior to the granting of academic renewal will remain on the student's transcript even though the courses may not count in the Academic Renewal GPA or Academic Renewal hours earned.
10. Students desiring to enroll in a major offered by the College of Education must submit a letter explaining why they should be considered for Academic Renewal along with the Academic Renewal application.

Academic Standards of Progress

The University of West Georgia seeks to provide an environment suitable for promoting the systematic pursuit of learning. To ensure this primary goal, the University requires of its students, reasonable academic progress. The retention of those students who repeatedly demonstrate a lack of ability, industry, maturity, and preparation would be inconsistent with this requirement. Students will be evaluated each semester on the basis of cumulative grade point average and the total number of hours attempted. Hours transferred will be included in determining the total hours attempted; however, the cumulative grade point average will be computed only on the work completed at West Georgia (institutional grade point average (GPA)). The academic standing for a semester is not adjusted when a course taken that semester is subsequently repeated during a later semester and the first grade earned is re-moved from the calculation of the grade point average. The cumulative grade point average required for the total number of hours attempted is given below:

Hours Attempted	Grade Point Average
1-30	1.8
31-60	1.9
61 + hours	2.0

Under the provisions of the academic policies of West Georgia, students are classified as follows:

Academic Warning

All students who fail to meet academic standards will be on Academic Warning the next semester of enrollment. Students on Academic Warning may be required to meet certain conditions to be eligible to register for future terms. Such conditions may include a reduced course load, meeting with an academic advisor, attending student success seminars, and/or other academic support interventions. There are three possible outcomes from a semester on Academic Warning: (1) A student who raises his/her institutional grade point average to meet the Academic Standards outlined above, will be removed from Academic Warning. (2) A student who receives a term GPA of 2.0 but does not raise the institutional GPA enough to meet above standards, will remain on Academic Warning. (3) A student who fails to achieve a semester grade point average of 2.0 while on Academic Warning will be placed on Academic Probation.

Academic Probation

All students, who fail to meet the conditions to be removed from or stay on Academic Warning will be placed on Academic Probation the next semester of enrollment. Students on Academic Probation may be required to meet certain conditions to be eligible to register for future terms. Such conditions may include a reduced course load, meeting with an academic advisor, attending student success seminars, and/or other academic support interventions. There are three possible outcomes from a semester on Academic Probation:

(1) A student who raises his/her institutional grade point average to meet the Academic Standards outlined above, will be removed from Academic Probation. (2) A student who receives a term GPA of 2.0 but does not raise the institutional GPA enough to meet above standards, will remain on Academic Probation. (3) A student who fails to achieve a semester grade point average of 2.0 while on Academic Probation will be placed on Academic Suspension. Once on Probation, a student will not return to Academic Warning, but will remain on Academic Probation unless he/she meets outcome 1 or 3.

Academic Suspension

Students who do not earn a minimum semester grade point average of 2.0 while on Academic Probation regardless of the cumulative GPA will be suspended for one semester. Readmission on probation will be automatically allowed after one semester of suspension. Students on probation who do not make satisfactory progress after returning from an initial suspension will again be suspended, this time for one calendar year. A student who is suspended for the second time may apply for readmission on probation one calendar year from the date of suspension. An Academic Suspension Appeal (term or one year) may only be reviewed through a grade appeal or hardship withdrawal.

Academic Dismissal

Students on probation after a second suspension, who do not make a 2.0 on all work attempted in each subsequent semester of enrollment regardless of the cumulative GPA will be dismissed. Dismissed students are eligible to return only when they have earned an associate degree or are granted Academic Renewal after a five-year absence from any post-secondary institution. An Academic Dismissal Appeal may only be reviewed through a grade appeal or hardship withdrawal.

Advisement and Course Selection (Course Level Rule)

Academic advisement is considered an important element in a student's program of study, and West Georgia makes every effort to provide the service; however, students must ultimately be responsible for their own choices, their own course and program selections, and their own deadlines. Each student is responsible for completion of all requirements of his or her program. Advisors simply provide guidance. Any exception to a published program of study is not valid unless specifically authorized in writing by the dean of the college or department chair in which the major is housed.

Advisee records are compiled from admissions documents, grades and quality points, and test results. All students who have declared a major within the colleges of Arts and Humanities, Science and Mathematics, Social Sciences or Business are assigned to the department of the major and are advised by faculty and/or professional staff in that department. Students who have declared a major in Education are advised by an advisor in the College of Education Academic Advisement Center. Other students are advised as follows: students with Learning Support requirements and/or College

Preparatory Curriculum Deficiencies are advised by members of the Learning Support Department; students who have not declared a major are advised by professional staff and faculty volunteers in the Advising Center; joint-enrolled high school students are advised by the Coordinator of Pre-College Programs, and students enrolled in The Advanced Academy of Georgia are advised by the Advisor and Program Specialist of the Academy.

Every undergraduate student must officially declare a major at or before the completion of 60 semester hours (this includes transfer credits). A hold will be placed on registration until a major is declared. It is important that students see their advisors prior to registration each semester. Each student is responsible for contacting his or her individual department to determine specific advisement procedures for that department. Freshmen and sophomores are required to consult with their advisors in order to register.

Students are advised to select courses appropriate for their classification, i.e., stepping up or down no more than one level of course numbers. For example, a freshman may step up to a 2000-level course or a junior may step down to a 2000-level course.

Air Force ROTC

University of West Georgia students may participate in the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps through the ARCHE cross-registration program. It involves an elective curriculum taken alongside required college classes. Students participating in the pro-gram attend Air Force ROTC classes and training taught weekly at the Georgia Institute of Technology on Tuesdays and Thursdays in addition to courses taken to complete a degree at UWG. Students must balance their course schedule to allow for travel time to and from Georgia Tech. Students earn a college degree and an officer's commission in the U.S. Air Force at the same time. A student who completes the Air Force ROTC Program qualifies as a commissioned officer and will be allowed to enter active duty in the U.S. Air Force. Air Force ROTC offers competitive 4, 3.5, 3, 2.5, and 2-year college scholar-ships to qualified college students based on merit. Non-competitive scholarships are also available based on major to include foreign languages. Scholarships vary from $3,000, $9,000, $15,000, all the way up to full tuition and required fees. Scholarship winners also receive a stipend of up to $400 for each academic month in addition to a $900 allowance for books and other educational items. Non-scholarship students also receive the stipend and book allowance as contracted cadets in the program.

Audit of Courses

Regulations are listed in the Admissions, "Auditors" section, and in this section, under "Grades, Grade Points."

Class Absence

Instruction begins the first day of class. In face-to-face courses, if students fail to attend the first day and have not contacted the instructor to explain their absence, they may be dropped during the Drop/Add Period to make room for other students.

In fully online or hybrid courses each instructor has the authority to specify in the syllabus what qualifies as attendance at the first class meeting and during the Drop/Add Period to drop students who fail to meet that requirement. Instructors may require students to attend a face-to-face meeting, to log in to the online course-delivery system by a specified date, or to take other specified steps at the beginning of the session.

For those courses that meet for the first time after the end of the Drop/Add Period, see Faculty Handbook Section 204.

Class attendance policies are determined by each instructor for his or her courses and may be found in the syllabus. Since course policies differ, students are responsible for understanding attendance requirements for each course. Failure to comply with those requirements may significantly affect grades.

Students are expected to attend each class meeting. Students absent from class while officially representing the University or observing religious holidays should generally not be penalized in the calculation of final grades, as long as they provide advance notice and expeditiously make arrangements to complete any missed work.

University-sponsored activities include but are not limited to the following: intercollegiate athletic competitions; musical/theatrical/art performances or exhibitions associated with a degree program; debate competitions; and research conferences. Activities not considered to be university-sponsored include participation in clubs, even if they are affiliated with UWG, or events associated with social organizations such as fraternities or sororities.

Regardless of the reason for the absence, each student is responsible for the material covered in class, for completing any assignments, and for making specific arrangements with the instructor for any work missed. The degree to which missed work can be made up will depend upon the nature of the work and its intended purpose. Make-up is at the discretion of the instructor.

Any student who must be absent for more than one week of class should notify the Patient Advocates in Health Services, telephone 678-839-6452. The student should also notify the instructor or department.

College Preparatory Curriculum Deficiencies

Students who are admitted with College Preparatory Curriculum/Required High School Curriculum Deficiencies in the areas of social science, science, or foreign language are required to complete with a grade of "C" or better one additional course in each area of deficiency (Social Science deficiency is satisfied with ANTH 1102 only). Credit will be given for courses used to satisfy College Preparatory Curriculum/Required High School Curriculum Deficiencies, but such credit may not be used to satisfy Core Curriculum or degree requirements.

Students with College Preparatory Curriculum/Required High School Curriculum Deficiencies in English must take and clear the English and reading portions of the placement test. Those with College Preparatory Curriculum/Required High School Curriculum Deficiencies in mathematics must take and clear the mathematics portion of the placement test. Students with English and mathematics deficiencies who are required to enter learning support are not admissible.

Deficiencies in science, social science, or foreign language should be satisfied during the student's first semester of enrollment. CPC/RHSC deficiencies must be completed before the student has earned 30 hours of credit. Students who earn 30 hours of credit and have not satisfied these deficiencies will not be permitted to enroll in any other university-level courses unless the deficiencies are included in their schedules.

Confidentiality of Student Records

Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, West Georgia has established policies concerning the confidentiality of student educational records. In accordance with the Act, students of West Georgia are notified that, among other rights, they have the right to seek correction of the contents of these records, to place an explanatory note in a record when a challenge is not successful, and to control (with certain exceptions) the disclosure of the contents of their records. For a full statement of the institutional policy regarding confidentiality of student records see Connection and Student Handbook.

University officials may provide Directory Information concerning a student unless the student files a Non-Disclosure Form with the Enrollment Services Center. This form must be filed annually by September 15 to assure that locator information not be published in the student directory. Directory Information includes name, address, telephone listing, major field of study, dates of attendance, previous institutions attended, degrees and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, height and weight of members of athletic teams, photograph, and full or part-time status.

Course Changes (Drop-Add, Grade for Course Withdrawals)

Routine changes in the student's schedule must be made during the scheduled adjustment/drop/add periods for the semester or term. The precise deadlines can be found in the university academic calendar.

Except for Learning Support courses and Regents' Test remediation, a student may withdraw up to the midpoint of the semester without academic penalty. A grade of W is entered for such withdrawals. Except for cases approved by the dean of the college offering the withdrawn course, the only grade which is given after the mid-semester deadline is WF.

Credit by Prior Learning (CPL)

1. Prospective students who fit the following criteria are eligible to participate in CPL:
 1. They are adults; typically, 25 years of age or older.
 2. They are non-traditional students.
 3. They have learning experiences that could be reflected in an academic program's curriculum.
2. Course credit via CPL by Portfolio may not replace existing credit assessments. Course credit acquired through these means cannot be used to satisfy the minimum number of hours that must be completed in residence at UWG, nor toward minimum hours in the major field (See SACS 3.5.2, and University catalog requirements for undergraduate degrees).
3. Students may not conduct PLA by departmental examination, standardized test, or portfolio for any courses for which they have previously completed at UWG as a regular or audit student.
4. Students are required to complete CPL Prior Learning Documentation in preparation for developing portfolio(s) for credit evaluation, preferably prior to their last semester. Students will earn two hours credit and a letter grade of A-F for this course.
5. Students must register for Portfolio Assessment in the appropriate department(s) in the term that they will submit a portfolio for evaluation.
6. Credit may be awarded after the first submission, in which case the student will be notified that credit has been granted. The assessors may specifically outline areas for improvement and allow students to resubmit their documentation one time during the next semester. The assessors will provide a report giving specific feedback to students. Students may resubmit a revised portfolio only once for re-assessment, and must include the original portfolio submission and previous assessor's feedback.

7. Individual departments determine how many, if any, CPL credits may be awarded.
8. Students may appeal the outcome of the CPL assessment through the University's Grade Appeal process.
9. Students can pursue Credit for Prior Learning through a variety of pathways, to include CLEP exams, departmental exams, and portfolio assessment. Portfolio assessment is available for select courses and cannot be used for courses for which CLEP and/or departmental exams are available

Dean's List

Students who achieve a grade point ratio of 3.5 on a minimum of 12 semester hours of college level courses in which grades of A-F are given are placed on the Dean's List for that semester.

English and Mathematics Requirements

Students must complete ENGL 1102 and MATH 1101, MATH 1111, MATH 1113, or MATH 1634 by the time they have accumulated 30 semester credit hours or must register for these courses and continue registering for them each semester of enrollment until they have been completed. Students should plan to complete ENGL 1101, if needed, by the time they accumulate 30 semester credit hours. All students must earn a grade of C or better in ENGL 1101 in order to enroll in ENGL 1102. They must also earn a grade of C or better in ENGL 1102. Unless this grade requirement is met, such courses will not be credited to-ward graduation.

Examinations

Final examinations are held at the end of each term in accordance with a published schedule. No final examinations may be given in advance of the date scheduled unless authorized by the dean of the appropriate college. If a student has more than two final exams scheduled in a single day, he or she may reschedule all but two of them through the cooperation of faculty members, department chairs, college deans, and, if necessary, the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. During the term of his or her graduation, an undergraduate student may be excused from final examinations at the discretion of the instructor of each course in which the student is doing passing work.

Foreign Language

Students who have completed more than two years of a foreign language in high school should begin their college language study at the 1002 level or higher. Since high school programs vary in content and quality, those in doubt about the appropriate language pro-gram class should consult with the Department of Foreign Languages faculty before registration.

Please note: Students may retake a foreign language course for credit at the 1000 or 2000 level only if they have not completed a course with a higher number for credit.

Grade Appeal

Students have the right to appeal a course grade. Grade appeals must be submitted in writing, using the UWG Student Grade Appeal Form found on the Registrar's website at <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/registrar/forms.php> and following the procedures outlined below. All grade appeals, regardless of their nature, shall be initiated no later than the following semester after cause for the appeal occurred and concluded no later than one year (12 calendar months) after the assignment of the grade. There are two types of grade appeals:

1. Dishonesty Grade Appeal - If the faculty member assigned the grade due to an allegation of cheating, plagiarism, or some other act of academic dishonesty and the student wishes to pursue the appeal, his or her case should be considered a Dishonesty Grade Appeal. Appeals of grades assigned due to an allegation of Academic Dishonesty may be made as soon as a grade penalty on the grounds of academic dishonesty has been levied against a student.
2. Grade Determination Appeal - If the reasons underlying the appeal are based on policy disagreements or alleged charges of arbitrary or unfair treatment by the involved faculty member, the appeal should be considered a Grade Determination Appeal. Grade determination appeals must be initiated during the semester immediately following the semester in which the course grade is assigned.

Grade Appeal Review and Decision Process

1. Student Initiates the Grade Appeal: The student must complete and sign the Student Grade Appeal Form, attach a short memo or letter stating the exact nature of the appeal and reason, attach any supporting documentation, and submit the entire packet to the Department Chair of the department in which the course is taught.
2. Department Level: The Chair consults with the student and with the faculty member and determines whether the appeal is a Dishonesty Grade Appeal or Grade Determination Appeal.
 - A. The Chair examines the available evidence and renders a decision: Either grant the appeal and change the grade, or deny the appeal. The Chair notifies the student of his/her decision.
 - B. If the appeal is granted, the Chair submits the grade change in writing to the Registrar and notifies the student that the appeal is granted.
 - C. If the appeal is denied, the student may accept the Chair's decision and end the appeal process, or s/he may request that the appeal and all associated documentation be forwarded to the Dean's office (dean or designee) for further review.
3. College Dean Level: The Chair forwards the appeal to the Dean/designee. The appeal packet should include the Student Grade Appeal Form (complete information, decision indicated, and signatures/initials from both the student and the Chair) and all associated documentation provided by the student and the faculty member, along with a brief statement from the Chair regarding her/his decision.
 - A. The Dean/designee reviews the appeal and all associated documentation and available evidence and renders a decision: Either grant the appeal and change the grade, or deny the appeal.
 - B. The Dean's Office notifies the student of his/her decision.
 - C. If the appeal is granted, the Dean's Office submits the grade change in writing to the Registrar.
 - D. If the appeal is denied, the student may accept the decision and end the appeal process, or s/he may request that the appeal and all associated documentation be forwarded to the Provost's office for submission to the Grade Appeals Subcommittee.
4. Grade Appeals Subcommittee Level: An appeal forwarded to the Provost's office for referral to the Grade Appeals Subcommittee should include the Student Grade Appeal Form (complete information, decisions indicated, and signatures/initials from the student, Chair, and Dean/designee), documentation, and decision statements from the previous levels.

- A. The subcommittee's review purpose is described here:
Dishonesty Grade Appeals: The purpose of the subcommittee in hearing this type of appeal is to (1) determine if academic improprieties did take place and (2) to re-view the appropriateness of the faculty member's corrective action as it related to the final grade assignment. Grade Determination Appeals: The purpose of the subcommittee in hearing this type of appeal is to review the totality of the student's performance in relationship to his or her final grade.
- B. The chairperson of the subcommittee will submit in writing to the Provost/designee the conclusions and recommendations of the subcommittee. If the appeal is granted, the Provost's office submits the grade change in writing to the Registrar and notifies the student that the appeal is granted. If the decision of the subcommittee is to return the appeal to the department for further action, it is the responsibility of the Department Chair to follow through with the instructions of the subcommittee. The Provost/designee notifies the student that the appeal was returned to the department for further action. After re-examining the student's performance, the Department Chair notifies the student of the final grade and notifies the Registrar of a grade change, if warranted. If the appeal is denied, the student is notified of the subcommittee's decision.
- C. In unusual circumstances, the Provost/designee may review the decision of the sub-committee for further action (e.g., judicial sanctions).

Fairness and Procedural Safeguards Governing Cases of Academic Dishonesty

In order to guarantee fairness and proper procedural safeguards for all concerned, the subcommittee shall be guided by the following procedures:

1. The subcommittee will hear a case only if the student has exhausted all administrative remedies through the appropriate department chair and his or her college dean
2. The subcommittee chairperson will consult with both the faculty member and student concerning the hearing procedures, the time, date, and place of the hearing and will ensure relevant materials reach all parties in a timely fashion.
3. The burden of demonstrating a preponderance of evidence shall rest upon the officials or faculty member who originated an action against a student or assigned for cause a particular grade.
4. The student appearing before the committee shall have the right to be assisted by an advisor of his or her choice.
5. During the hearing the student shall have the opportunity to testify and to present evidence and witnesses own his or her behalf. He or she shall have opportunity to hear and question adverse witnesses. In no case shall the subcommittee consider statements against a student unless the student has been given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences that might otherwise be drawn.
6. All matters upon which a decision will be based must be introduced at the proceeding before the subcommittee. Any conclusions drawn by the subcommittee shall be based solely upon such evidence.
7. In the absence of a transcript, an audio recording of the hearing shall be made.

8. Appellants who fail to appear after proper notice will have their cases heard in absentia.
9. The chairperson of the subcommittee will submit in writing to the Provost/designee the conclusions and recommendations of the subcommittee.

Fairness and Procedural Safeguards Governing Grade Determination Appeals

In order to guarantee fairness and proper procedural safeguards for all concerned, the subcommittee shall be guided by the following procedures:

1. The subcommittee will hear the case only if the student has exhausted all administrative remedies through the appropriate department chair and his or her college dean.
2. The subcommittee chairperson will consult with both the faculty member and student concerning the hearing procedures, the time, date, and place of the hearing and will ensure relevant materials reach all parties in a timely fashion.
3. The burden of demonstrating a preponderance of evidence of arbitrary or unfair grading rests on the student. The student should realize such a charge is a serious one and refrain from taking capricious action.
4. Both the student and faculty member shall be given an opportunity to present his or her case and to refute the case presented by the other.
5. All matters upon which a recommendation will be based must be introduced during the hearing before the Subcommittee. Recommendations shall be based solely upon such evidence.
6. Appellants who fail to appear after proper notice will have their cases heard in absentia.
7. The chairperson of the subcommittee will submit in writing to the Provost/designee the conclusions and recommendations of the subcommittee.

Grades, Grade Points

(institution grade point average, grade point average for graduation, course repeat).

The following grading system is used:

Grade	Quality Points
A	Excellent	4
B	Good	3
C	Satisfactory	2
D	Passing	1
F	Failing	0
WF	Withdrew failing	0
WM	Military Withdrawal	0

This symbol indicates that a student was doing satisfactory work, but, for non-academic reasons beyond his or her control, was unable to meet the full requirements of the course. A student must remove an "I" grade during the succeeding semester of enrollment or within one year, whichever comes first; otherwise, the grade will be changed to "F". An instructor who assigns a grade of "I" must submit with final grade (through his or her dean) two copies of a statement indicating the level of performance (A,B,C,D) excluding the missed work and the work that must be done to remove the "I" grade. The Registrar's Office files one copy in the student's permanent record and sends one to the appropriate department chair. The instructor retains a copy. It is the responsibility of the student receiving the "I" grade to see the instructor or department chair (if the instructor is not available) regarding the work to be completed.

WM- for military service refunds. The use of this symbol indicates that this student was permitted to withdraw without penalty at any time during the term.

(Withdrew Passing)-This symbol indicates that the student withdrew by midpoint of the semester or the term the course was offered (excluding final examinations). Except in cases of hardship that are approved by the appropriate college dean, students may not withdraw with a grade of W after the midpoint of the total grading period. A course in which the W is received is not included in the calculation of the grade point average.

WF- Withdrew, Failing

This symbol indicates that credit has been given for completion of degree requirements other than academic course work. The use of this symbol is approved for thesis hours, student teaching, clinical practicum, internship, proficiency requirements in graduate programs, and a few other courses authorized by the Chancellor.

S- This symbol indicates unsatisfactory performance in an attempt to complete degree requirements other than academic course work. The use of this symbol is approved for thesis hours, student teaching, clinical practicum, internship, proficiency requirements in graduate programs, and a few other courses authorized by the Chancellor.

U- This symbol indicates that a student was given permission to audit a course. The audit student is regarded as an official visitor for the purpose of reserving a seat in a course. Students may not transfer from audit to credit status or vice versa. (Additional information is available in Chapter IV, "Auditors.")

V- This symbol indicates that credit has not been given in courses that re-quire a continuation of work beyond the semester for which the student signed up for the course. The use of this symbol is approved for dissertation and thesis hours and project courses. With the exception of Learning Support courses, this symbol cannot be used for other courses. This symbol cannot be substituted for an "I" (incomplete). IP grades may not be changed to other grades.

IP- This symbol indicates that a student was given credit for the course via a credit by examination program approved by West Georgia (CLEP, AP, Proficiency, etc.).

K- The institution grade point average is calculated by dividing the number of hours scheduled in courses attempted in which a grade of A,B,C,D,F, or WF was received into the number of grade points earned on those hours scheduled with adjustments for repeated courses according to the policies in place when the course was initially attempted. A grade of WF counts as an F. GPA's are truncated, not rounded up. The institution grade point average is recorded on the student's permanent record. Remedial credit shall in no way affect the institution grade point average.

Graduation with Honors

West Georgia awards baccalaureate degrees with honors to those who have grade point averages on all courses attempted and completed as follows:

3.5 honors (cum laude)

3.8 high honors (magna cum laude)

3.9 highest honors (summa cum laude)

Those candidates who have transferred from other institutions will qualify for honors if they meet the following criteria:

- attainment of an honors grade-point average on all work attempted and completed at West Georgia; and
- attainment of an honors grade-point average on the combined total of all courses attempted and completed at West Georgia and other institutions.

Hardship Withdrawal Policy

A Hardship Withdrawal is an exception that permits a student to withdraw from all courses after the official Drop/Add period during the semester. It is intended for the student who has experienced an acute, traumatic event that prevents him/her from completing the semester. That same event also makes it impossible for the student to take an In-complete and finish the work the next semester.

Thus, the Hardship Withdrawal is based on unusual or emergency circumstances beyond the student's control. Such circumstances are categorized as follows:

Physical

Examples include bodily injury or invasive surgery resulting in prolonged absences from class, or unexpected physical disability preventing completion of course work. Necessary documentation to support such claims would include a physician's report, including name, address, phone, nature of illness or accidents, dates of treatment, prognosis, and recommendation.

Psychological

Examples include extreme mental duress suffered from traumatic experiences, of the severity and frequency to prevent completion of course work. Necessary documentation to support such claims would include a memo from a Counseling Center counselor that includes dates of treatment and a clear recommendation of whether a hardship withdrawal be given.

Personal

Examples include significant change in financial status or personal tragedy such as the death of a loved one or domestic disruptions, to the degree to prevent completion of coursework. Necessary documentation to support such claims might include copy of divorce papers, financial statements, police reports, obituaries, or other pertinent documents.

The following list is illustrative of invalid reasons for a hardship withdrawal. A request using these reasons will not be approved.

- Poor performance in one or more courses
- Registration for the wrong course
- Preference for a different professor or class section
- Failure to drop course during the drop/add period
- Failure to withdraw by the published deadline using normal procedures

Under what conditions may a "Request for Hardship Withdrawal" be approved?

A Hardship Withdrawal is intended as relief for extreme circumstances and is granted only in special instances. The following conditions apply

1. Students may request a hardship withdrawal after the official Drop/Add deadline published in the semester term calendar until the Friday immediately prior to the final week of the term. Hardship Withdrawals requested after the Friday immediately prior to the final week of the term will be treated as a Retroactive Hardship Withdrawal.
 - Retroactive Hardship Withdrawals will not be approved if the student has completed all course requirements such as a final examination and/or a final project.
 - Retroactive Hardship Withdrawals will not be approved for terms occurring more than six months prior to the time the request is made.

2. The student must withdraw from all classes during the current term, and may not select only certain classes from which to withdraw.
 - Under unusual circumstances, a student may be granted a hardship withdrawal from only one class, while being allowed to remain in others.
 - An example of unusual circumstances would be a student who is passing an applied piano course and injures a finger, thus being unable to play the piano the rest of the semester. A student would be allowed to complete other courses being taken concurrently.
3. The student should follow Steps 1-6 below, with emphasis on providing documented evidence in support of the claims warranting the request.

Steps for Requesting a Hardship Withdrawal

In steps 1-6 below, the Dean may designate an Associate Dean to act on his/her authority. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs may designate the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs to act on his/her authority.

1. The student completes the "Request for Hardship Withdrawal" form found online at <https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpaa/faculty-resources.php>. The student should be prepared to provide documented evidence to substantiate the hardship being claimed.
2. The student submits the completed Request for Hardship Withdrawal form and documented evidence to Health Services (HS) or the Counseling Center.
3. The HS or Counseling Center professional staff will interview the student, review the documented evidence, and recommend to support or not support the request for Hardship Withdrawal. HS or Counseling Center professional staff will send the request form and a letter, which explains the recommendation, as a confidential document to the appropriate unit within Academic Affairs. HS or Counseling Center professional staff will retain the documented evidence in their confidential files.
 - For students with a declared major, the form and letter will be sent to the Dean of the College where the major department is housed.
 - For undeclared students, the form and letter will be delivered to the Dean of the Honors College.
4. The Dean has the final authority to approve the Request for Hardship Withdrawal.
 - If the Dean approves the request, the student will receive a W for each course.
 - The Dean's Office will notify the Registrar of the grade change/s to W.
 - The Dean's Office will notify the student that the request was approved.
5. If the Dean does not approve the request, the Dean's Office will notify the student of the denial.
 - The student may appeal to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.
 - The Dean will forward the form and letter to the Provost upon receiving notification from the student that s/he intends to appeal. It is the student's responsibility to notify the Dean that s/he intends to appeal to the Provost.
6. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs has the final authority to grant the appeal for the Request for Hardship Withdrawal.
 - The Provost will grant or deny the appeal and notify the student of the decision.
 - If granted, the Provost's Office will notify the Registrar of the grade change/s to W.

Students should be aware of the following four points when a hardship withdrawal is approved:

- A hardship withdrawal does not remove courses from the academic record. Course grades are converted to W's for the hardship withdrawal semester.
- The W grades do not count against the overall grade point average.
- The W grades trigger a Financial Aid Warning, because none of the courses in the hardship withdrawal semester are completed. See the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy for financial aid eligibility at <https://www.westga.edu/student-services/financialaid/satisfactory-academic-progress.php> for more information.
- Students who are granted a hardship withdrawal do not receive refunds of expenditures associated with the hardship withdrawal term.

Independent Studies

Some departments may offer independent studies, directed readings, and individual re-search projects. These are not substitutes for scheduled courses (though department chairs may authorize such substitutions in exceptional circumstances). When offered, independent studies are intended to provide students who are well advanced in their majors with the opportunity to explore research projects on their own with limited faculty supervision.

Limited Course Withdrawals

Undergraduate students may withdraw from courses with a grade of "W" (Withdraw Passing) a maximum of six times during their entire undergraduate enrollment at the University of West Georgia. Students must withdraw from courses during the Withdrawal "W" Period, as noted on the Registrar's Calendar in The Scoop. Retroactive withdrawals for prior terms are not permitted. The Withdrawal "W" Period typically begins after Drop/Add and closes at mid-term. Grades of "W" do not count toward the grade point average.

It is recommended that students consult with the instructor, academic advisor, Financial Aid, Bursar, and International Student Admissions and Programs (if applicable) before making the decision to withdraw from a course, since undesirable consequences may follow. For example:

- Student athletes must maintain full-time status to retain athletic eligibility
- International students on an F1 or J1 visa must maintain full-time status to protect their immigration status
- Withdrawing from a course will delay progress toward graduation

Students who attempt to withdraw from a course after reaching their maximum of six withdrawals will continue to be enrolled and will receive a grade at the end of the term, unless the Dean (or Dean's designee) approves the exception. See Petition for Exceptions below.

Automatic Exceptions

The following exceptions do not count toward the maximum of six course withdrawals:

- Grades of W placed on the transcript prior to Fall 2013
- Grades of W included in transfer work
- Withdrawals from courses taken during Summer terms
- Hardship withdrawal
- Military withdrawal
- Administrative withdrawal
- Formal withdrawal from the university

Petition for Exceptions

After the limit of six withdrawals is reached, students are permitted to request exceptions only for circumstances beyond their control. Students appeal in writing to the Dean (or Dean's designee) of the college or school that houses their major. Undeclared students should appeal in writing to the Dean of the Honors College (or Dean's designee). The written request (typewritten) should include the following: (1) description of the exact nature of the appeal, (2) reason for the appeal, and (3) supporting documentation, if applicable. Appeals are not heard unless the student has reached the maximum number of withdrawals allowed.

Orientation

To assist new students in becoming adjusted to college life as quickly as possible, West Georgia conducts an orientation program which consists of testing, preregistration advisement, special lectures, and social gatherings. All new students are required to participate.

Physical Education Policy

University policy allows each of the three colleges to set its own physical education requirements. For this catalog year, the requirements are as follows:

- The College of Arts and Humanities has no physical education requirement.
- The College of Science and Mathematics has no physical education requirement.
- The College of Social Sciences has no physical education requirement.
- The College of Business has no physical education requirement.
- The College of Education requires 3 hours of physical education that must include one 2-hour Health and Wellness course and one 1-hour activity course.

All students are required to satisfy the physical education requirements of the college from which they graduate (not the college in which the student was first admitted as a degree candidate). The physical education activity requirement will be waived for veterans with two years active military duty. No PWLA course credit may be applied toward the number of academic hours required for a degree.

For detailed requirements and exceptions, see the specific degree program description section of the catalog.

Registration

Registration for a future semester is held for continuing students and new fully admitted graduate students during the preceding semester. Course listings are available on Ban-web, <http://banweb.westga.edu/under> Public Access, Class Bulletin. The Scoop gives detailed instructions for registering and paying fees.

Late Registration is held during the drop/add period of the semester. A $75 late fee is charged to continuing students who did not participate in on-time registration.

Repeating a Course to Replace a Grade

A student may repeat a course taken at West Georgia in order to replace an earlier grade earned in a course taken Fall 1996 or later. Grades earned in courses taken at other institutions cannot replace grades earned in courses taken at the University of West Georgia. In the case of courses with variable course titles, the repeated course must have the exact same title as the original course. Beginning Summer Semester 2001, students can repeat XIDS 2001, 2002, and 2100 and use the grade replacement rules regardless of the titles of the courses taken. The academic standing and graduation GPA will be based on the last attempt at all courses taken at the institution. Note that the original grade remains on the transcript, although it is not included in the GPA.

Student Classification

Student classification is based on the number of earned semester hours of academic credit. The classifications are as follows:

Freshman	0-29 earned semester hours
Sophomore	30-59
Junior	60-89
Senior	90 or more

Study Abroad

The University offers a range of study-abroad options for students at all levels of their academic careers. Freshman and sophomore students may participate in short-term programs that offer core-level courses; juniors and seniors may participate in programs lasting from two weeks to a year that offer specialized coursework in their majors. Students may select programs taught in English or may participate in language immersion programs in Spanish, French and German. The Office of Education Abroad provides advising to help each student choose the program and coursework that best fits his or her academic needs and interests.

Short-term program offerings vary from year to year, and students should visit the study abroad website (<http://studyabroad.westga.edu>) or the Office of Education Abroad on the first floor of Gunn Hall for a complete list of opportunities. Many short term programs are designed for students who have not traveled extensively and provide a mix of classroom instruction and site-specific field trips, with airfare, housing and some meals usually included in the program fee. For upperclassmen interested in specialized semester-long programs, the university offers exchange programs in several European countries, in South America and in Australia. Exchange students generally pay on-campus tuition and fees while studying at the exchange partner institution.

Students who participate in study abroad programs or semester exchanges may apply their current financial aid, including Hope scholarship funds, to their study abroad program fees. In addition, students may apply for study abroad scholarships through the study abroad website.

Summer Semester

The summer semester operates on an eight-week basis with courses offered in two four-week terms or in the full term. There is also a three-week term offered between the end of spring and the beginning of summer term. A student may take up to 18 total hours for the entire semester, if scheduling allows, thus completing a full semester's work. (See Academic Load)

Technology Access Policy

The University of West Georgia requires all students to have ready access to a computer as students will be expected to use a computer for coursework. Purchasing a new or used computer is not required, but is recommended. The University provides some computer labs on campus; however, access to these labs at times may be limited. Students are responsible for making plans necessary for timely completion of their class assignments. All students must have access to e-mail, word processing, spreadsheet, and web browsing software. For more details on what is recommended see the TechLife Website.

Transfer of Credit

See section titled Transfer Students, for regulations regarding transfer of credit.

Transient Student Status

Students wishing to complete classes at another college or university to count towards their degree at West Georgia must maintain good standing at West Georgia and hold active student status at UWG during transient studies. Prior to taking the course(s), students must complete a Transient Status Permission Form, which includes the signatures of their advisor, the chair of the department in which the credit shall be granted, and the dean/designee of their major college. If the transient status involves study abroad, students must also obtain the signature of the Director of Education Abroad. International students seeking transient status must obtain the signature of the Director of International Services and Programs. It is each student's responsibility to consult the Undergraduate Transfer Course Equivalents link, or contact the Registrar's Office to determine if the course will be accepted as transfer credit at UWG and count toward a given degree. Transient status is given for one semester at a time, and students must have the other college send a transcript of the courses taken to the Registrar at West Georgia in order to receive credit for the work. For final term transient status restrictions, see Graduation Policies in the Undergraduate Catalog.

Two-Year College Graduates/Former Students

For a one time option only, students who have been academically suspended or dismissed from West Georgia may, as two-year graduates of accredited colleges or universities, be readmitted as degree candidates. A minimum of 60 academic hours after the associate degree with at least a 2.0 grade point average is required for the bachelor's degree.

Students accepted as transients from a two-year college to complete one or more courses needed for graduation at a two-year college will not be permitted to complete other work while enrolled as transients, or to include the transient credit in the 60 hours of work required at West Georgia.

The following notation shall be placed on the official transcript of two-year, college graduates readmitted to West Georgia:

"Readmitted as two-year college graduate; must complete a minimum of 60 additional hours with at least a 2.0 average for a bachelor's degree."

The University Year and Definition of a Credit Hour

The University is organized on the semester system. There are two semesters of approximately 15 weeks, a three-week term in May, and summer semesters of approximately four and eight weeks.

The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).

U.S. and Georgia History and Constitution Requirements

Georgia state law requires that any person receiving a degree from a state-supported institution of higher learning must pass examinations in the histories of the United States and Georgia and on the Constitution of the United States and Georgia.

Students may meet these requirements by passing HIST 2111 or HIST 2112 and POLS 1101 at West Georgia. The U.S. and Georgia history requirements may also be satisfied by passing examinations developed by the History Department and administered by the Testing Office. The Georgia Constitution requirement may also be satisfied by passing an examination developed by the Political Science Department and administered by the Testing Office.

Transfer students who have fulfilled any or all of these requirements will be notified of that fact at the time of admission on the "Evaluation of Transfer Credit" form. Students transferring from institutions outside the state of Georgia who receive credit for HIST 2111 or HIST 2112 and/or POLS 1101 will not have satisfied the Georgia history and constitution requirements. The Georgia history and constitution requirements can be satisfied by passing examinations administered each semester by the Testing Office.

Withdrawal

Formal withdrawal from the University must begin with a written request to the Registrar's Office. At the time the request is presented, specific instructions are given to the student for the completion of formal withdrawal. Failure to officially withdraw may result in grades of F for the semester.

A student may be administratively withdrawn from the University when the Vice President for Student Affairs & Enrollment Management in consultation, when appropriate, with the student's parents or spouse, the Director of the Counseling Development Center and the University Physician, determines that the student suffers from a physical, mental, emotional, or psychological health condition which (a) poses a significant danger or threat of physical harm to the person or property of others, (b) causes the student to interfere with the rights of other members of the university community or with the proper activities or functions of the University or its personnel, or (c) causes the student to be unable to meet institutional requirements for admission and continued enrollment as defined in the Student Conduct Code and other publications of the University.

Except in emergency situations, a student shall, upon request, be accorded an appropriate hearing prior to a final decision concerning continued enrollment at the University.

See Hardship Withdrawal Policy.

Professional Preparation Programs

Programs of study are available that prepare students to enter other institutions where they can complete their professional training after earning a bachelor's degree at UWG. Some of the programs call for the student to complete a four-year sequence in a major; others call for the student to complete a two- or three-year sequence of study. Since requirements vary according to the student's needs, it is important that students declare their intentions to pursue specialized study so that they may receive proper advisement. Professional preparation areas and the departments responsible for advising are listed below:

Requirements for Undergraduate Degrees

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree

1. A minimum of 120 hours of academic college work in an approved program and completion of the physical education requirement of the college from which one takes a degree. The approved program must include 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum.
2. A minimum of 39 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 or above. Twenty-one of these hours must be in the major field and 12 of these hours must be taken at West Georgia.
3. Thirty-three semester hours must be completed in residence. Twenty of these hours must be in the senior year.
4. Attain a minimum institutional grade point average of 2.0 and a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in the courses used to satisfy the major.
5. Major courses and professional education sequence courses are not to be taken by correspondence or extension. Not more than 30 hours of the program and none of the professional education sequence may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 30 hours be completed at off-campus sites.
6. If in a program involving teacher certification at the secondary level, the student must meet the requirements outlined under College of Education in the following sections: Admission to Teacher Education, Eligibility, Education Blocks, and Education Program Completion Requirements.
7. Complete 2002 (or equivalent) in a foreign language. Entering students with previous language experience are encouraged to take a placement test if they plan to continue the study of the same language.
8. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from history may be earned by passing appropriate tests.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Science Degree

1. A minimum of 120 semester hours of academic college work in an approved program and the physical education requirement of the college from which one graduates. The approved program must include 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum.
2. A minimum of 39 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 or above. Twenty-one of these hours must be in the major field, and 20 of these hours in the major must be taken at West Georgia.
3. Thirty-three semester hours must be completed in residence. Eighteen of these hours must be in the senior year.
4. Attain a minimum institutional grade point average of 2.0, and a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in the courses used for the major.

5. Complete other requirements for the major listed by individual departments.
6. Complete the science major option of Core Areas A & D, if required.
7. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from history may be earned by passing appropriate tests.
8. Not more than 30 hours of the program and none of the professional education sequence may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 30 hours be completed at off-campus sites.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree

1. A minimum of 120 semester hours of academic college work including 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum.
2. A minimum of 39 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 or above. Twenty-one to 33 hours must be in the major field and at least 18 hours must be taken at West Georgia.
3. Thirty-three semester hours must be completed in residence. Eighteen of these hours must be in the senior year.
4. Attain a grade point average of 3.0 in all supporting courses and attain a grade of C or higher in all nursing courses.
5. Complete other requirements for the major as listed by the Tanner Health System School of Nursing.
6. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from history may be earned by passing appropriate tests.
7. Not more than 27 semester hours of the entire program may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 27 hours be completed at off-campus sites.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Science Degree in Sport Management

1. A minimum of 120 semester hours of academic work in an approved program and three (3) semester hours of physical education are required, to include PWLA 1600. The approved program must include 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum, plus completion of the College of Education physical education requirement.
2. A minimum of 39 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 and above. Twenty-one of these hours must be in the major field, and 15 of these hours must be completed at West Georgia.
3. Thirty hours must be completed in residence. Eighteen of these hours must be in the senior year.
4. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from these courses may be earned by passing appropriate tests.
5. No more than 30 hours of the entire program may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 30 hours be completed at off-campus sites.
6. Must have an overall grade point average of 2.0 to enter professional courses.
7. Must complete all professional content courses with a grade of C or better.
8. Attain a grade of at least 'C' in the internship experience. The minimum overall cumulative grade point average required for internship is 2.5.
9. Complete other requirements for the major as determined by the Department of Leadership and Instruction.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Science in Education Degree

A student may receive a Bachelor of Science in Education degree which, with the recommendation of the College of Education, qualifies the graduate for an elementary (grades P-5), a special education (grades P-12), or a physical education (grades P-12) teaching certificate by meeting the following requirements:

1. A minimum of 120-129 semester hours (dependent upon program) of academic college work in an approved program and three (3) semester hours of physical education are required, including PWLA 1600. The approved program must include 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum.
2. A minimum of 39 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 or above. Twenty-one to 33 of these hours must be in the major field and 18 of these hours in the major must be taken at West Georgia.
3. Complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from these courses may be earned by passing appropriate tests.
4. Thirty semester hours must be completed in residence.
5. Attain the admission requirements for the major (see Admission to Teacher Education Requirements).
6. Complete other requirements for the major as listed by individual departments.
7. Make application for admission to the teacher education program.
8. Make application for all practicum, internship, and block courses with the Office of Field Based Preparation prior to enrollment in the courses. Applications are available through Tk20. Deadlines for both Fall and Spring Semesters are available online at <http://www.westga.edu/ofe/>.
9. Satisfactorily complete a course of 3 or more semester hours in the identification and education of children who have special needs as required by Georgia House Bill 671 for teachers, principals, and counselors.
10. Not more than 30 hours of the entire program and none of the professional education sequence may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 30 hours be completed at an off-campus site with the exception of external degree programs.
11. The appropriate assessments for certification required by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission must be completed and passed before a candidate is eligible for certification.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Business Administration Degree

1. A minimum of 120 semester hours of academic college work in an approved program. The program must include 60 semester hours in the Core Curriculum.
2. A minimum of 48 semester hours of work in courses numbered 3000 and above. Twelve of these hours in the major field must be completed at UWG.
3. Acceptance as a major in the specific discipline.
4. Thirty semester hours must be completed in residence. The last 27 hours of the program must also be in residence.
5. Attain a minimum institution grade point average of 2.0 for graduation. Attain a minimum 2.0 for Core Area F. Attain a minimum of 2.0 for the business junior core. Attain a minimum of 2.0 for the major field requirements. No more than one D is accepted in courses presented to satisfy major field requirements.
6. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from history may be earned by passing appropriate tests.

7. Not more than 27 hours of the entire program may be done by extension or correspondence, nor may more than 27 hours be completed at off-campus sites.
8. Complete other requirements for the major as listed by the department.
9. At least 50 percent of the business credit hours required for the business degree must be earned at West Georgia.
10. To specify a second major in business administration, students must contact the chair of both departments selected. The chair of each department will develop a program of study. Students must complete all major and degree requirements for both majors.

Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Music Degree

1. All new and transfer students planning to major in music must audition for the music faculty on the principal performing instrument or voice and be evaluated and advised for placement in a program prior to the first semester of study.
2. A minimum of 120 semester hours of academic college work in an approved program.
3. Thirty hours must be completed in residence.
4. In the fall semester of the Freshman year, students must enroll in courses in Area F of the Core Curriculum: MUSC 1000 - Comprehensive Music Laboratory, MUSC 1301 - Music Theory I, MUSC 1401 - Aural Skills I, MUSC 2600 Principal Applied (Performance majors: 2 credit hours; Music Education, Composition, and Elective Studies in Business majors: 1 credit hour), MUSC 1501 - Keyboard Skills I, and the large ensemble appropriate to the major instrument or voice.
5. Students must register for Principal Applied (the principal performing instrument or voice) each term offered until the appropriate number of credit hours have been earned in MUSC 2600 and MUSC 4600. Students enroll in Principal Applied at the 2600 level (Freshman and Sophomore), and after successful completion of the level-change examination, 4600 level (Junior and Senior).
6. Music majors must enroll in MUSC 1000 (Section 01) Comprehensive Music Laboratory each semester, except for summers and the semester of the internship, until they have completed 6 semesters of satisfactory attendance or until graduation if they have earned an S grade for each fall and spring semester enrolled. Transfer students may transfer equivalent Comprehensive Music Laboratory credit earned at other institutions, if approved by the Department Chair.
7. Passing the Keyboard Skills course sequence constitutes keyboard proficiency (i.e., MUSC 1501, MUSC 1502, MUSC 2501, MUSC 2502). Students must enroll in Keyboard Skills each term offered for a minimum of four semesters and until successful completion. A course or courses in the sequence may receive credit by examination. Credit by examination for any course must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar. The requirements for each proficiency level are included in the various Keyboard-Skills course syllabi.

Specific Requirements for a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree

1. A minimum of 126 total semester hours of academic college courses in one of the Department of Art programs. The program includes 42 semester hours in the University Core Curriculum and 18 semester hours in the departmental core, 15 semester hours in the departmental studio core, 6 hours of 3000 or above Art History, and 45 semester hours in the departmental concentration and electives.

 (Exception- BFA in Art -Art Education requires a minimum of 132 total semester hours of academic college courses in the Department of Art program. The program includes 42 semester hours in the University Core Curriculum, 18 semester hours in the departmental core, 15 semester hours in the departmental studio core, 6 hours of 3000 or above Art History, 27 semester hours in the departmental concentration, and 24 hours in Professional Education. Admission to the Art Education Major requires a minimum GPA of 2.7, departmental approval, Admission to the Teacher Education program and a minimum GPA of 2.7 (including courses in the Core Curriculum transferred from other institutions). Satisfactory completion of the GACE Content Assessments in Art is required for Georgia Teacher Certification.)

2. A minimum of 60 semester hours in courses numbered 3000 or above. Forty-one to sixty of these hours must be in the Department of Art and as specified by areas of concentration. Twenty-one of these hours must be taken at West Georgia. Also nine hours in the area of concentration must be taken at West Georgia.
3. Thirty semester hours must be completed in residence. Eighteen of these hours must be in the senior year.
4. Attain a minimum overall institutional grade point average of 2.5 and a grade point average of 3.0 in the courses used to satisfy the BFA degree requirements.
5. Satisfactorily complete POLS 1101 and HIST 2111 or HIST 2112. Exemption from history may be earned by passing appropriate tests.
6. Not more than twenty-seven semester hours of the program may be done by extension or correspondence. Not more than twenty-seven semester hours may be completed at off-campus sites.
7. During the completion of the final year, BFA candidates will successfully present a portfolio of work and BFA Thesis exhibition. This exhibition and portfolio will be reviewed by a BFA committee selected by the candidate and should demonstrate to that committee the candidate's professional competence within the area of concentration. The Candidate will then have orals exam with the selected committee.
8. Courses of variable credit must be taken for three hours per semester, with a Minimum of fifteen credits in area of concentration. Students wishing to take courses for less than 3 credit hours must obtain prior approval from the Department Chair.
9. Independent studies or directed readings may be taken toward the fulfillment of degree requirements only after a candidate has successfully completed at least one advance course in the area of concentration and only with the faculty permission.
10. Courses may be substituted for listed required courses with prior approval and permission of the Department Chair
11. There is no Physical Education requirement, and Physical Education classes will not count as electives

Specific Requirements for a Minor

1. Complete 15-18 semester hours of required coursework in an approved minor
2. A minimum of 9 semester hours of the courses must be numbered 3000 and above.
3. Courses taken to satisfy Core Areas A through E may not be counted.
4. Courses taken in Core Area F may be counted.
5. Courses taken to satisfy major requirements may not be counted.
6. Students must attain a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in courses used to satisfy the minor.

Degree Requirements for Select Students

1. A minimum of 45 hours of advanced work (courses numbered 3000-4999 inclusive).
2. A minimum of 60 semester hours must be completed in residence (on West Georgia Campus).
3. A total of 120 semester hours.
4. A 3.2 grade point in the major and minor fields considered separately.
5. Credit for Core requirements of West Georgia for a B.A. degree.
6. For a B.A. degree, satisfy B.A. degree requirements 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 9. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the major in courses numbered 3000 or above. Students who seek teacher certification must complete the required teacher education program.
7. For a B.S. degree, satisfy B.S. degree requirements 1,2,3, 7, 8, and 9 and enough additional hours to total 120 semester hours.

Graduation Policies

The University of West Georgia awards degrees three times a year corresponding with the end of each semester and only to the students who have applied and who are meeting all graduation requirements at the time final grades are posted. How to Apply:

Students should submit the Undergraduate Application for Graduation along with the $40 (per degree) application fee to the Enrollment Services Center, first floor Parker Hall by the appropriate deadline listed below.

Spring Graduation - October 1

Summer Graduation - March 1

Fall Graduation - August 1

The graduation application and $40 (per degree) non-refundable application fee can be deferred up to one year from the initial term of scheduled graduation. For example, a student who applies for spring 2017 graduation would have until spring 2018 to graduate without having to complete another application for graduation or pay the $40 (per degree) graduation fee. If the student does not graduate within one year from the original scheduled graduation date, the student must reapply for graduation and pay the $40 (per degree) application fee again.

Graduation Policies:

1. Candidates may choose to meet the degree requirements of the current catalog or any catalog within six years prior to graduation, provided that the candidate was enrolled in the degree program during the year of the catalog chosen.
2. A student's graduation will be delayed one semester if:
 - all incomplete (I) grades are not removed and a grade recorded in the Registrar's Office by the grade deadline of the term in which the student is graduating;
 - transient, study abroad, credit by exam or any other type of credit is not recorded in the Registrar's Office by the grade deadline of the term in which the student is scheduled to graduate;
 - the student is not meeting graduation requirements after grades are posted for the term in which the student is scheduled to graduate.

3. Students are encouraged to attend graduation. If attendance is not possible, the student should notify the Registrar's Office. A student may participate in only one graduation ceremony per degree earned.

Limitation on specific course hours which can be used to meet graduation requirements

A maximum of 6 credit hours total of military science, debate practicum (COMM 1115) and applied music/ensemble courses (for non-music majors and minors) can be applied toward a degree.

No PWLA course credit may be applied toward the number of academic hours required for a degree.

Requirements for a Double Major within the Same Degree awarded during the Same Semester

Students may complete two majors under the same degree (example, English major and Theatre major under the BA degree) by completing all major requirements and all Core Area requirements specific to each major, including Core Area F requirements for both majors.

The second major will satisfy the requirement for a minor if either major requires a minor.

The Richards College of Business has specific requirements for students wishing to have two majors under the BBA degree. See the College of Business for further information.

Requirements for Two Different Baccalaureate Degrees Awarded during the Same Semester

Students who wish to earn two different baccalaureate degrees at the same commencement ceremony (example, a BA degree and a BS degree) must:

1. Complete all major and degree requirements for both degrees.

Requirements for a Second Baccalaureate Degree Awarded in a Different Semester than the First Degree

Students who wish to pursue a second baccalaureate degree after the first degree has been awarded must:

1. Complete a minimum of 30 additional hours in residence (20 of these hours must be in courses numbered 3000 or above).
2. Maintain a 2.0 grade point average or above in the work completed for the second degree.
3. Fulfill all requirements for the major and degree. Candidates for second degrees will be governed by the catalog requirements in effect at the time work on the second degree is begun.

Core Curriculum

The Core Curriculum of the University System of Georgia was established for the purpose of facilitating the educational progress of students as they pursue baccalaureate degrees within and among the units of the University System.

The Core Curriculum of the University System of Georgia establishes the philosophy that "General Education" is the foundation of all degree programs, and, as such, the Core is composed of courses providing a foundation of knowledge and intellectual skills reflecting the University's judgment of what is essential to being an educated person.

Physical Education Requirements

All undergraduate degree candidates are required to satisfy the physical education requirement of the college from which they will graduate. (See Academic Policies, Physical Education section for details.)

Units of Instruction

The following academic units have been established by West Georgia as a basis for curriculum development and administration:

College of Arts and Humanities

College of Education

College of Science and Mathematics

College of Social Sciences

Richards College of Business

Tanner Health System School of Nursing

College of Arts and Humanities

Pauline Gagnon, Interim Dean

<http://www.westga.edu/coah>

The College of Arts and Humanities is charged with the responsibility of providing instruction not only to students majoring in traditional arts and humanities disciplines, but also for providing general education components of business and education programs. It does so with the realization that in order to prepare students to face the ever-changing, complex society in which we live, it is necessary to do more than teach them a number of facts and train them in a variety of skills. The faculty of the College of Arts and Humanities is dedicated to providing an education that will engage students to meet the future, not merely to live in the present.

The University of West Georgia's College of Arts and Humanities is committed to the academic success of our students.

Physical Education Requirement

The college of Arts and Humanities does not have any physical education requirements. Physical Education classes will not count as electives. Note, however, that if a student changes from the College of Arts and Humanities to the College of Education, the student must satisfy that college's physical education requirement.

Graduation Requirement for Discipline-Specific Writing

All students majoring in disciplines in the College of Arts and Humanities must satisfy the requirements for Discipline Specific Writing (DSW) in order to graduate.

DSW Requirements

- ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 (or the equivalent of) are prerequisite to all "W" (writing-intensive) courses.
- W-courses will require a minimum of 4000 words of original, formal, graded writing, including one major assignment entailing instructor feedback and revision.
- Students must take at least two 3000/4000-level W-courses (courses approved as writing-intensive courses and marked in the course bulletin with a W) for a total of at least 6 hours. Both courses must satisfy requirements or electives in the student's major, and at least one must be specific to the major. Departments may also elect to designate specific courses in allied disciplines that would fulfill the DSW requirement for the major.
- DSW requirements vary from department to department: students should consult the catalog and department DSW website for requirements specific to their major.

Certificate Option

A DSW certificate option is available for students who wish to gain additional experience in writing as well as to demonstrate a commitment to developing exemplary communication skills. A student may elect to double the basic DSW requirements, passing 12 hours of writing-intensive courses. These additional courses need not be in the student's major, unless the department specifies otherwise. Students who elect this option and earn a grade of C or above in each of their writing-intensive classes will receive:

- a Discipline-Specific Writing certificate, and
- transcript notation of this accomplishment.

UWG's Department of Art focuses on the individual student and their personal growth as a professional. The department is committed to excellence in education and making UWG the best place to work, learn and succeed. Our departmental goal is to prepare young professionals to be outstanding individuals in their field upon graduation and to successfully enter the highly competitive world of employment, both in and out of the Arts, and Graduate Studies.

BA in Art:

The BA in Art degree provides students with opportunities to explore areas within the visual arts without necessarily specializing in any one discipline. As a liberal arts degree, this option is appropriate for students who wish to explore creative processes, develop and hone both creative and critical thinking skillsets, while developing abilities applicable to any number of employment opportunities. The degree is usually identified as appropriate for students who wish to pursue a professional career or graduate studies that may or may not be within the Arts. The Department of Art offers three BA in Art options: BA in Art (Art History), BA in Art (Pre-Medical Illustration), which includes a minor in Biology, and a BA in Art (Studio Art).

Art History Emphasis:

Focuses on various cultures of the past and present and challenges students to relate themselves to a larger world. Art History students are required to write about art critically and to conduct research, and their initiation into the practice takes place in these courses.

Medical Illustration:

Focus on preparing students for application into competitive graduate programs within Medical or Science Illustration with a specific minor in Biology.

Studio Emphasis:

Focuses on various arts' studio disciplines and practices and is appropriate for individuals who wish to enhance their creative and artistic abilities. Students can individualize their own approach; by exposure to all artistic media, focusing on two or more mediums or by taking a 2D or 3D approach, or even working in a multi-disciplinary nature. This degree encourages broad-based, open-ended inquiry into the arts and is customizable to the interests of individual students.

BFA with a specific Concentration:

The BFA within a specific concentration is appropriate for students who have a strong desire to focus on a single area or medium within the visual arts and who are specifically focused on coursework, providing in-depth exploration within said specific discipline. All Programs are designed to provide students with increased opportunities for complexity and knowledge within their field as they progress. The degree is usually identified as appropriate for students who wish to pursue a professional career or graduate studies in the Arts. The Department of Art offers a Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) in Art with concentrations in the following programs: Ceramics, Graphic Design, Painting, Printmaking, Photography, Sculpture and Art Education. The University is an accredited associate member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.

Learning Outcomes

- The Department of Art's objectives are for students to develop sound skills and knowledge and become young professionals by demonstrating the following: BA in Art learning outcomes
- Develop broad knowledge on the history of art and design.
- Demonstrates a broad understanding of the technical skill within the studio arts.
- Develop thorough knowledge of the fundamentals of visual arts and design.
- Demonstrates a broad understanding of content and conceptual development within aspects of creating art.

BFA in Art learning outcomes

- Develop broad knowledge on the history of art and design.
- Develop thorough knowledge of the fundamentals of art and design.
- Demonstrates in-depth technical focus and proficiency within an area of concentration.
- Demonstrates in-depth research and content development within an area of concentration.
- Demonstrates preparedness for a professional career in the arts.

Application to the BFA in Art and the BA in Art History Degrees

Students seeking the BFA in Art (Art Education, Ceramics, Graphic Design, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture) or the BA in Art History must submit an application / portfolio for a faculty review. For most applicants this review takes place in the second semester of the sophomore year, or during the semester following the completion of ART 3301, ART 3601 or ART 3602, ART 3802, ART 3801, and ART 3901. All transfer students that have completed 45 or more credit hours must complete one semester in residence before they are eligible to submit an application to BA Art History or any BFA degree program. The BFA and the BA in Art History application / portfolio evaluations focus on an applicant's potential for success within a particular program or professional field. Applicants are expected to show skills and knowledge applied to artistic, design or scholarly problems. Applicant's work should demonstrate their ability, originality, and commitment, which altogether exhibit the applicant's potential to function as a professional artist, designer or scholar. All applicants are observed by faculty during the semesters prior to the BFA/BA Art History application on their ability to conduct themselves as future professional artists/designers and scholars. It is imperative for an applicant's application and review to meet or exceed departmental standards to be successful in the BFA/BA in Art History application process. (See Department of Art website at <http://www.westga.edu/art> for full application description, requirements and dates).

Internships for BFA in Art

Internships are available at local businesses and industries. Internships must be educationally relevant to one's area of study and must be approved by both the area advisor and the chair of the department.

Junior Portfolio Review

During the second semester of the junior year and with permission of student's Art advisor, all BA and BFA candidates must enroll and successfully complete ART 4078, while maintaining good standing. (See department website for specific requirements for ART 4078). The department will review juniors based on their portfolio, writings, and transcript progress. The faculty will assess the candidate's progress, skill base and knowledge gained. Successful candidates will be allowed to enroll into ART 4998 and ART 4999 Senior Capstone Experience sequence. Unsuccessful candidates can repeat ART 4078 up to two additional times. If a candidate receives an unsuccessful review on their third attempt, their degree status will be moved to the BA (Studio) or be subject for removal from the art program. (Be mindful of the minor and foreign language requirements FORL 2001, FORL 2002). ART 4078 must be taken during a semester where the student is enrolled in 12 credit hours.

Capstone Sequence for BA & BFA in Art

After successfully completing ART 4078 and at the start of a candidate's final two semesters, BA and BFA in Art candidates will need to enroll in ART 4998 - Senior Capstone Experience I and ART 4999 - Senior Capstone Experience II. (ART 4998 is the prerequisite for ART 4999 and these courses cannot be taken simultaneously).

Candidates should discuss their approach and goals for the Senior Capstone with their advisor and formulate their Capstone Committee. Candidates will need to start developing a plan to assist in making the Capstone sequence a success.

Candidates should prepare a preliminary schedule of courses they wish to take prior to meeting with their advisors.

During the advising appointment, the advisor and student should continue discussing the program requirements and review the student's course selection. Any other individual or special concerns should also be discussed. (See department website <http://www.westga.edu/art> or Art Office for complete information).

GPA and Grade Requirements for all Art Majors

Art students are required to maintain a 2.5 overall GPA and a 3.0 Art GPA. A grade of C or better will fulfill Art requirements. No Art major may receive a D or lower in an Art course and have it fulfill the course requirement in any Art degree program.

Reserved studio space will be available both during the day and evening in order that students have access to a minimum of three clock hours per credit hour of class per week.

The B.A. in English enables students to write well, to recognize the defining traits of major literary genres, to become familiar with the history of literature, to interpret texts from pertinent critical perspectives, to become proficient in scholarly research, and to connect facts and ideas of the discipline to other fields. A track offering a B.A. in English with secondary education certification is also available. For those preparing for graduate or professional schools or careers in professional writing, specialized courses in literary theory, and professional and creative writing are available.

Learning Outcomes

Students will demonstrate that they:

Are adept writers in command of standard written English and of options for effectively presenting ideas and evidence

Are familiar with the characteristics and development of the major literary genres

Are conversant with the content and defining traits of representative literary periods

Are aware of prevailing theories, approaches, and practices related to the study of literature and language

Are capable of critical thinking that takes into account the variety of human experience and significant differences among cultural value systems

Can convincingly analyze, interpret, and explicate literary texts in light of pertinent critical assumptions

Can relate the facts and ideas of the discipline to other fields and explore their correspondence, particularly within the context of Western intellectual history

The B.A. program in Philosophy offers courses that enable students to develop skills in critical thinking, reasoning, and judging; to understand the role of premises and inference in ordinary discourse as well as in philosophical argumentation; to recognize and define different world views; and to comprehend the history of Western philosophy in particular. As a cornerstone of the liberal arts education, this discipline is pertinent to virtually all other undergraduate fields of study. A minor in Philosophy is also available. The Philosophy major is designed for those students who want a solid grounding in the discipline and can serve as preparation for those who are interested in advancing into graduate studies in Philosophy or related fields. The Religion track is designed for those interested in theology and religious studies. It is suitable for those students wishing to go on to graduate school in those disciplines. The Pre-Law track is designed for students interested in law or the problems of justice. This track will prepare students for the entrance exams and performance standards of law school.

Learning Outcomes

Every graduate of the Philosophy Program should be able to:

Discuss the general historical development of the discipline of philosophy, including the views of at least three major historical figures of philosophy

Incorporate a philosophical position in oral and written communications

Critically outline and analyze philosophical issues

Exhibit critical thinking skills

Africana Studies Minor

The Africana Studies minor is a multidisciplinary program jointly housed in the English and History departments that combines the study, research, interpretation, and the dissemination of knowledge concerning the African presence in Africa, the Americas, and other parts of the world from the birth of human civilization to the present. This program of study introduces students to theoretical perspectives and empirical studies of Africa and the African Diaspora. Undergraduate work in Africana Studies prepares students for employment opportunities in a variety of professional careers or for graduate study in the humanities and social sciences. Students are also equipped for careers in education, research institutions, corporations, multicultural institutions, community outreach, human resources management, social services, and public policy. Students in business and the professions (law, medicine, etc.) particularly enhance their ability to deal with a culturally diverse clientele.

Requirements

The Africana Studies minor requires fifteen (15) hours from the following:

- ENGL 3350 - Introduction to Africana Studies 3 (or)
- HIST 3350 - Introduction to Africana Studies 3

- A minimum of 9 credit hours at the 3000-4000 level
- Humanities and social sciences courses related to race, Africa, Caribbean, African America (e.g. English, History, Sociology, Psychology, Anthropology, Criminology...etc.)

- GRMN 4986 - Internship in Germany 1.0
(can be taken multiple times for a total of up to 5 credit hours)
- GRMN 4484 - Senior Capstone 1

In Addition

Students are required to have either done an internship or language program in a German-speaking country. This is NOT necessarily a credit hour or course requirement, as participation in a study abroad program satisfies it and certain non-credit-bearing internships, with the permission of the German faculty, could as well. No more than 5 of the required hours may come from internships and no more than 9 of the required hours may be transferred from a pre-approved overseas program. At least 12 hours of 3000- and 4000-level German courses must be taken at the University of West Georgia.

Electives: 33 Hours

The Department of Foreign Languages strongly recommends to its majors that 3 electives be courses at the 3000 or above level in their major language. The German Section further recommends that its majors take electives that support their major, including German or European history, German philosophy, music, and/or art, and English courses on periods, topics, theory, and writing. Majors are required to seek advisement from the German faculty.

Total: 18 Hours

Gender and Sexuality Studies Minor

Requirements

The interdisciplinary minor in Gender and Sexuality Studies provides an academic forum for the examination of gender and sexuality in contemporary and historical global cultures. It pursues the academic study not only of sexual diversity but also of masculinity and femininity as culturally and historically contingent phenomena. As such, it appeals to an increasingly diverse student population, including members of the GLBTQ community, who actively seek a comfortable, healthy, academic environment to examine and discuss issues relevant to their self-definition and everyday lives. The minor in Gender and Sexuality Studies also creates a broad and formalized academic forum for educating the entire student population and the greater Carrollton community about diversity in gender identity and sexual orientation.

The minor requires 15 credit hours, of which no more than 6 hours can be at the 2000 level and of which at least 3 hours must be at the 4000 level.

Required Course:

- XIDS 2100 - Arts and Ideas: Special Topics 3 (Introduction to Gender Studies)

Electives

12 hours (four of these must be taken in AT LEAST two different disciplines). Electives must be approved by the program director. A list of approved courses may be obtained each semester from the Director of the Minor, Dr. Jeffrey Zamosny (Foreign Languages and Literatures; jzamosn@westga.edu).

German Minor

Requirements

A minor in German requires 18 total hours, with at least 12 hours of courses at the 3000 level or above, including:

- GRMN 3101 - Conversational German 3
- GRMN 3102 - German Composition 3

Total: 18 Hours

Spanish Minor

Requirements

A minor in Spanish requires 18 total hours, with at least 12 hours of courses at the 3000 level or above, including:

Instructors:

K. Griffin, R. Primuth, T. Pitts, S. Pollard

History majors should complete their history course core requirements before taking history courses numbered 3000 or above. They should meet each term with their major field advisors for consultation regarding their programs.

Learning Outcomes

Students who earn the Bachelor of Arts degree in History will be able:

Demonstrate content knowledge of history

Analyze primary and secondary sources for their historical content and interpretations

Demonstrate ability to research according to historical methods

Demonstrate writing skills that reflect persuasive historical arguments based on evidence and proper citation

The History Department believes that these learning outcomes will contribute to a student's ability to think historically, which includes: understanding the people of the past; understanding the perspectives of historical actors and to view those historical actors from a critical, scholarly perspective; recognizing that people, events, ideas, and cultures have influenced later people events, ideas, and cultures; recognizing that history involves both change and continuity over time; and explaining connections between particular people, events, ideas, or texts and their historical contexts.

Minor

Asian Studies Minor

What is Asian Studies, and why study it?

This is a program devoted to the multi-disciplinary study of cultures and civilizations of Asia. Students may study the rich historical, religious, artistic or literary traditions of the continent, while also engaging with the region's contemporary dynamic economic, business and social aspects. Students may take advantage of one of the many travel and study abroad programs that work well in conjunction with our program, and will discover that a wide range of opportunities become possible.

Program of Study for the Minor in Asian Studies:

Students are required to complete a total of 16 credit hours (5 courses and a 1hr capstone) to be drawn from at least three different departments. At least 9 credits (3 courses) must be taken at the 4000-level, while no more than 6 hours can be at the 2000 level. We provide a list of courses that qualify for our program. In addition, other courses that contain at least 33% subject material on Asia will qualify for the minor, subject to approval by the Minor Committee. Per USG rules, courses taken to satisfy Core areas A-E may not be counted as coursework in the Minor.

The capstone, XIDS 4000, is a 1hr course required for completion of the minor

Have questions or would like to declare a Minor in Asian Studies?

Classical Studies Minor

What is Classical Studies, and why study it?

The study of the literature, languages, history, art, philosophy and political thought of the Greeks and Romans develops the mind by requiring students to engage critically with such timeless topics as beauty and esthetics, the ideal relationship of the citizen and the state, the roles of men and women in society, freedom and slavery, the nature of war and peace, the purpose of literature, and the role of religion in public and private life. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Classics have long been considered the ideal foundation of education for the informed citizen in any profession.

Program of Study for the Minor in Classical Studies:

Students are required to complete a total of 15 credit hours (5 courses) to be drawn from at least three different departments. At least 9 credits (3 courses) must be taken at the 3000-level and above. Courses are to be selected from the approved lists of courses in the Classical World and the Classical Tradition and its reception after Antiquity (see below), with the caveat that additional courses may qualify for the Minor, subject to the discretion of the Minor committee. Per USG rules, courses taken to satisfy Core areas A-E may not be counted as coursework in the Minor. Students are strongly recommended to take Introduction to Classical Studies, a new XIDS 2100 course, to be taught for the first time in Fall 2012.

The Department of Music at West Georgia is dedicated to developing educators who are equally well trained as musicians and teachers, and to developing performers, composers, and scholars who contribute performances, works, and ideas of integrity. Bachelor of Music degrees are offered with majors in Music Education, Composition, Performance, Performance with an Emphasis in Jazz Studies, and Performance with an Emphasis in Piano Pedagogy. The program of study in music education leads to Georgia State Teacher Certification. Students who pursue a major in another field of study may qualify to pursue a Minor in Music. All instruction is delivered by distinguished artist-teacher faculty with extensive credentials and professional experience. The University of West Georgia is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

Faculty and Facilities

Cultural events are presented in the Kathy Cashen Recital hall, which houses a two-manual, 16-rank Reuter pipe organ and a 9-ft. Steinway concert grand piano, and in the Townsend Center for the Performing Arts, which boasts a mainstage hall of 455 seats and the Richard Dangle "black-box" Theater. Gracing the mainstage of the Townsend Center are twin Bösendorfer Imperial grand pianos, making West Georgia one of only a few institutions in the nation to have two such instruments on the same stage. In addition to Kathy Cashen Recital Hall, the Humanities Building houses a state-of-the-art music technology lab, a well-equipped keyboard lab, a large percussion studio, multi-media classrooms, faculty studios, and numerous practice rooms. UWG is the first public university in the nation to be designated a Kawai EPIC Institution. In addition to the pianos mentioned above, our Excellent Performance Instrument Collection includes Kawai pianos in all classrooms, studios, practice rooms, and rehearsal rooms, an additional Steinway concert grand, and five Shigeru Kawai grand pianos of various sizes, including a designated rehearsal instrument reserved for Piano principals.

Opportunities in Music

Students at West Georgia, whether music majors, minors, or non-music majors, participate in a wide range of music activities for university credit. Music majors and minors follow a prescribed program of study, while non-music majors may select from a wide variety of offerings.

Many students perform in University ensembles, which include the Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, Opera Workshop, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Chamber Winds, Jazz Ensemble, Marching Band, Basketball Band, Keyboard Ensemble, Brass Ensemble, Woodwind Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble, and various small chamber groups.

Private study is available in piano, organ, voice, and guitar, as well as in wind, brass, and percussion instruments. These private lessons are required of all music majors and minors (Principal Applied). Music majors who desire to study a second instrument may enroll in MUSC 4610: Secondary Applied.

Students also enroll in music courses offered in the Core Curriculum, including Music Appreciation; Jazz, Rock, and Popular Music; and Survey of World Music. To determine which courses can most suitably meet your needs, contact the Chair of the Department of Music.

Entrance Auditions and Placement Examinations

All incoming freshmen and transfer students planning to major in music must audition before the music faculty on their principal performing instrument or voice. A scholarship audition may serve as a student's admission audition.

Credit by examination for any course in the Music Theory or Keyboard Skills sequence must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar.

Transfer Student Admission

The music major entering the Department of Music by transfer must submit an official transcript of all previous college work to the University's Office of Admissions. The applicant should be prepared to validate achievements in the area of applied music, music theory, ear training and sight singing, keyboard proficiency, and the history and literature of music. Plans for the removal of any deficiency must be initiated during the first registration period.

Transfer students must pass the level-change examination in order to register for upper-division principal-applied study (MUSC 4600: Principal Applied). For transfer students who have completed 2 years of applied study, the level-change examination may take place during the entrance audition. Otherwise it will occur during the applied jury examination in the semester when the student is ready for advancement from the lower-division to the upper-division level of study.

Specific requirements regarding applied lessons are listed on the department website at: (<http://www.westga.edu/music>). For additional information about the performance standards for applied-music study, please see the faculty coordinator(s) in your area or the Chair of the Department of Music.

Music Scholarships

Music scholarship awards are available to qualified students as determined by a scholarship audition. Numerous students are served annually by these awards to music-major, music-minor, and non-music-major students. All awards are valid pending admission to and approval of funding by the University.

The Music Scholarship Committee considers many criteria before recommending a candidate for a scholarship award. These criteria include the candidate's anticipated contribution to departmental ensembles, the needs within the department, the financial need of the candidate, and the amount of award money available. For continuing students, additional considerations include their actual contributions to the department through solo performances and ensemble participation, improvement and growth in applied study, and academic standing.

Learning Outcomes

The learning outcomes for each of the degree programs in Music can be found at the Website <https://www.westga.edu/academics/coah/music/music-degree-programs.php>.

Notes:

Prerequisite: successful completion of the preceding course in the Music-Theory and Aural-Skills course sequences. Any course in the Music-Theory course sequence can be taken for credit by examination. Credit by examination must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar.

Orientation to Technology is included in the first five weeks of MUSC 1401 - Aural Skills I. Prerequisite: admission to music degree program or successful completion of the preceding course in the sequence. May be taken for credit by examination. Passing the Keyboard-Skills course sequence (i.e., MUSC 1501, MUSC 1502, MUSC 2501, MUSC 2502) constitutes keyboard proficiency. Keyboard proficiency is a prerequisite to MUSC 3850, MUSC 3900, MUSC 4171, MUSC 4172, MUSC 4181, MUSC 4182, MUSC 4311, MUSC 4400 and MUSC 4500. Students must enroll in Keyboard Skills each term offered for a minimum of four semesters and until successful completion. A course or courses in the sequence may receive credit by examination.

Credit by examination for any course must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar. The requirements for each proficiency level are included in the various Keyboard-Skills course syllabi.

Students enroll in the ensemble associated with the principal-applied area and according to the requirements specific to the major and option (See "Specific Requirements" above for each major and option).

Total Degree Program: 120 Hours

1. Six terms must be completed with the grade "S." Transfer students may transfer credit. (See Requirements Common to all Bachelor of Music Degrees below.)
2. Prerequisite: Successful completion of the preceding course in the Music-Theory and Aural-Skills course sequences. Any course in the Music-Theory course sequence can be taken for credit by examination. Credit by examination must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar.
3. Prerequisite: Admission to music degree program or successful completion of the preceding course in the sequence. May be taken for credit by examination. Passing the Keyboard-Skills course sequence (i.e., MUSC 1501, MUSC 1502, MUSC 2501, MUSC

2502) constitutes keyboard proficiency. Keyboard proficiency is a prerequisite to MUSC 3850, MUSC 3900, MUSC 4171, MUSC 4172, MUSC 4181, MUSC 4182, MUSC 4311, MUSC 4400 and MUSC 4500. Students must enroll in Keyboard Skills each term offered for a minimum of four semesters and until successful completion. A course or courses in the sequence may receive credit by examination. Credit by examination for any course must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar. The requirements for each proficiency level are included in the various Keyboard-Skills course syllabi.

4. Admission to MUSC 4600 requires passing a "level-change" performance-jury examination after completion of MUSC 2600.
5. Prerequisite: Passing the degree-recital hearing and permission of the instructor.

Specific Requirements, Bachelor of Music In Composition

1. Ensemble Requirement
 - a) Woodwind, brass, and percussion instrumentalists pursuing the Composition major must be in Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band, or Marching Band for the first 4 semesters offered. At least one semester of Marching Band is required. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one wind and/or percussion ensemble appropriate to their Principal-Applied performance area every semester offered (with the possible exception of the semester of, or immediately prior to, the full recital).
 - b) Voice students pursuing the Composition major must be in Concert Choir for the first 4 semesters offered. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one vocal ensemble every semester offered (with the possible exception of the semester of, or immediately prior to, the full recital).
 - c) Keyboard, string, and guitar students pursuing the Composition major must be in Wind Ensemble, Marching Band, Symphony Band, or Concert Choir for the first 4 semesters offered. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one ensemble every semester offered (with the possible exception of the semester of, or immediately prior to, the full recital).
2. Principal-Applied Requirements
 - a) Students must register for MUSC 2600 Principal Applied (the principal performing instrument or voice) each term offered for a minimum of 6 credit hours and until passage of the level-change examination. Thereafter, the student must enroll in MUSC 4600 each term offered until a minimum of 4 credit hours has been earned. All credits earned in Principal Applied must be on a single instrument or in voice only.
 - b) Students must attend Principal-Applied seminars, master classes, recitals, and studio classes as part of the MUSC 1000 requirement.
 - c) Solo Public Performances in Principal-Applied area: Freshman year (1), Sophomore year (1), Junior year (1), and Senior year (1).
 - d) The Composition major requires a Half Composition Recital (20-30 minutes of music) of the student's original compositions during the junior year and a Full Composition Recital (40-60 minutes of music) of the student's original compositions during the senior year. Successful completion of MUSC 4944 - Half Composition Recital is a prerequisite for permission to enroll in MUSC 4945 - Full Composition Recital. Half and Full degree recitals must be auditioned for approval by a faculty committee.

* Prerequisite: admission to the Teacher Education program. Admission requires a GPA of at least 2.7 and passage or qualified exemption of GACE Program Admission Assessment.

 Admission to the Teaching Internship requires the satisfactory completion of all coursework (see College of Education). Admission to Teacher Education must be completed by June 1 prior to enrolling in MUSC 3900 - Music in Elementary Schools.

Specific Requirements, Bachelor of Music in Music Education

1. Admission to the Teacher Education program requires the completion of 30 credit hours, including Core Area A, a minimum overall GPA of 2.7, passage or qualified exemption of the GACE Program Admission Assessment, and approval by the Department of Music. Successful completion of the Music education program requires that students must maintain a minimum overall GPA of 2.7, earn a grade of C or better in all professional education courses, teaching field courses, and supporting courses for the teaching field, and successful completion of all field experiences. Satisfactory completion of the GACE Content Assessments in Music is required for Georgia Teacher Certification.
2. Ensemble Requirement
 - a) Woodwind, brass, and percussion instrumentalists pursuing the Music Education major must be in Marching Band, Wind Ensemble, or Symphonic Band each term offered, with the exception of the semester of the teaching internship. At least two semesters of Marching Band are required. One semester of Small Ensemble is also required.
 - b) Voice students pursuing the Music Education major must be in Concert Choir each term offered, with the exception of the semester of the teaching internship.
 - c) Keyboard, string, and guitar students pursuing the Music Education major must be in Marching Band, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, or Concert Choir each term offered, with the exception of the semester of the teaching internship.
3. Principal-Applied Requirements
 - a) Students must register for MUSC 2600 Principal Applied (the principal performing instrument or voice) each term offered for a minimum of 6 credit hours and until passage of the level-change examination. Thereafter, the student must enroll in MUSC 4600 each term offered until a minimum of 6 credit hours has been earned. All credits earned in Principal Applied must be on a single instrument or in voice only.
 - b) Students must attend Principal-Applied seminars, master classes, recitals, and studio classes as part of the MUSC 1000 requirement.
 - c) Solo Public Performances in Principal-Applied area: Freshman year (1), Sophomore year (1), Junior year (1), and Senior year (1).
 - d) The Performance major requires a Half Recital (20-30 minutes of music) during the junior year and a Full Recital (40-60 minutes of music) during the senior year, each based on studies in Principal Applied. Half Recitals exceeding 30 minutes of music must be approved by the hearing committee. Successful completion of MUSC 4941 - Half Recital is a prerequisite for permission to enroll in MUSC 4942 - Full Recital. Half and Full degree recitals must be auditioned for approval by a faculty committee. Principal-Applied voice recitals must collectively include works sung in English, French, German, and Italian.

5. Prerequisite: Passing the degree-recital hearing and permission of the instructor.

Specific Requirements, Bachelor of Music in Performance: Emphasis in Jazz Studies

OPTIONS: Woodwind, Brass, & Percussion; Keyboard, String & Guitar

1. Ensemble Requirement
 - a) Woodwind, brass, and percussion instrumentalists pursuing the Performance major with Emphasis in Jazz Studies must be in Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band, or Marching Band for the first 4 semesters offered. At least one semester of Marching Band is required. Thereafter, these students enroll in Jazz Ensemble and are encouraged to perform in more than one ensemble per semester.
 - b) Keyboard, string, and guitar students pursuing the Performance major with Emphasis in Jazz Studies must be in Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band, Marching Band, or Concert Choir for the first 4 semesters offered. Thereafter, these students enroll in Jazz Ensemble and are encouraged to perform in more than one ensemble per semester.
2. Principal-Applied Requirements
 - a) Students must register for MUSC 2600 Principal Applied (the principal performing instrument or voice) each term offered for a minimum of 8 credit hours and until passage of the level-change examination. Thereafter, the student must enroll in MUSC 4600 each term offered until a minimum of 10 credit hours has been earned. All credits earned in Principal Applied must be on a single instrument.
 - b) Students must attend Principal-Applied seminars, master classes, recitals, and studio classes as part of the MUSC 1000 requirement.
 - c) Solo Public Performances in Principal-Applied area: Freshman year (1), Sophomore year (2), Junior year (3), and Senior year (3).
 - d) The Performance major with Emphasis in Jazz Studies requires a Half Recital (20-30 minutes of music) during the junior year and a Full Recital (40-60 minutes of music) during the senior year, each based on studies in Principal Applied. Half Recitals exceeding 30 minutes of music must be approved by the hearing committee. Successful completion of MUSC 4941 - Half Recital is a prerequisite for permission to enroll in MUSC 4942 - Full Recital. Half and Full degree recitals must be auditioned for approval by a faculty committee. In addition, students must perform a Jazz Recital (20-30 minutes) during the senior year consisting of jazz compositions and improvisations on the principal-applied instrument, including original compositions written in MUSC 4311 - Applied Jazz Composition and Arranging.

Total Degree Program: 120 Hours

1. Six terms must be completed with the grade "S." Transfer students may transfer credit. (See Requirements Common to all Bachelor of Music Degrees below.)
2. Prerequisite: Successful completion of the preceding course in the Music-Theory and Aural-Skills course sequences. Any course in the Music-Theory course sequence can be taken for credit by examination. Credit by examination must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar.
3. Prerequisite: Admission to music degree program or successful completion of the preceding course in the sequence. May be taken for credit by examination. Passing the Keyboard-Skills course sequence (i.e., MUSC 1501, MUSC 1502, MUSC 2501, MUSC

2502) constitutes keyboard proficiency. Keyboard proficiency is a prerequisite to MUSC 3850, MUSC 3900, MUSC 4171, MUSC 4172, MUSC 4181, MUSC 4182, MUSC 4311, MUSC 4400 and MUSC 4500. Students must enroll in Keyboard Skills each term offered for a minimum of four semesters and until successful completion. A course or courses in the sequence may receive credit by examination. Credit by examination for any course must be validated by the course's faculty and processed through the Music Office and the Office of the Registrar. The requirements for each proficiency level are included in the various Keyboard-Skills course syllabi.

4. Admission to MUSC 4600 requires passing a "level-change" performance-jury examination after completion of MUSC 2600.
5. Prerequisite: Passing the degree-recital hearing and permission of the instructor.

Specific Requirements, Bachelor of Music in Performance

OPTIONS: Woodwind, Brass, Percussion; Voice; String & Guitar

1. Ensemble Requirement
 - a) Woodwind, brass, and percussion instrumentalists pursuing the Performance major must be in Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band, or Marching Band for the first 4 semesters offered. At least one semester of Marching Band is required. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one wind and/or percussion ensemble appropriate to their Principal-Applied performance area every semester offered.
 - b) Voice students pursuing the Performance major must be in Concert Choir for the first 4 semesters offered. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one vocal ensemble every semester offered (with the possible exception of the semester of, or immediately prior to, the full recital).
 - c) String and guitar students pursuing the Performance major must be in Wind Ensemble, Marching Band, Symphony Band, or Concert Choir for the first 4 semesters offered. Thereafter, these students enroll in at least one ensemble every semester offered (with the possible exception of the semester of, or immediately prior to, the full recital).
2. Principal-Applied Requirements
 - a) Students must register for MUSC 2600 Principal Applied (the principal performing instrument or voice) each term offered for a minimum of 8 credit hours and until passage of the level-change examination. Thereafter, the student must enroll in MUSC 4600 each term offered until a minimum of 10 credit hours has been earned. All credits earned in Principal-Applied must be on a single instrument or in voice only.
 - b) Students must attend Principal-Applied seminars, master classes, recitals, and studio classes as part of the MUSC 1000 requirement.
 - c) Solo Public Performances in Principal-Applied area: Freshman year (1), Sophomore year (2), Junior year (3), and Senior year (3).
 - d) The Performance major requires a Half Recital (20-30 minutes of music) during the junior year and a Full Recital (40-60 minutes of music) during the senior year, each based on studies in Principal Applied. Successful completion of MUSC 4941 - Half Recital is a prerequisite for permission to enroll in MUSC 4942 - Full Recital. Half and Full degree recitals must be auditioned for approval by a faculty committee. Principal-Applied voice recitals must collectively include works sung in English, French, German, and Italian.

Bachelor of Art

Theatre, B.A.

The Bachelor of Arts in Theatre is designed to illuminate the complexity of humanity through coursework and productions that mesh theatrical history, theory, and aesthetic concepts. Emphasis is on acting, directing, designing, constructing, and playwriting. Production work with the West Georgia Theatre Company provides a co-curricular component to the B.A. degree. This program is nationally accredited through the National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST).

To be admitted into the B.A. program in Theatre, students must have completed at least 15 credit hours with a cumulative G.P.A. (including all transfer credit) of 2.5 or better.

Degree Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate knowledge of selected plays, theatrical conventions, and theatrical movements important in the formation of the modern theatre.
- Students will describe basic knowledge of theatre history, theory, and criticism, including research sources and methodology.
- Students will demonstrate skills in analyzing plays, using theatre technology, and conducting research.
- Students will express through performance, writing, speaking and other modes of communication the results of research and critical judgment, indicated by a demonstrable ability to reach an audience effectively through at least one of the components of theatrical art.
- Students will apply skills learned in courses to a variety of work and social environments.
- Students will illustrate awareness of the complex human condition acquired through aesthetic and intellectual perceptions as evidenced in various modes of theatrical production.
- Students will function safely and effectively while using theatre technology.

- Students will demonstrate knowledge of the various means (acting, directing, designing, constructing, playwriting, etc.) through which a theatrical concept is realized.

College of Education

LEADING A NEW WORLD OF LEARNING

Dianne L. Hoff, Dean

678-839-6570

<http://coe.westga.edu/education/>

Mission Statement

Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Vision Statement

The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

Physical Education Requirement

The College of Education requires three hours of physical education. The student must satisfy this requirement by taking the 2-hour Health and Wellness course (PWLA 1600) and one 1-hour activity course.

A range of activity courses is offered each semester emphasizing lifetime activities, fitness-based activities, individual pursuits, and team sports. All activity courses encourage wellness and mental and physical health across the lifespan.

Military veterans with two or more years of active duty will not have to take the activity course.

Certification

The Georgia Professional Standards Commission awards professional educator certificates in Georgia. The University of West Georgia has been approved to offer undergraduate programs designed to qualify students for the level four induction certificate in the following teaching fields:

1. Elementary Education (Grades P-5)

2. Elementary/Special Education - General Curriculum (Grades P-5)
3. Secondary Education (Grades 6-12), with these majors:
 - Biology
 - Chemistry
 - Earth Science
 - English
 - History
 - Mathematics
 - Physics
4. All level fields (Grades P-12)
 - Art Education
 - French
 - Health and Physical Education
 - Music Education
 - Spanish
 - Special Education - General Curriculum

The teacher education programs in Elementary, Elementary/Special Education, Physical Education, and Special Education lead to a Bachelor of Science in Education degree with certification.

The program for certification on the P-12 level in selected fields is organized on an interdepartmental basis. The student completes the requirements for a Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and a Bachelor of Music, as planned by the student's departmental advisor, while the professional education requirements are taken under the direction of the College of Education. Completion of one of the approved programs by the College of Education qualifies the graduate for an induction level four certificate in Georgia.

Georgia House Bill 671 requires that after July 1, 1976, any person certified as a teacher should have completed satisfactorily requirements in the identification and education of children who have special needs.

Note: The educational requirements of all programs are designed to enable one to meet present certification assessment(s) required by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission; however, the Georgia Professional Standards Commission may change required certification assessment(s) prior to the completion of the course of study. While reasonable efforts will be made to enable one to satisfy additional requirements, no assurances can be made that the University will be able to offer these additional courses or, if taken, that such courses will entitle one to take and pass the certification assessment(s). Prior to receipt of induction certification, the appropriate certification assessment(s) required by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission must be completed and passed. The candidate has the responsibility to register for the appropriate certification assessments.

All post-baccalaureate students seeking initial certification must be admitted to teacher education and have an approved program of study planned prior to the end of the first semester of enrollment. All students must complete the program of study at West Georgia. In all cases, the appropriate certification assessment(s) will be required.

State authorization to provide a program related to the preparation of teachers or other P-12 school / system personnel does not indicate eligibility for an Alabama certificate. Applicants for an Alabama certificate based on reciprocity must meet Alabama's test requirements and submit a valid, renewable professional educator certificate/license issued by another state at the degree level, grade level, and in the teaching field or area of instructional support for which an Alabama certificate is sought and for which Alabama issues a certificate. Applicants for Alabama certification in an area of administration must also document at least three years of full-time employment as an administrator in a P-12 school system(s). www.alsde.edu

Admission to Teacher Education

Admission to the teacher education program is a prerequisite to enrollment in professional education courses. Students should file application for admission through their Tk20 account. The Tk20 information page can be found at www.westga.edu/academics/education/tk20-system.php. Admission to the program is based on meeting specific qualifications.

Eligibility

Admission to the teacher education program is a prerequisite to enrollment in professional education courses. Eligibility requirements for admission to teacher education for undergraduate programs include the following:

1. Completion of all core requirements for Areas A, B, C, D, E and F.
2. A minimum overall GPA of 2.5 is required for those entering the Physical Education degree program; a minimum overall GPA of 2.7 is required for those entering Art, Music, French, Spanish, Elementary, Secondary, Special Education: General Curriculum, and Speech-Language Pathology.
3. Proficiency in oral communication as demonstrated by a grade of C or better in any course found in Area B - Category 1 (Oral Communication) of the Core Curriculum, or by other means determined by the department-e.g., interviews or tapes of oral communication.
4. Satisfactory completion of the program admission assessment (or exemption) required of all candidates admitted to teacher education - GACE Basic Skills/Program Admission Assessment or Praxis I. (Praxis I is appropriate only for candidates who achieved a passing composite score on this test by September 1, 2006). See individual advisors for specific details. All out-of-state transfers must fulfill this requirement during the first term enrolled at the University of West Georgia.
5. Completion of the GACE Educator Ethics - Program Entry Assessment.
6. Successful completion of Area F courses with grades of C or better.
7. Satisfactory completion of the physical education requirement of the college from which the candidate will graduate. See the Undergraduate Catalog for further details.
8. Completion of any other additional requirements specified by individual departments, e.g., a departmental interview.

Education Blocks

Education Program Completion Requirements

Candidates are eligible for the Georgia educator certificate only upon successful completion of the teacher education program and passing scores on the appropriate assessments for certification as required for certification by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission.

Candidates must meet the following requirements for successful completion of the teacher education program:

1. See specific bachelor's degree program as applicable.

2. Complete SPED 3713 (Special Education programs only) or SPED 3715, or department approved alternative to meet the special education requirement of Georgia House Bill 671.
3. Earn a grade of C or better in all professional education courses, in teaching field (content) courses, and in supporting courses for the teaching field, including Area F of the Core. (See program sheets.)
4. Complete successfully all field experiences, including exhibiting responsible professional behavior at the field placement sites and in interactions with peers, faculty, and students.

Field Experiences

All teacher education programs require satisfactory completion of field experiences. Check with appropriate College of Education departments for information on field experience requirements and procedures for application.

Application/enrollment for placements for all practicum, internship, and block courses must be completed through Tk20. Field experience applications are due the semester prior to enrollment. Due dates for submittal will be announced on the Office of Field Experiences website at <https://www.westga.edu/academics/education/ofe.php>.

Students are expected to complete all professional education and content course work prior to their teaching internship (student teaching) semester. Traditionally, students enrolled in the teaching internship have been limited to no more than 12 hours, defined as 9 hours of internship and 3 hours of student teaching seminar. With advisor consent, students may be allowed to complete one additional course during their teaching internship. Under no circumstances will students be allowed to take more than one additional course during their teaching internship.

Internship/Practicum Fee

A course-related fee is associated with internships and practicums to include student teaching, block, and other experiences in educator preparation programs at the University of West Georgia. The fee, which was endorsed by the West Georgia Student Government Association is applied to costs associated with field experiences (including evaluation forms, supervision travel, and mentor teacher development).

Liability Insurance

All teacher education candidates must provide their own liability insurance. Candidates, not the University of West Georgia, are responsible for acts committed while participating in professional field experiences. Keep in mind that financial penalties can be extreme, particularly when public school students are injured as a result of the candidates' negligent acts or omissions. Terms of the liability insurance policy can be obtained from the Office of Field Experiences. Coverage may be obtained through Student Professional Association of Georgia Educators (SPAGE) and/or Georgia Association of Educators (GAE). Information concerning these organizations is available from each department in the College of Education, the Academic Advisement Center, and/or the Office of Field Experiences.

UWG Pre-Kindergarten

West Georgia operates a pre-kindergarten in the Education Annex for children aged four to five years who meet eligibility requirements for Georgia Pre-K. The program is under the direction of the COE Dean's Office. The pre-kindergarten program is open from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. weekdays, August through May.

During the regular school year, the program employs four full-time general education teachers, one special education teacher, and four assistant teachers. There are three general education classrooms and one inclusion classroom housed in the Pre-K. Practicum experiences are provided for numerous graduate and undergraduate students in several fields of study.

The four-year-old pre-kindergarten program is funded through a state grant from Bright from the Start.

For further information, call 678-839-6563.

TecHUB

The Technology - Enhanced Curriculum center (TecHUB) supports teaching and learning within the College of Education by providing collaborative workspaces, innovative technologies, and other curricular resources to students, teachers, faculty, and other educational professionals. The TecHUB collection consists of both print and non-print materials for use in elementary, middle, and secondary schools, as well as other educational spaces. The TecHUB provides access to cutting-edge technologies, e-books, and immersive and interactive tools. Hours of operation, checkout policies, and general information can be found at: www.westga.edu/academics/education/techub.php

Test Center

The Test Center is located in the College of Education Comprehensive Community Clinic, and houses over 200 tests in various categories including achievement, developmental, personality, intelligence, speech and language, and reading. Its primary purpose is to enhance students' learning experiences and abilities to select, administer, interpret, and apply assessments under supervision of faculty. A secondary purpose of the Test Center is to provide appropriate resource assessment materials needed by faculty to support relevant teaching and research activities. Hours of operation, checkout policies, and a list of available tests can be found at www.westga.edu/academics/education/techub.php.

Bachelor of Science in Education

Special Education-General Curriculum, B.S.Ed.

This program in the area of General Curriculum prepares candidates to teach students with disabilities who are being educated in the general education curriculum who attend preschool through high school programs, as well as preschoolers receiving special education services. Graduates sometimes choose other jobs in related social service areas or pursue teacher certification in additional areas of specialty at the graduate/post-baccalaureate level. The learning outcomes for the students who receive the Bachelor of Science in Special Education-General Curriculum are taken from the Special Education Initial Content Standards and the Initial Knowledge and Skills Sets of the Council for Exceptional Children.

Sport Management, B.S.

The University of West Georgia Sport Management program is designed to serve society by developing responsible leaders for the world of sport business. It is our goal to be recognized for our:

- action-oriented curriculum in which the students learn by practicing and performing those tasks they will be expected to do in their professional positions;
- student-centered teaching that is the product of the faculty's commitment to the holistic development of our students;
- market-driven instruction that is cutting edge and ensures that the knowledge bases, skills, and competencies we seek to instill in our students are those that are demanded by industry employers;
- managerially relevant research that is designed to improve decision making and assist in overcoming organizational challenges;
- mutually beneficial partnerships with sport properties that are developed to further solidify the bond between industry and the University.

Recognizing that the sport industry is ever-changing, the program is committed to being sensitive to the dynamics that could affect the relevance of the instruction. In summary, the faculty is committed to the advancement of knowledge and practice in the sport industry through the creation and delivery of relevant educational programs, conducting and disseminating research, and working collaboratively with industry organizations.

- d) In order to enroll in the internship, students must have a minimum overall GPA of 2.5.

4. Related Content

Students should work cooperatively with their academic advisor to select a university approved minor to complete the program. Students must declare their minor and be advised regarding that minor by an advisor from the college where the minor is housed. Recommended minors include accounting, biology, business administration, creative writing, economics, English, finance, management, marketing, mass communications, psychology, and sociology.

Bachelor of Science in Education

Physical Education, B.S.Ed.

Prior to entering the physical education major program, candidates at UWG must have (1) completed the 3-hour physical education requirement at UWG or (2) satisfied the physical education requirement at another institution to include at least 2 hours in health or health and wellness (this includes 2 credit personal wellness and 1 credit activity course).

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Core Area F: 18 Hours (a)

- PHED 2602 - Introduction to Teaching Health and Physical Education 2
- PHED 2603 - Human Anatomy and Physiology I 3
- PHED 2604 - Human Anatomy and Physiology II 3
- PHED 2628 - First Aid and CPR for Education Majors 1
- EDUC 2110 - Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education 3 (b)
- EDUC 2120 - Exploring Sociocultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educational Contexts 3 (b)
- EDUC 2130 - Exploring Learning and Teaching 3 (b)

Physical Education Requirement: 3 Hours

- PWLA 1600 - Personal Wellness 2
- PWLA (Any one hour activity course) 1

Professional Courses Required for the Degree: 64 Hours (c)

Foundations Block (Fall Junior Year): 16 Hours

- PHED 3500 - Educational Games, Gymnastics, and Dance 2
- PHED 3501 - Skills and Strategies in Strength and Conditioning 2
- PHED 3625 - Motor Behavior 3
- PHED 3670 - Instructional Strategies of Health and Physical Education 3
- PHED 4500 - Personal and Community Health Issues 3
- CEPD 4101 - Educational Psychology 3

Elementary Block (Spring Junior Year): 16 Hours

- PHED 3503 - Skills and Strategies in Net and Wall Games 2
- PHED 3671 - Physical Education in Elementary Schools 4
- PHED 4630 - Foundations and Principles of Coaching 3
- PHED 4603 - Advanced Concepts of Personal Training 3
- PHED 3720 - Adapted Physical Education Field Experience 1
- SPED 3715 - The Inclusive Classroom: Differentiating Instruction 3

Summer Senior Year: 3 Hours

- PHED 3401 - Integrating Technology into Health and Physical Education 3

Secondary Block (Fall Senior Year): 17 Hours

- PHED 3502 - Skills and Strategies in Target and Outdoor Activities 2
- PHED 3504 - Skills and Strategies in Invasion Games 2
- PHED 3710 - Assessing Performance in Health and Physical Education 3
- PHED 3675 - Physical Education in Middle and Secondary Schools 4
- PHED 4502 - School Health Education 3
- PHED 4605 - Applied Biomechanics 3

Internship Block (Spring Senior Year): 12 Hours

- PHED 4686 - Teaching Internship 9
- PHED 4689 - Teaching Internship Seminar 3

Total: 127 Hours

(a) Grade of "C" or better required

(b) 2.5 GPA required

(c) Requires admission to Teacher Education and a grade of "C" or better

Minor

Sport Management Minor:

A minor in Sport Management requires a total of 15 credit hours in SPMG courses. To qualify, students must complete the pre-requisite course SPMG 2600 - introduction to Sport Management with a grade of C or better. After fulfilling the prerequisite requirement, the student must select 4 SPMG elective courses level 3000 or above and maintain a minor GPA of 2.0 or better.

Eligible courses for SPMG minor:

- SPMG 2600 - Introduction Sport Management 3
- SPMG 3660 - Managerial Ethics and Governance in Sport 3
- SPMG 3661 - Sociology of Sport 3
- SPMG 3662 - Management and Leadership in Sport Organizations 3
- SPMG 3663 - Sport Facility and Event Management 3
- SPMG 3664 - Economics and Finance in Sport 3
- SPMG 3665 - Communication in Sport 3
- SPMG 4665 - Sport Marketing and Promotion 3
- SPMG 4667 - Legal Issues for Sport Management 3
- SPMG 4668 - Human Resource Management in Sport 3
- SPMG 4670 - Practicum 3
- SPMG 4680 - Applied Research Methods in Sport Management 3
- SPMG 4685 - Special Topics in Sport Management 3

College of Science and Mathematics

Lok C. Lew Yan Voon, Dean
<http://www.westga.edu/cosm>

The College of Science and Mathematics is charged with the responsibility of providing instruction to students majoring in traditional sciences and mathematics disciplines, as well as providing the general education component of all the non-science and mathematics programs. It does so with the realization that in order to prepare students to face the ever-changing, complex society in which we live, it is necessary to do more than teach them a number of facts and train them in a variety of skills. This is done by offering a challenging curriculum that exposes students to innovative teaching and hands-on experiences.

The College of Science and Mathematics offers degrees in all traditional areas of science and mathematics, including biology, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, and physics. Sequences of quality academic courses are provided to prepare students for graduate studies in the discipline and the school of their choice, as well as for a variety of scientific careers, including elementary and secondary school teaching. In addition, it is believed that an educated person in modern society requires a basic understanding of science and mathematics as well as computational skills. Courses designed to accommodate this need are incorporated in all major programs and are available to students desiring a liberal experience in the sciences.

Graduation Requirement for Discipline-Specific Writing

All students majoring in disciplines in the College of Science and Mathematics must satisfy the requirements for Discipline Specific Writing (DSW) in order to graduate.

DSW Requirements

ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 (or the equivalent of) are prerequisite to all "W" (writing-intensive) courses.

- W-courses will require a minimum of 4000 words of original, formal, graded writing, including one major assignment entailing instructor feedback and revision.
- Students must take at least two 3000/4000-level W-courses (courses approved as writing-intensive courses and marked in the course bulletin with a W) for a total of at least 6 hours. Both courses must satisfy requirements or electives in the student's major, and at least one must be specific to the major. Departments may also elect to designate specific courses in allied disciplines that would fulfill the DSW requirement for the major.
- DSW requirements vary from department to department: students should consult the catalog and department DSW website for requirements specific to their major.

Certificate Option

A DSW certificate option is available for students who wish to gain additional experience in writing as well as to demonstrate a commitment to developing exemplary communication skills. A student may elect to double the basic DSW requirements, passing 12 hours of writing-intensive courses. These additional courses need not be in the student's major, unless the department specifies otherwise. Students who elect this option and earn a grade of C or above in each of their writing-intensive classes will receive:

- a Discipline-Specific Writing certificate, and
- transcript notation of this accomplishment.

Physical Education Requirement

- The college of Science and Mathematics does not have any physical education requirements. Physical Education classes will not count as electives. Note, however, that if a student changes from the College of Science and Mathematics to the College of Education, the student must satisfy that college's physical education requirement.

Professional Practice Program

The Department of Career Services assists students in combining classroom study and field experience related to students' majors and/or career goals. Cooperative Education and Internship opportunities are available to students within the College of Science and Mathematics. For further details on Professional Practice opportunities, contact the Department of Career Services at 678-839-6431, come by Room 222 in Parker Hall, or visit the department's website at <https://www.westga.edu/careerservices/>.

Regents Engineering Pathways (REP) program (formerly RETP)

The Regents' Engineering Pathway (REP) program was originally established in 1986 Regents Engineering Transfer Program (RETP) to expand the availability of engineering education opportunities for Georgians for a select number of USG institutions. As of September 1, 2016, this program will be known as The Regents' Engineering Pathway (REP) program and will be open to all USG institutions. In its current structure, students complete two or more years of engineering pathway courses at participating University System of Georgia institutions and then transfer to Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia Southern University, Kennesaw State University, Mercer University or the University of Georgia to complete a B.S. degree in Engineering (REP program Engineering Institutions).

For more information, please see your adviser and visit the USG webpage

Admission to B.S. in Biology Program

To be admitted into the B.S. program in Biology, students must have completed at least 30 hours with a cumulative GPA (including all transfer credit) of 2.5 or better. The criteria for declaring a major in the B.S. in Biology Program are as follows:

- The standard for declaring a major in Biology shall be the cumulative GPA as calculated by UWG from all academic courses on a student's transcript at the end of the most recent semester in which 30 or more academic hours have been completed.
- A student with fewer than 30 academic hours can elect to declare a major in the B.S. in Biology program. This entitles the student to follow the Biology program of study under the supervision of a professional adviser of the Advising Center.
- A student who has completed a minimum of 30 academic hours with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or greater can declare a major in Biology. This entitles the student to earn a B.S. in Biology degree under the supervision of a faculty adviser of Biology.
- A major in Biology who reaches 30 academic hours with a cumulative GPA less than 2.5 is advised to meet with an adviser in the Advising Center and submit an action plan that includes specific steps to improve GPA. A major in Biology will be deferred to the first semester in which the student's GPA reaches or exceeds the standard as described above.
- In transferring from another major, a student who has accumulated at least 30 academic hours with a cumulative GPA less than 2.5 is advised to meet with an adviser in the Advising Center and submit an action plan that includes specific steps to improve GPA. A major in Biology will be deferred to the first semester in which the student's GPA reaches or exceeds the standard as described above.
- In transferring from another institution, a Biology major who has accumulated at least 30 academic hours can declare a major in Biology at UWG.

- The B.S. in Biology program imposes no other GPA restrictions. However, all students must meet minimum institutional GPA requirements for graduation.

Learning Outcomes and Expected Results

- Students will use concepts, principles, and knowledge to demonstrate mastery in at least three of the following four subject areas: 1. cell biology; 2. molecular biology and genetics; 3. organismal biology; 4. population biology, evolution, and ecology.
- Students will use critical thinking skills or problem based learning skills to demonstrate mastery of the scientific method as it pertains to experimental design, data analysis, or interpretation of experimental data.
- Students will communicate scientific information through the acquisition, organization, or presentation of scientific information in written form.
- Students will communicate scientific information through the acquisition, organization, or presentation of scientific information in oral form.

Bachelor of Science

Biology, General Biology Track, B.S.

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, & E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Specific core curriculum requirements for the B.S. in Biology are:

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3 required under Area A
- Two lab sciences required under Area D, which may not overlap in course number or content with courses taken elsewhere in the degree program.

Note:

Due to the stringent requirements for admission to professional schools, students are urged to consult advisors in choosing elective courses in the core curriculum and major.

Core Area F: 18 Hours

- BIOL 2107 - Principles of Biology I for Biology Majors 3
- BIOL 2107L - Principles of Biology I Lab for Biology Majors 1
- BIOL 2108 - Principles of Biology II for Biology Majors 3
- BIOL 2108L - Principles of Biology II Lab for Biology Majors 1

Biology Minor

Requirements

Students with majors in other disciplines may complete a minor in biology. The minor requires 15-18 hours of biology courses with at least nine of those hours at the 3000- or 4000-level.

Students must complete either:

- BIOL 1107 - Principles of Biology I 3
 - BIOL 1108 - Principles of Biology II 3
 - BIOL 2107 - Principles of Biology I for Biology Majors 3
 - BIOL 2108 - Principles of Biology II for Biology Majors 3
- with their laboratories and at least three upper division courses in biology.

Note:

Only courses that apply toward the major in biology may be applied toward the minor.

Medical, Dental and Veterinary

Advisors for Biology Majors interested in Medicine & Dentistry:

J. Huff, W. Kenyon, S. Molesworth-Kenyon, L. Kral and S. Swamy-Mruthinti

Advisors for Biology Majors interested in Veterinary:

G. Payne

Students interested in careers as physicians, dentists, or veterinarians need to first obtain an undergraduate degree and then apply to the appropriate professional school. While there is no specific undergraduate degree requirement for entry into professional schools, the vast majority of students accepted have degrees in Biology or Chemistry. Students should refer to the descriptions for the Biology or Chemistry professional preparation degree track programs for the degree requirements.

Physician's Assistant Program

The guidelines for preparation for physician's assistant programs in the State of Georgia are changing rapidly at the present time. Students interested in this option should contact the Department of Biology or Chemistry for up to date information on P.A. programs in Georgia and the proper degree track to prepare for these programs.

The Department of Chemistry offers a variety of tracks leading to a Bachelor of Science with a Major in Chemistry degree. Students planning careers in chemical industry or graduate study in chemistry or biochemistry are recommended to obtain a degree certified by the American Chemical Society (ACS). The non-ACS tracks offer students the opportunity to develop a broad background in preparing for a variety of careers in the area of business, engineering, law, secondary education, or for entering professional school in medicine, dentistry, veterinary science, and pharmacy.

The following tracks are available for students wishing to pursue a Chemistry degree:

1. Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (ACS Track)
2. Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (Non-ACS Track - General Option)
3. Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (Non-ACS Track - Business Option)
4. Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (Non-ACS Track - Professional Preparation Option)
5. Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (Non-ACS Track - Secondary Education Option)

All of the B.S. Chemistry degree tracks offer courses in the basic areas of analytical, inorganic, organic, and physical chemistry and are supplemented by chemistry electives. Modern scientific instrumentation is available and incorporated into all courses of the curriculum.

Students may also elect to minor in chemistry.

Bachelor of Science

Chemistry, ACS Track - B.S.

A senior research thesis and oral presentation is required and designed to introduce students to modern advanced techniques and approaches to chemical research under the guidance of a faculty advisor.

Upon completion of this degree program the student will have acquired:

- A well-developed understanding of the major areas of chemistry including organic, analytical, physical, inorganic chemistry, and biochemistry;
- The ability to formulate significant research questions, design experiments, carry out experimental protocol, and analyze and interpret data
- An understanding of mathematical formalism as applied to chemistry
- The ability to communicate effectively in both oral and written presentations
- Proficiency in retrieving information from the literature
- The ability to use appropriate computer applications and information technology as applied to chemistry
- Adequate preparation to compete successfully in a science-related career and/or a graduate or professional program
- An understanding of the impact of chemistry in a global/societal context

Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (ACS Track)

The Bachelor of Science with a Major in Chemistry degree (ACS Track) is approved by the Committee on Professional Training of the American Chemical Society (ACS). This formal recognition means that the department has the faculty, curriculum and the instrumentation necessary to provide a quality education for undergraduate students. Graduates of this approved program are certified by the American Chemical Society.

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, & E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Core Area A must include:

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3 -4* (*1 hr moved to Area F)
(or)
- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4 * (*1 hr moved to Area F)

Core Area D must include:

- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4 * (*1 hr moved to Area F) unless completed in Area A, and
- PHYS 2211 - Principles of Physics I 3
- PHYS 2211L - Principles of Physics I Laboratory 1
- PHYS 2212 - Principles of Physics II 3
- PHYS 2212L - Principles of Physics II Laboratory 1 is recommended.

Core Area F: Courses specific to the major: 18 Hours

- MATH 2644 - Calculus II 4
- CHEM 1211 - Principles of Chemistry I 3
- CHEM 1211L - Principles of Chemistry I Lab 1
- CHEM 1212 - Principles of Chemistry II 3
- CHEM 1212L - Principles of Chemistry II Lab 1
- CHEM 2411 - Organic Chemistry I 3
- CHEM 2411L - Organic Chemistry I Laboratory 1
- MATH credit from Area A and D 2

Concentration: 40 Hours

Courses from the major:

- CHEM 2130 - Sophomore Chemistry Seminar 1
- CHEM 3422 - Organic Chemistry II 3
- CHEM 3422L - Organic Chemistry II Laboratory 1

- CHEM 3310K - Analytical Chemistry 4
 - CHEM 4330K - Instrumental Analysis 4
- Choose 2:
- CHEM 3521 - Quantum Chemistry 3
(or)
 - CHEM 3522 - Chemical Thermodynamics 3
(or)
 - CHEM 3523 - Structure, Bonding and Reactivity 3
 - CHEM 3550L - Physical Chemistry Laboratory 2
 - CHEM 4913L - Advanced Synthesis Laboratory 2
 - CHEM 4610 - Inorganic Chemistry 3
 - CHEM 4083 - Faculty Directed Research 1.0 (4 semesters for a total of 4 credit hours)
 - CHEM 4084 - Senior Seminar 1 **
 - CHEM 4711 - Biochemistry 3

CHEM electives. Choose 2: 6 Hours

- CHEM 4712 - Physical Biochemistry 3
- CHEM 3521 - Quantum Chemistry 3
- CHEM 3522 - Chemical Thermodynamics 3
- CHEM 3523 - Structure, Bonding and Reactivity 3
- CHEM 4485 - Advanced Topics in Organic Chemistry 1.0
- CHEM 4685 - Advanced Topics in Inorganic Chemistry 1.0
- CHEM 4985 - Selected Topics in Chemistry: An Integrated Approach 1.0

Courses from supporting disciplines: 20 Hours

Free Electives (3000 or above) 2-5 Hours

Minor or Supporting classes (Advisor Approval) 15-18 Hours

Total: 120 Hours

General Restrictions: Students are allowed only one D in the courses used to satisfy the major. A maximum of 7 hours of research is allowed in the degree program. Six (6) hours of DSW courses are required.

 A senior thesis paper and oral presentation are required.

The following courses are not allowed as Chemistry electives:

- CHEM 3130 - Modern Forensic Science 3
- CHEM 3140 - Drugs and Drug Abuse 3
- CHEM 4083 - Faculty Directed Research 1.0

Chemistry, Non-ACS Track - Business Option, B.S.

Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry (Non-ACS Tracks)

This degree includes a number of fundamental courses in chemistry and allows for students with interests in additional fields to build a broad based curriculum. Combining this degree with a minor or second major prepares students for a laboratory positions and a variety of career opportunities that include: with business - technical sales; with engineering - chemical industry; with biology or geology - environmental studies or industrial hygiene; with political science followed by law school - patent law; with education - middle school or high school teaching.

Upon completion of the following degree tracks the student will have acquired:

- competence in the basic content of organic, inorganic, physical, analytical chemistry, and biochemistry;

- the ability to carry out experimental protocols and analyze and interpret data;
- the ability to communicate effectively in both oral and written presentations;
- proficiency in the use of appropriate computer applications and information technology as applied to chemistry;
- adequate preparation to compete successfully in a science-related career or entering professional school;
- an understanding of the impact of chemistry in a global/societal context.

Chemistry, Non-ACS Track - Professional Preparation Option, B.S.

(Medical, Dental, Dental Hygiene, Veterinary)

This degree option is frequently the choice of students interested in professional programs because it allows a wide range of elective courses to fulfill the degree requirements. It is designed specifically for those students planning to attend medical, dental, veterinary, physician's assistant, or other professional programs. The general requirements include 2 years of Chemistry and 1 year each of Biology, Physics, and English, 1 semester Psychology/Sociology. Biochemistry is strongly recommended.

Other Degrees

Pharmacy

Advisors: A. Gaquere-Parker and P. Ray

The students in this program should expect to spend three years at the University of West Georgia before transferring to the pharmacy school of his or her choice. Because requirements vary at pharmacy schools, the student must seek proper advisement. Listed below are course requirements for the first two years of required courses at University of Georgia and Mercer University (chosen frequently by students in this program). The third year is primarily Biology courses such as Microbiology, Anatomy & Physiology, Biochemistry, etc.

Requirement

Core Curriculum Areas A, B, C, & E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Core Area A must include:

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3 (or)

The Department of Computer Science provides educational excellence through friendly, collegial teaching in a student-centered environment. The Department offers a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science program that is accredited by the Computing Accreditation Commission of ABET, <http://www.abet.org>. The goals of the Department of Computer Science are to provide a comprehensive degree program to prepare students for work or graduate study; to offer non-majors an introduction to computing theory, practices, and applications; to encourage faculty and student research; and to foster interaction and cooperation among faculty within the department as well as with other departments. The goals of the Computer Science program are to provide a core body of knowledge in computer science; advanced topics in computer science that provide breadth of knowledge and build on the core; mathematical foundations of Computer Science, including differential and integral calculus, discrete mathematics, linear algebra, and probability and statistics; application of the scientific method in a laboratory science; foundation of knowledge and skills reflecting West Georgia's general education goals; and oral and written communication skills. Students majoring in Computer Science learn the skills needed to pursue exciting and rewarding careers on the forefront of computing and information technology including: Web and multimedia design and development, software engineering, network, operating systems and data-base development, and administration, intelligent systems, and programming. The undergraduate program also provides an excellent basis for graduate education in computer science and other disciplines.

Specific Requirements for a B.S. Degree in Computer Science

1. Students must sign the Department's "Student Program Notification" form in order to declare a major in Computer Science.
2. Students must obtain an academic advisor in the Department of Computer Science during the semester when declaring a major in Computer Science.
3. Students are allowed only one "D" in the Computer Science courses used to satisfy the major.
4. Students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 to declare and/or remain in the major.
5. The minimum cumulative grade point average required for graduation is 2.0.
6. Students must complete the science major option of Core Areas A & D
7. Students must take at least two 3000/4000 level DSW (Discipline Specific Writing) courses for a total of 6 hours, with at least 3 hours in the major.
8. There is no physical education requirement. Physical education classes will not count as electives.
9. Students must complete other requirements for the major as listed by the Department of Computer Science.

Department of Geosciences with Programs in Geology, Earth Science and Geography

Professors:

D. Bush, R. Kath, J. Seong

Associate Professors:

C. Berg, B. Deline, G. DeWeese, H. Gerhardt, J. Hong, J. Mayer (Chair), S. Rose, (Assistant Dean), K. Tefend, A. Walter

Assistant Professor:

M. Buzon

Instructor:

The Department of Geosciences offers programs of study focusing on planet earth, our natural and built environments, and how societies interact with and alter the biophysical world. We are a welcoming, student-centered department with challenging programs of study that span a wide range of subject matter and techniques. Our programs emphasize hands-on learning and take students out of the classroom into the field whenever possible.

Geology is the study of the earth, including the origin and history of the planet and its life forms. On a practical level geologists explore for natural resources, help society understand and mitigate natural hazards and guide environmental stewardship.

Geography is the study of the interactions between people and places, local and global processes, and social and biophysical systems. It is an integrative discipline in which scholars endeavor to understand the role of humans in producing the social and biophysical worlds in which they live. Geographic knowledge can be applied to explain cultural and political conflicts, environmental policies and practices, human landscapes, and economic well-being. Modern geographical analysis typically involves cartographic and geospatial techniques (GIS) and both qualitative and quantitative methods.

A range of degree plans are offered in the Department of Geosciences. The B.S. Degree in Geology is designed for students planning professional careers as geologists either with or without a graduate degree. The B.S. Degree in Earth Science prepares and certifies students for teaching careers. Four degree options are available under the B.S. Degree in Geography: Human Geography emphasizes on urban, political, economic, cultural, and social processes; Physical Geography concentrates on biological and geomorphological systems and atmospheric (weather and climate) processes; Environmental Sustainability focuses on the interactions between society and natural systems; and GIS concerns geospatial technologies and spatial analysis.

Geoscience graduates are well-prepared for immediate employment in the private sector; for employment in government service at the local, state or federal level; for teaching careers; or for continued study in graduate school.

Global Studies

Calloway 101 • 678-839-4070

Coordinator:

Andy Walter

Mission Statement

The educational mission of the Global Studies program is to promote an understanding of global awareness. The focus is to enable students to examine and explain global issues in an analytical framework which emphasizes the role of individuals in local communities and their relationship to the global society. Students will develop an understanding of and appreciation for their roles and responsibilities as citizens of the global community. The program offers one degree, a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.). This degree is appropriate for students who wish to join the global marketplace with careers in government, political organizations, journalism, private businesses, advocacy groups or non-governmental organizations. Likewise, it is appropriate for students planning on attending graduate or law school.

Learning Outcomes:

Students will demonstrate that they have developed

- An understanding of the interconnectedness of local and global events
- An understanding of the individual's role in local and global events
- An understanding of the basic theories and concepts of the sub-fields of global studies
- An understanding of the relationship between the basic theories and concepts of the sub-fields of global studies
- The ability to apply social science and scientific methods to practical problems within the discipline
- The ability to communicate their knowledge orally and in writing

III. Foreign Language through 2002: 3-12 Hours

Major Courses: 33 Hours

- All majors must complete the senior capstone seminar: 3 Hours
- Courses needed to complete the major can be taken in any of the following tracks:* 21 Hours

Minor - All Global Studies majors must minor in a Foreign Language: 12-15 Hours

Study abroad, taken either in major or foreign language minor: 9 Hours

Electives: 9-15 Hours

Total: 120 Hours

Bachelor of Science

Geography, B.S.

Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the geographic dimensions of social and/or physical patterns, relations, processes, and environments
- Demonstrate competence in acquiring, evaluating, and analyzing geographic data
- Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of a specific geographical question
- Demonstrate an ability to analyze data geographically
- Demonstrate an ability to construct and present an argument based on evidence

Requirement

Core: 60 Hours

Core Areas A-E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Area A must have MATH 1113 or higher

Area D must have Option II

Area F: 18 Hours

- GEOG 1013 - World Geography 3
- GEOG 2083 - Introduction to Geographical Analysis 3
- GEOG 2553 - Introduction to GIS and Mapping Sciences 3
- MATH 2063 - Introductory Statistics 3 (or)
- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4

MATH credits from Areas A and D 1-2 Hours

1000-2000 level courses from GEOG, CS, BIOL, CHEM, GEOL, or PHYS 6-8 Hours

Additional 1000-2000 level hours from COSM, COSS, or COAH as necessary 0-5 Hours

Major: 60 Hours

Must have at least 39 hours of 3000/4000 level courses.

Must choose a concentration. (Students in GIS concentration cannot minor in GIS and students in Environmental Sustainability concentration cannot minor in Environmental Sustainability.)

Human Geography

Required Courses: 30-39 Hours

- GEOG 1112 - Weather and Climate 3 (or)
- GEOG 1113 - Landform Geography 3

- GEOG 3085 - Selected Topics in Regional Geography 3
- GEOG 3405 - Geographies of Sustainability 3
- GEOG 3644 - Atlanta's Geographies 3
- GEOG 4253 - Seminar in Economic Geography 3
- GEOG 4500 - Moral Geographies 3
- GEOG 4643 - Seminar in Urban Geography 3

3000/4000 level hours any GEOG courses: 9 Hours

Minor and/or electives: 21-30 Hours

Environmental Sustainability

Required Courses: 30-39 Hours

- GEOG 1112 - Weather and Climate 3 (if not taken in Area D or F)
- GEOG 2202 - Environmental Science 3
- GEOG 4400 - Energy and Sustainability 3
- GEOG 4700 - Global Environmental Change 3
- GEOG 3405 - Geographies of Sustainability 3
- GEOG 4083 - Faculty-Mentored Research 1-
- GEOG 4084 - Geography Capstone 3
- GEOG 4086 - Internship 3

Two of the following: 6 Hours

- GEOG 3713 - Meteorology 3
- GEOG 3800 - Biogeography 3
- GEOG 3900 - Ecological Climatology 3
- GEOG 4103 - Geography of Soils and Water 3
- GEOG 4900 - Dendrochronology 4
- GEOG 3253 - Economic Geography 3
- GEOG 3643 - Urban Geography 3
- GEOG 4500 - Moral Geographies 3

Interdisciplinary Offering: 9 Hours

- Select upper level courses in ANTH, COMM, ECON, GEOG, HIST, POLS/PLAN, PSYC, SOCI or other approved disciplines when those courses focus on environmentally relevant topics. Must be approved by advisor.

Senior Seminar

- GEOG 4084 - Geography Capstone 3

Minor and/or electives: 21-30 Hours

Physical Geography

Required Courses: 27-38 Hours

- GEOG 1112 - Weather and Climate 3 (if not taken in Area D or F)
- GEOG 1112L - Weather and Climate Laboratory 1 (if not taken in Area D or F)
- GEOG 1113 - Landform Geography 3 (if not taken in Area D or F)
- GEOG 1113L - Landform Geography Laboratory 1 (if not taken in Area D or F)

- GEOG 4083 - Faculty-Mentored Research 1-
- GEOG 4084 - Geography Capstone 3

Four of the following: 12 Hours

- GEOG 3713 - Meteorology 3
- GEOG 3723 - Physiography of United States 3
- GEOG 3800 - Biogeography 3
- GEOG 3900 - Ecological Climatology 3
- GEOG 4103 - Geography of Soils and Water 3
- GEOG 4400 - Energy and Sustainability 3
- GEOG 4700 - Global Environmental Change 3
- GEOG 4800 - Advanced Topics in Biogeography 3
- GEOG 4900 - Dendrochronology 4
- GEOL 4003 - Geomorphology 3

3000/4000 level hours Any GEOG Courses: 12 Hours

Senior Seminar

- GEOG 4084 - Geography Capstone 3

Minor and/or electives: 22-33 Hours

Geographic Information Science

Required Courses 39-45 Hours

One of the following

- GEOG 1112 - Weather and Climate 3
- GEOG 1113 - Landform Geography 3
- GEOG 2202 - Environmental Science 3
- CS 1030 - Introduction to Computer Concepts 3

Certificate

Global Studies Certificate

The purpose of the Global Studies certificate program is to provide an additional opportunity for students at UWG to gain specific training and academic experience to enable them to pursue further study and/or to gain access to employment in a variety of fields which are supported by the UWG and USG mission and goals. These include programs and courses such as Foreign Languages, Study Abroad, and the listed Global Studies courses which impart broad knowledge and foster critical understanding needed for intellectual growth, personal and social responsibility, cultural and global literacy, and life-long learning.

- A Certificate in Global Studies must be taken with a formal degree (major) program. Course work may be taken at two-year institutions but must be completed at a four-year university.
- A student may formally apply to enroll in the program with a GPA of 3.0 or higher and after successful completion of 30 hours of academic credit in the USG CORE requirements. Applications can be obtained from the Coordinator of the Global Studies Program.

Requirements

- XIDS 2301 - Introduction to Global Studies 3
- Approved Study Abroad Program(s) 0-6
- Foreign Language (upper level, may be taken as study abroad) 3-6 *
- Approved Upper Level Courses (from catalogue) 3-6
- GLOB 4186 - Internship in Global Studies 1.0
- GLOB 4000 - Capstone Seminar 3

Total: 18 Hours

 If completed in conjunction with a study abroad component, add upper level courses to fulfill required hours.*

Minor

Environmental Studies Minor

Required Courses: 15 Hours

Social Science (choose 2 courses): 6 Hours

- XIDS 2202 - Environmental Studies 3 (or)
- GEOG 2505 - Human Impacts on the Environment 3
- (and)
- 12 additional hours compiled from the list of 3000 level or higher "major courses" offered for a B.S. degree in Environmental Studies

Total: 15 Hours

See course lists for the Environmental Science Degree and Environmental Studies Degree for possible selections (must be upper-level courses).

Geographic Information Systems Minors

Requirements

Students pursuing a BS Degree in Geography with a concentration in Geographic Information Systems may not earn the minor.

Required Courses: 12 Hours

- GEOG 4553 - Geographic Information System 4
- GEOG 3563 - Remote Sensing and GIS Integration 4
- GEOG 4753 - Contemporary GIS Applications 4

One of the following: 3-4 Hours

- GEOG 4554 - Computer Cartography 4
- GEOG 4562 - Airphoto Interpretation and Photogrammetry 4
- GEOG 4086 - Internship 3
- GEOG 4564 - Contemporary Remote Sensing Applications 4

Total: 15 Hours

Geography Minor

Requirements

- Any 15 hours of courses in Geography numbered 3000 or above.

Total: 15 Hours

Geology Minor
Requirements

- Any 15 hours of courses in Geology numbered 3000 or above.

Total: 15 Hours

The Department of Mathematics offers two degree programs in mathematics: the Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and the Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics.

The Bachelor of Science degree program has four plans, each designed for specific career goals: Plan A, the Traditional Track; Plan B, the Applied Mathematics Track; Plan C, the Statistics/Actuarial Track; and Plan D, the UTEACH Secondary Education Track. The student's advisor will help the student choose the best track, based on the student's interests.

Plan A, a traditional mathematics option, offers students a broad background in mathematics and is principally designed to prepare students for graduate study in pure or applied mathematics.

Plan B is designed to offer students a solid background in applied mathematics, prepare them for employment in government agencies such as communications, national security, and computer-related fields or industry such as engineering or computational types of work. It also prepares students for further study in mathematics.

Plan C, an option in applied statistics/ actuarial science, is designed to offer students a solid theoretical and applied background in statistics, preparing them for employment in a wide variety of interesting careers.

Plan D, an option in secondary education, is designed for students seeking mathematics teacher certification at the secondary level. Students who complete this option will qualify for certification in secondary education in mathematics.

The Bachelor of Arts degree program is designed for students seeking employment in government or business or those desiring further study in mathematics.

Graduate Degrees in Mathematics

For the Master of Science in Mathematics, see the Graduate Catalog.

Bachelor of Art

Mathematics, (Deactivated starting Spring 2016), B.A.

Requirement

Core Areas A-E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Core Area F: 18 Hours

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3
- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4
- MATH 2009 - Sophomore Seminar 1
- MATH 2644 - Calculus II 4
- MATH 2654 - Calculus III 4
- Foreign Language 2002

Elective chosen from the following which were not completed in Core Area A-E:

- PHYS 2211 - Principles of Physics I 3
- PHYS 2212 - Principles of Physics II 3
- CS 1301 - Computer Science I 4

Major Requirements: 25 Hours

- MATH 2853 - Elementary Linear Algebra 3
- MATH 3003 - Transition to Advanced Mathematics 3
- MATH 3243 - Advanced Calculus 3
- Any 15 hours of mathematics courses at or above the 3000-level 15 (excluding service courses for elementary education).
- MATH 4983 - Senior Project 1

Total Major Requirements: 25 Hours

Minor: 15 Hours *

Electives: 20 Hours *

Total: 120 Hours

* At least seventeen hours of the 35 hours of the minor courses and electives must be at the 3000-level or above

Bachelor of Science

Mathematics, Applied Mathematics Track, B.S.

All students enrolled in the B.S. degree in mathematics must complete the following courses:

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, and E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

(including MATH 1113 in Core Area A and MATH 1634 Core Area D)

Core Area F: 18 Hours

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3

The physics program offers seven plans leading to the B. S. degree in physics. These plans are Plan A, the general physics major; Plan B, the dual degree (physics and engineering); Plan C, the physics major with a business concentration; Plan D, the physics education major; and Plans E, F, and G, the various physics emphases.

Plan A is designed for students who desire to pursue graduate study in physics or career options for which physics is an excellent gateway.

Plan B, please see the Regents' Engineering Pathway (REP) website at: http://www.usg.edu/assets/academic_partnerships_accreditation/committee_docs/documents/R_EP_Pathways_Web_Page.pdf.

Plan C is designed so that students earn credit towards the master's in business administration. In this plan, students obtain a B.S. in physics with a business concentration in four years. Students who are interested in entering the technological business world are thus enabled to complete their M.B.A. in the fifth year at West Georgia.

Plan D is a B.S. in physics education. As mandated by the Board of Regents, students interested in teaching at the secondary level must have a major in the area of their teaching interest.

Finally, plans E, F, and G are similar to Plan A but are specialized depending on the courses students choose in the major area. These three emphases are computational physics (plan E), electro-optics (plan F), and solid state physics (plan G). These plans are designed to make it easier for students to seek employment in specific industry positions. The physics faculty, as a whole, advise students in each of these areas.

PHYS 1111 and PHYS 2211 are beginning courses. After receiving credit for PHYS 2211, a student may not receive credit for PHYS 1111.

Learning Outcomes

Students completing the B.S. degree with a major in Physics will:

- Be able to apply mathematical problem solving techniques in the upper level required courses such as modern physics and thermodynamics.
- Be able to make basic physical measurements in the laboratory and analyze and interpret the results.
- Be able to communicate effectively to a physics audience, through writing and public speaking.

Bachelor of Science

Physics, Business Concentration - Plan C, B.S.

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, and E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

(Students must select MATH 1113 in Area A and MATH 1634 in area D.

It is advised that students select:

- XIDS 2001 - What do you really know about: xxx (Special Topics) 1 (The Physical Universe) in area B

Any two lab based courses from:

- BIOL 1107 - Principles of Biology I 3 (+)
- BIOL 1107L - Principles of Biology I Laboratory 1
- BIOL 1108 - Principles of Biology II 3 (+)
- BIOL 1108L - Principles of Biology II Laboratory 1

Physics, Computational Physics Emphasis - Plan E, B.S.

Plans E, F, and G

Students who plan to seek employment at the B.S. level are advised to take an emphasis in a particular subject by selecting specific emphasis courses from the physics major (see plan A).

Students must fulfill all general and departmental requirements in addition to those required by the emphasis, and the physics research for a chosen emphasis (PHYS 4683) should be carried out in the area of the emphasis. At the completion of the emphasis, the student will be given a certificate of completion.

Requirement

This program is available in only a very few select universities in the nation and is designed for students who desire to work in modern industry or government and who are interested in computer modeling of scientific and engineering problems. In this plan, students must follow the guidelines of Plan A, but must also include the following courses as part of the major:

- PHYS 4513 - Mathematical Physics 3
- PHYS 4523 - Computational Physics 3
- PHYS 4683 - Physics Research 1.0
- MATH 4013 - Numerical Analysis 3
- CS 1301 - Computer Science I 4

Physics, Education Concentration - Plan D, B.S.

Requirement

Core Areas A, B, C, D, and E: 42 Hours

Core Curriculum

Students must select

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3 in Area A and
- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4 in area D.

It is recommended that students select

- XIDS 2001 - What do you really know about: xxx (Special Topics) 1 The Physical Universe, in area B and
- CHEM 1211 - Principles of Chemistry I 3
- CHEM 1211K - Principles of Chemistry I and Lab 4
- CHEM 1212 - Principles of Chemistry II 3
- CHEM 1212L - Principles of Chemistry II Lab 1 in area D

Core Area F: 18 Hours

- MATH 1113 - Precalculus 3 (1 of 4)
- MATH 1634 - Calculus I 4 (1 of 4)
- MATH 2644 - Calculus II 4
- MATH 2654 - Calculus III 4
- PHYS 2211 - Principles of Physics I 3
- PHYS 2211L - Principles of Physics I Laboratory 1
- PHYS 2212 - Principles of Physics II 3
- PHYS 2212L - Principles of Physics II Laboratory 1

Courses required for the degree: 67 Hours

- PHYS 3213 - Thermodynamics 3
- PHYS 3825 - Research Methods 3
- PHYS 3503 - Modern Physics 3
- STEM 3815 - Perspectives on Science and Mathematics 3

Fifteen hours selected from:

- ASTR 3033 - Topics in Astronomy 3

- MATH 3303 - Ordinary Differential Equations 3
- MATH 3805 - Functions & Modeling 3
- PHYS 3003 - History and Philosophy of Science 3
- PHYS 3013 - Basic Electronics 3
- PHYS 3113 - Mechanics 3
- PHYS 3313 - Electricity and Magnetism 3
- PHYS 3413 - Optics 3
- PHYS 3511 - Experimental Physics I 1
- PHYS 3521 - Experimental Physics II 1
- PHYS 3703 - Physics, Energy, and the Environment 3
- PHYS 4203 - Advanced General Physics for Teachers 3
- PHYS 4323 - Nuclear Physics 3
- PHYS 4333 - Quantum Mechanics 3
- PHYS 4413 - Introduction to Solid State Physics 3
- PHYS 4513 - Mathematical Physics 3
- PHYS 4523 - Computational Physics 3
- PHYS 4683 - Physics Research 1.0
- PHYS 4984 - Physics Seminar 1

Note that nine hours must be selected from:

(if not taken in area D) One hour of The Physical Universe (XIDS 2001 if not taken in area B)

- CHEM 1211 - Principles of Chemistry I 3
- CHEM 1211L - Principles of Chemistry I Lab 1
- CHEM 1212 - Principles of Chemistry II 3
- CHEM 1212L - Principles of Chemistry II Lab 1

Certification Courses:

- UTCH 2001 - Inquiry Approaches to Teaching 1
- UTCH 2002 - Inquiry Based Lesson Design 1
- UTCH 3001 - Knowing and Learning in Mathematics and Science Education 3
- UTCH 3002 - Classroom Interactions 3
- UTCH 3003 - Project Based Instruction 3
- UTCH 3004 - Inclusive Secondary Mathematics and Science Classrooms 3

Physics, Electro-Optics Emphasis - Plan F, B.S.

Plans E, F, and G

Students who plan to seek employment at the B.S. level are advised to take an emphasis in a particular subject by selecting specific emphasis courses from the physics major (see plan A).

Students must fulfill all general and departmental requirements in addition to those required by the emphasis, and the physics research for a chosen emphasis (PHYS 4683) should be carried out in the area of the emphasis. At the completion of the emphasis, the student will be given a certificate of completion.

Requirement

This is an ideal preparation for students desiring to work in modern high-tech industry or national laboratories. Students develop a solid understanding of electronics, quantum optics and lasers. This emphasis is also an excellent alternative to obtaining an engineering degree if one wishes to pursue engineering-type work in industry. In this plan, students must follow the guidelines of Plan A, but must also include the following courses as part of the major:

- PHYS 3013 - Basic Electronics 3
- PHYS 3413 - Optics 3
- PHYS 3424 - Advanced Optics 4
- PHYS 4333 - Quantum Mechanics 3

Physics, Solid State Emphasis - Plan G, B.S.

Plans E, F, and G

Students who plan to seek employment at the B.S. level are advised to take an emphasis in a particular subject by selecting specific emphasis courses from the physics major (see plan A).

Students must fulfill all general and departmental requirements in addition to those required by the emphasis, and the physics research for a chosen emphasis (PHYS 4683) should be carried out in the area of the emphasis. At the completion of the emphasis, the student will be given a certificate of completion.

Emphasis

Solid state physics is a cornerstone of modern technology. This program, designed for chemistry, physics and engineering majors, emphasizes the practical aspects of solid state physics, including electronics. In this plan, students must follow the guidelines of Plan A, but must also include the following courses as part of the major:

- PHYS 3013 - Basic Electronics 3
- PHYS 3023 - Digital Electronics 3 *
- PHYS 3913 - Special Topics in Electronics 1.0 - 3.0
- PHYS 4333 - Quantum Mechanics 3
- PHYS 4413 - Introduction to Solid State Physics 3

PHYS 4683 - Physics Research 1.0

Note: * (or) PHYS 4523 or PHYS 3413

Minor

Physics Minor

Requirements

Three options are available according to each group of courses below.

- PHYS 2211 - Principles of Physics I 3
- PHYS 2212 - Principles of Physics II 3

Nine hours from one of the following groups:

Group 1 (Computational)

- PHYS 3013 - Basic Electronics 3
- PHYS 3023 - Digital Electronics 3
- PHYS 4513 - Mathematical Physics 3
- PHYS 4523 - Computational Physics 3

Group 2 (Physical)

- PHYS 3113 - Mechanics 3
- PHYS 3213 - Thermodynamics 3
- PHYS 3313 - Electricity and Magnetism 3
- PHYS 4313 - Modern Physics 3

Group 3 (General)

- PHYS 3213 - Thermodynamics 3
- PHYS 3313 - Electricity and Magnetism 3 (and)
- Any other advanced physics course

Serving Humanity, Doing Public Good

The motto of the College of Social Sciences (COSS) encapsulates the shared focus of the academic programs and centers housed in the College. Service to humanity is the founding principle at the heart of our various disciplines and informs our approach to the place of COSS in the wider community. Doing the public good is the natural extension of our broad commitment to our shared communities.

As academic disciplines, our departments explore key aspects of the human condition and broaden our understanding of life and how it is lived. This exploration is critical to the development of informed, engaged, and active members of our communities. The partnerships formed between COSS programs and centers and the broader communities help our students to see the impact they may have on the future of local, regional, state, national, and global communities. They also help our faculty and staff engage in the community to find avenues for mutually beneficial relationships. The continued success of our efforts to serve humanity and do public good depends on our ability to effectively and sustainably maintain our programs and centers and their relationships both at the University of West Georgia and with our wider community of stakeholders.

Mission Statement

The College of Social Sciences at UWG is committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship and service in the interest of promoting the public good. The College aims to provide students with an understanding of contemporary and historical aspects of the various disciplines of the social sciences and the skills necessary for professional competence.

Vision Statement

The College of Social Sciences at UWG will be a recognized leader in creating a collaborative learning and research culture, promoting community engagement, attracting an increased proportion of talented and passionate students and faculty. The College will provide distinctive and sought out programs and graduates, leading to an expanded and diversified resource base.

Department of Anthropology

Anthropology 01-B • 678-839-6455

No more than 4 individualized study hours from the following count toward the BS in Anthropology.

- ANTH 4186 - Internship 1.0
- ANTH 4881 - Independent Study 1.0
- ANTH 4900 - Directed Reading 1.0

Certificate

Cultural Resource Management Certificate

Requirements

A. Eligibility

A "Certificate in Cultural Resource Management" can be completed by either an Anthropology major or a non-Anthropology major who has completed the appropriate prerequisite or corequisite courses. Note that any student who completes the certificate program will also earn a minor in Anthropology. Students can formally apply to enroll in the certificate program in the Department of Anthropology.

Prerequisite or corequisite courses (6 credit hours):

- ANTH 1102 - Introduction to Anthropology 3
- ANTH 2001 - Introduction to Archaeology 3

B. Course Requirements (19 credit hours)

- ANTH 4181 - Cultural Resources Management 3
- ANTH 4102 - Archaeological Field Research 4
- ANTH 4186 - Internship 1.0
- One additional 4000-level anthropology course relevant to CRM (3.00 credits, see Anthropology Department faculty advisor for a complete list).
- One skills course in business, management, or policy (3.00 credits, see Appendix B), or a related course approved by an Anthropology Department faculty advisor.
- One skills course in history, biology, or geosciences (3.00 credits, see Appendix C), or a related course approved by an Anthropology Department faculty advisor.

Forensic Science Certificate

Requirements

A.) Eligibility:

A "Certificate in Forensic Science" can be obtained by a student with any undergraduate major at UWG who has completed the appropriate courses.

B.) Requirements - minimum of 5 courses (17 hrs.):

Any two basic science courses from the list below:

- BIOL 1010 - Fundamentals of Biology 3
- BIOL 1010L - Fundamentals of Biology Laboratory 1
- BIOL 1107 - Principles of Biology I 3
- BIOL 1107L - Principles of Biology I Laboratory 1
- BIOL 1108 - Principles of Biology II 3
- BIOL 1108L - Principles of Biology II Laboratory 1
- CHEM 1100 - Introductory Chemistry 3
- CHEM 1100L - Introductory Chemistry Laboratory 1
- CHEM 1151K - Survey of Chemistry I 4
- CHEM 1152K - Survey of Chemistry II 4
- CHEM 1211 - Principles of Chemistry I 3
- CHEM 1211L - Principles of Chemistry I Lab 1
- CHEM 1212 - Principles of Chemistry II 3
- CHEM 1212L - Principles of Chemistry II Lab 1

2: At least one forensic course from the list below:

- ANTH 4125 - Forensic Anthropology 3
- CHEM 3130 - Modern Forensic Science 3 (does not count towards a degree in Chemistry)

3: Any two other courses with themes in forensic science from the list immediately above or below, B2 or B3: (one must be from COSS [ANTH or CRIM]):

- ANTH 3110 - Human Osteology 3
- BIOL 4241 - Entomology 4
- BIOL 2021 - Human Anatomy and Physiology I 3

- BIOL 2021L - Human Anatomy and Physiology I Laboratory 1
(or)
- BIOL 2022 - Human Anatomy and Physiology II 3
- BIOL 2022L - Human Anatomy and Physiology II Laboratory 1

- CHEM 3140 - Drugs and Drug Abuse 3 (does not count towards a degree in Chemistry)
- CRIM 3411 - Criminal Investigations 3
- CRIM 3242 - Drug Abuse 3

- ANTH 3250 - Field Methods in Physical Anthropology 4 (or)
- ANTH 4102 - Archaeological Field Research 4

- ANTH 3200 - Directed Research 2.0 (or)
- ANTH 4983 - Directed Research 3 (or)
- ANTH 4112 Senior Thesis 0/3/3- min 3 credit, Forensic topic*

- BIOL 4981 - Independent Study 1 (or)
- BIOL 4983 - Advanced Undergraduate Biology Research 1 min 3 credit, Forensic topic *

- CRIM 4981 - Directed Readings 1.0 - 3.0 min 3 credit, Forensic experience/topic *

Note:

* For these classes, the topic of contributing experience or research must be primarily forensic in topic or application as confirmed in writing by the respective instructor.

Minor

Anthropology Minor

Requirements

Students with majors in other disciplines may complete a Minor in Anthropology. The Anthropology Minor requires 18 hours of Anthropology courses distributed among the following:

- ANTH 1102 - Introduction to Anthropology 3

The Department of Mass Communications offers a Bachelor of Science in Mass Communications and minors in Film & Video Production and Mass Communications.

Bachelor of Science

Mass Communications, B.S.

Through sequenced study in Convergence Journalism, Digital Media & Telecommunication, Film & Video Production, and Public Relations, students are educated and trained across media industries to meet the demands of a complex, technological media landscape and multicultural society. Across areas of concentration, students master an understanding of the paramount economic, legal/policy, ethical, social, and effects issues facing mass media within the context of freedom of speech, freedom of press, media competition, and media convergence.

The curriculum offers a balance of theoretical and conceptual courses that challenge students to think critically, creatively, and collaboratively, and professional skills courses that give students an opportunity to apply their knowledge in cutting-edge experiential learning labs - bluestone-Public Relations Firm, WUTV, The West Georgian, and The WOLF Internet Radio. Located approximately 45 miles west of Atlanta, the department also gives students the opportunity to regularly network and intern with mass media and public relations professionals in a top-10 media market. Students graduate with portfolios that showcase their scholarship and skills, and give them a competitive edge in the industry.

Convergence Journalism engages students in courses that build knowledge and skills in writing, reporting, and producing socially responsible and responsive news in today's converging multimedia landscape. Students learn to exercise news judgment, honor the tenets of journalism, and create news for and with audiences across traditional and emerging digital media platforms.

Students gain hands-on experience early on and throughout their tenure with WUTV, The West Georgian and The WOLF Internet Radio.

Digital Media & Telecommunication engages students in courses that build knowledge and skills in traditional electronic and emerging digital media. Students explore historical, theoretical, and structural concepts of programming, management, and production of informational and entertainment radio, television, and digital content to serve today's multicultural society. Students learn the art and science of successful storytelling, and create and produce original content for multiple digital media platforms. Students gain hands-on experience early on and throughout their tenure with WUTV and The WOLF Internet Radio.

Film & Video Production engages students in courses that build knowledge and skills in writing, analysis, production, and editing for film and video outlets. Students learn the art of cinematic storytelling, image design, and sound editing along with advanced post-production techniques and strategies within the broader field of film and video production. Students gain hands-on experience early on and throughout their tenure with workshops, seminars, and collaborative projects that lead to the distribution of their work via various traditional and digital outlets, e.g., competitions, film festivals, online platforms, screenings, social media, etc.

Public Relations engages students in courses that build knowledge and skills in today's multicultural domestic and global public relations industry. Students learn the importance of and processes behind building and maintaining mutually beneficial relationships between organizations and target publics through effective interactive communication. Students also gain hands-on experience in media relations, community relations, and employee relations through bluestone-Public Relations Firm and experiential and service learning projects for private, nonprofit, corporate, and public sector clients.

Instructor:

M. Beznosov, D. McLean

The general education mission of the Political Science Department is to help students develop an understanding of the basic values, institutions, political and legal processes and public policies of the American national and Georgia governments so that they can participate in government in a knowledgeable and intelligent fashion. The undergraduate program offers two academic degrees. The primary purpose of the B.A. program is to provide students with a general, liberal arts degree with a major in political science. Such a degree is appropriate for those students who want a broad liberal arts education, plan to attend graduate or law school, or wish to prepare for employment in government, political organizations, journalism or a private business with extensive public contracts. The primary purpose of the B.S. program is to give students an overview of the discipline and a more concentrated focus on a particular subfield of political science so that they are prepared for employment in the public sector or in "not-for-profit" organizations or for professional programs in graduate school or law school. Finally, the department provides service courses related to domestic and international politics for students enrolled in related programs at West Georgia.

Bachelor of Art

Political Science, B.A.

Learning Outcomes

Students will demonstrate that they have developed:

- An understanding of the basic values of American civic culture
- An understanding of the institutional, political, and legal processes of the United States and Georgia
- An understanding of the public policies of the US and the ways in which they are carried out through the political process
- An understanding of the basic theories and concepts of the subfields of political science
- An understanding of the relationship between the basic theories and concepts of the subfields of political science

- The ability to apply social science and statistical methods to practical problems within the discipline
- The ability to communicate their knowledge orally and in writing

International politics

All majors must complete the senior seminar (POLS 4984). No more than 3 hours of directed readings or independent study may count toward the major, and none can be used to satisfy the political science subfield requirements listed above. No POLS course in which the student receives a grade lower than a "C" may count toward the major.

Minor: 15-18 Hours

Electives: 15-18 Hours

Internships (POLS 4186), if taken, may count only as electives.

Total: 120 Hours

* Foreign language proficiency as demonstrated by successfully completing a 2002 course or by passing an exemption exam is required.

 PHIL 4115 may be selected to satisfy this requirement.

Bachelor of Science

Organizational Leadership, B.S.

The Bachelor of Science with a Major in Organizational Leadership (ORGL) degree prepares students to focus on the theories, practices, issues, and specific ramifications of leading an organization. The multidisciplinary curriculum provides an understanding of management, administration, human resources, ethics, and technology related to today's complex organizations in the public, private or non-profit sectors.

The Organization Leadership degree has options that allow adults to earn college credit through Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) for college-level knowledge gained from relevant work experiences, professional training, military service and professional certificate programs. These experiences may be documented through transcripts from the American Council on Education (ACE), the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), departmental challenge exams, or academic credit earned through the successful evaluation of a portfolio that contains sufficient information and documentation to affirm college-level learnings.

The online Organizational Leadership program is ideal for traditional students who wish to take advantage of online course delivery, as well as for working professionals, military members, transfer students and others seeking flexible routes to degree completion. The program is delivered fully online through eMajor. eMajor is a University System of Georgia collaborative program that has delivered flexible, online degree programs through multiple USG institutions since 2012. The purpose of eMajor is to provide quality, innovative, high-demand programs through traditional institutions. Developed and maintained by committed faculty and dedicated instructional design professionals, each course is consistent in quality, design, and accessibility standards and taught by University System of Georgia faculty. A cornerstone of eMajor is the inclusion of prior learning assessments in several programs, shortening time to degree.

eMajor is a USG collaborative program which offers fully online, high-demand career degrees through traditional universities. Courses offered through eMajor are taken within the Georgia Online Virtual Instruction Enterprise Wide (GoVIEW) learning management system. The eMajor collaborative program operates by the USG collaborative calendar, which may differ slightly from institutional calendars. Additionally, eMajor courses are offered in various formats, which include 8-week condensed sessions. For the Organizational Leadership (ORGL) major offered through UWG, all courses will be offered solely in 8-week sessions, which allows students to progress swiftly through courses as needed. All eMajor courses are taught by highly qualified USG instructors.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate an understanding of organizational leadership as it relates to and impacts individuals, communities, and wider society from democratic, multicultural, and national perspectives.
- Students will demonstrate through the discussion of key concepts and ideas the ability to express themselves effectively on topics and issues related to the field of organizational leadership.
- Students will demonstrate critical thinking and problem-solving abilities regarding issues related to key challenges that organizations face when interacting with their environments.

- Students will demonstrate an understanding of the ethical principles underlying research and practice in organizational leadership.

Certificate

Data Analytics Certificate (DAC)

Rationale

The Undergraduate Data Analytics Certificate (DAC) is a collaborative, cross-disciplinary program. The certificate is designed for students who aspire to work in academic, governmental, non-profit, and commercial sectors as data scientists. The demand for data scientists has grown significantly as both private and public organizations generate and collect increasingly larger amounts of data; but the need to collect, analyze, and interpret such data requires a broad set of analytical skills. Through the Data Analytics Certificate, students will receive training in data management, quantitative analysis, and visualization techniques that will allow them to properly collect, contextualize, and communicate findings based on quantitative data.

Program of Study

The certificate requires 12 credit hours (4 courses). No more than three courses per discipline will count toward the certificate. Course substitutions or exceptions can be made with the approval of the certificate faculty adviser within each respective college.

Courses in the program will usually be offered as part of existing majors. Also, departments may occasionally offer the courses online (fully or hybrid), and in the summer (but not in the Maymester). The Data Analytics will be an embedded certificate.

Learning Outcomes

Demonstrate proficiency in data collection, management, analysis, and visualization.

1. Demonstrate proficiency in quantitative analysis techniques for effective data-driven decision-making.
2. Demonstrate proficiency in various data management and analysis software programs such as: R, SAS, SPSS, and STATA.

Eligibility

Applicants to the Data Analytics Certificate must meet the requirements for their major.

1. Students may pursue this certificate in conjunction with their major program.
2. Students can apply to enroll in the DAC program in the Department of Political Science Department or the Department of Economics.
3. To fulfill the certificate requirements students must successfully complete 12 credit hours from the courses listed below, and make a public presentation of a data driven research project. Presentations can take place at UWG (Research and Big Night), at student or professional conferences (NCUR), etc. It is highly recommended that students complete courses from areas 1 and 2 first, and then select courses from areas 3 and 4 below.

Total Course Requirements: 12 Hours

One core course in Statistics: 3 Hours

- ECON 3402 - Statistics for Business I 3 (or)
- POLS 3601 - Political Science Methods II 3 (or)
- MATH 2063 - Introductory Statistics 3 (or)
- MATH 3063 - Applied Statistics 3 (or)
- CRIM 4003 - Statistics for Social Sciences 3 (or)
- SOCI 4003 - Applied Statistics for Sociology 3

One course in Research Methods: 3 Hours

- ECON 3406 - Statistics for Business II 3 (or)
- ECON 3460 - Forecasting 3 (or)
- GEOG 2083 - Introduction to Geographical Analysis 3 (or)
- MATH 4153 - Applied Mathematical Modeling 3 (or)
- MATH 4813 - Regression Analysis 3 (or)
- POLS 2601 - Political Science Methods I 3 (or)
- CRIM 4000 - Research Methodology 3 (or)
- SOCI 4000 - Research Methodology 3 (or)
- PSYC 4220 - Research Explorations 4 (or)
- PSYC 4150 - Tests and Measurements 3

One course in Data Management, Analysis, and /or Visualization: 3 credits

- CISM 3340 - Data Resource Management and Design 3 (or)
- SOCI 4015 - Analyzing and Visualizing Data 3 (or)
- ECON 4475 - Introduction to Econometrics and Analytics 3 (or)
- GEOG 2553 - Introduction to GIS and Mapping Sciences 3 (or)
- MKTG 4868 - Marketing Metrics 3

One elective in an area of interest or expertise, including an approved internship: 3 Hours

Human Rights Advocacy Certificate

This certificate program is intended to provide academic and practical training for students who intend to work in a range of organizations focused on the issues of human rights. This includes domestic and international organizations. The program integrates classroom learning with practical field experience through a series of courses across three different disciplines. The program seeks to help to fill a need for students seeking work in this field. Human rights advocacy is a rapidly growing area of work among non-governmental, governmental, and intergovernmental organizations around the world. While this program has clear benefits for students in experience and employability is also serves the broader interest of the University of West Georgia in building stronger community partner-ships.

Requirement

Human Rights Advocacy Core: 6 Hours

Students must take both courses listed below:

- POLS 4215 - Management of Non-Profit Organizations 3
- POLS 4517 - Global Human Rights 3

Elective Courses: Minimum 6 Hours
(minimum 6 credit hours, see below)

Students must take two courses from the following list

- ANTH 3188 - Ethnographic Field Methods 4
- POLS 3301 - The Judicial Process 3
- POLS 4501 - International Law 3
- POLS 4503 - International Organizations 3
- SOCI 3134 - Introduction to Social Work and Social Welfare 3
- SOCI 3743 - Collective Behavior and Social Movements 3
- SOCI 4734 - Social Work Skills 3

Note:

Any special topics course in the College of Social Sciences (course numbers vary by department) may be substituted for an elective course with approval of the HRA coordinator.

Practicum: Minimum 3 Hours
(minimum 3 credit hours, see below)

Students must take a practicum course. This shall consist of an approved internship or experiential learning course in any department of the College of Social Sciences (course numbers and names vary by department.) The practicum must include at least three units of credit. All practicum credit must be approved by the HRA coordinator.

Variable credit hours:

It is recognized that special topics courses and practicum courses may be offered for more than the traditional three credit hours. Students must complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in certificate courses to qualify for the certificate. Depending on the specific courses taken, the actual credit hours applied may exceed 15 credit hours.

Total: 15 hours constitute a minor

Other Degrees

Preparation for Law School

Law Schools do not require a specific undergraduate curriculum, and students can be admitted to law school after majoring in any subject. Students, however, should take courses that emphasize reading, writing, and critical thinking. Two departments offer programs to that end, and there are also other courses which students should consider taking.

In the Political Science Department, there are three courses offered every year that are specifically structured to prepare students for law school: Judicial Process (POLS 3301), Constitutional Law I (POLS 4301), and Constitutional Law II (POLS 4302). These courses are suggested for students in any major, and they also comprise the courses necessary for completing the "Law Concentration" for those earning a B.A. or B.S. in Political Science. They are taught by Thomas Hunter, who is recognized by the Law School Admissions Council as the "Pre-Law Advisor" for the University of West Georgia. He also serves as the Faculty Advisor to the Political Science Pre-Law Society.

The Philosophy Program offers a Law and Justice Track, which follows the basic requirements for a B.A. degree in Philosophy with some modifications. Program requirements include the following courses: Critical Thinking (PHIL 2020), Modern Philosophy (PHIL 3110), Philosophy of Law (PHIL 4110), Political Philosophy (PHIL 4115), and Professional Ethics (PHIL 4120). The advisor for this program is Walter Riker. The Philosophy Department also offers Symbolic Logic (PHIL 4160), which is strongly encouraged for those taking the LSAT.

Besides those courses listed above, other courses that discuss the legal system, or involve skills needed for law school, include: Legal and Ethical Environment of Business (BUSA 2106), Business Law (MGNMGNT 3602), International Business Law (MGNT 3625), Employment Law (MGNT 4640), Principles of Accounting I (ACCT 2101), Principles of Macroeconomics (ECON 2105), Creative Writing (ENGL 3200), and Advanced Composition: Creative Nonfiction (ENGL 3400).

Bachelor of Science

Psychology, B.S.

The Undergraduate Psychology program at the University of West Georgia affirms and builds upon the liberal arts and science goals of the University Core Curriculum and provides discipline-specific training designed to achieve the following program learning goals and outcomes:

Knowledge Base in Psychology - Student will demonstrate familiarity with the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, empirical findings, and historical trends in psychology. Specifically, students will

- Identify and explain the primary objectives of psychology
- Compare and contrast the assumptions and methods of psychology with those of other disciplines
- Articulate and employ the major perspectives of psychology including biological/neuroscientific, behavioral, cognitive, psychoanalytic, critical, humanistic, and transpersonal
- Compare, contrast and describe advantages and limitations of these perspectives.

Scientific Inquiry-Students will understand and apply basic research methods in psychology, including research design, data analysis, and interpretation.

Specifically, students will:

- Formulate a researchable topic that can be supported by database search strategies
- Locate and choose relevant sources from appropriate media
- Read and accurately summarize professional literature in psychology
- Design and conduct a research project to address psychological questions using appropriate research methods.

Critical & Creative Thinking-Students will employ critical and creative thinking to solve problems related to behavior and mental processes.

Specifically, students will:

- Identify and evaluate the source, context, and credibility of information
- Demonstrate an attitude of critical thinking that includes persistence, open-mindedness, tolerance for ambiguity, and intellectual engagement
- Make linkages between diverse facts, theories, and observations
- Intentionally pursue unusual approaches to problems
- Recognize and encourage creative thinking and behaviors in others

Ethical and Social Responsibility in a Diverse World-Students will become familiar with the formal regulations that govern professional ethics in psychology and begin to embrace the values that will contribute to positive outcomes in work settings and building a society responsive to multicultural and global concerns.

Specifically, students will:

- Apply ethical standards to evaluate psychological science and practice
- Adopt values that build community at local, national, and global levels

Communication-Students will communicate effectively in a variety of formats.

Specifically, students will:

- Demonstrate effective writing skills in various formats (e.g., essays, correspondence, technical papers)
- Demonstrate professional writing conventions (e.g., grammar, audience awareness, formality) appropriate to purpose and context
- Use APA style effectively in research reports, literature reviews, and theoretical papers

Personal and Professional Development-Students will gain knowledge about their identity, values, aspirations, emotions, strengths and weaknesses.

Specifically, students will:

- Identify their personal and professional values
- Demonstrate insight into, and awareness of, their emotions, motives, and attitudes using psychological ideas and principles.
- Describe preferred career paths in conjunction with their advisor and on the basis of an accurate self-assessment of abilities, achievement, motivation, and work hab-its.
- Apply knowledge of psychology (e.g., decision strategies, life-span processes, psychological assessment, and types of psychological careers) to the formulation of career choices.

Sociology is the scientific study of society and human behavior. Through the use of both research and theories, sociologists develop understandings of complex forms of human behavior. Students in the BS degree program in Sociology learn about the very fabric of social relations through courses in inequality, aging, gender, deviance, globalization, social psychology, race and ethnicity, the environment, the media and more. The Sociology program seeks to provide students with mastery of basic academic subject matter along with the learning skills necessary for enrichment and continued success in academic and workplace environments. Upon graduation students are prepared for advanced graduate and professional school education and for entrance into the job market in business, government, non-profit organizations, and social services work. Internships are available to provide onsite, practical experience. Students are encouraged to pursue independent research, collaborate with professors on their research, and present their work during UWG's Social Science Research Day and at annual conferences, such as the Georgia Sociological Association and the Southeastern Undergraduate Sociology Symposium. The Sociological Collective provides students with fun and support, career information, opportunities for community service, speakers, and other activities. Students who qualify are also invited to join the national sociology honor society, Alpha Kappa Delta. The B.S. Degree in Sociology is available in both face-to-face and online.

Learning Outcomes

Students completing the B.S. degree with a major in Sociology should:

- Communicate how sociology contributes to an understanding of social reality
- Demonstrate an understanding of sociological theories
- Demonstrate an understanding of methodological approaches within sociology
- Demonstrate knowledge of basic concepts, perspectives, and their interpretive applications
- Demonstrate an understanding of the diversity in society

Undergraduate Certificates in Sociology

Several certificates of specialization are available to Sociology majors and minors. Non-Sociology majors who complete a certificate program will earn a minor in sociology.

Each certificate requires 15 hours in specific courses. SOCI 1101 is required of all the certificates. Courses taken to receive a certificate also count toward the sociology major and toward additional certificates. The certificate programs and the courses that can be taken to fulfill the requirements are below.

Richards College of Business

Faye S. McIntyre, Dean
<http://www.westga.edu/business>

Vision

To become a globally recognized college of business preparing forward-thinking, responsible leaders.

Mission

We are in the business of transforming lives through education, engagement and experiences.

Strategic Goals and Values

Student Success

Admit quality students and provide them with an education that is rich in experiences and engagement opportunities to prepare them to be effective and ethical professionals.

Academic Success

Recruit, retain and develop faculty and staff by providing sufficient resources to support dynamic and up-to-date bachelor and master-level curricula, to conduct research and other professional activities, and to support engagement with all stakeholders.

Operational Success

Recruit, retain and develop administrative management and staff personnel to manage, develop and support infrastructure and those activities that build internal and external partnerships while working in an ever-changing environment.

Ethical Values

The Richards College of Business community (administrators, faculty, staff, students, and business partners) share a commitment to the principles of honesty and integrity in interactions and undertakings, accountability for personal behavior, and respect for the rights, differences, and dignity of others. In addition, we strive to continuously improve our abilities to recognize unethical behavior and to make ethical and moral decisions.

<https://www.westga.edu/business/vision-and-mission.php>

The Richards College of Business offers the Bachelor of Business Administration degree (B.B.A.) with majors in accounting, economics, finance, management, management information systems, marketing, and real estate. The College also offers the B.S. degree with a major in economics, and the B.A. degree in international economic affairs. Graduate programs are offered in business administration and professional accounting (see the Graduate Catalog for information).

These programs are administered through four departments: (1) Accounting and Finance, (2) Economics, (3) Management, (4) Marketing and Real Estate.

The Richards College of Business at West Georgia provides students a high-quality business education at both undergraduate and graduate levels, either to secure entry level managerial/professional employment or to continue graduate studies. A liberal arts based education is provided to undergraduate students.

Faculty members are committed to professional development through intellectual activities. The primary means by which instructors enhance and update the content of their present courses and design new ones is through research and other professional development activities. Intellectual activities are also essential to enhance the status of the Institution among accredited member schools, potential employers, and other publics.

Service to the Institution and to the professional community supports the activities necessary to accomplish the mission. This involvement promotes the design of a superior curriculum, placement of graduates, discovery of new ideas for intellectual activities and classroom instruction, and the procurement of external funding for College activities.

To provide the student with an awareness of the legal, social, political, and economic environment in which business functions, the first two years of study are devoted primarily to the arts, sciences, and basic business courses. The junior and senior years emphasize the development of skills, understandings, and knowledge in particular areas of business. Enrollment in upper division courses is reserved for students satisfying the criteria contained in the Policy for Business Majors.

Note: All Richards College of Business students must be advised each semester before attempting to register.

Accreditation

The undergraduate B.B.A. and graduate M.B.A. and M.P.Acc College of Business programs are accredited by AACSB International-The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. The B.B.A. and graduate M.P.Acc accounting programs at West Georgia are separately accredited by AACSB International.

Policy for Business Majors

All students seeking a business degree at the University of West Georgia must select a major. Business majors who wish to enroll in upper division courses (those numbered 3000 and above) must maintain a 2.0 GPA, complete 45 hours of academic coursework, and complete the following:

BBA - all majors:	ENGL 1101 (C or better), MATH 1413 , ECON 2105 or ECON 2106 , and ACCT 2101 (C or better)
BA International Economic Affairs:	ENGL 1101 (C or better), ECON 2105 , and ECON 2106
BS Economics:	ENGL 1101 (C or better), ECON 2105 , and ECON 2106

Any business major whose cumulative GPA falls below 2.0 will lose the opportunity to enroll in upper division courses except to repeat courses previously taken until the GPA improves to 2.0 or higher.

Students may be denied enrollment in the Richards College of Business for acts such as engaging in unprofessional behavior in a class or in any interaction with UWG faculty, staff, or students or engaging in dishonest or unethical conduct.

Non-business majors may enroll in up to 18 semester hours in selected 3000-4000 level business courses provided they have met the necessary prerequisites and have completed 45 hours of academic coursework with a 2.0 cumulative grade point average.

Business Core Requirements and Major Course Requirements for B.B.A. Majors are listed in each major.

The following Learning Goals and Objectives are applicable for all BBA degrees, regardless of major. Please see specific majors for additional learning goals for the major.

Learning Goal 1: Communicate effectively

Objective 1: Students will produce professional quality business documents.

Objective 2: Students will make a professional presentation.

Learning Goal 2: Apply basic quantitative skills to business problems

Objective 1: Students will construct and interpret tabular and graphical methods of presenting qualitative and quantitative data.

Objective 2: Students will use spreadsheet software to evaluate and use the results of regression models.

Objective 3: Students will solve and interpret quantitative business models using spreadsheet software.

Learning Goal 3: Use information technology to solve business problems

Objective 1: Students will effectively use a word processing program.

Objective 2: Students will effectively use a spreadsheet program.

Objective 3: Students will effectively use a presentation program.

Learning Goal 4: Possess a basic knowledge of accounting, economics, finance, the legal environment of business, management, management information systems, and marketing

Objective 1: Students will demonstrate a basic knowledge of the fundamental concepts of accounting, economics, finance, the legal environment of business, management, MIS, and marketing.

Learning Goal 5: Understand how ethical decision-making and globalization affect organizations

Objective 1: Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze issues and situations having ethical and legal implications for business.

Objective 2: Students will demonstrate a basic knowledge of international economic and business concepts.

Learning Goal 6: Utilize general and management-specific knowledge and skills in the analysis of business and economic problems

Objective 1: Students will demonstrate a basic knowledge of relevant costs for decision making.

Objective 2: Students will incorporate strategic thinking, analyze the current situation of an organization, and develop a plan to ensure its viability.

Degree, Majors and Departments

Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.)

Majors	Department
Accounting (ACCT)	Accounting & Finance
Management Information Systems (CISM)	Management
Economics (ECON)	Economics
Finance (FINC)	Accounting & Finance
Management (MGNT)	Management
Marketing (MKTG)	Marketing & Real Estate
Real Estate (RELE)	Marketing & Real Estate

The B.B.A. programs provide students with a high-quality business education based on a solid liberal arts foundation so they can secure entry-level positions in organizations and/or pursue graduate studies.

To accomplish this mission, faculty members are committed to educating students who upon graduation will (1) communicate effectively; (2) apply basic quantitative skills to business problems; (3) Use information technology to solve business problems; (4) Possess a basic knowledge of accounting, economics, finance, the legal environment of business, management, and marketing; (5) Understand how ethical decision making and globalization affect organizations; and (6) Utilize general and management-specific knowledge and skills in the analysis of business and economic problems.

The B.B.A. programs serve high school graduates as well as students transferring from two-year and four-year institutions of higher learning. The majority of students are from the local/regional area served by West Georgia. The programs also attract a small number of students from outside the University's regional service area, including other states and countries.

Bachelor of Science (BS)

Majors	Department
Economics (ECON) (or)	Economics
Economics with Secondary Education Certification **

The B.S. degree in Economics provides students with the flexibility to build a foundation for further graduate study in business, economics, law, or other professional careers as well as offers a broad liberal arts and economics background for entry-level positions in business, government, and teaching.

The B.S degree in Economics serves students who want the flexibility to complete a variety of supporting courses in areas other than business but still have a solid understanding of the American economic system.

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Majors	Department

International Economic Affairs (ECON) Economics

The B.A. degree in International Economic Affairs is a multidisciplinary undergraduate degree. The International Economic Affairs program offers a broad liberal arts education with careful attention to international economics, foreign language skills, geography, cultural anthropology, history, political science, and sociology. The major serves its graduates by providing them with both the skills necessary to secure employment upon graduation and the broad conceptual and analytical abilities that will give them the flexibility needed for personal and professional growth.

The B.A. degree in International Economic Affairs serves students who want a background in international affairs and international economics. The program is designed to stand alone as a major and also serve as a second major for students earning a B.A. in other areas, such as foreign languages. Graduates from all three Economics majors (B.B.A., B.S., and B.A.) find jobs in management training programs, banking, real estate, stock brokerage, and journalism to name a few. Majoring in Economics is also excellent preparation for graduate study in business, law, or the social sciences.

Requirements for a Minor

Non-Business Majors

Requirements for a minor in accounting, business administration, management information systems, economics, finance, management, marketing, or real estate (for non-business majors) students must earn a 2.0 grade point average in courses submitted for a minor in any of the disciplines listed below.

- To minor in real estate, students must take RELE 3705, plus twelve (12) hours in real estate courses from RELE 3701, RELE 3711, RELE 3730, RELE 4705, RELE 4706, and RELE 4707.

Business Majors

Requirements for a minor in accounting, management information systems, management, marketing, economics, real estate, or finance (for business majors)

To minor in a specialization other than the major, students must take 15 hours of courses above the 3000 level in the specialized area and earn a minimum 2.0 GPA in courses submitted for the minor. These classes cannot be used to satisfy the core and major requirements.

Requirements for a Second Major Within the Bachelor of Business Administration Degree

Requirements for a second major within the bachelor of business administration degree:

To specify a second major in business administration, students must contact the chair of both departments selected. The chair of each department will develop a program of study. Students must complete all major and degree requirements for both degrees.

Graduate Degrees

For a Master of Business Administration, Master of Professional Accountancy, Master of Education in Business Education, and Specialist in Education in Business Education, see the Graduate Catalog.

Business Intern Program

In cooperation with local, state, national and international organizations, the College of Business helps facilitate intern opportunities for students who wish to apply their academic training to on-the-job experiences.

Juniors and seniors with at least a 2.5 GPA and participating in the program may receive from 1 to 6 hours of elective credit.

Interested students should contact the chair of the academic department for his or her major.

Cooperative Education (Co-op) Program

Opportunities to combine classroom study and field experience related to students' majors and/or career goals are available in the College of Business. For further details on co-op, consult each academic department and/or Career Services for more information and an application.

The Tanner Health System School of Nursing at the University of West Georgia offers a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree with two tracks. The first track, for pre-licensure students, prepares graduates who are eligible to apply to take NCLEX-RN, the national licensing examination to become a registered nurse (RN). The second track, the RN completion track, is for individuals who are licensed registered nurses. Students in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program for Registered Nurses (RN-BSN) will be granted transfer credit for ASN/ADN and Diploma courses as defined by University of West Georgia policies and/or as described in the Georgia RN-BSN Articulation Agreement. The BSN curriculum combines a strong foundation in the arts, sciences, and humanities with a unique program emphasizing the art and science of nursing. Courses are taught using online and face-to-face instruction. Agencies utilized for clinical experiences in the BSN program include, but are not limited to, hospitals, home health, public health, schools, and industry.

Mission Statement

The University of West Georgia, Tanner Health System School of Nursing exemplifies academic excellence in a caring environment by providing quality undergraduate and graduate education to meet current and evolving health care needs within the global community.

Program Objectives

1. Provide holistic nursing care to persons (individuals, families, groups, communities, and populations) across the continuum of healthcare in a variety of settings at local and global levels, focusing on health promotion and disease and injury prevention across the lifespan.
2. Practice quality caring as the essence of nursing for persons of diverse cultures, values, beliefs, and lifestyles.
3. Utilize critical thinking and clinical reasoning based on theoretical, empirical, and experiential knowledge from the liberal arts and sciences to provide safe, competent, evidence-based care.

4. Communicate and collaborate effectively within inter-professional teams utilizing technology and information systems to improve health outcomes and healthcare systems.
5. Participate in analysis, critique, and reform of healthcare regulatory, policy, and financial systems that influence nursing and healthcare environments.
6. Apply leadership and management principles to empower nurses and achieve high standards of quality and safety in the delivery of person-centered care.
7. Assume altruistic legal and ethical responsibility and accountability for personal and professional behavior.
8. Utilize effective teaching strategies to empower persons to achieve healthcare goals.

Accreditation

The BSN program has approval of the Georgia Board of Nursing and is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Information about approval and/or accreditation may be obtained from the following:

Admission Requirements

Admission to the BSN Program in both Carrollton and Newnan is a separate and independent process that occurs after admission to the University of West Georgia. It is competitive and spaces are limited. Students who wish to pursue a degree in nursing should consult with a nursing advisor. Because of the limited number of spaces available in the BSN program and the academic demands of the program, applications of all students who meet the minimum admission requirements will be evaluated by the BSN Admissions Committee, and the most qualified students will be selected. This evaluation and selection process includes current students, transfer students, and students seeking readmission.

Pre-licensure BSN Track

In addition to the admission requirements for the University of West Georgia, students applying for admission to the Pre-licensure BSN Program must have a program grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale. All students should refer to the nursing website for up-to-date admission criteria (www.westga.edu/academics/nursing/index.php)

RN-BSN Track for Registered Nurses

In addition to the admission requirements for the University of West Georgia, students applying for admission to the RN-BSN Program should refer to the website for up-to-date admission criteria www.westga.edu/academics/nursing/index.php

Criminal Background Check & Drug Screen

Healthcare facilities are requiring nursing students to have a certified criminal back-ground check and drug screen, required yearly for participation in clinical learning opportunities. Inability to complete these requirements may interfere with successful completion of degree requirements.

Academic Standards

Nursing students must maintain a semester grade point average of 2.0 ("C") to progress in the BSN program. A minimum grade of "C" is required in all major courses. Major courses are defined as all required nursing courses plus Anatomy and Physiology I & II and Medical Microbiology. Pre-licensure BSN students must complete the nursing sequence within four academic years. Students who receive a "W", "F", "WF", or "U" in any nursing course may repeat that course one time only on a space available basis. Students who receive any two of the following: "W", "F", "WF", or "U" in any two nursing courses may not continue in the program. Students who fail a course in the first semester of the program must compete and reapply for readmission with the next applicant pool.

Expenses

In addition to the general university fees listed in this current bulletin, nursing students will have expenses related to the purchase of books, uniforms, professional liability insurance, and criminal background check and drug screen; lab practicum and testing fees; required immunizations; and transportation to clinical laboratory experiences. For more in-formation, please refer to the BSN Student Handbook at www.westga.edu/academ-ics/nursing/index.php and click on the Current Students link.

Curriculum

RN-BSN Track

RN-BSN courses are offered 100% online. Program admission is for Fall semester each year. The professional sequence may be completed in two semesters.

In addition to the Core Curriculum requirements (60 semester hours) as specified in this Undergraduate Catalog, RN-BSN students must complete the following nursing courses (17 semester hours):

First Semester

(Fall - 9 semester hours)

- NURS 4521 - Holistic Health Assessment for RNs 3
- NURS 4523 - Nursing Research & Evidence-Based Practice for RN's 3
- NURS 4525 - Professional Practice Issues and Concepts 3

Second Semester

(Spring - 8 semester hours)

- NURS 4527 - Nursing Leadership in Healthcare Communities 8

Additional Information

Courses are offered 100% online. Clinical experiences may be scheduled during daytime and evening hours and/or on weekends.

Georgia RN-BSN Articulation Plan

The University of West Georgia participates in the Georgia RN-BSN Articulation Plan. The plan was developed through the collaborative efforts of faculty of the ASN/ADN and BSN nursing programs in Georgia and the Georgia Board of Nursing and is designed to facilitate the educational mobility of registered nurses seeking a bachelor's degree in nursing. To be eligible for the plan a student must meet the following criteria:

1. Graduation from an ASN/ADN or Diploma Program within 0-4 years.
Graduation from an ASN/ADN or Diploma program greater than 4 years ago with documentation of 1000 hours of practice in the previous 3 years.
OR
2. Hold a current and valid license to practice as an RN in Georgia. Graduates of ASN programs who meet the above criteria will be granted credit by transfer for 21 semester hours and "credit by exam" for a minimum of 22 semester hours. Graduates of Diploma programs who meet the above criteria will be granted "credit by exam" for up to 43 semester hours. The "credit by exam" hours will be earned by satisfactorily completing NURS 4525 (Professional Practice Issues and Concepts).

The following steps outline the Articulation Plan:

Step 1

Students enrolled in NURS 4525 - Professional Practice Issues and Concepts will be asked to complete and sign the "Documentation for RN-BSN Articulation Agreement Form" to indicate eligibility for transfer by articulation. The completed form will be placed in each student's file.

Step 2

After successful completion of NURS 4525 - Professional Practice Issues and Concepts, each student will receive the "Credit by Examination Form" signed by the Dean, indicating approval of the "credit by exam" as outlined in the Articulation Plan.

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ACCT 2101 with a minimum grade of C and ACCT 2102 with a minimum grade of C.

A specialized in-depth accounting course which addresses documentation of accounting systems, including flowcharts; evaluation of internal control and the audit trail; impact of computers on internal control; and design of accounting systems.

ACCT 4252 - Income Tax Accounting for Organizations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ACCT 3251.

A study of the Internal Revenue Code as it relates to corporate, partnership, and fiduciary tax. The legal and tax aspects considered in selecting an organization form.

ACCT 4261 - Auditing

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ACCT 3213 and ACCT 4241.

The course is designed to give the student an understanding of auditing objectives and standards, and a working knowledge of auditing procedures and techniques. Standards, ethics, and legal responsibilities of the public accounting profession, as well as preparation of audit reports are emphasized.

ACCT 4262 - Assurance Services, Fraud and Ethics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ACCT 4261.

A study of assurance and advisory services, business risk assessment, new audit methodologies, fraud detection, ethics, and other contemporary auditing issues.

ACCT 4265 - Sustainability Accounting and Reporting

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ACCT 2101 and ACCT 2102.

An examination of the tripartite or triple bottom line reporting framework that highlights the economic, environmental, and social performance of an organization. Emphasis is placed on how sustainability creates shareholder value and on how sustainable performance helps investors, creditors, and other users distinguish between companies operating efficiently and those which are not.

ACCT 4285 - Special Problems in Accounting

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) In-depth supervised individual study of one or more current problems of the accounting profession.

ACCT 4286 - Business Internship (Accounting)

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Practical accounting internship experience with a commercial firm or organization for selected upper division students.

Anthropology

ANTH 1100 - Faces of Culture

(2 /0/ 2) Survey of cross-cultural similarities and differences from a global, anthropological perspective. The course features dramatic and unique film footage, embracing cultures from all continents, highlighting major lifestyles, and illustrating human adaptations to a variety of environments. The course also explores the ways in which North American culture fits into the broad range of human possibilities.

ANTH 1102 - Introduction to Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) A four-subfield introduction to the analysis and explanation of cultural similarities and differences. Discoveries, theories, problems, and debates on issues of fundamental importance to the understanding of human nature, society, and behavior.

ANTH 1105 - Introduction to Physical Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) An examination of humans from biological and evolutionary perspectives. Topics of survey and analysis include systems of human and non-human inheritance and evolution, primatology, origins, variation and adaptation, forensic anthropology, and interactions between biology and culture.

ANTH 2001 - Introduction to Archaeology

(3 /0/ 3) Survey of Archaeology as a subfield of Anthropology. Content includes basic theoretical concepts, analytic methods, and interpretive models of scientific archaeology. Specific concerns include reconstruction of cultural systems and their adaptive patterns through recovery and analysis of material remains.

ANTH 2002 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) A broad ethnographic introduction to the customs and behaviors of people in several cultures. This class will examine a diverse range of contemporary cultures and explore different social structures, belief systems, and adaptations through exemplary case studies in the subfield of Cultural Anthropology.

ANTH 2003 - Introduction to Physical Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) An examination of humans from biological and evolutionary perspectives. Content includes non-human primates, human origins, modern human variation and adaptation, forensic anthropology, and interactions between human biology and culture.

ANTH 3103 - Archaeological Laboratory Methods

(0 /6/ 3) Instruction in the techniques used in cleaning, cataloging, preserving, and analysis of excavated archaeological materials.

ANTH 3110 - Human Osteology

(3 /0/ 3) This course will introduce students to the basics of skeletal biology and learn how to accurately identify the elements of the human skeleton. It will include the major landmarks of each skeletal element with an aim to understanding the functional morphology of bones in an individual and as an anatomical system.

ANTH 3158 - Economic Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) An anthropological investigation of how pre-industrial societies produced, distributed and consumed goods, resources, and services.

ANTH 3170 - Religion in America: The Shakers and Other Utopian Societies

(3 /0/ 3) This hands-on religion course will focus on the practice of religion in historical and contemporary Utopian societies in the U.S. By examining the development and legacy of one of America's most quintessential religious communities, the United Society of Believers in Christ's Second Appearing (known as the Shakers), students will gain a wide range of skills and opportunities to explore diverse approaches to religion, theory, and methodology in anthropology. We will also examine other Utopian religious societies as comparative examples.

ANTH 3180 - Environmental Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) The focus of this course is on the relationship between cultural behavior and environmental phenomena. Local, regional, and global case studies will be used in examining the political and cultural ecology of resource use, adaptation, and degradation. Possible topics include environmental justice, deforestation, and conservation, industrial waste, and watershed management.

ANTH 3186 - Anthropology of Gender

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines various theories of gender development and the positions of women and men cross-culturally.

ANTH 3188 - Ethnographic Field Methods

(0 /8/ 4) This course will investigate and evaluate qualitative analysis in ethnographic field research. The course is participation intensive and will involve research in an actual field project.

ANTH 3200 - Directed Research

(0 /4.0 - 12.0/ 2.0 - 6.0) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102. This is a research project carried out under the guidance of a faculty member. Discussion of research areas with the faculty must be completed before registration. A formal report of the results of the research must be presented to the faculty of the Anthropology program.

ANTH 3250 - Field Methods in Physical Anthropology

(0 /8/ 4) In this practical Course, students will learn and apply basic lab and field methods in Physical Anthropology. We will explore techniques used in osteology, forensics, bioarchaeology, primatology, and paleoanthropology through hands on activities, guided research, presentation, and written reports.

ANTH 4100 - History of Anthropological Thought

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102 or ANT 101.

A survey of major conceptual and theoretical developments in anthropology from the early nineteenth century to the present.

ANTH 4102 - Archaeological Field Research

(0 /8/ 4) Direct participation in all aspects of an archaeological excavation project. Instruction in research design, excavation techniques, recording procedures, data analyses, and field interpretation.

ANTH 4105 - Environmental Archaeology

(3 /0/ 3) This course will examine long-term human-environmental interaction from an archaeological perspective.

ANTH 4115 - North American Archaeology

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of the pre-Columbian cultural development of North America north of Mexico.

ANTH 4125 - Forensic Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) This course will include a detailed study of the human skeleton. Primary focus will be on the methods used to identify human remains within a legal context. Responsibilities and ethics of a forensic anthropologist will be discussed.

ANTH 4130 - Medical Anthropology

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides a general introduction to concepts in medical anthropology, considering health, illness and healing from a biocultural standpoint. Topics covered include cross-cultural understandings of mental and physical health issues, global perspectives on health, and careers in medical anthropology.

ANTH 4132 - Human Life Cycle in Cross-Cultural Perspective

(3 /0/ 3) A cross-cultural study of the social and cultural meanings of human experience through such phases as birth and death; adolescence; adulthood; and old age.

ANTH 4134 - Animals and Culture

(3 /0/ 3) The relationship between humans and animals is complex, multidimensional and historically derived. This course will examine primary theories related to ecology and symbolism and identify the historical and contemporary role of animals in human society.

ANTH 4144 - Peoples and Cultures of Latin America

(3 /0/ 3) An ethnohistorical and ethnographic perspective of indigenous peoples of Latin America (including Central America; South America, and the Caribbean), with an emphasis on the Inca State and contemporary Andean people.

ANTH 4150 - Human Evolution

(3 /0/ 3) This course focuses on the evolution of humans and our nearest relatives using evidence from fossil record and genetic analysis. It places special importance on human origins while addressing modern and future human variability from perspectives both ethical and philosophical.

ANTH 4155 - Peoples and Cultures of Sub-Saharan Africa

(3 /0/ 3) Study of selected African cultures with emphasis on social organization, belief systems, history, and politics.

ANTH 4165 - Primatology

(3 /0/ 3) Study of living prosimians, monkeys, and apes, including social organization, feeding and ranging, community ecology, and conservation. Readings will focus on field studies of natural populations.

ANTH 4170 - Myth, Magic and Religion

(3 /0/ 3) A comparative and cross-cultural approach to religious systems and theories on the anthropology of religion.

ANTH 4173 - Language and Culture

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102 or ANT 101.

A study of the history and perspectives of linguistic anthropology with special emphasis on the relationship between language and culture.

ANTH 4181 - Cultural Resources Management

(3 /0/ 3) An examination of the history of the field of cultural resource management including major federal and state laws that govern the preservation of cultural resources. Attention will be given to archeological, historical, and architectural applications.

ANTH 4184 - Anthropology Capstone

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102 or ANT 101.

An examination of Anthropology as a profession--ethical considerations, selection of graduate school, research, and grant sources.

ANTH 4186 - Internship

(0 /1.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 6.0) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102 or ANT 101.

Practical experience with a public or private agency directly related to a field of anthropology.

ANTH 4201 - Artifact Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) This course is a hands-on introduction to interpreting artifacts from archaeological sites that focuses on the analysis of flaked stone tools, prehistoric ceramics, shell, bone, and perishables artifacts, and historic artifacts.

ANTH 4202 - Rise and Fall of Ancient Civilizations

(3 /0/ 3) This course explores the timing and diversity in the rise and fall of great civilizations around the world.

ANTH 4204 - Ice Age Peoples of North America

(3 /0/ 3) The goal of this course is to explore the contributions of archaeology, human genetics, paleo-anthropology, linguistics, vertebrate paleontology, and paleogeography in peopling of the Americas research. We will discuss how the evidence provided by these disciplines is used in the search of Ice Age Americans.

ANTH 4881 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Title and description of the type of independent study to be offered will be specified on the variable credit form at time of registration. May be repeated three times for credit.

ANTH 4885 - Special Topics

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Individual topics in anthropology.

ANTH 4900 - Directed Reading

(0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ANTH 1102.

Directed examination of a topic not normally offered by the program. Students must propose a detailed plan of reading stating precise learning objectives and secure the written consent of a supervising instructor before registration.

ANTH 4983 - Directed Research

(0 /0/ 3) Directed field or laboratory research.

Art

ART 1006 - Design I (2D)

(0 /6/ 3) An introductory course dealing with the elements and principles of composition as they relate to the two-dimensional areas of the visual arts. For advising purposes, the Department of Art recommends that students take Design I (ART 1006) in conjunction with Drawing I (ART 1007) .

ART 1007 - Drawing I

This course is designed for the art education major to focus on the developmental needs and abilities of pre-kindergarten and special education students with emphasis on accommodations and adaptive strategies. Methods in art education include approaches to art pedagogy, production, criticism, and aesthetics utilizing a variety of age-appropriate studio media.

ART 3060 - Illustration: An Introductory Survey

(0 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is intended to introduce the student to the field of graphic illustration, including the history, purpose, and ways of creating an illustration. Exercises and assignments will stimulate narrative and critical thinking skills, development of a personal style, and exploration of various solutions to the same problem. Students will be introduced to a variety of media, with flexibility in their choice of media for given assignments. Students will learn, based on a client's needs for a specific project, what is the appropriate approach to an assignment.

ART 3065 - Introduction to Scientific/ Pre-Medical Illustration

(0 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course will familiarize the student with the art of scientific/pre-medical illustration, including the history, techniques, and varied applications. Students will acquire skills applicable to the fields of pre-medical, biological, botanical, entomological, archaeological, paleontological, anthropological and nursing illustration. Emphasis will be placed on the development of the student's ability to accurately and clearly illustrate diagrammatically, narrative, and as a documentarian. Students will learn to incorporate and utilize research of the subject into their illustrations.

ART 3100 - Art Abroad: (Destination of Travel)

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

The course will discuss some aspects of the local history and art as related to the travel pro-gram. The relationship between politics, culture and their impact on artistic styles is emphasized. The discipline of history gives us a global perspective of political and social events and as well as the evidence of the underlying causes of those events. Art tells us the style, the change, the expression of people witnessing or affected by these events and possibly contributing to them. This class brings those two disciplines together to show how history changed art or how art changed history. Course may be repeated for up to 15 credit hours.

ART 3150 - Studio Research Methods and Strategies Abroad

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course will focus on the means to collect data or materials, which can be utilized in the initiation of the creative process-essentially, the gathering of ones own experiences to influence the creation of physically tangible works of art. Course may be repeated for up to 15 credit hours.

ART 3151 - Studio Studies Abroad

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course will focus on the processing of the material or data gathered to initiate and support content development within a student's artwork and overall development. Students will be presented with a variety of potential perspectives from which to conduct content development from observations, and the culmination of data collected in the creation of a student's own art-work. Course may be repeated for up to 15 credit hours.

ART 3210 - Non-Western Art

ART 3280 - Museum Seminar

(3.0 - 4.0 /0/ 3.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course involves classroom study of the art collections and architecture of a city or country followed by a trip to visit what has been studied. The subject varies: American cities or abroad. Credit will vary by trip. Students enrolling in the summer Bayeux program will take 4 hours; others take 3 hours credit. May be repeated up to 16 hours credit.

ART 3301 - Beginning Ceramics

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3012 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This is a creative problem solving fine art studio course designed to serve as an introduction to the historical precedents, theories, processes and materials utilized in the realization and production of Contemporary Ceramic art. Emphasis will be placed on developing a variety of hand-building techniques and attaining a basic understanding of claybody composition and properties. Also included will be an introduction to slips, glazes, and firing techniques. In addition, this class will focus on developing content, and learning about artists (both ceramic artists and artists working in other media) of both past and present. We will consider Ceramics in a variety of contexts such as: Ceramics, Communication, Commentary, Commodity, Celebration and Critique.

ART 3302 - Intermediate Ceramics: Molds, Multiples, and Mechanical Means

(6 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3301 with a minimum grade of C.

This is an intermediate course that provides students the opportunity to expand their technical skills, experience and critical thinking skills through the completion of a series of process specific projects. Each project requires research, an oral presentation and the production of personally derived artwork that utilizes the given process/technical information and reflects the assigned research.

ART 3400 - Graphic Design Survey for Non-Majors

(0 /6/ 3) Graphic Design Survey for Non-Majors is a studio class teaching the basic principles and terminology of graphic design and typography, with an emphasis on the design process. Students will be able to apply these concepts and creative processes to visually communicate their ideas in a more effective way. Open to ALL UWG students. Art majors: course can count as Departmental Elective. ART 3400 will not count as a Graphic Design Concentration elective or substitute for any other concentration requirements.

ART 3401 - Graphic Design I

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

An introduction to communication design with a strong emphasis on sound design and typo-graphic principles, developing an understanding of structure, history, technology and application.

ART 3402 - Graphic Design II: Typography II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3401 with a minimum grade of B. Students integrate knowledge of typography with visual form and meaning. Design methodology and research are emphasized.

ART 3403 - History of Graphic Design

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 1006 and ART 1007 and ART 2201. Permission of Instructor. $75.00 lab fee request.

This course provides art majors the opportunity to explore the historic perspectives, cultural relevance and technical aspects of graphic and design issues within the context of the contemporary profession of design. Study of historic print production processes will include print-making and photography.

ART 3601 - Painting I: Watercolor

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This is one of two introductory painting courses, either of which fulfills the Art Core Painting requirement for Art majors and building on the knowledge base of the Art Foundation courses. This course uses watercolor as a vehicle for visual expression. Open-ended painting problems from both nature and the imagination will be presented. Students will mat and frame a selection of art works produced during the term.

ART 3602 - Painting II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

A painting course using oil, acrylic and/or other opaque media as a vehicle for continued progress in visual expression. Students will frame a selection of artwork produced during the term.

ART 3701 - Photography I

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This course explores the use of analog and digital, single lens reflex (SLR) cameras. Studio practice includes both digital and darkroom production, while learning a range of critical issues relevant to fine art photography.

ART 3702 - Photography II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C.

This course covers the use of analogue 35mm film cameras, traditional darkroom methods of image making and analogue/digital hybrid processes. Conventional genres of image making such as still life, portraiture, and landscape are used as a means to explore contemporary issues. The course stresses continued development of personal visual vocabulary and understanding of historical and cultural implications.

ART 3703 - Photography III

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3702 with a minimum grade of C.

This course provides advanced experience with digital still image-making as well as virtual media, while addressing a range of critical issues relevant to contemporary digital media. The course also stresses continued development of personal visual vocabulary.

ART 3704 - Introduction to Time-Based Art (Video I)

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C.

This course introduces the basic principles of current digital video and audio technology as a means of making time based art. Traditional production techniques in cinematography, audio recording, non linear editing, and lighting are taught. Students learn to work within a number of different genres including, documentary, narrative, experimental, and cross genres. Weekly screenings of films and videos, assigned readings, and accompanying discussions will serve as a means to broaden students' critical and theoretical understanding of the mediums. Can be taken instead of ART 3702 (Photo II)

ART 3801 - Printmaking I: Survey

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

A survey of the basic printmaking methods associated with relief and intaglio printmaking, including an introduction to book forms.

ART 3802 - Relief Printmaking

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C. Printmaking II will offer advanced experiences in relief printmaking including the introduction of color. In addition, students will develop image with text through a brief historical survey of letterpress printing.

ART 3901 - Introductory Sculpture

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

An introduction into the four sculptural processes: Subtractive Method (carving) ; Additive Method (modeling) ;Substitutive Method (casting) ; and, Constructive Method (assembling) . Emphasis is made on preliminary designing of mass, space and volume.

ART 3902 - Sculpture II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C.

Emphasis on this course is on acquiring technical skills and learning the safe and appropriate use of tools and materials in the fabrication of sculptural objects. Course also addresses the impact of material and technique upon form and content with the use of mass, space and volume.

ART 3903 - Sculpture III

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C.

Emphasis of this course is on acquiring technical skill and learning the safe and appropriate use of tools and an expanded view of traditional and nontraditional materials in the fabrication of sculptural objects. Students will expand individual visual, vocabulary, technique, media and concepts through research, design and construction.

ART 4000 - Advanced Drawing

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: (ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

Advanced visual art production and personal expression in drawing. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4005 - Advanced Life Drawing

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: (ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1101 with a minimum grade of C) and (ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C or ART 1102 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

Drawing of the live model, both nude and clothed, continuing the mastery of both proportions and anatomy. A variety of drawing media will be used. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4007 - Digital Media For Artist

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3301 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3601 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3602 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is an introduction to Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Dreamweaver and Adobe Flash for all art majors. Students will create an online portfolio of their work with an emphasis on personal promotion and professionalism. Lessons will focus on bitmap and vector based imaging and the aesthetics of web design. Additional topics will include how to effectively work with color, text, font layout and other means of digital imaging.

ART 4009 - Art Curriculum and Classroom Management

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and ART 3011 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3012 with a minimum grade of C.

This class is designed for the art education major to apply educational principles of curriculum design and a variety of instructional strategies to the content of art education with an emphasis on classroom management. Methods in art education include approaches to art pedagogy, production, criticism, and aesthetics utilizing a variety of age-appropriate studio media. An internship in a prekindergarten and elementary level art class is a requirement of this course.

ART 4010 - Secondary Art Methods

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and ART 3011 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3012 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is designed for the art education major to focus on the developmental needs and abilities of students at the middle and secondary level as well as techniques for technology enhanced instruction. Methods in art education include approaches to art pedagogy, production, criticism, and aesthetics utilizing a variety of age appropriate studio media. An internship in a high school and middle level art class is a requirement of this course.

ART 4011 - Student Teaching in Art Education

(0 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: College of Education field experience documentation required and Admission to Teacher Education program.

Student teaching is the cumulating course of the teacher preparation program. It is typically viewed as a full class load and done primarily in a selected school under the guidance of an experienced supervising art teacher and the university supervisor. In art education students will complete a portion of the student teaching experience at the elementary level and another portion at the secondary level in order to receive vertical K-12 certification. Periodic seminars will be held on campus for students to meet as a group for discussion and instruction. 'C' or better required for certification.

ART 4012 - Student Teaching in Art Education

(0 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: College of Education field experience documentation required and Admission to Teacher Education program.

Student teaching is the cumulating course of the teacher preparation program. It is typically viewed as a full class load and done primarily in a selected school under the guidance of an experienced supervising art teacher and the university supervisor. ART 4078 - Junior Review

(0 /0/ 0) All BA and BFA candidates must enroll and successfully complete ART 4078. (See department website for specific requirements for ART 4078). Art faculty will review juniors based on their portfolio, writings, presentation and transcript progress. Candidates will be assessed on the level of knowledge and skill base gain to date. Successful candidates will be allowed to enroll into their respective capstone courses (ART 4298 or ART 4998). Course May be repeated up to two additional times. Unsuccessful review on the third attempt may result in candidates being placed on probation or removed from their degree program. ART 4078 must be taken during a semester when the student is enrolled in 12 credit hours.

ART 4212 - History of Interiors

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of architecture and furniture styles from Ancient time to the present, but with an emphasis on contemporary design.

ART 4290 - Modernist Criticism

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

A discussion-based seminar based on intellectual and theoretical debates about modern and contemporary art, focusing on the concept of the avant-garde and the practice of art criticism. Readings are informed by theoretical developments such as psychoanalysis, semiotics, Marxist Art History, gender and race studies, post structuralism and visual culture debates.

ART 4295 - Special Topics in Art History

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

Investigation of a particular topic, problem or issue in Art History with emphasis on those not covered in other art history courses.

ART 4298 - Senior Capstone in Art History I

(1 /0/ 1) The first of a two-semester capstone sequence for Art History majors. In consultation with a committee, the student will finalize a thesis topic and complete research for a final project, to be completed and presented in ART 4299.

ART 4299 - Senior Capstone in Art History II

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: ART 4298 with a minimum grade of C.

The second of a two-semester capstone sequence for art history majors. In this semester, the student will finalize the written research paper and present it to the department, and pass oral examination by the faculty.

ART 4302 - Intermediate Ceramics: 20th Century Studio

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3301 with a minimum grade of C.

This course expands the development of ceramic techniques aesthetics specific to the 20th century art movements: Futurism, Abstract Expressionism, Minimalism, Pop/Funk, and Photorealism. Students will progress through each movement with assigned research and technical instruction that will foster an understanding of the role of Ceramics in each of these 'Fine Art' movements. Ceramic Tromp l'oeil techniques will be employed during the completion of a series of period influenced projects. At this level students learn a variety of kiln firing methods and kiln maintenance. Students are responsible for the firing of their own work. Additional emphasis will be placed on studio maintenance and operations. Students will also continue to extend their ceramic/art history and theory research to fuel the development of content in their own artwork.

ART 4303 - Intermediate Ceramics: Surface, Image and Text

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3301 with a minimum grade of C.

Intermediate Ceramics - Surface, Image and Text is a process premised intermediate course that provides students the opportunity to expand their technical skills, experience and critical thinking skills through the completion of a series or process specific projects. Each project requires research, an oral presentation and the production of personally derived artwork that utilizes the given process/technical information and reflects the assigned research.

ART 4304 - Advanced Ceramics

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3302 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4302 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4303 with a minimum grade of C.

Emphasis on individual expression with clay and ceramic glaze calculation. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4400 - Graphic Design Studio Problems

(1.5 /1.5/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3402.

This is a professional preparatory class in which students in the class operate as a design team that interacts directly with a variety of selected clients, with faculty supervision, to realize professional projects. The course will be a combination of discussion, lecture, client meetings, studio and production time, with client project assignments throughout the semester. This course fulfills the same requirement as ART 4403 or ART 4404 for all graphic design majors, but not both.

ART 4403 - Graphic Design III: Type and Image

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3401 with a minimum grade of B and ART 3402 with a minimum grade of C.

Design problems are studied holistically through assignments that stress dynamic relationships inherent in context, form and content to gain a deeper understanding of the development of design systems and concepts.

ART 4404 - Graphic Design IV

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3402 with a minimum grade of C.

Design studio problems that explore a variety of approaches to data systems, strategies, and applications. Research, conceptual development and presentation are emphasized.

ART 4405 - Graphic Design V

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 4404

An expansion of research into the structure, history, technology and application of sound graphic and typographic principles. Research, conceptual development and presentation are emphasized. May be repeated for up to (9) hours. Repeated courses may meet graphic design elective requirements.

ART 4406 - Graphic Design VI: Professional Portfolio

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 4404

Conceptual development and realization of an approved senior-level thesis project culminating in a Senior Exit Show. Research and presentation strategies are emphasized. May be repeated for up to (9) hours. Repeated courses may count towards the Graphic Design elective requirement.

ART 4408 - Mat & Methods in Graph Design

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 1006 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1007 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1008 with a minimum grade of C and ART 1009 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2201 with a minimum grade of C and ART 2202 with a minimum grade of C.

This is an advanced typography course dedicated to exploring unconventional forms of typographic expression through rigorous and thoughtful experimentation. Both digital and analog methodologies will be explored. Course is repeatable for up to 12 hours. ART 4408 Materials & Methods in Graphic Design requires Permission of Instructor Only in addition to the completion of the following courses with a minimum grade of C: ART 1006, ART 1007, ART 1008, ART 1009, ART 2201, and ART 2202.

ART 4586 - Internship

(0 /1.0 - 9.0/ 1.0 - 9.0) Students will secure a position with a company for field experience.

Academic component includes written reports and/or visual presentations. Permission of the department is required. May be repeated up to 15 Credit hours; however, no more than 9 credit hours in a given semester.

ART 4603 - Painting III

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3601 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3602 with a minimum grade of C.

This course covers the techniques and materials of Acrylic painting and related paint products. It's conceptual emphasis will be the creative problem solving of specific compositional and formal issues in painting and will primarily reference issues of abstraction in modern and contemporary art, as well as non-western painting and design and craft models. Process, and creative and critical thinking methodology technical, aesthetic and conceptual is emphasized through the keeping of note/sketchbook journals. Oral presentations of supporting research and the creative work strengthen the understanding of the role of critical awareness of the subject.

ART 4604 - Painting IV

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3602 with a minimum grade of C.

An intermediate level painting course exploring visual expression through the use of combined media and art forms, and developing their ability to engage with critical concepts of specific concern to the discipline of painting. Studio discipline and research leading to resolved works will prepare students for self directed work in advanced painting classes. Oral and written presentations of supporting research and the creative work strengthen the student's understanding of the role of critical awareness of their subject.

ART 4605 - Advanced Painting

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3601 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3602 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4603 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4604 with a minimum grade of C.

An advanced level course exploring visual expression in painting using the media of the student's choice. Open ended problems will be presented. Self-directed work with special focus on developing a cohesive work of work that reflects the student's investigation of their role and definition of being an artist. Emphasis will be placed on increased professionalism appropriate to the student's stage in the program and with a view to their potential success as a professional artist. This course is repeatable for up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4702 - From Still to Moving Images

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3703 with a minimum grade of C and (ART 3702 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3704 with a minimum grade of C)

This course is designed to provide advanced students with an in depth investigation of the relationship between still and moving images. Students will create photographic prints and video work as well as other works that don't fall easily into either category. An emphasis will be put on understanding the historic evolution of still and moving images and the use of lens-based imagery in contemporary art. Weekly film screenings will accompany critical readings.

ART 4704 - Documentary Photography

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3702 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3703 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is designed to give advanced students and in-depth experience studying and creating documentary images. Documentary projects are expensive investigations of a subject. Students will define a project with the assistance of the instructor and continue to investigate this project for the entire semester. Progress will be assessed through bi-monthly critiques and monthly submission of images. Whereas concept based art is meant to reflect the personal feelings of the artist and commercial photography is meant to convey ideas for a client, documentary is meant to reflect outwards on society. Projects should have some socio-political or cultural significance. Students will also learn about the history and major figures in documentary photography through slide lectures and readings.

ART 4705 - History of Photography

(1.5 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: (ART 3702 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3704 with a minimum grade of C) and ART 3703 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is designed to give advanced students a comprehensive investigation of the history of photography. This course explores the technical innovations, cultural implications and the major figures in its history. Students will learn about the subject through lectures, readings and exams but they will also learn through hands-on projects using historic processes to make their own work. Major technical emphasis will be placed on the use of the large format view camera. note: this course can fulfill advanced coursework for photography majors, or an art elective for non photo majors. It does not fulfill a 3000 or above art history requirement, nor is it a DSW certified course.

ART 4706 - Advanced Photography Studio

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3702 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3703 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4704 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4705 with a minimum grade of C.

Contingent on the approval of the instructor, the student will define a series of works delving into specific subject matter and/or technical interests. This course is meant to further the direction of the individual and prepare them for their senior exhibitions. The student will participate in the artistic community both through exhibiting or competing contract free lance work and by completing a thesis paper or 10 or more pages, explaining the conceptual interests and processes used in their exhibition. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4707 - Professional Photography Assignments

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 4704 with a minimum grade of C or ART 4705 with a minimum grade of C.

This course prepares students to make photographic images as professionals through learning appropriate technical skills. Students will be immersed in the many aspects of photography that are available once they leave the university. A strong emphasis will be placed on developing skills in artificial lighting, studio production, and basic corporate video production.

ART 4708 - Exp Prac in Lens-Based Media

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 4703 with a minimum grade of C or ART 4704 with a minimum grade of C or ART 4705 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is designed to introduce advanced students to experimental, non traditional, and alternative photographic and motion picture processes. Students will produce photographic series, time-based works, and other forms of art such as installations, 3-D objects, and projections. Projects will utilize an array of analogue and digital technologies in their production.

ART 4803 - Intaglio

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C. Printmaking III will offer advanced experiences in the intaglio method of printmaking including hard and soft ground etching, aquatint, spit bite and monoprinting. Color etching will be introduced, and exposure to book forms will continue.

ART 4804 - Lithography

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C.

Printmaking IV offers an introduction to the history and processes of aluminum plate and stone lithography, and continued exposure to the book as an art form.

ART 4805 - Advanced Printmaking

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3802 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4803 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4804 with a minimum grade of C.

Advanced expressive problems at the undergraduate level in one or more of the following methods: relief, intaglio, or lithography. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4821 - Printmaking IV: Screenprinting

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C.

Screenprinting is a versatile printmaking medium in which students can combine a variety of marks, including photographic, digital and autographic into images which can be printed on many surfaces (paper, canvas and other fabric, wood, plastic, glass, etc.) This course is an investigation into the techniques and conceptual possibilities of water-based screenprinting (serigraphy) with emphasis on an interdisciplinary approach.

ART 4822 - The Art of Letterpress Printing and the Book

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C.

Letterpress and Printing and Book Arts will continue with advanced problems where Print-making Survey (ART 3801) ended. The utilization of moveable type (typesetting) will compare aesthetics, history and vocabulary with those of current computer based typesetting. Letter press will explore fine letterpress printing and expressive typography while learning to operate the Vandercook SP20 Test Press. A variety of two and three dimensional formats will be considered for letterpress application, with an emphasis on the role of the book from its inception to current trends in the book arts.

ART 4903 - Sculpture IV

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C.

Focus of this course is on individual visual vocabulary, expression and content through production of meaningful objects. Students will research and apply advanced techniques and issues in contemporary sculpture using a wide range of traditional and nontraditional materials.

ART 4904 - Advanced Sculpture

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3902 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3903 with a minimum grade of C and ART 4903 with a minimum grade of C.

This course focuses on advanced sculptural investigations and individual expression with traditional and nontraditional materials chosen by the student. Students demonstrate significant research in process, technique and materials to express individual ideas and aesthetics resulting in a portfolio of works. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4985 - Special Topics

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: ART 3301 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3601 with a minimum grade of C or ART 3602 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3701 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3801 with a minimum grade of C and ART 3901 with a minimum grade of C. Individual studio problems in various topics or media relevant to the student's special interest and competence. May be repeated up to 15 credit hours.

ART 4998 - Senior Capstone Experience I

(1 /0/ 1) Research and study within a studio concentration that culminates in the public presentation of the senior exhibition (ART 4899: Senior Capstone II). Students will be required to research this project and document its development prior to the presentation of the written capstone component. With the aid of their peers, advisors and faculty jurors' students will work through the articulation of their goals by active critiquing and self-assessment.

ART 4999 - Senior Capstone Experience II

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: ART 4998 with a minimum grade of C.

Continued research and advanced study within a studio/design concentration will culminate in the public presentation of the senior exhibition. Capstone Experience II will provide an opportunity to consolidate, expand and refine the skills that are essential to your discipline. The preparation of an oral defense for this final body of work, their creative thesis visual project, will undergo the critical review of an Art Faculty Committee prior to its public presentation in the Senior Fine Arts Exhibition. Additionally, the completion of the written component of the creative visual project, begun in ART 49XX, Capstone Experience I, will describe in full the processes and the outcomes of the senior research.

Astronomy

ASTR 2313 - Astronomy

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of sky awareness, historical developments of astronomy, the solar system, stars, nebulas, and galaxies.

ASTR 2313L - Astronomy Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) An experimental introduction to the elementary tools of astronomy.

ASTR 3033 - Topics in Astronomy

(3 /0/ 3) Topics about the solar system, stars, galaxies, and cosmology. May not be taken by students who have completed ASTR 2313 and does not count toward a major in physics.

Biology

BIOL 1010 - Fundamentals of Biology

(3 /0/ 3) Fundamentals of Biology will instruct students in basic biological phenomena and how organisms interact with their environments. Emphasis will be placed on humans and processes within the human biology. Topics will include: biological diversity, biological molecules, cells, organ systems, genetics and the interaction of man with his environment.

BIOL 1010L - Fundamentals of Biology Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Laboratory component of the Fundamentals of Biology course (BIOL 1010) . The lecture and lab courses must be taken during the same term.

BIOL 1011 - Biology of Human Reproduction

(3 /0/ 3) The Biology of Human Reproduction is designed to familiarize students with the basic structure and function of the reproductive tract, developmental processes, the genetics of reproduction and disease and dysfunctions of the reproductive tract. Topics of general interest such as birth control, sexually transmitted diseases, infertility and means of overcoming infertility will be discussed.

BIOL 1012 - Ecology and Environmental Biology

(3 /0/ 3) Ecology and Environmental Biology is designed to familiarize non-major students with the basic structures and functions of populations, communities, and ecosystems. Based on this foundation, emphasis will be placed on ecological assessments of many current and pressing environmental issues that threaten the air, water and soil resources of earth. Same as ENV5 1012.

BIOL 1013 - Biology of AIDS and Infectious Disease

(3 /0/ 3) The Biology of AIDS and Infectious Disease is designed to inform students about infectious diseases, how microorganisms cause diseases and how humans resist and fight infection. It will introduce students to several human organ systems and the common infections for those systems. The course will particularly focus on AIDS and HIV, the history, epidemiology, biology, diagnosis, and treatment of this particular disease.

BIOL 1014 - Nutrition

(3 /0/ 3) A course designed to introduce students to the science of nutrition and how it impacts their lives.

BIOL 1015 - The Unseen World of Microbes

(3 /0/ 3) Designed to introduce non-science majors to the diversity and importance of microorganisms and the role of these organisms play in the environment, industry, and out health. Designed for on-line delivery and contains an associated laboratory component.

BIOL 1015L - The Unseen World of Microorganisms Lab

(0 /1/ 1) Prerequisite: BIOL 1015.

This laboratory is designed to accompany BIOL 1015. Students may take lecture without lab, however the lecture portion is a co-requisite or pre-requisite to this lab course. The lab modules consist of hands-on and virtual labs that are shipped to off-campus students.

BIOL 1101 - Freshman Biology Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) This course surveys the University of West Georgia, the Biology Department, and the discipline of Biology, including opportunities for post graduate studies and careers. Students will be engaged by active learning assignments in critical thinking, scientific information retrieval, practical computer skills, and oral and written communication. Students will be introduced to resources and practices that can assist success in the classroom. Students are expected to attend and report on assigned presentations outside of class.

BIOL 1107 - Principles of Biology I

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed for the biology major, other science majors, and secondary science majors. An integrated plant- animal approach, including form, function, and development of organisms, their systematics, ecology and evolution. Students must enroll in BIOL 1107L in the same term.

BIOL 1107L - Principles of Biology I Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component for BIOL 1107. Lecture and lab must be taken in the same term.

BIOL 1108 - Principles of Biology II

(3 /0/ 3) A continuation of BIOL 1107. Students must enroll in BIOL 1108L in the same term.

BIOL 1108L - Principles of Biology II Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component for BIOL 1108. Lecture and lab must be taken in the same term.

BIOL 1110 - Biological Diversity

(2 /2/ 3) This course is an Introductory foundation-building course for Biology majors. It is designed to familiarize students with the distinguishing characteristics, taxonomy, evolutionary relationships, and economic importance of all domains of life. For Biology majors only. Does not fulfill core requirements.

BIOL 2021 - Human Anatomy and Physiology I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1108 with a minimum grade of B and BIOL 1108L with a minimum grade of B) or (CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of B and CHEM 1212L with a minimum grade of B) or CHEM 1152K with a minimum grade of B or (PHYS 1112 with a minimum grade of B and PHYS 1112L with a minimum grade of B)) or (BIOL 1107 with a minimum grade of B and BIOL 1107L with a minimum grade of B and CHEM 1211 with a minimum grade of B and CHEM 1211L with a minimum grade of B) or An introduction to the structural and functional relationships in the human body.

This course will introduce the student to the background material and the organ systems associated with protection, support, and movement, as well as, the systems which control and integrate body functions. Course is designed to be taken before BIOL 2022. This course is not intended for biology or other laboratory science majors and cannot be used for credit toward those degrees. Students must enroll in BIOL 2021L in the same term.

BIOL 2021L - Human Anatomy and Physiology I Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component of BIOL 2021. Students must enroll in BIOL 2021 in the same term.

BIOL 2022 - Human Anatomy and Physiology II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: BIOL 2021 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2021L with a minimum grade of C.

A continuation of the study of the structural and functional relationships in the human body. This course will introduce the student to the structure and function of the organ systems associated with blood production, blood flow, respiration, digestion, excretion, reproduction and immunity. This course is designed to follow BIOL 2021. This course is not intended for biology or other laboratory science majors and cannot be used for credit toward those degrees.

BIOL 2022L - Human Anatomy and Physiology II Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) Prerequisite: BIOL 2021 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2021L with a minimum grade of C.

The laboratory component of BIOL 2022. Students must enroll in BIOL 2022 in the same term.

BIOL 2030 - Medical Microbiology

(3 /0/ 3) CHEM 1151 Minimum Grade: C and CHEM 1151L Minimum Grade: C (or CHEM 1151K minimum grade: C) and CHEM 1152 Minimum Grade: C and CHEM 1152L Minimum Grade: C (or CHEM 1152K minimum grade: C) Or CHEM 1211 Minimum Grade: C and CHEM 1211L Minimum Grade: C (or CHEM 1211K minimum grade: C) and CHEM 1212 Minimum

Grade: C and CHEM 1212L Minimum Grade: C (or CHEM 1212K minimum grade: C) Or BIOL 1107 Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 1107L Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 1108 Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 1108L Minimum Grade: C Or BIOL 2107 Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 2107L Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 2108 Minimum Grade: C and BIOL 2108L Minimum Grade: C.

Medical microbiology is a course designed for nursing and other allied health persons and is intended to introduce the student to the basic concepts and practices of microbiology, especially with regard to health and human disease. Lecture portions of the course will address the basic biology of microorganisms, pathogenic mechanisms, host defense and immunity, and microorganisms and human diseases. This course is not intended for biology or other laboratory science majors and cannot be used for credit toward those degrees. Students must enroll in BIOL 2030L in the same term. BIOL 2030L

BIOL 2030L - Medical Microbiology Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component of BIOL 2030. Students must enroll in BIOL 2030L in the same term.

BIOL 2107 - Principles of Biology I for Biology Majors

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1211K or CHEM 1211) and (CHEM 1212K or CHEM 1212)

This is the first of a two semester course designed for biology majors requiring a survey of fundamental topics in modern biology. Lectures build on a foundation of chemistry to develop current concepts of cell and molecular biology, genetics, evolution, and biological diversity. This course satisfies a core requirement of the Biology Major, but does not fulfill any of the requirements for general education.

BIOL 2107L - Principles of Biology I Lab for Biology Majors

(0 /3/ 1) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1211K or CHEM 1211) and (CHEM 1212K or CHEM 1212)

This is the laboratory component for the lecture course, BIOL 2107. Lecture and lab must be taken in the same semester.

BIOL 2108 - Principles of Biology II for Biology Majors

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: and BIOL 1110 and BIOL 2108L.

This is the second of a two semester course designed for biology majors requiring a survey of fundamental topics in modern biology. Lectures build on a foundation of chemistry to develop current concepts of the form and function of plants and animals and of ecology. This course satisfies a core requirement of the Biology major but does not fulfill any of the requirements for general education.

BIOL 2108L - Principles of Biology II Lab for Biology Majors

(0 /3/ 1) This is the laboratory component for the lecture course, BIOL 2108. Lecture and lab must be taken in the same semester.

BIOL 2120 - Biological Computer Applications

(1 /0/ 1) A course designed to introduce sophomore Biology majors to basic computer applications that will provide knowledge and skills useful for advanced course work, professional studies, or employment in the biological sciences.

BIOL 2130 - Sophomore Biology Seminar

(0 /1/ 1) A course designed to introduce biology majors to basic skills for critical reading of biological literature, methods for organizing information for oral presentation and which will assess the oral presentation skills of students. Students will learn methods for literature searches, the style of writing for biological literature, including research papers, review articles and short communications. Each student will select a topic for presentation, will research his or her topic and will present the researched information orally in a style acceptable for scientific presentations.

BIOL 2134 - Molecular Cell Biology

(3 /0/ 3) This course deals with the molecular aspects of cell structure and function, emphasizing the chemical and molecular basis of cellular physiology. It also addresses genetic functions at the chromosomal and molecular levels, gene expression and regulation.

BIOL 2134L - Molecular Cell Biology Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component of BIOL 2134.

BIOL 2135 - Ecology, Evolution, and Experimental Biology

(3 /0/ 3) Designed to familiarize sophomore level Biology students with the basic factors controlling the structure and function of populations, communities, and ecosystems. The role of evolutionary processes in the structure and function of these systems will be explored. Basic concepts will be synthesized and reinforced by investigating the dynamics of the major aquatic life zones and terrestrial biomes on earth.

BIOL 2135L - Ecology, Evolution and Experimental Biology Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) The laboratory component of BIOL 2135.

BIOL 2983 - Undergraduate Biology Research

(0 /1.0 - 4.0/ 1.0 - 4.0) A course designed to allow students to conduct faculty- directed, independent research projects in areas of the biological sciences. The course may be repeated, but credit for BIOL 2983 may not apply toward biology degree requirements.

BIOL 2985 - Special Topics in Biology

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) This course will cover various topics in biology at the lower division level. The topics will change from term to term. Courses may or may not involve laboratory instruction. Non-laboratory courses will offer 3 credit hours and laboratory courses will offer 4 credit hours.

BIOL 3010 - Biology for Middle Grades Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L (Non-credit for biology major or minor.)

A course that emphasizes the conceptual basis for the Georgia middle grades life sciences performance standards. This course broadens understanding of the fundamental concepts of animal organ systems, animal physiology, parts and functions of vascular plants, reproduction, and ecological principles. A foundational course in biology is assumed.

BIOL 3134 - Cell and Molecular Biology

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

This course deals with the molecular aspects of cell structure and function, emphasizing the chemical and molecular basis of cellular physiology. It also addresses genetic functions at the chromosomal and molecular levels, gene expression, and regulation.

BIOL 3135 - Ecology

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

This course is designed to familiarize Biology majors with the factors controlling the structure and function of populations, communities, and ecosystems. The role of evolutionary processes in the structure and function of these systems will also be explored. Basic concepts will be synthesized and reinforced by investigating the dynamics of the aquatic life zones and terrestrial biomes on earth.

BIOL 3221 - Taxonomy of Flowering Plants and Ferns

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L.

Taxonomy of flowering plants and ferns is designed to familiarize students with the important botanical features and methods used to identify vascular plant species. Emphasis will be placed on recognizing the distinguishing characteristics, taxonomic relationships, and ecological distribution of plant families common to Northwest Georgia.

BIOL 3223 - Vascular Plants

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 Minimum Grade: C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L Minimum Grade: C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 Minimum Grade: C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L Minimum Grade: C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

Designed to familiarize students with four basic areas of plant biology: diversity, anatomy, physiology and ecology. Ferns, fern allies, gymnosperms, and angiosperms will be compared and contrasted through lecture and lab based exercises.

BIOL 3226 - Natural History of Vertebrates

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L) or (BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L)

Vertebrate natural history is studied in lecture, lab, and field. The taxonomy, phylogeny, identification, and general aspects of the behavior and ecology of freshwater fishes, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals of the Southeast are studied. Local species are emphasized.

BIOL 3231 - Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy

(2 /6/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L).

A lab oriented (dissection) course in the organogenesis and gross morphology of animal structure with an emphasis on functional and evolutionary modifications. Gross dissection and techniques used in morphology.

BIOL 3232 - Vertebrate Evolution

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

Concepts of evolution with a review of the how animals with backbones developed through more than 400 million years.

BIOL 3242 - Evolution

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

The principles and mechanisms of evolution in plants and animals, covering population phenomena, speciation, sexual selection, life history strategies, behavior, adaptation, systematics and biogeography.

BIOL 3310 - Microbiology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

Microbiology is the study of biological organisms and agents too small to see with the un-aided eye. This course will introduce students to the diversity, physiology, anatomy, and genetics of microorganisms, with particular emphasis on the bacteria. It will also introduce students to key areas of microbiology, including medical microbiology, microbial ecology, food microbiology, and biotechnology. In the laboratory students will learn techniques for medical microbiology and biotechnology.

BIOL 3513 - Human Physiology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

A survey of the mechanisms involved in the function of the human body. Study is approached from the organ system level to address muscular, neural, hormonal, cardiovascular, respiratory, digestive, renal, and reproductive functions. Correlation will be made to the similarity between the demands placed on living systems regardless of whether the organism is multicellular or a single cell.

BIOL 3526 - Vertebrate Histology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (Minimum Grade: C for BIOL 2107 and BIOL 2107L and BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L and CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L and CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L) or (Minimum Grade: C for BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L and CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

A microanatomical study of cell and tissue structure. Emphasis is on the complex nature of tissues and how the cellular associations within the tissue contribute to the overall functions of the tissues. Laboratory is devoted to preparation and interpretation of tissue samples.

BIOL 3621 - Genetics and Medical Genetics

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

The major emphasis of this course is the study of both basic and advanced genetic principles and genetic analysis methods that can be applied to all eukaryotic organisms. The secondary emphasis of this course will be the study of human medical genetics.

BIOL 3825 - Research Methods

(3 /0/ 3) Specially designed to meet the needs of future teachers, students design and carry out four in-dependent inquiries, which they write up and present in the manner that is common in the scientific community. Course is restricted to UTEACH students.

BIOL 4241 - Entomology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L) or (BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L)

The study of insects. This course is designed to provide students with a basic understanding of insect taxonomy, morphology, physiology, behavior, and evolution. The relationships between insects and humans, other animals, and plants will be examined. The influences of insects on culture, religion, art, history, and colonization will be discussed. The laboratory will be devoted primarily to developing an understanding of insect identification.

BIOL 4242 - Invertebrate Zoology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L) or (BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L)

This course is designed to provide students with a basic understanding of taxonomy, morphology, physiology, and evolution of the more common invertebrate phyla. The distribution and interspecific relationships among invertebrates and other forms of life will be presented and discussed. The laboratory will be devoted primarily to developing an understanding of invertebrate morphology and classification.

BIOL 4245 - Ichthyology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L) or (BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L)

The biology, systematics and taxonomy of fishes with an emphasis on the biodiversity/biogeography of fishes in the state of Georgia.

BIOL 4266 - Molecular Ecology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

This course examines the use of molecular genetic data to the understanding of ecological and evolutionary processes in the natural populations such as genetic diversity, dispersal, gene flow and phylogeography. This course will also examine how molecular genetic data is utilized to study behavioral mechanism such as mate selection and foraging. Application of molecular ecology principles to conservation will also be explored.

BIOL 4315 - Bacterial Genetics

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: BIOL 3310

Bacterial Genetics is an advanced microbiology course which focuses on the molecular genetics of the bacterium Escherichia coli. Topics addressed include the nature of the bacterial chromosome, the multi-step process of DNA replication, DNA damaging agents and mutations, DNA repair systems, mechanisms of gene transfer and antibiotic resistance, and the regulation of gene expression. The laboratory component reinforces concepts learned in lecture and familiarizes students with modern techniques used in genetic engineering and biotechnology.

BIOL 4321 - Applied and Environmental Microbiology

(3 /3/ 4) Course is designed to expose students to the importance of micro organisms in industry and in the environment. Lab exercises focus on microbial growth, interactions with environmental factors and use in industrial applications such as treatment of sewage. Same as ENVS 4321.

BIOL 4325 - Advanced Medical Microbiology

(3 /0/ 3) BIOL 3310

Advanced medical microbiology is designed to inform students of current developments in the areas of clinical and medical microbiology. The course will focus on mechanisms of pathogenesis and host defense. Discussion of new and emerging infectious agents will be addressed.

BIOL 4424 - Wildlife Habitat Ecology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

This course is designed to familiarize biology majors with the ecology and management of terrestrial wildlife habitats. Ecological concepts and principles relevant to wildlife habitat structure and function will be evaluated from the individual, population, community, ecosystem, and landscape levels of organization. Management practices that affect the structure and function of wildlife habitats will be evaluated for agricultural and forest ecosystems. Concepts will be synthesized and reinforced by investigating the habitat requirements for a variety of wildlife species in the southwestern United States.

BIOL 4440 - Aquatic Ecology

(2 /6/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 2108 or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L)

A study of biological, chemical, and physical components and interactions in freshwater systems. Field labs include a study of reservoirs and streams in west Georgia. A three day field trip to the Georgia coast or the Okefenokee Swamp is required.

BIOL 4441 - Animal Behavior

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K or CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1212K or CHEM 1212) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K or CHEM 1211)

A study of the mechanisms and adaptive functions of behaviors. The genetics, development, physiology, and ecology of behaviors are investigated with an evolutionary approach.

BIOL 4445 - Marine Biology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

The biology, systematics and taxonomy of marine organisms with an emphasis on the ecological principles that influence their biogeography.

BIOL 4450 - Terrestrial Ecology

(2 /6/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

This course provides an in dept study of the processes controlling the structure and function of terrestrial ecosystems. Basic concepts will be synthesized and applied comparing and contrasting the dynamics of terrestrial ecosystems in the Coastal Plain, Piedmont, and Mountain Regions of the Southeastern United States.

BIOL 4503 - Biological Perspectives: Biochemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 1107 with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1107L with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108 with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C) and (BIOL 1108L with a minimum grade of C or BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1211K or (CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L) and CHEM 1212K or (CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L) and CHEM 2411.

This course is designed to study the interactions of biochemical pathways and the control systems that function to regulate cell and whole body metabolism. This course emphasizes the regulation of biochemical pathways as opposed to the mechanisms involved in each enzymatic step within a given pathway.

BIOL 4520 - Developmental Biology and Embryology

(3 /3/ 4) Minimum C in BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 and Minimum C in CHEM 1212.

A course combining the fundamentals of embryology with the genetic and molecular analysis of embryonic development.

BIOL 4539 - Comparative Physiology

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to study the similarities and differences in how various animals have solved a wide variety of physiological problems imposed by the natural world in which they exist. The student will investigate the functions of the different organ systems in invertebrates and vertebrates. The main goal of this class is to focus on the observation of how problems in nature are solved by various organisms. A complete understanding of the physiology of the human is an absolute prerequisite for this course as this will be the point of reference for most discussions.

BIOL 4541 - Plant Physiology

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

This course is designed to give students a hands-on approach to understanding the metabolic activities of how plants grow develop throughout their lifecycles. Emphasis will be placed on plant environmental interactions, stress physiology, growth regulators, mineral nutrition, translocation, photosynthesis/respiration, and root/shoot physiology.

BIOL 4666 - Evolutionary Genomics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 2107 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2107L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108 with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 2108L with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K) or (BIOL 1107 and BIOL 1107L and BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L and CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K)

This course covers the techniques by which genome sequences and genome functions are analyzed. This course also examines topics in evolutionary genomics such as comparative genomics, evolution of duplicate genes, evolution of genome structure and organization, evolution of protein function and evolution of gene expression.

BIOL 4727 - Essentials of Immunology

(3 /0/ 3) BIOL 3310Essentials of immunology is designed as an introduction to the immune response. The student will obtain a broad, comprehensive understanding of the principles of immunology. The course will focus on a detailed study of antigen-antibody interactions, humoral immunity, and cell-mediated immunity. Medically important syndromes, including AIDS, will be discussed to reinforce the principles of immunology.

BIOL 4728 - Bacterial Pathogenesis

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: BIOL 3310

Bacterial Pathogenesis introduces students to the field of medical microbiology and the study of infectious disease. Topics covered include a discussion of environmental and host factors involved in bacterial infection and disease, an introduction to epidemiology and nosocomial infections, an overview of innate and acquired host defenses, and an extensive survey of bacterial pathogens with special emphasis on virulence factors and molecular mechanisms under-lying disease processes. An online, virtual laboratory component will focus on methods routinely used to isolate, culture, and identify bacterial pathogens.

BIOL 4729 - Medical Virology

(3 /0/ 3) BIOL 3310

Medical virology is designed as an introduction to viruses that are involved in human disease. The student will obtain a broad, comprehensive understanding of the principles of virology using specific medical examples. The course will focus on a detailed study of the viral structure, replication gene expression, pathogenesis, and host defense.

BIOL 4730 - Emerging Pathogens

(3 /0/ 3) BIOL 3310

The emerging pathogen course is designed to inform students of the dramatic changes and current developments in the area of infectious disease. The course will focus on the evolving microorganisms and the reasons that the pathogens emerged. Also the course will include discussions on the mechanisms of pathogenesis and the host defense.

BIOL 4731 - Introduction to Toxicology

(3 /0/ 3) The primary objective of the course is to present students with the concepts and practical applications of the science of toxicology. This course is designed to provide students with a basic understanding of the principles of toxicology, focusing on the biochemical, physiological, and ecological effects of various toxicants. The use of toxicology in biomedical, pharmaceutical, agrochemical, and environmental research will be examined and discussed.

BIOL 4732 - Biology of Aging

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Minimum C in BIOL 1108 or BIOL 2108 and Minimum C in CHEM 1212. Since the beginning of time, the fear of aging has preoccupied mankind. Only recently we are gaining insights into important clues about biological process of aging. In this course we will focus on some of the ideas about aging put forward by early alchemists to modern molecular biologists. Biological principles behind anti-aging, aging intervention agents, and life-style options will be discussed.

BIOL 4733 - Nutrition

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 3513 and CHEM 2411) or BIOL 4503 Biology 4733 is a general science course for science majors.

This course provides a basic understanding of the fundamentals of human nutrition and builds from what biology majors already know about physiology, biochemistry and general biology. It uses a scientific approach to apply the logic of sciences in understanding the individual's diet so that they are prepared to make decisions about health and nutrition. Emphases are placed on digestion, absorption and functions of carbohydrates, proteins, fats, nucleic acids, vitamins, minerals, water, and accessory nutrients. This course also integrates energy balance, weight control, health, diseases, metabolism, and cultural diversity. This course is only for those who have learned metabolic pathways and chemistry, which set it apart from the lower level core curriculum course, BIOL 1014.

BIOL 4734 - Neuroscience

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (BIOL 3513 and CHEM 2411) or BIOL 4503. Biology 4734W is an upper level Discipline-Specific Writing science course.

This course will provide an understanding of human neuroanatomy, physiology and pharmacology of the nervous system and its voluntary and autonomic target and sensory organs. Other topics will include cognition, neural disorders and disorders of movement. Students taking this course should have passed BIOL 3513 (Physiology) CGEN 2411 (Organic Chemistry I) or BIOL 4503 (Biochemistry) .

BIOL 4735 - Parasitology

(3 /3/ 4) BIOL 2108 and BIOL 2108L or BIOL 1108 and BIOL 1108L with a minimum grade of C and BIOL 3310 or 3526.

This course introduces students to the field of parasitology. Topics include parasite diversity, life cycles, host defense mechanisms, parasite evasion, host pathology, ecology, evolution, and control. The laboratory component of the course will examine parasites of medical and veterinary importance.

BIOL 4981 - Independent Study

(0 /1 - 4/ 1 - 4) Independent study of topics not offered in the current term. Independent study is only available for topics addressed by current courses if the topical course will not be offered during the academic year, or if the scheduling of the topical course is such that it will require a delay in timely completion of the degree for the student.

BIOL 4983 - Advanced Undergraduate Biology Research

(0 /1 - 4/ 1 - 4) A course designed to allow students to conduct faculty-directed, independent research projects in areas of the biological sciences. The course may be repeated, but credit for BIOL 4983 may be applied toward biology degree requirements for a maximum of 4 credit hours.

BIOL 4984 - Senior Biology Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) The senior biology seminar is designed to prepare students for oral presentation of biological research and concepts and to allow a mechanism for feedback on presentation skills. Biology majors are required to first enroll in sophomore biology seminar. Students who have conducted research projects may present their own research results. Students who have conducted research projects may present their own research results. Others may present information from current biological research literature.

BIOL 4985 - Special Topics in Biology

(0 /1-4/ 1 - 4) Specific titles will be announced for each term in class schedules and will be entered on transcripts.

BIOL 4986 - Biological Internship

(0 /1 - 6/ 1 - 6) Students wishing to enter an internship experience will be provided with a written statement of understanding, defining the nature of the experience and the expectations for student performance. The degree of involvement for the particular experience will be used to determine credit hours received. Variable Credit Course 1-6 hours. May be repeated for up to 12 hours.

Birth Through FiveBRFV 4210 - Home, School and Community

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed for students who are currently employed or who are preparing to work in early childhood settings. This course will help students to establish and maintain positive and productive working relationships with families within the context of the urban community to benefit the well being of the growing child. Writing assignments, as appropriate to the discipline will be part of the course.

BRFV 4220 - Special Education Strategies for Young Learners: Birth to Age Five

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides information on curricula, instructional strategies, service environments, and staffing roles for teachers of young (0-5) children with disabilities.

BRFV 4230 - Methods for Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to familiarize students with developmentally appropriate programs for preschool children in inclusive classroom settings.

Business AdministrationBUSA 1900 - Surfing the Internet for Success

(2 /0/ 2) An introduction to Internet basics such as using e-mail, participating in electronic discussion groups, and exploring the World Wide Web (WWW) . Emphasis will be on using the Internet as a useful source of information for the social sciences, business education, consumer decision making, and career planning. This course satisfies the two-hour institutional priority listed under Area B.

BUSA 1901 - Personal and Consumer Law

(2 /0/ 2) A course designed to familiarize students with the legal environment in which they live. This includes the operation of the U.S. legal system, alternative dispute resolution and conflict management, and rights and obligations arising in various consumer, domestic, business, and employment contexts.

BUSA 1910 - Using Information Technology Today and Tomorrow

(1 /2/ 2) A course designed to assure a basic level of computer applications literacy, to include word processing, presentations software, LAN, e-mail and Internet utilizations.

BUSA 2106 - Legal and Ethical Environment of Business

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the legal, regulatory, and ethical environment of business, considering the interrelationship and impact of political, social, cultural, environmental, technological, international, and diversity issues. Requires overall GPA of 2.0.

Business EducationABED 3100 - Business Communication

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (COMM 1110 or XIDS 1004 or ENGL 2050 or THEA 2050 or ART 2000 or PHIL 2020 or COMM 1100 or SPAN 1001 or SPAN 1002 or FREN 1001 or FREN 1002 or GRMN 1001 or GRMN 1002) and ENGL 1101 with a minimum grade of C.

A study of written and oral business communication to develop process and theory skills including writing, speaking, listening, business meetings, teamwork, presentations, and cross-cultural communication. Students write standard business letters and deliver oral and written presentations and reports. Management concepts of business ethics and problem analysis are integrated with communication process and theory.

ABED 4118 - Web Page Design

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MKTG 3803.

The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to Web design. Students will learn concepts related to planning and developing web sites by studying Web usability, multimedia, and Web 2.0 applications for business and education web sites. (same as MKTG 4818) .

ABED 4181 - Independent Study

(3 /0/ 3) Each professor will be responsible for specific course content, assignments, and course requirements based upon the nature of the course for each independent assignment.

ChemistryCHEM 1000 - Workshop for CHEM 1151K

(0 /0/ 0) Workshop/discussion for Chemistry 1151.

CHEM 1001 - Workshop for CHEM 1211K

(0 /0/ 0) Workshop/discussion for CHEM 1211K.

CHEM 1002 - Workshop for CHEM 1152K

(0 /0/ 0) Workshop/discussion for CHEM 1152K

CHEM 1003 - Workshop for CHEM 1212K

(0 /0/ 0) Workshop/discussion for CHEM 1212K

CHEM 1100 - Introductory Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) A one semester course covering some basic concepts and applications of chemistry for non-science majors. There is an optional laboratory component.

CHEM 1100L - Introductory Chemistry Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material of CHEM 1100.

CHEM 1151K - Survey of Chemistry I

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1111.

First course in a two-semester sequence covering elementary principles of general, organic, and biochemistry for allied health professions and non-science majors. Topics to be covered include: elements and compounds, chemical equations, organic nomenclature, and molecular geometry. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material. MATH 1111 may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 1152K - Survey of Chemistry II

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: CHEM 1151K with a minimum grade of C.

Second course in a two-semester sequence covering elementary principles of general, organic, and biochemistry for allied health professions and non-science majors. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material.

CHEM 1211 - Principles of Chemistry I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1113 and CHEM 1211L.

First course in a two-semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Topics to be covered include composition of matter, stoichiometry, periodic relations, and nomenclature. MATH 1113 and CHEM 1211L may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 1211K - Principles of Chemistry I and Lab

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: ECOR C and MATH 1113.

First course in a two-semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Topics to be covered include composition of matter, stoichiometry, periodic relations, and nomenclature. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>.

CHEM 1211L - Principles of Chemistry I Lab

(0 /3/ 1) Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material of CHEM 1211.

CHEM 1212 - Principles of Chemistry II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1211 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1211K with a minimum grade of C) and MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C

Second course in a two semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Topics to be covered include chemical bonding, properties of solids, liquids and gases, solutions, equilibria, acids and bases, solubility, thermodynamics, kinetics and electricity. Corequisite: CHEM 1212L

CHEM 1212K - Principles of Chemistry II and Lab

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1211K with a minimum grade of C or (CHEM 1001 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 1211L with a minimum grade of C) and MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C and ECOR C)

Second course in a two-semester sequence covering the fundamental principles and applications of chemistry for science majors. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>.

CHEM 1212L - Principles of Chemistry II Lab

(0 /2/ 1) Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material of CHEM 1212.

CHEM 1230K - Accelerated Principles of Chemistry

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C.

Designed for the student with superior pre-college preparation. Principles of chemistry will be explored in an integrated class/laboratory setting. Topics will include reactions and reaction stoichiometry, atomic and molecular structure, chemical bonding, properties of solids, liquids and gases, solutions, equilibria, acids and bases, solubility, thermodynamics and kinetics, and electrochemistry. May not be taken for credit after successful completion of CHEM 1212.

CHEM 2083 - Selected Projects in Chemistry

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Title and description of course to be specified at time of offering.

CHEM 2130 - Sophomore Chemistry Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C.

A course designed to introduce Chemistry majors to current literature and career opportunities in Chemistry and allied fields. Faculty will present brief seminars pertaining to their research and topics of current interest. Students will carry out literature searches and make oral and/or written presentations on topics chosen in consultation with the instructor(s) .

CHEM 2411 - Organic Chemistry I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1212 Minimum Grade: B or CHEM 1212K Minimum Grade: B) and CHEM 2411L OR departmental approval.

The first course of a two semester sequence which provides a broad introduction to the basic principles, theories and applications of the chemistry of carbon compounds. Topics will include modern structural theory, organic nomenclature, stereochemistry, reaction mechanisms and kinetics, and an introduction to functional group chemistry. Also covers the interpretation of IR, NMR, and mass spectroscopy for the structure determination of organic compounds. CHEM 2411L may be taken concurrently. CHEM 2411L may be taken concurrently .

CHEM 2411L - Organic Chemistry I Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) Emphasis of this laboratory will be on fundamental techniques and will provide experience with purification, physical and spectroscopic characterization and synthesis of organic sub-stances.

CHEM 2422 - Organic Chemistry II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 2411 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 2422L.

The second course will systematically explore reactions of carbon-containing compounds and the mechanistic pathways involved in these processes. Reactions that will be discussed include functional group transformations, oxidation, reductions, cycloadditions and carbon-carbon bond formation. The course begins to teach the student how to systematically design a multi-step synthesis of complex organic compounds. CHEM 2422L may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 2422L - Organic Chemistry II Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) Emphasis of this laboratory will be on synthesis and characterization of organic substances will be included.

CHEM 2455 - Principles of Organic Chemistry

(3 // 3) Prerequisite: C or better in CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L or their equivalent.

Comprehensive one semester course that emphasizes those aspects of organic chemistry that are relevant to the study of biology. Whenever possible, correlations to biological molecules, medicine and disease will be made. Will cover fundamentals of contemporary organic chemistry including electronic structure, stereochemistry, and reactions of carbonyl and carboxylic acid derivatives. This one semester course will adequately prepare students for biochemistry courses. Will not fulfill the organic chemistry requirement for chemistry majors. 2455L

CHEM 2455L - Principles of Organic Chemistry Lab

(0 /3/ 1) Prerequisite: C or better in CHEM 1212 and CHEM 1212L.

The purpose of this course is to apply the knowledge obtained in Principles of Organic Chemistry lecture to problem solving in the laboratory. Students will develop good laboratory techniques, including: isolate and purify organic substances, characterize substances prepared by physical means, correlate the physical properties of organic substances with their molecular structure, work safely, take data carefully, record relevant observation, use time effectively, and assess the efficiency of experimental methods.

CHEM 3010 - Law and Administration of Chemicals

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C.

Categories of hazardous chemicals, their origin, impact on society, state and federal regulations, handling, storage and disposal will be discussed. Case studies of hazardous chemicals will include asbestos, lead, polychlorinated biphenyls, pesticides, batteries. Regulations, particularly RCRA, CERCLA, OSHA, TSCA, SARA, NEPA, HMTA, CWA will be discussed.

CHEM 3130 - Modern Forensic Science

(3 /0/ 3) Case-oriented approach will be used to explore selected topics of forensic science. These include: (1) the scientific and technological foundation for the examination of evidence; (2) the scope of expert qualifications and testimony, the legal status of scientific techniques, and the admissibility of the results in evidence; (3) the analysis of trace evidence including glass, soil, hair, fibers, gunpowder residues and bullet fragments; (4) forensic toxicology and pharmacology are applied to the analysis of alcohol, poisons, and drugs; and (5) the characterization of blood and other body fluids. The cases which stimulate the exploration of these areas include: the O.J. Simpson case, the John Kennedy assassination, the Jeffery Lindberg baby kidnapping, and the Tylenol poisonings. Not applicable as a Chemistry elective for students majoring or minoring in chemistry.

CHEM 3140 - Drugs and Drug Abuse

(3 /0/ 3) An examination of the current and historical patterns of alcohol, drug use, abuse, and control. Emphasis will be given to the patterns of usage, way these drugs affect body and types of rehabilitation centers. See CRIM 3242. Not applicable as a Chemistry elective for students majoring or minoring in Chemistry.

CHEM 3310K - Analytical Chemistry

(3 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C) and MATH 1634 with a minimum grade of C.

This course emphasizes skills needed for a student to function as a professional analytical chemist. The student will be firmly grounded in the areas of gravimetric and volumetric analysis, equilibria, quantitative spectroscopy, electrochemistry and chromatography. Special emphases will be placed on writing skills.

CHEM 3422 - Organic Chemistry II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 2411 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 3422L.

The second course will systematically explore reactions of carbon-containing compounds and the mechanistic pathways involved in these processes. Reactions that will be discussed include functional group transformations, oxidation, reductions, cycloadditions and carbon-carbon bond formation. The course begins to teach the student how to systematically design a multi-step synthesis of complex organic compounds. CHEM 3422L may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 3422L - Organic Chemistry II Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) Emphasis of this laboratory will be on synthesis and characterization of organic substances will be included.

CHEM 3510 - Survey of Physical Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C and MATH 1634 with a minimum grade of C and (PHYS 1112 with a minimum grade of C or PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C.

This course is a survey course for students who do not need the more rigorous full-year sequence in physical chemistry. The course includes thermodynamics, chemical and phase equilibria, electrochemistry, kinetics and other topics in physical chemistry.

CHEM 3521 - Quantum Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C and PHYS 2211 with a minimum grade of C and PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C and MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C.

This course is an introduction to elementary quantum mechanics and its applications to selected chemical systems. Topics include an introduction to operators, 'particle in a box', harmonic oscillator, atomic structure, chemical bonding, atomic spectroscopy, rotational, vibrational and electronic spectroscopy of small molecules, and elementary statistical mechanics. MATH 2664 or MATH 3303 may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 3522 - Chemical Thermodynamics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1212 Minimum Grade: C and CHEM 1212L Minimum Grade: C) or CHEM 1212K Minimum Grade: C) and (PHYS 2212 Minimum Grade: C) and (MATH 2644 Minimum Grade: C) and (MATH 2654 or MATH 3303)

This course develops standard topics in classical physical chemistry, with primary emphasis on chemical thermodynamics. The course includes physical and chemical properties of real and ideal gases, the law of thermodynamics and their application to physical and chemical systems, chemical and phase equilibria, kinetic theory of gases, chemical kinetics, transport properties, and the application of quantum mechanics to thermodynamics in statistical mechanics. MATH 2654 or MATH 3303 may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 3523 - Structure, Bonding and Reactivity

(3 // 3) Prerequisite: (C or better in PHYS 1112 or PHYS 2212) and (C or better in CHEM 3422) and (C or better in MATH 2644)

This course applies wave-mechanical models of bound electrons to account for the electronic structure of atoms via orbital theory and how it is used to explain the similarities/differences in the behavior of various elements in the periodic table. This is followed by the building of numerous molecular systems via applying Molecular Orbital Theory with Group Symmetry. Orbital theory will be applied in interpreting/predicting the electronic interaction with light, chemical reactivity, and kinetic behavior in reaction mechanisms of various organic molecular systems.

CHEM 3550L - Physical Chemistry Laboratory

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: CHEM 3521 or CHEM 3522.

In this course, students will demonstrate their understanding of the physical basis and general applications of experimental techniques in physical chemistry. In particular, they will demonstrate their ability in applying the theories from thermodynamics, kinetics, quantum mechanics and spectroscopy to interpret experimental data. They will also learn how to maintain a laboratory notebook - collect data in a professionally acceptable way. Finally, they will demonstrate their ability to communicate their data and results to others. CHEM 3521 or CHEM 3522 may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 3810 - Chemical Process Principles

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C) and MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C and PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C.

An introductory engineering approach to material and energy balance for physical and chemical processes are developed. Gas behavior, systems of units, material properties, thermophysical and thermochemical concepts are discussed. Emphasis is on the application of material and energy balances to steady and unsteady state physical and chemical processes.

CHEM 3825 - Research Methods

(3 /0/ 3) Specially designed to meet the needs of future teachers, students design and carry out four in-dependent inquiries, which they write up and present in the manner that is common in the scientific community. Course is restricted to UTEACH students.

CHEM 3830 - Engineering Thermodynamics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C and MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C and (CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C)

An introductory engineering approach to thermodynamics for physical and chemical processes is developed. Applications of first and second laws, engines, refrigeration and compression cycles, equations of states, fluid properties, corresponding states will be emphasized.

CHEM 3885 - Selected Topics in Chemical Engineering

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Title and description of course to be specified at time of offering. May be repeated for credit.

CHEM 4003 - History and Philosophy of Science

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C.

A study of the historical development of major areas of science and the philosophical examinations of scientific methods and results.

CHEM 4081 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) A topic is chosen in consultation with a faculty member.

CHEM 4083 - Faculty Directed Research

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) A research project carried out under the guidance of a faculty member.

Discussion of research areas with the faculty and preliminary work involving literature searching and planning should be completed before the senior year. Both a formal oral and written report of the results of the research must be presented to the faculty of the Department of Chemistry. ACS track students cannot use this as a Chemistry elective. Non-ACS track students can use up to 3 credit hours as a Chemistry elective.

CHEM 4084 - Senior Seminar

(0 /1/ 1) Restricted to senior chemistry majors. This course is designed to prepare students for oral presentation of chemical research. An oral defense of the students senior research project is required.

CHEM 4086 - Internship in Chemistry

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Students will secure a position with a company for field experience. May be used for a chemistry elective only by consent of the department.

CHEM 4185 - Selected Topics for Teachers

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Course is designed for pre- and in-service teachers. Title and description of course to be specified at time of offering. May be repeated for credit. May be used for major or minor in chemistry only by consent of department.

CHEM 4330K - Instrumental Analysis

(3 /1/ 4) Prerequisite: CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C and (CHEM 3521 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 4611 with a minimum grade of C)

This is a course designed for chemistry majors that covers the use of instrumentation for chemical analysis. Topics will include optical spectroscopy, NMR, mass spectrometry and selected topics in polarimetry, voltammetry and chromatography. In this class, we will dis-cuss the theory behind the analysis (with a strong emphasis on quantum mechanics and spectroscopy) , instrumental operation (that covers the electronics and optical components of instruments) , and the data analysis and interpretation (which includes signal processing, Fourier transformation, and statistical analysis) . There is a three hour laboratory component to the course. Laboratory exercises will familiarize students with electronics, applications of spectroscopy, chemical instrumentation and data analysis.

CHEM 4340 - Surface Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3310K

This course introduces elementary concepts of modern surface chemistry. Considerations of thermodynamics, kinetics, surface structure, electronic structure, and catalysis and reactivity will be explored using examples from the current literature. Surface chemistry, draws upon all areas of chemistry; therefore, a solid background in calculus, physics, and chemistry is assumed.

CHEM 4350L - Techniques of Surface Chemistry Laboratory

(0 /3/ 1) This laboratory course is designed to familiarize a student to modern techniques of surface science. The technique includes scanning tunneling microscopy, atomic force microscopy, low energy electron diffraction, auger electron spectroscopy, thermal desorption spectroscopy, and ion sputtering. Design considerations of vacuum systems will be explored. Since all techniques are on-site, this will be a interactive hands on experience.

CHEM 4385 - Advanced Topics in Analytical Chemistry

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C.

Advanced topics in analytical chemistry provides the student exposure to current topics and problems unique to the field of analytical chemistry. This course will be offered periodically with the topics announced by the faculty involved.

CHEM 4410 - Organic Medicinal Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C.

This course covers a wide variety of medicinal drugs, their actions in the body, and ultimately their metabolism and excretion.

CHEM 4485 - Advanced Topics in Organic Chemistry

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C.

Building upon the students' background in organic chemistry, these courses will explore in greater depth selected advanced topics in organic chemistry. Selected topics such as advanced synthesis, reaction mechanism, molecular orbital theory, spectroscopy, stereochemistry and physical organic chemistry will be offered.

CHEM 4585 - Advanced Topics in Physical Chemistry

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: CHEM 3521 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 3522 with a minimum grade of C.

Building upon the students' background in required courses in physical chemistry, this course will explore in greater depth selected topics in physical chemistry. These will be chosen from atomic and molecular structure, spectroscopy, statistical mechanics, and dynamics of chemical reactions.

CHEM 4610 - Inorganic Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C.

The wave nature of electrons is applied to atomic structure and periodic trends. Inter and intramolecular bonding models are used to interpret the chemical and physical properties of various materials, from simplistic diatomic molecules to structurally complex molecular and ionic systems. Thermodynamic principles are used to determine the relative stability of inorganic compounds.

CHEM 4611 - Structure and Bonding

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and (PHYS 1112 with a minimum grade of C or PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C)

Fundamental quantum mechanical principles are applied to atomic structure and the periodic properties of the elements. The structure and reactivity of ionic and molecular systems are qualitatively analyzed by using bonding models such as valence bond theory, group symmetry and molecular orbital theory. The Band Theory is used to investigate the insulating/conducting properties of solids.

CHEM 4612 - Advanced Inorganic Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 4611 with a minimum grade of C.

The thermodynamic, kinetic, and quantum mechanical properties of inorganic compounds are investigated. Bonding models are used to explain the physical and chemical properties of organometallic, main group, and heavy metal systems. Nuclear properties of the elements are explored and nuclear models are compared.

CHEM 4685 - Advanced Topics in Inorganic Chemistry

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C.

Advanced topics in inorganic chemistry exposes the students to current topics and problems in the field of inorganic chemistry.

CHEM 4711 - Biochemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C.

The first of two semester sequence in biochemistry covering the general physical and chemical properties of biomolecules and the metabolism. Topics will include biomolecular structure and function, first-order enzyme kinetics, glycolysis and carbohydrate metabolism, Krebs's cycle, oxidative phosphorylation, fatty acid catabolism and biosynthesis, metabolism and utilization of amino acids, biologically important amines and regulation of metabolism.

CHEM 4712 - Physical Biochemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (PHYS 1112 with a minimum grade of C or PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C) and CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C.

Covers biochemistry and spectroscopy of biomolecules. Topics include protein folding, protein stability, protein-DNA interactions, physical chemistry of biomembranes, kinetics (beyond first order) , molecular mechanics and dynamics, NMR spectroscopy (fluorescence, circular dichroism, laser spectroscopy) , mass spectrometry and xray crystallograph.

CHEM 4720L - Biochemistry Laboratory

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: CHEM 4711 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 4712 with a minimum grade of C.

The laboratory course will emphasize the principles discussed in the lecture courses Biochemistry I and Biochemistry II. Half of the course will place emphasis on experiments that introduce students to the practices of protein separation, purification, quantification and assays. The other half of the course will emphasize principles from physical biochemistry and spectroscopy of biomolecules. Experiments will examine macromolecular structure and stability; protein folding; lipid bilayer structure and dynamics and enzyme kinetics. This course will provide students with experience in instrumental techniques that are used in research and industrial facilities.

CHEM 4910L - Tools and Applications in Chemical Research and Practice

(1 /5/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 3422L with a minimum grade of C.

Tools and Applications in Chemical Research and Practice is a 3 credit hour laboratory based course that introduces students to a research experience using a series of small-scale, multi-week research modules. This capstone course capitalizes on previous knowledge and skills from multidisciplinary chemistry courses and focuses on a narrow problem in a practical application. Each module begins with skill building activities followed by and in-depth exploration of one aspect of the problem allowing students access to research experiences as part of the mainstream curriculum.

CHEM 4913L - Advanced Synthesis Laboratory

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and (CHEM 4611 or CHEM 4612)
This laboratory course involves non-trivial synthesis of organic and inorganic molecules by a variety of advanced techniques (vacuum line, inert atmosphere, high/low temperature, etc.) . Spectroscopic (FT-NMR, IR, UV, etc.) and computational methods are used to investigate characterize, and compare experimental and theoretical properties of the synthesized molecules. Special emphasis will be placed on writing skills. CHEM 4611 or CHEM 4612 may be taken concurrently.

CHEM 4920 - Environmental Chemistry

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C.

This course is an introduction to the practice of modern environmental chemistry. Topics include pollutants in water, soil, and the atmosphere; equilibria in aqueous systems; experimental methods in environmental analyses; toxicological chemistry; current environmental problems. The laboratory will consist of EPA-approved methods of analyses.

CHEM 4930 - Chemical Kinetics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 3510 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 3521 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 3522 with a minimum grade of C.

This course focuses on macroscopic rates of chemical reactions as a tool to a molecular level understanding. The emphasis is on an integrated approach to view examples drawn from various subdisciplines within chemistry, namely organic, inorganic and biological. Topics include integrated rate laws, experimental techniques in chemical kinetics, steady state approximation, mechanisms of organic, inorganic, and enzyme reactions, catalysis, collision theory, and elementary activated complex theory.

CHEM 4940 - Industrial Chemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CHEM 1212 with a minimum grade of C or CHEM 1212K with a minimum grade of C.

Commercial production of everyday and specialty chemicals will be discussed with emphasis on raw materials, chemistry, equipment, environmental impact. Typical industries: inorganic acids/bases, hydrocarbon derivatives, aromatics, petroleum refining, polymers, pesticides/fertilizers, paper/pulp, pharmaceuticals, soaps/detergents.

CHEM 4985 - Selected Topics in Chemistry: An Integrated Approach

(1.0 - 4.0 /0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Prerequisite: CHEM 3422 with a minimum grade of C and CHEM 3310K with a minimum grade of C.

This course focuses on selected topics in chemistry which may consist of spectroscopy, magnetic resonance or stereo chemistry. The emphasis is on an integrated approach to view examples that transcend sub-disciplines within chemistry, namely inorganic, organic, physical, analytical, and biochemistry.

Computer Science

CS 1000 - Practical Computing

(0 /2/ 1) A hands-on introduction to the use of personal computers and software: input/output devices, graphical user interfaces, terminology, and software.

CS 1020 - Computers and Society

(1 /2/ 2) A hands-on introduction to the use of personal computers and software, with an introductory examination of the effects of computer technology on contemporary society. Topics will include productivity applications, creation of Web pages, and societal and ethical issues in computing; privacy, security, censorship, and the changes in work, school, and entertainment fostered by computing.

CS 1030 - Introduction to Computer Concepts

(2 /2/ 3) An introduction to the concepts, usage, and uses of computers. Topics include the social and ethical aspects of computing; the Internet, including the creation of Web pages; overview of computer architecture, operating systems, and applications; an introduction to algorithms and programming using Visual BASIC.

CS 1300 - Introduction to Computer Science

(2 /4/ 4) This course introduces two fundamental aspects of computer science--abstraction and design--as students learn to develop programs in a high-level programming language. Students will study and implement a variety of applications, including graphics and scientific simulations. The course assumes no prior background in programming or computer science.

CS 1301 - Computer Science I

(2 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1113 Minimum Grade: C.

This course explores the three fundamental aspects of computer science--theory, abstraction, and design as the students develop moderately complex software in a high-level programming language. It will emphasize problem solving, algorithm development, and object-oriented design and programming. This course may not be attempted more than three times without department approval.

CS 1302 - Computer Science II

(2 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: CS 1301 Minimum Grade: B.

This course continues the exploration of theory, abstraction, and design in computer science as the students develop more complex software in a high-level programming language. This course may not be attempted more than two times without department approval.

CS 2100 - Introduction to Web Development

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1301 with a minimum grade of B.

An introduction to the design and implementation of web pages and sites: foundations of human-computer interaction; development processes; interface, site and navigation design; markup and style-sheet languages; site evaluation; introduction to client-side scripting.

CS 3110 - System Architecture

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1302 with a minimum grade of B.

An introduction to systems architecture and its impact on software execution. Topics include digital logic and digital systems, machine level representation of data, assembly level machine organization, memory systems organization, I/O and communication, and CPU implementation.

CS 3151 - Data Structures and Discrete Mathematics I

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: CS 1302 Minimum Grade: B and MATH 1634 Minimum Grade: C.

An integrated approach to the study of data structures, algorithm analysis, and discrete mathematics. Topics include induction and recursion, time and space complexity, and big-O notation, propositional logic, proof techniques, sorting, mathematical properties of data structures, including lists.

CS 3152 - Data Structures and Discrete Mathematics II

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: CS 3151. A continuation of CS 3151.

Topics include sets, relations and functions, graphs, state spaces and search techniques; automata, regular expressions, and context free grammars; NP-completeness.

CS 3201 - Program Construction I

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1302 with a minimum grade of B.

The craft and science of software construction: effective practices, principles, and patterns for building correct, understandable, testable and maintainable object-oriented code.

CS 3202 - Program Construction II

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 3201 with a minimum grade of C.

A continuation of CS 3201: effective practices, principles and patterns for building correct, understandable, testable, and maintainable code using a variety of programming paradigms, programming languages and system architectures.

CS 3211 - Software Engineering I

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1302 with a minimum grade of B.

An introduction to the software development life cycle and contemporary software development methods. This course places special emphasis on object-oriented systems. Students are expected to complete a medium scale software project.

CS 3212 - Software Engineering II

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 3211 with a minimum grade of C.

Software development methods for large scale systems. Management of software development projects. Software engineering standards. Students are expected to complete a large scale software project.

CS 3230 - Information Management

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 3211

This course covers principles of database systems. Topics include theory of relational databases, database design techniques, database query languages, transaction processing, distributed databases, privacy and civil liberties. Students are expected to complete a project in database design, administration, and development.

CS 3270 - Intelligent Systems

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1302 with a minimum grade of B.

Application and survey of problem-solving methods in artificial intelligence with emphasis on heuristic programming, production systems, neural networks, agents, social implications of computing, and professional ethics and responsibilities.

CS 3280 - Systems Programming

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 1302 with a minimum grade of B.

Introduction to system-level software development. Topics include OS processes, network communication, file-system organization and manipulation, and script programming.

CS 4225 - Distributed and Cloud Computing

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 3110 and CS 3280.

This course introduces the foundations and applications of distributed and cloud computing. Topics include multi-threaded programming, scheduling, synchronization, network architecture, distributed computing and distributed services, cloud services, and internet-scale computing.

CS 4981 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 4.0/ 1.0 - 4.0) Individual study in computer science through a mutual agreement between the student and a computing faculty member. May be repeated for a maximum of 10 hours credit. Departmental consent is required for use of this credit toward a major or minor in computer science.

CS 4982 - Computing Capstone

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: CS 3212 and CS 3230.

This course integrates core topics of computer science body of knowledge, teamwork, and professional practices through the implementation of a large scale project.

CS 4983 - Directed Research

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Individual research in computer science through a mutual agreement between the student and a computing faculty member. May be repeated for a maximum of 10 hours credit. Departmental consent is required for use of this credit toward a major or minor in computer science.

CS 4985 - Special Topics

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: CS 3211

Topics in Computer Science designed to give students knowledge at the frontier of a rapidly changing field.

CS 4986 - Computing Internship

(0 /0/ 3) A hands-on, supervised field experience in computing. Students will create and present a comprehensive portfolio documenting the field experience. Maybe repeated for a total of 6 hours credit. Grading is S/U.

Counseling & Educational Psychology

CEPD 2101 - Childhood Development

(3 /0/ 3) This course is an in-depth study of the theories and processes of human development from birth through pre-adolescence. Special emphasis is placed on the developmental requirements and characteristics of children prior to and during schooling up through pre-adolescence, as well as developmental readiness as it applies to the teaching and learning process.

CEPD 2102 - Developmental Psychology

(2 /0/ 2) A survey of human development as explored through various psychological perspectives. Although development from conception through adulthood will be examined, the emphasis will be placed upon conception through adolescence. This course is designed to facilitate an awareness of childhood and adolescence as we explore experiences of children in families, peer relationships, and schools of today. Physical, psychosocial, moral and intellectual development will be examined through a variety of in-class activities. Lecture and discussion topics will be selected from your text which should be your primary reference for all class activities.

CEPD 2120 - Career Life Planning

(2 /0/ 2) This course is designed to expose undergraduate freshmen and sophomores to variables involved in career choice. These variables include self-assessment, career information, the decision-making process, establishment of short and long-range goals, and interview and resume preparation. There is an additional fee for two career inventories, which are part of the assessment process. These inventories are to be taken at the Student Development Center.

CEPD 2121 - Organizational Leadership

(3 /0/ 3) This course will analyze the impact of leadership on organizational effectiveness. It will attempt to differentiate between a leader and a manager, and how each can be vital to an organization's success. Students will also learn new attributes of successful leaders, including interpersonal skills, attitudes, and behaviors, which can facilitate effective leadership within different types of organizations. The course explores the processes, stages, and leadership capacities and skills for leading change in organizations.

CEPD 3200 - Skills and Ethics in Human Services

(3 /0/ 3) This undergraduate course is an introduction to the basic communication and group management skills required of effective human service workers, and the legal and ethical considerations that accompany human services work. Students will learn strategies for active listening, effective communication, understanding and managing group dynamics, and identifying and responding to legal and ethical issues in the workplace.

CEPD 4101 - Educational Psychology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

An introduction to the psychological theories and principles applied to the classroom. The course will include aspects of learning, motivation, classroom management, and assessment. Emphasis will be placed on developmentally designed instruction for all students.

CEPD 4106 - Seminar in Residence Hall Staff Education

(2 /0/ 2) The purpose of the class is to provide the resident assistant with additional training that will assist in job performance and to provide supplemental learning activities that will allow individuals to explore new arenas of self-awareness.

CEPD 4150 - Tests and Measurements

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

This course is concerned with the theory and practice of educational and psychological measurement. The focus is on the technology of measurement rather than on the development of skill in the use of any given measuring instrument. Classroom test construction will be emphasized.

CEPD 4200 - Working with Diverse Populations in Human Services

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides knowledge, skills and awareness related to the effective delivery of human services to diverse populations in contemporary society.

Criminology

CRIM 1100 - Introduction to Criminal Justice

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides an overview of the criminal justice system in the United States. Topics covered include definitions and measures of crime, fear of crime, victims of crime, law enforcement, courts, corrections, and juvenile justice.

CRIM 2000 - Survey of Criminology

(3 /0/ 3) This course will provide an overview of issues and controversies in criminology. In addition to a survey of the major criminological series, the course concentrates on the major types of crimes committed in America society. Additionally, students will be exposed to how major societal institutions impact upon crime control efforts. Finally, problems associated with the measurement of crime are considered.

CRIM 2245 - Juvenile Delinquency

(3 /0/ 3) This course will examine the types and patterns of juvenile delinquency and the social and institutional context within which delinquency occurs. Major theories of delinquency will be presented. The juvenile justice system will be discussed with a focus on historical changes and contemporary challenges.

CRIM 2272 - Introduction to Law Enforcement

(3 /0/ 3) Law enforcement in America will be examined at the federal, state and local levels. The history of law enforcement, the structure and functions of law enforcement agencies and the role of police in society will be covered. In addition, the course will explore the management of police and the challenges facing police administrators.

CRIM 2273 - Criminal Procedure

(3 /0/ 3) Criminal Procedure covers the major U.S. Supreme Court decisions regarding law enforcement. These cases provide the boundaries which facilitate as well as limit the actions of law enforcement officers in such activities as: 'stop and frisk', arrest, questioning, surveillance, vehicle stops and searches, as well as search and seizures which yield evidence admissible at trial. Also emphasizes legal reasoning and interpretation as well as the fundamental elements of case briefing and jurisdiction.

CRIM 2274 - American Criminal Courts

(3 /0/ 3) This course introduces students to the history, traditions, and philosophy of criminal courts in America. It focuses on the organizational structures of the courts at the local, state, and federal levels. Students will learn about the various legal actors (e.g., judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys) and the roles they play in the courtroom. Finally, this course examines the nature of criminal law and the procedures that must be followed when defendants enter the judicial system from arraignment to sentencing.

CRIM 2275 - Introduction to Corrections

(3 /0/ 3) Corrections in America will be examined at the federal, state and local levels. The history of incarceration, the structure and functions of jails, prisons, and community corrections and the role of corrections in society will be covered.

CRIM 2276 - Global Crime and Justice

(3/0/3) CRIM 1100.

As we look around the world, we witness a vast array of individual, corporate, and state criminal activity that is varied in its scope, intensity, and effect upon society. The amount and variety of global crime is immense, and in order to fully appreciate its dimensions, we must impose certain definitions and perspectives. Two of the most important variables to understand are the influences of culture and globalization on the causes and responses to crime around the world. Although it may be difficult to comprehend why such crime persists decade after decade, the search for these answers uncovers a challenging and fascinating tapestry of criminal activity.

CRIM 3240 - Criminological Theory

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CRIM 2000.

An overview of the major historical developments in criminological theory, with an emphasis on basic assumptions, concepts, and propositions of criminological theories of crime.

CRIM 3241 - Corrections

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: CRIM 1100.

A study of the past, present, and future trends, issues and philosophies of corrections. Particular emphasis will be placed on the issues and concerns of the maximum security prison.

CRIM 3242 - Drug Abuse

CRIM 4983 - Senior Thesis

(0 /0/ 3) This course gives senior criminology majors the opportunity to conduct significant, independent, empirical research under the supervision of a faculty thesis directory. Students are required to make an oral and written presentation of their research. May be taken twice for credit toward the degree.

Early Childhood/Elementary EducationECED 3214 - Exploratory Activities in Music and the Fine Arts

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

An introductory course that surveys methods and activities to teach fundamental skills in movement/dance/drama, art and music in the early childhood/elementary curriculum. Field experience required. Admission to Teacher Education. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 3271, ECED 3282 and READ 3251, or with Advisor approval.

ECED 3271 - Integrating Curriculum, Instruction, and Classroom Management for Pre K-5 Classrooms

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

Students will examine theories and models for designing curriculum, instruction, and class-room management in Pre-K through fifth grade classrooms. Students will also observe and apply these theories and models during a field based experience.

ECED 3282 - Practicum I

(0 /1/ 1) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students are placed in a designated early childhood/elementary site. Requirements include observing children and planning and implementing learning activities with the guidance of a qualified supervisor. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 3214, ECED 3271 and READ 3251 or with advisor approval.

ECED 4251 - Assessment and Correction Mathematics Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Overviews development of acquisition of mathematical concepts. The assessment/correction process is examined. Teaching strategies appropriate to children with learning difficulties are described. Individual assessment and analysis of a particular child's mathematical problems, including teaching to this analysis are developed in case study form. Current research on teaching mathematics to children with special needs is examined. Knowledge of teaching strategies and the assessment/correction process will be applied during field experience. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4284, READ 3263 and READ 4251 or with advisor approval.

ECED 4251L - Assessment and Correction Clinical Lab

(0 /1/ 1) This course requires the supervised and coordinated diagnosing and correcting of students in K-5 classrooms. The lab experiences shall require demonstration of the content knowledge and pedagogical skills acquired in ECED 4251 - Assessment and Correction in Mathematics Education.

ECED 4261 - Teaching Content and Process: Social Studies Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students will examine the current content and methodology of social studies education for young learners (grades P-5) . Students will design and implement learning experiences that incorporate the knowledge, skills, and attitudes appropriate for an elementary social studies program. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4262, ECED 4263, ECED 4283 and READ 3262 or with Advisor approval.

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students will examine content, methodology, skills, and materials used to teach science to children in grades P-5 by means of course discussions and assignments, field placements/assignments and course readings. Emphasis will be placed on developmentally appropriate practices and integration with mathematics and other appropriate subject areas. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4261, ECED 4263, ECED 4283 and READ 3262 or with advisor approval.

ECED 4263 - Teaching Content and Process: Mathematics Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Mathematics education content, methods and materials which are appropriate for the cognitive development of the young child from Pre-K to Grade 5 will be investigated. Students will apply knowledge of content, methods and materials during field experience. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4261, ECED 4262, ECED 4283 and READ 3262 or with advisor approval.

ECED 4283 - Practicum II

(0 /2/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required. Students are placed in a designated early childhood/ elementary site. Requirements include observing children and planning and implementing learning activities with the guidance of a qualified supervisor. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4261, ECED 4262, ECED 4263 and READ 3262 or with advisor approval.

ECED 4284 - Practicum III

(0 /2/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required. Application for field experience required prior to enrollment. Students are placed in a designated early childhood/elementary site. Requirements include observing children and planning and implementing learning activities with the guidance of a qualified supervisor.

ECED 4285 - Special Topics

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

Titles and descriptions of specific courses to be inserted at time of offering. May be repeated for credit.

ECED 4286 - Teaching Internship

(0 /18/ 9) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students will be involved 15 weeks (one semester) in a full-time, supervised and directed classroom setting. Application to field experience required prior to enrollment. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4289; a practicum/internship fee will be charged.

ECED 4287 - Teaching Internship I

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students will be in a full-time, supervised and directed classroom setting. Application to field experience required prior to enrollment Provisionally certified students only.

ECED 4288 - Teaching Internship II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required.

Students will be in a full-time, supervised and directed classroom setting. Application to field experience required prior to enrollment. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4289.

ECED 4289 - Teaching Internship Seminar

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

Designed to engage interns in a critical reflection of issues, topics materials and skills appropriate to their professional development and teaching experience during their internship. Will also serve as a capstone experience for satisfying exit requirements of the program. Must be taken concurrently with ECED 4286 or ECED 4288.

Early Childhood through Secondary Education

ECSE 3214 - Exploratory Curriculum for Pre-K-5 Classroom

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program.

This course provides students with the basic pedagogical skills and developmentally appropriate practices for teaching exploratory curriculum (drama, art, music, physical activity, and health) in Pre-K-5 classrooms, including children with mild disabilities. The course will provide foundational pedagogy for candidates to begin their pre-service experience creating and evaluating lesson plans, exploring various instructional strategies, and methods for effective planning and instruction. Students will also apply knowledge of content, methods and materials during field experience.

ECSE 4761 - Teaching Content and Process: Social Studies Dual Certificate

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and SPED 3713 and SPED 4710 and SPED 3702 and ECSE 3214.

Candidates will examine the current content and methodology of social studies education for young learners (grades P-K) including those with disabilities. Candidates will explore ways to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners. Candidates will design and implement

Exited Learning Support in Reading and English. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>. This course is an introduction to using personal computers to communicate with individuals and organizations and to access, store, and analyze information. Emphasis is on exploring the role of technology in present and future learning experiences. Topics include the digital divide, virtual communities, telecommuting, job search and readiness, e-commerce, globalization, privacy versus security, and intellectual property in cyberspace. Students will use their practical technology skills to create word-processed documents, an electronic presentation, and a Web page.

Engineering

ENGR 1113 - Introduction to Engineering

(2 /3/ 3) An introduction to the field of engineering.

ENGR 1173 - Computer Graphics/Introduction to Visual Communication and Engineering Design

(2 /3/ 3) Computer-aided engineering design fundamentals. Projection theory, sketching, creative design, and geometric modeling.

ENGR 3113 - Statics

(3 /0/ 3) Elements of statics in one, two, and three dimensions, centroids, analysis of structures and machines, friction.

ENGR 3123 - Dynamics

(3 /0/ 3) The kinematics and kinetics of particles and extended rigid bodies moving in a plane.

ENGR 3133 - Mechanics of Deformable Bodies

(3 /0/ 3) Definition and analysis of stress and strain, applications to axially loaded elements, torsion of circular shafts and beam bending, plasticity, column stability.

ENGR 3810 - Chemical Process Principles

(3 /0/ 3) An introductory engineering approach to material and energy balance for physical and chemical processes is developed. Gas behavior, systems of units, material properties, and thermo-physical and thermochemical concepts are discussed. Emphasis is on the application of material and energy balances to steady and unsteady state physical and chemical processes. Same as CHEM 3810.

ENGR 3830 - Engineering Thermodynamics

(3 /0/ 3) An introductory engineering approach to thermodynamics for physical and chemical processes is developed. Applications of first and second laws, engines, refrigeration and compression cycles, equations of states, fluid properties, corresponding states will be emphasized.

ENGR 3885 - Selected Topics in Chemical Engineering

(1.0 - 15.0 /0/ 1.0 - 15.0) On successful completion of this course, the student will be able to understand and apply specific principles of science and engineering to chemical engineering problems.

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FORL 1798.

This is the second of a two-semester program the purpose of which is to provide highly motivated students with the opportunity to continue to develop the basic speaking skills in Japanese that they learned at the FORL 1798 level. The methods utilized conform to the self-instructional format developed by the National Association for Self-Instructional programs.

FORL 1898 - Elementary Portuguese I

(3 /0/ 3) This is the first of a two-semester program in which the purpose is to provide highly motivated students with the opportunity to learn basic speaking skills in Portuguese. The methods utilized conform to the self-instructional format developed by the National association for Self-Instructional programs.

FORL 1899 - Elementary Portuguese II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FORL 1898.

This is the second of a two-semester program the purpose of which is to provide highly motivated students with the opportunity to continue to develop the basic speaking skills in Portuguese that they learned at the FORL 1898 level. The methods utilized conform to the self-instructional format developed by the National Association for Self-Instructional programs.

FORL 2200 - Survey of National Literatures

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C or ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C or EX X.

An introductory survey of a national literature other than English. The subject will vary and will be chosen from among the following: Classical Greece and Rome, China, France, Francophone countries, Germanic countries, Italy, Spain, Latin-American countries. All readings are in translation. No knowledge of the foreign language(s) in question is necessary. Course may be repeated with a different subject.

FORL 2300 - Topics in National Literatures

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C or ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C or EX X.

Readings from a variety of literary texts drawn from one or more national literatures other than English. The subject will vary, as for example, travel literature, myths/legends, science fiction, drama.

FORL 3111 - World Film

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C. This course will offer film viewings and analysis of films selected from different national traditions, several of which will always be represented. Readings in Film History and Theory will be used to illuminate selected films from differing cultures and traditions (French, German, Spanish, Latin American, Japanese, etc.) All films have subtitles and all readings are in English. No knowledge of the foreign language (s) in question is necessary. Course may be repeated with a different subject.

FORL 4185 - Topics in Language and Literature

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C. Content of course varies. This course focuses on topics related to the study of culture, literature, film, and/or linguistics. Taught in English. Course may be repeated for credit with different topic. (Possible topics: Language, Society, and Culture; Arab Women in Literature and Film; Applied Linguistics in the Foreign Language Classroom; U.S. Latino Culture and Literature, etc.)

FORL 4300 - Seminar in Global Studies

(3 /0/ 3) An interdisciplinary study of a selected culture, involving history, politics, sociology, and economics, as well as literature, art, music and spiritual life. The course includes a trip to the area studied.

FORL 4485 - Topics in National Film Traditions

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C. This course will offer film viewings and analysis within individual national traditions. Readings in Film History and Theory will be used to illuminate selected films from a national tradition (French, German, Spanish, Latin American, Japanese, etc) . All films have subtitles and all readings are in English. No knowledge of the foreign language(s) in question is necessary. Course may be repeated with a different subject.

FORL 4501 - Foundations of Language Development

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed primarily for future and novice language teachers, introduces students to theories of first and second language development. It is a requirement for all students completing the P-12 initial certification track in French and Spanish.

FORL 4502 - Methods of Foreign Language Teaching

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required. A course designed for students to develop skills and strategies in teaching and planning foreign language instruction at the secondary level.

FORL 4586 - Teaching Internship

(0 /14.0 - 40.0/ 3.0 - 9.0) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required. This course consists of teaching in a public school under the supervision of an experienced, qualified classroom teacher. Students whose programs require a 3 hour, 2 semester internship may repeat the course for a total of 6 hours. These students may take the first three hours after completing two FORL courses.

FrenchFREN 1001 - Elementary French I

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to listening, speaking, reading, and writing in French and to the culture of French-speaking regions.

FREN 1001C - Elementary French I - Block

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to listening, speaking, reading, and writing in French and to the culture of French-speaking regions.

FREN 1002 - Elementary French II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 1001 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 1001C with a minimum grade of C or better or two years high school study. Continued listening, speaking, reading and writing in French with further study of the culture of French-speaking regions.

FREN 1002C - Elementary French II - Block

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 1001C with a minimum grade of C. Pre-requisite: FREN 1001 with a grade of C or better or two years high school study. Continued listening, speaking, reading and writing in French with further study of the culture of French-speaking regions.

FREN 2001 - Intermediate French I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 1002 with a minimum grade of C or FRE 102 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 1002C with a minimum grade of C or FREN 1002C with a minimum grade of C. A continuation of FREN 1002, FREN 2001 provides a solid base of thematic vocabulary and grammar structures together with a varied sampling of literary readings, communicative activities, and cultural information.

FREN 2002 - Intermediate French II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2001 with a minimum grade of C or FRE 103 with a minimum grade of C. Emphasis on applying reading skills to texts in different disciplines, on the continued development of writing and speaking skills, and on the functional use of grammar.

FREN 3100 - Composition and Conversation

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C or FRE 104 with a minimum grade of C. Extensive practice in written and spoken French. Includes grammar review, vocabulary expansion, and composition and conversation practice on contemporary cultural/literary topics. Can be taken three times for credit with different content.

FREN 3210 - Topics in French Literature

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C. An introduction to the analysis of French literature through the study of selected text and authors of major French literary movements. The focus of the course may vary from the thematic approach to a study of literary genres.

FREN 3211 - Topics in French Culture

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C or FRE 104 with a minimum grade of C. Introduction to contemporary French and Francophone culture through the study of films, popular music, media, newspapers art, and/or television shows. May be taken up to four times for credit with different content.

FREN 3212 - Topics in Francophone Cinema

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to Francophone cinema through the discussion and analysis of French-language films placed within their cultural and historical context. Can be taken twice for credit with different content.

FREN 3220 - Survey of French Literature I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C. A study of selected works by major writers of the Middle Ages, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

FREN 3221 - Survey of French Literature II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C. A study of selected works by major French writers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

FREN 3450 - Business French

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 2002 with a minimum grade of C or FRE 104 with a minimum grade of C. An intensive and extensive study of the principles governing the structure of the French language. As a culmination of series of courses introducing students to oral and written communication, this course teaches students the finer points of grammar and allows them to refine their language skills.

FREN 4000 - Advanced French Translation

(3 /0/ 3) This course will provide students the opportunity to gain skills translating French to English as well as English to French.

FREN 4150 - Advanced Grammar and Linguistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 3100

Intensive study of the principles governing the structures of the French language. In this course students will refine and extend their language skills.

FREN 4210 - French Literature and Film

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 3100 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3210 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3211 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3220 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3221 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3450 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3101 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3102 with a minimum grade of C.

A comparative approach to the study of French literature and its cinematic adaptation and/or a thematic approach to selected literary texts and films. course.

FREN 4220 - Contemporary French Literature

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 3100 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3101 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3202 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3210 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3211 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3220 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3221 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3450 with a minimum grade of C

A study of selected works by major French writers of the twentieth century.

FREN 4230 - Classical French Drama

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 3100 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3101 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3102 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3210 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3211 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3220 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3221 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3450 with a minimum grade of C.

A study of the major dramatists of the seventeenth century.

FREN 4240 - French Poetry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: FREN 3100 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3101 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3102 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3210 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3211 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3220 with a minimum grade of C or FREN 3221 with a minimum grade of C or ECON 3450 with a minimum grade of C.

An introduction to the study of poetry and poetics followed by an in-depth analysis of selected poems from one of the major French literary movements (Romanticism, Symbolism, Surrealism, etc.).

FREN 4310 - Francophone Civilization

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the cultural diversity of the French speaking world through the study of authentic materials from Europe, Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Canada.

FREN 4320 - French Civilization and Culture

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the evolution of French culture and civilization from past to present through an exploration of France's major historical, artistic, and social development.

FREN 4484 - Senior Capstone

(1 /0/ 1) Students will prepare a portfolio in which they will assess their linguistic and cultural knowledge acquired in courses already taken and courses taken during the Capstone semester. At least 51% of this course will be on-line. Portfolios will be prepared electronically and consist of a web page. This format will ensure that the student has the ability to use current technology and be able to utilize a wide range of resources used in the modern workplace, the language classroom, and graduate school. Students will be required to pass an oral proficiency interview.

FREN 4785 - Special Topics in French

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: (FREN 3101 or FRE 303) and (FREN 3102 or FRE 300) Readings, reports, and/or directed study abroad.

GeographyGEOG 1013 - World Geography

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction survey of world geography with attention given to demographic, political, cultural, economic, and environmental characteristics of regions of the world. Especially recommended for education majors.

GEOG 1111 - Physical Geography

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to physical geography, surveying weather, climate, vegetation, soils, landforms, water resources, and their spatial interrelations and distributions.

GEOG 1112 - Weather and Climate

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to weather and climate including influences on the biosphere (ecosystems and biomes) . This course looks at local, regional, and global geographic relationships among atmospheric and biospheric systems, including an introduction to climate change. .

GEOG 1112L - Weather and Climate Laboratory

(0 /1/ 1) An introduction to weather and climate including influences on the biosphere (ecosystems and biomes) . This course looks at local, regional, and global geographic relationships among atmospheric and biospheric, including an introduction to climate change. Students will engage in hands-on, field-based environmental observations in the laboratory.

GEOG 1113 - Landform Geography

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to Earth-surface processes and landforms. Students will observe and interpret a variety of landscapes in terms of the fundamental processes and factors that have shaped them through time, including water, wind, and tectonic forces. .

GEOG 1113L - Landform Geography Laboratory

(0 /1/ 1) An introduction to Earth-surface processes and landforms. Students will observe and interpret a variety of landscapes in terms of the fundamental processes and factors that have shaped them through time, including water, wind, and tectonic forces. Students will engage in hands-on, field- based observations in the laboratory. Students will gain experience in the interpretation and integration of geospatial information including topographic and geologic maps, as well as aerial photographs and satellite imagery.

GEOG 2010 - Political Geography

(3 /0/ 3) A foundations course which looks at the basis of political territory, international law and boundaries-both on the land and on the sea. This course identifies basic geopolitical units and their geographical expression--including states, nation states and supranational territories--and identifies the rules that govern sovereignty, territorial definition and international interactions at the borders. Special attention is given to the concept of nationalism and its role in redefining the contemporary global map.

GEOG 2083 - Introduction to Geographical Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the practice of geographic research. The course takes a comprehensive approach to the research process in geography, including the development and formulation of research questions, the role of academic literature, identifying and working with relevant data sources, the application of qualitative and quantitative methods of data collection and analysis, and written and oral presentation of research findings.

GEOG 2202 - Environmental Science

(3 /0/ 3) This course will focus on the key principles of environmental science, paying special attention to environmental systems and human interactions with these systems. The aim of the course is to give the student a solid, scientifically based understanding of the earth's current environment and how to analyze, assess, and begin to address human populations' impact on this environment.

GEOG 2202L - Environmental Science Lab

(0 /2/ 1) This lab course will bring key principles of environmental science to a lab setting. The aim of the lab exercises is to give the student a hands-on experience involving basic observation, evaluation, and assessment of environmental themes and problems.

GEOG 2253 - Geographies of Economic Development

(3 /0/ 3) This course explores the process of economic development under conditions of globalization. The focus is upon development theory, development and underdevelopment, debt and indebtedness, the construction of 'The Third World', and the creation of economic dependency. Special attention is paid to 'developing' areas of the world, including Latin America, the Caribbean, Africa, South Asia, and others, where regionalized and national economic development theories, developed in the post World War II era which have subsequently challenged the so-called Washington Consensus and American development discourses.

GEOG 2503 - Cultural Geography

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the earth as the home of the human race. The earth is here divided into particular world regions, which are studied in turn. Emphasis is given to the concept of culture and how it interacts in particular geographic regions with history, economics, politics, and demography.

GEOG 2505 - Human Impacts on the Environment

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines the extent to which human activities have altered the natural environment--how much they have influenced animal species; vegetation systems; soils; water bodies and their quality; regional geomorphology; and the atmosphere. Policies, programs, and global extent of human environmental impact included.

GEOG 2553 - Introduction to GIS and Mapping Sciences

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to GIS, mapping and geospatial sciences. Topics include introductory GIS, map projections, land partitioning systems, map reading, map analysis, GPS, map making, aerial photography, and remote sensing. This course will guide students to GIS, mapping sciences and emerging geospatial technologies.

GEOG 3010 - Rethinking Geopolitics

(3 /0/ 3) This course analyzes the field of contemporary geopolitical theory and the new 'critical geo-politics'. Beginning with an exploration of geopolitics in the 19th century, the course identifies the way in which strategic worldviews have influenced geographical thinking at all levels.

Contemporary critical geopolitics--classic political, territorial and strategic thought of late 20th century-- is discussed.

GEOG 3020 - Political Geography

(3 /0/ 3) Political geography is concerned with the spatial dynamics of power relations. This course focuses particularly on the nation-state, exploring the logic of the state and how it manages to legitimize itself as the dominant arbiter of political power. The course will also look at inter-actions between states and how they compete to control and dominate territory and resources.

GEOG 3085 - Selected Topics in Regional Geography

(3 /0/ 3) Analysis of resource endowments, patterns of occupancy, and aspects of economic and political organization in different regions. The course may be repeated for additional credit with differing content. Title and hours of credit will be supplied at the time of offering.

GEOG 3253 - Economic Geography

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the economy and its geographical structures and patterns. Introduces and critiques theories of location and economic landscapes and processes and develops a conceptual frame-work of the economy that encompasses the constitutive roles of spatial relations and nature-society relationships and structural relationships among economic activities. Same as ECON 3425.

GEOG 3300 - Population Geography

(3 /0/ 3) This course in population geography introduces the basic methods of demography as well as the impacts population dynamics have on society and its economy through time and space.

GEOG 3405 - Geographies of Sustainability

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the inherent geographical challenges and possible solutions to a global economic system that is quickly depleting scarce resources while causing rapid environmental strain.

GEOG 3563 - Remote Sensing and GIS Integration

(4 /0/ 4) This course introduces the principles of remote sensing and explores the practical integration of remote sensing with geographic information systems.

GEOG 3643 - Urban Geography

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to urban processes and patterns, including: global urbanization and the origin of cities; urban hierarchies and systems of cities; global cities; uneven economic growth and the functional specialization of cities; economic restructuring, migration, regional policies, dynamics of urban property markets; changes in population job location, housing, mobility and neighborhoods; ethno-cultural diversity, and spatial inequalities; and planning, politics and policy issues in North American cities.

GEOG 3644 - Atlanta's Geographies

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines the geographic dimensions of the city of Atlanta and its metropolitan region. Students will gain an understanding of the historical, urban, social, economic, political and physical patterns and processes shaping the city and metro area at different geographic scales: at the local and metro scales, the city's growth and internal structure; at the regional scale, the city's role in the American South; and at the national and global scales, the city's dynamic position in wider urban, economic and social systems.

GEOG 3713 - Meteorology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 1112 and GEOG 1112L

A study of weather and climate, including atmospheric properties and processes, and atmospheric influences on Earth's surface environment, at a variety of spatial and time-scales.

GEOG 3723 - Physiography of United States

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the physiographic regions of the United States, including the genesis and distributional patterns of major regional landforms, soils, and vegetation. Emphasis is placed on the cartographic interpretation of regional features.

GEOG 3800 - Biogeography

(3 /0/ 3) Biogeography is the subdiscipline of Geography that deals with the distribution, ranges, and limits of plants and animals over space and time. This class will focus on the processes and patterns of plant distribution in the contemporary landscape, stressing the development of North American vegetation. The course will cover topics evolution as it relates to Quaternary migration and distribution, North American biomes, disturbance ecology, invasive species, environmental stewardship, climate change, and field methods.

GEOG 3900 - Ecological Climatology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (GEOG 1112 and GEOG 1112L and GEOG 1113 and GEOG 1113L) Ecology and Climatology are two vastly different disciplines. Ecology is concerned with the interactions of organisms with their environments and Climatology is the study of the long-term physical state of the atmosphere. These two disciplines were not combined until the advent of global climate models in the 1970s. Ecological climatology is the interdisciplinary framework used to understand the functioning of the terrestrial ecosystems as part of the climate system. Specifically, how do changes in land cover influence short-term and long-term weather patterns.

GEOG 4013 - Globalization

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 1013

This course offers a survey and analysis of the multiple dimensions (economic, political, cultural, environmental, urban, ideological) of globalization and its role in shaping contemporary world geographies. The course will situate globalization in the context of capitalism's historical and geographical development and will focus on the changes and processes that have shaped world geographies since the late 1960s. Students will acquire both empirical and theoretical understandings by studying competing concepts and explanations of globalization and its impacts and applying them to current day events and issues.

GEOG 4083 - Faculty-Mentored Research

(1-3 // 1-3) Prerequisite: GEOG 2083.

Research or other work related to student's independent project. This is a 1-3 hour course repeatable up to six hours.

GEOG 4084 - Geography Capstone

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 4083.

A capstone course for Geography majors focusing on the final stages of the research process, including how to discuss the relevance of research findings in both academic and broader contexts, how to effectively communicate research findings, and how to professionally present and communicate expertise and

GEOG 4086 - Internship

(0 /3/ 3) skills developed through independent research and other coursework.

GEOG 4103 - Geography of Soils and Water

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 1113 or GEOL 1121.

An introduction to soils from a natural science perspective, emphasizing the relationship between soils and geology, climate, vegetation, and landscapes. Concepts will include soil physical and chemical properties, soil formation and horizonation, soil water, erosion, soil geography, and environmental and sustainability issues related to soil. Practical field and laboratory skills will be emphasized, including standard techniques and terminology for describing soils in the field, applying the US system of soil classification, interpreting National Resources Conservation Service soil survey data and performing geospatial analysis of digital soils data. A required field trip will allow students to observe soils in a variety of landscape settings.

GEOG 4253 - Seminar in Economic Geography

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 3253.

Study of advanced topics in economic geography. Specific titles will be announced for semester offered and will be entered on transcripts. May be repeated for additional credit as topics change.

GEOG 4400 - Energy and Sustainability

(3 /0/ 3) This course will focus on the links between energy use and environmental degradation. Physical processes and social dynamics will be considered in order to understand the complex issues of energy production, demand, and consumption. In this class students will practice expressing informed opinions about current environmental energy debates, examine the social aspects of energy issues, and consider alternative energy futures.

GEOG 4403 - Water Resources Planning

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the evolution and current practice of water resources management in the United States. Emphasis on principles of multiple objective resource evaluation and project design.

GEOG 4500 - Moral Geographies

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the intersection between ethics and geography. This course takes up issues such as the geographical conditioning of norms and values, the geographical dimensions of responsibility, and the ethical dilemmas involved in our current social geography. As will be revealed in the course, many of the issues covered in human geography, from globalization and border making to migration and environmental degradation, are linked to deeply seated, yet contested norms.

GEOG 4503 - Culture, Space, and Place

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 2503.

This seminar explores cultural geography from a critical perspective. Students are asked to consider the relationship between culture and development, post-colonial cultural theory, gender and race, feminist theory, cultural hybridity and globalization, and the new cultural spaces of the 21st century. The focus is upon identifying the geographical dimensions of conflicts, underlying the construction of culture, understanding culture as a discursive project, and appreciating culture as a power relationship.

GEOG 4553 - Geographic Information System

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 2553.

An introduction to the use of Geographic Information Systems, including GIS theory, data input, spatial analysis, and final output.

GEOG 4554 - Computer Cartography

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 4553.

Computer-assisted map design and production.

GEOG 4562 - Airphoto Interpretation and Photogrammetry

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 2553.

Study on airphoto interpretation and photogrammetry. Topics include digital airphotos, correcting airphoto distortions, orthophoto generation, stereoscopy and DEM generation, airphoto interpretation techniques, and mapping with airphotos.

GEOG 4564 - Contemporary Remote Sensing Applications

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 2553.

This course applies remote sensing techniques to contemporary topics like image classification, LiDAR, natural resources, urbanization, water, or climate. Students will learn how to process remote sensing data and will develop remote sensing application projects.

GEOG 4600 - Applied Climatology

(3 // 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 1112.

This course provides an introduction to the fundamentals of climatology with an emphasis on how the climate system works, quantitative approaches to climate analysis, the planetary energy budget, and air-sea interactions. Urban, regional and global climate features and human impacts are addressed. Current issues in climate research, sustainability, and policy will also be explored.

GEOG 4643 - Seminar in Urban Geography

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 3643 or GEOG 3644 or SOCI 4333. Study of advanced topics in urban geography.

Specific titles will be announced for semester offered and will be entered on transcripts. May be repeated for additional credit as topics change.

GEOG 4700 - Global Environmental Change

(3 /0/ 3) This is an advanced course on the evidence for, and theories of, environmental variability over time. Students will become familiar with environmental change before and since the Industrial Revolution. Attention will be paid to natural environmental mechanisms and the human activities of industrial societies which modify them.

GEOG 4753 - Contemporary GIS Applications

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 2553

This course focuses on principles, methods, and applications of GIS technologies. It emphasizes hands-on opportunities to learn technical skills and best practices. Students will learn how to process different types of GIS data and will develop an individual project to design, implement and run GIS models.

GEOG 4755 - GIS Database Design

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 4553.

This is an advanced course in GIS databases and enterprise GIS database implementation. It is focused on the creation and administration of GIS databases. It introduces the concepts of database structure and the integration of spatial and attribute data. Topics include metadata creation, database development, querying, and administration. This class includes lectures, lab assignments, exams, and student-directed projects.

GEOG 4757 - Programming and Customization in GIS

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 4553.

This is an advanced course in GIS focusing on application development and customization. Programming languages are used to develop GIS applications. In this course students will gain a solid understanding of the fundamentals of customization and programming in a GIS environment. programming languages supporting GIS applications such as VBA and Python will be introduced. This class includes lectures, lab assignments, exams, and student-directed projects.

GEOG 4800 - Advanced Topics in Biogeography

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOG 3800.

An integrative course that examines concepts and knowledge from physical geography, geology, ecology, anthropology and evolutionary biology. This course will cover advanced topics on the origin and dispersal of plants and animals, biotic communities, ecological relationships and the impact of human activity on the biosphere.

GEOG 4893 - Practicum in GIS

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 4553 and GEOG 3563 and GEOG 4554.

This is an applied practicum that fosters effective use of GIS. Students who successfully complete the course are able to create, manipulate, and manage geographic data to perform analysis tasks, to visualize geographic data, and to use geographic data analyses to support decision making. This course is designed to equip students with skills needed in the geospatial field.

GEOG 4900 - Dendrochronology

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOG 1112 and GEOG 1113.

Dendrochronology is one of the most versatile disciplines in the physical and cultural sciences. The science uses tree rings that are dated to their exact year of formation to analyze the temporal and spatial patterns of processes in the physical and cultural sciences. The science takes advantage of the fact that trees are nature's ultimate environmental monitoring stations. They are immobile, they assimilate events in the environment, they have their own special language, and they can't lie (although sometimes they make searching for the truth quite challenging) . In this course, you'll learn how to read the language of trees and how to use this in-formation to learn about past and present environmental processes that may shed light on your particular research questions.

GEOG 4985 - Special Topics in Geography

(3 // 3) none. A course focusing on specialized, timely, or advanced topics in geography.

Geology

GEOL 1011K - Introductory Geosciences I

(3 /1/ 4) Prerequisite: ECOR C or ECCG C.

This course covers Earth materials and processes. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

GEOL 1121 - Introductory Geosciences I: Physical Geology

(3 /0/ 3) Acquaints students with geological concepts, processes, and earth materials and their effects on mankind and the environment. Topics include rocks and minerals, volcanoes, earthquakes, rivers, glaciers and the dynamic forces that move continents, build mountains, and create ocean basins.

GEOL 1121L - Physical Geology Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Laboratory exercises to supplement lectures of GEOL 1121.

GEOL 1122 - Introductory Geosciences II: Historical Geology

(3 /0/ 3) Application of modern geological and biological concepts to interpret earth history. Acquaints students with fossil evidence for tracing the origin and evolution of life. Emphasis placed on developing a broad understanding of the origin and development of the earth and solar system, concepts of sea-floor spreading and plate tectonics and the evolution of the earth's atmosphere and life.

GEOL 1122L - Historical Geology Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Laboratory exercises to supplement lectures of GEOL 1122.

GEOL 1123 - Environmental Observations

(3 /0/ 3) Trains students in the protocols required for certification to participate in the Global Learning and Observation to Benefit the Environment GLOBE program.

GEOL 1123L - Environmental Observations Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Laboratory exercises to supplement lectures of GEOL 1123.

GEOL 2002 - Applied Computing for Geosciences

(1 /2/ 2) An introduction to computer hardware, software and techniques used for acquiring, storing, analyzing, and presenting scientific data, particularly geologic and hydrologic data.

Emphasis will be placed on commonly used and widely available software such as word processing, spreadsheet and database programs as well as mapping and drafting programs commonly used in the sciences.

GEOL 2313 - Descriptive Astronomy

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of sky awareness, historical development of astronomy, the solar system, stars, nebulae, galaxies.

GEOL 2313L - Descriptive Astronomy Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) An experimental introduction to the elementary tools of astronomy.

GEOL 2503 - Introduction to Oceanography

(3 /0/ 3) Introduces science and non-science majors to the biological, chemical, physical, and geological features of the oceans. Acquaints students with the topography and geologic history of the oceans, sea-floor spreading, plate tectonics, atmosphere/ocean interaction, current movements, and ocean biology and chemistry. The course also will discuss sources of food, energy, and mineral resources, as well as environmental issues affecting the sea. Satisfies Area D1 Core Requirements for non science majors.

GEOL 2553 - Geology of the National Parks

(3 /0/ 3) The study of the geologic processes that formed our national parks. Selected national parks and monuments are used to illustrate fundamental geologic processes such as volcanism, sedimentation, glaciation, stream and shoreline erosion, and crustal deformation among others.

GEOL 3003 - Field Methods

(3 /0/ 3) A practical course that familiarizes students with basic instruments and techniques used by Geologists to collect structural, stratigraphic, topographic and other data in the field.

GEOL 3004 - Field Geology and Geologic Mapping

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1121L and GEOL 1122 and GEOL 1122L and MATH 1113.

A practical course that familiarizes students with basic instruments and techniques used by Geologists to collect structural, stratigraphic, topographic and other data in the field.

GEOL 3014 - Mineralogy and Crystallography

(2 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1121L and CHEM 1211.

The origin and physical properties of the more common minerals and their crystal forms. Megascopic recognition of specimens, their mineral associations, and a brief introduction to modern x-ray diffraction. CHEM 1211 may be taken concurrently.

GEOL 3024 - Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology

(2 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 3014.

A study of the classification and origin of igneous, and metamorphic rocks. The geologic processes that form these rocks are studied by examining rock samples in the field and laboratory using hand sample, microscopic, and chemical techniques. Petrologic problems are studied at the local, regional, and global scales.

GEOL 3034 - Structural Geology

(2 /4/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 3004.

The recognition, description, and interpretation of primary and secondary rock-structures. Laboratory and field periods will be spent using both graphical and instrumental techniques necessary for describing and interpreting common structural deformation features. In addition to laboratory and classroom examples, each student is required to complete a lithologic and structural mapping project.

GEOL 3042 - Optical Mineralogy

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1121L.

Students will be introduced to the Polarizing microscope and to the techniques for the identification of minerals in thin section.

GEOL 3043 - Optic Mineralogy and Petrography

(1 /4/ 3) Course will introduce students to the theory and practice of optical mineralogy and petrography; the systematic study of non-opaque rocks and minerals under the microscope.

GEOL 3053 - Sedimentary Petrology

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 3014 and GEOL 1122 and GEOL 1122L.

The description, classification and interpretation of sedimentary rocks. Using observations from modern sediments, and hand specimens and thin sections of sedimentary rocks, students will apply the principle of uniformity to interpret sedimentary processes and environments.

GEOL 3603 - Environmental Geology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 or GEOG 1113.

The interaction between human activity and geologic processes. Included are natural hazards such as earthquakes, landslides, volcanoes, and flooding, human induced problems such as groundwater pollution, erosion and the exploitation of natural resources including rivers, shorelines, petroleum, and ores. Emphasis is placed on the understanding of underlying natural processes and the prediction and mitigation of problems.

GEOL 3825 - Research Methods

(3 /0/ 3) Specially designed to meet the needs of future teachers, students design and carry out four in-dependent inquiries, which they write up and present in the manner that is common in the scientific community. Course is restricted to UTeach students.

GEOL 4003 - Geomorphology

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 or GEOG 1113.

Characteristics, classification, genesis, and evolution of major earth surface features (landforms) and their associations (landscapes) . The conceptual framework will involve understanding lithologic, structural, climatic, temporal, and process controls. Includes applied aspects of humans as geomorphic agents and geomorphic processes as natural hazards. Topographic map and air photo interpretation will be stressed.

GEOL 4014 - Geochemistry

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1121L and CHEM 1211.

Chemical realms of the earth and geologic materials, chemistry of geologic processes, geochemical cycles, and special topics.

GEOL 4024 - Paleontology

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1122 or BIOL 1107.

Classification, biology, distribution and diversity of major invertebrate animals with a fossil record. The course is designed to integrate modern biological concepts as applied to fossil organisms. Students will study fossil organisms to develop an understanding of the principles of evolution, stratigraphic correlation, and paleoecology.

GEOL 4033 - Stratigraphy and Geochronology

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 3004.

Examines the various ways to constrain time in the geologic record, within the context of local, regional, and global change. Students will explore aspects of tectonic, biological and chemical evolution, mainly in sedimentary basins. Students will acquire broad knowledge of major stratigraphic tools and will understand their applications.

GEOL 4034 - Sedimentation and Stratigraphy

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1121L.

Course illustrates how observations from sediments and sedimentary rocks in the field and laboratory can be used to identify formative processes and depositional environments. This methodology is central to the analysis of depositional basins and to an understanding of the geologic time scale.

GEOL 4044 - Engineering Geology

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 3004.

Introduction to principles of soil and rock mechanics. Discussion and experimental exercises ranging from basic field identification to advanced procedures for estimating soil rock mechanical properties.

GEOL 4063 - Plate Tectonics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and GEOL 1122

A study of the processes of crustal evolution by plate tectonics. Topics include a brief review of geophysical techniques, discussions of plate tectonics and sea-floor spreading, and a survey of mountain building processes through time.

GEOL 4074 - Regional Applications of Field Geology

(0 /8/ 4) An intense, four-week field excursion which provides a variety of field-oriented applications of major geologic principles. This course includes both regional syntheses of geological data and in-depth analysis of specific geological features and areas.

GEOL 4082 - Geological Problems

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Detailed assignments in specific areas of geology. Satisfies deficiencies or permits in-depth pursuit of the student's research in particular geological topics. Title to be supplied at the time of offering.

GEOL 4083 - Environmental Geochemistry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and CHEM 1211.

The geochemistry of the earth's lithosphere, biosphere, hydrosphere, and atmosphere and the human modifications to these systems that cause environmental problems. Special topics include acid rain, greenhouse effect, toxic trace elements, landfills, energy usage and radon.

GEOL 4084 - Hydrogeology

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121 and MATH 1113.

An investigation of groundwater and the earth's hydrologic cycle. Examines the physical aspects of groundwater occurrence and movement, and provides an introduction to contaminant transport and chemical hydrogeology. Lab exercises will acquaint students with hydrogeology field methods and equipment.

GEOL 4093 - Risk Assessment

(3 /0/ 3) A multidisciplinary investigation into the major societal issue of increasing impacts of natural hazards. Examines property damage and loss of life caused by geologic hazards (earthquakes, landslides, volcanoes), meteorological hazards (hurricanes, tornadoes, floods), and others (fires, technological hazards, biohazards). A major focus will be on social science issues planning, politics, and economics and their control on management of high hazard areas, vulnerability assessments, and mitigation.

GEOL 4103 - Dinosaurs!

(3 /0/ 3) A multidisciplinary investigation into the morphology, classification and identification of the dinosaurs; the environmental, climatic, and geographic conditions on earth during the time of the dinosaurs; and the biological principles involved in understanding the origin, evolution, and extinction of the dinosaurs. Techniques for using dinosaurs to teach children of all ages the fundamentals of science will be explored.

GEOL 4203 - Geology of Georgia

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GEOL 1121.

Directed toward science and science education majors, this course investigates the geology of the state of Georgia. Students learn fundamental geological principles necessary for deciphering Earth history. The geologic history of Georgia's geologic provinces is explored. Topics include coastal hazards, water in Georgia, landforms and mineral resources of Georgia.

GEOL 4501 - Geology Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) A program of study, discussion, readings, and presentations concerning the significant interrelationships of a wide variety of basic geological concepts. Topics may also include career paths, licensing, and other matters concerning the profession of Geology. Advanced geology students, faculty, and outside speakers interact within a seminar framework designed to increase the geological maturity of the students.

GEOL 4604 - Economic Geology

(3 /2/ 4) Prerequisite: GEOL 3024, GEOL 3034 (GEOL 3034 may be taken concurrently).

Introduction to geology and economics of non-energy mineral resources. Emphasis placed on the descriptive geology and origin of economic mineral concentrations within the context of their overall geologic settings. Lab exercises will involve identification and characterization of representative ore suites from important mineral deposits. Students will complete a research project on exploring for or developing a major ore deposit or mineral/rock resource. A fieldtrip is anticipated to examine the geology, exploration methodology, development, and permitting issues related to mineral/rock production. Students will also prepare for and take the National Association of State Boards of Geology, Fundamentals of Geology (FG) professional licensing exam. None

GEOL 4985 - Selected Topics in Geology

(3.0 - 4.0 /0/ 3.0 - 4.0) Title and description of course to be specified at time of offering. May be repeated for credit.

German

GRMN 1001 - Elementary German I

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the German language and the culture of the German-speaking world. Beginning of a survey of basic German grammar and the development of the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing German. Some aspects of everyday life in the German-speaking world will also be introduced. Institutional option: Work with other media (audio, video, and/or computer) outside of class is required.

GRMN 1001C - Elementary German I - Block

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to the German language and the culture of the German-speaking world. Beginning of a survey of basic German grammar and the development of the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing German. Some aspects of everyday life in the German-speaking world will also be introduced. Institutional option: Work with other media (audio, video, and/or computer) outside of class is required.

GRMN 1002 - Elementary German II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 1001 with a minimum grade of C or GRMN 1001C with a minimum grade of C.

The second part of an introduction to the German language and culture of the German-speaking world. Completion of the survey of basic German grammar and further development of the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing German. Aspects of everyday life in the German-speaking world will also be introduced. Institutional Option: Work with other media (audio, video, and/or computer) outside of class is required.

GRMN 1002C - Elementary German II-Block

(3 /0/ 3) The second part of an introduction to the German language and culture of the German speaking world. Completion of the survey of basic German grammar and further development of the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing German. Aspects of everyday life in the German-speaking world will also be introduced. Institutional Option: Work with other media (audio, video, and/or computer) outside of class is required.

GRMN 2001 - Intermediate German I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 1002 with a minimum grade of C or GER 102 with a minimum grade of C or GRMN 1002C with a minimum grade of C.

This is the third course in a four-course sequence and is open to students with three years of high school or two semesters of college German or the equivalent.

GRMN 2002 - Intermediate German II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2001 with a minimum grade of C or GER 103 with a min. grade of C.

This is the fourth course in a four-course sequence and is open to students with four years of high school or three semesters of college German or the equivalent.

GRMN 3101 - Conversational German

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or GER 104.

Intensive practice of spoken German with emphasis on the expansion of vocabulary, idiom, and cultural awareness as well as enhanced skill in pronunciation and expression.

GRMN 3102 - German Composition

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or GER 104.

Acquisition of organizational and writing skills through grammar review and expansion, vocabulary enhancement, and compositions based on contemporary and cultural topics.

GRMN 3450 - German for Careers

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002 or GER 104.

A variable content course with emphasis on the vocabularies and culture of economics/business or the social sciences.

GRMN 3986 - Total Immersion in German

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Participants in this course will agree to speak only German for a specified amount of time, from 48 hours to three weeks. Students are required to participate in organized events and activities including films, tasks such as cooking or clean-up, discussion, and games, all facilitating student communication in German. Some quiet study and reading periods will allow consolidation of vocabulary gains and help relieve stress, a natural and necessary component of total immersion. The total immersion experience is highly intense and sometimes uncomfortable, but often produces remarkable results in terms of increased fluency.

GRMN 4170 - Advanced Language Skills

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 3101 or GRMN 3102.

An intensive and extensive study of the principles governing the structure of the German language. In this course students will refine and extend their language skills.

GRMN 4200 - Seminar in German Literature

(3 /0/ 3) Variable content ranging from literary periods, genres, or authors, such as Romanticism, the Novelle, or the Age of Goethe.

GRMN 4210 - Turn of the Century German and Austrian Culture

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

This course will analyze a variety of texts- short stories, plays, novels, films, architecture, and painting -- from and about turn of the century Germany and Austria, with some emphasis on cultural and ideological practices. Discussion, papers and texts will be in German. Students may not receive credit for GRMN 4210 and the XIDS course of the same title.

GRMN 4220 - German Culture through Film

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

This course offers an introduction to 20th century history and culture through the depictions and interpretations of aspects of social history in German film and painting. Discussions and papers will be in German. Students may not receive credit for GRMN 4220 and the XIDS course of the same title.

GRMN 4230 - Kafka and the Kafkaesque in Literature and Film

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

This course offers an introduction to Kafka's life and work and examines his influence on 20th century thought and art. In the process we will both broaden and personalize our understandings of 'kafkaesque', that most fashionable of adjectives. Discussion, papers and readings will be in German. Students may not receive credit for GRMN 4230 and the XIDS course of the same title.

GRMN 4240 - Mystery and Horror in German Literature and Film

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

This course traces the mystery and horror genres from their 'beginnings' in German Romanticism through early German film (including emigres to Hollywood and Hitchcock, who was schooled in Germany) to New German Film of the 70's and 80's Discussion, readings and paper will be in German. Students may not receive credit for GRMN 4240 and XIDS course of the same title.

GRMN 4250 - Contemporary German Cinema

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

German cinema has changed radically in the past twenty years moving more and more toward Hollywood styles, big budgets, Hollywood ideologies. We will trace this change in German cinema from the days of the New German Cinema and its highly intellectual and artistic goals (Fassbinder, Wenders, Herzog, von Trotta, Schlöndorff) to today's much more co-opted German film industry (Tykwer, Farberbock, Peterson, Kraume, and Ruzowitsky) .

GRMN 4260 - Austrian Literature and Culture

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: GRMN 2002.

This course will examine a selection of representative works of Austrian culture, including literature, music, and the visual arts, within the context of Austrian history from the time of the Hapsburg Empire to the present day Austrian Republic. Discussion, readings, and writing assignments are in German.

GRMN 4300 - German Civilization

(3 /0/ 3) Taught in English. Recommended for students minoring in German, but does not count in the minor.

GRMN 4484 - Senior Capstone

(1 /0/ 1) Students prepare individual electronic portfolios in which they assess their linguistic and cultural knowledge. Students will be required to pass an oral proficiency interview.

GRMN 4501 - Foreign Language Teaching in Elementary Schools

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (EDF 201 or EDFD 2303) and (CEP 270 or CEPD 2102)

This course is designed for students seeking a degree in Foreign Language Education. The objective is to prepare qualified foreign language teachers for elementary school. This course treats the principles of foreign language methodology applied to elementary school teaching, and includes class observations, planning of instruction, and field experience.

GRMN 4502 - Methods of Foreign Language Teaching

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (EDF 201 or EDFD 2303) and (CEP 270 or CEPD 2102)

A course designed for students to develop skills and strategies in teaching and in planning foreign language instruction at the secondary level.

GRMN 4785 - Special Topics in German

(0.0 - 3.0 /0.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Readings, reports, and/or directed study abroad.

GRMN 4986 - Internship in Germany

(0 /1.0 - 5.0/ 1.0 - 5.0) Prerequisite: GRMN 1002.

In addition to working in a German company in Germany, students must at least furnish a long written report on the work experiences. Additional requirements are added for each additional hour of credit. The grade is based upon the quality of the written products and on an interview with the returning student. May be repeated up to two times for a maximum of 5 hours credit.

Global Studies

GLOB 4000 - Capstone Seminar

(3 /0/ 3) This Capstone seminar is designed to integrate the various experiences of students in their interdisciplinary endeavors. Specific aspects of globalization will be examined at an advanced level.

GLOB 4186 - Internship in Global Studies

(0 /1.0 - 9.0/ 1.0 - 9.0) Prerequisite: XIDS 2301.

Students may receive academic credit for personal experience in the field of global studies. Credit hours apply toward the major.

GLOB 4981 - Directed Readings in Global Studies

(0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: XIDS 2301.

In depth, individualized research on specific global problems and issues.

GLOB 4985 - Problems in Global Studies

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: XIDS 2301. Specialized areas of analysis in a subfield of global studies with the specific titles announced in the class schedule and entered on the students' transcripts. Students may repeat the course for credit as topics change.

Health and Community Wellness

CMWL 2100 - Intro to Health and Community Wellness

(2 /0/ 2) This undergraduate course is an introduction to the Health and Community Wellness degree. Through this course, students will discover the many aspects of an undergraduate degree in Health and Community Wellness, including an overview of the classes required, current and future opportunities available with a degree in this field, the potential opportunities, certifications, and work experiences which students can pursue.

CMWL 3100 - Lifespan Development

(3 /0/ 3) Health and Community Wellness Admission (CMWL) .

This undergraduate course is a study of human growth and development from birth through aging and death. The course focuses on areas of physical, cognitive, social, personality, and emotional development as a series of progressive changes resulting from the biological being interacting with the environment. The course will study factors affecting these changes within historical, multicultural, and societal perspectives.

CMWL 3101 - Mental and Emotional Wellness

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

An introduction to the role of mental and emotional health in overall well-being. Emphasis is placed on research and practice related to improving mental health and emotional well-being. In addition, barriers to improving mental health are explored at the individual, community, and societal levels. Students are expected to establish and pursue personal goals related to improving emotional health and demonstrate a thorough understanding of the relationship between mental and emotional health and the other pillars of healthful living. Students will also examine common behavioral strategies with regard to substance use and abuse and its management and the use of alternative remedies for physical, mental and emotional dependencies and addictions.

CMWL 3102 - Psychology of Health and Wellness

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: The course is restricted to CMWL majors.

Review the science that connects human behaviors and psychological variables to health status. The role of Psychology in disease, injury, premature death, substance abuse, exercise, diet, stress, social relationships, coping behaviors and high level wellness, both to individual and society. Includes interrelatedness of wellness dimensions, healthy and destructive behaviors, managing chronic diseases, psychosocial aspects of final illness and death, and delivery of health services.

CMWL 3110 - Program Evaluation in Community Settings

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to prepare students to effectively and efficiently participate in program evaluation in community settings. Students will learn the fundamentals of program evaluation theory, ethics, design, measurement, and data analysis and outline a program evaluation proposal. Students will also examine the issues and practices in planning and conducting pro-gram evaluations in community settings. A service learning component of 5 hours is required.

CMWL 4000 - Exercise and Wellness Programming for Special Populations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

Issues related to the appropriation of health interventions (specific physical activity and/or exercise programs) for special populations, including, but not limited to: older adults, children, obesity, diabetes, CVD, cancer, anxiety, depression, osteoporosis, multiple sclerosis, COPD, HIV, organ transplant, PAD, arthritis and musculoskeletal injuries. Evidence-based, advanced programming methods and population-specific considerations will be discussed. ACSM's Exercise is Medicine initiative will be a focal point for this course.

CMWL 4100 - Wellness Coaching

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite - This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

Develop theory, skills, and techniques related to guiding groups and individuals through meaningful lifestyle changes by emphasizing motivational strategies and behavioral and holistic practices. Motivational interviewing techniques and diverse coaching methodologies will be taught, practiced, and compared and contrasted.

CMWL 4101 - Worksite Wellness Programs

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

An introduction to the principles and practices in workplace wellness. Emphasis is placed on understanding and development of a comprehensive framework for improving employee health and productivity. Students explore the evidence base for ensuring program efficacy and maximizing return on investment. Case studies provide opportunities to understand the range of effective programs and value of needs assessment, support of top management, employee education and behavioral health support, change in organizational culture, and ongoing evaluation and program improvement.

CMWL 4102 - Service Learning in Health and Community Wellness

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

Supervised pre-professional practice experience in health and wellness promotion and coaching. Students will be placed in service learning sites in a range of venues and will receive on-site supervision by a field supervisor as well as seminar meetings with the course instructor.

History

HIST 1111 - Survey of World History/Civilization I

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of global history to 1500. This course examines ancient and medieval civilizations to deepen understanding of the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of World history. Emphasis is given to comparative themes, the study of causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time; and the social significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events and study.

HIST 1112 - Survey of World History/Civilization II

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of global history from 1500 to the present. Beginning with European oceanic expansion and the emergence of a global network of exchange, this course examines the impact of major technologies, economic systems, political ideologies, and cultural traditions that unite and divide the human community. Emphasis is given to the study of causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time, as well as the social significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events and study.

HIST 2111 - U S History I (to 1865)

(3 /0/ 3) Explores the major themes and issues in American history from early settlement through the end of the American Civil War. Emphasizes the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of United States history; causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time; and the significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events.

HIST 2112 - U S History II (since 1865)

(3 /0/ 3) Explores the major themes and issues in American history from the end of the American Civil War to the present. Emphasizes the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of United States history; causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time; and the significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events.

HIST 2302 - The Historian's Craft: Methodology

(3 /0/ 3) Examination of history as a discipline and as a craft, concentrating on the research and interpretive skills used by historians. Should be taken in the second year of the history major's degree program.

HIST 3300 - Studies in American Culture

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to American Studies as an area of critical inquiry, including a study of the theories and methods used in the field and readings of significant works that have shaped it. Required for a minor in American Studies. Same as ENGL 3300.

HIST 3301 - History and Philosophy of Science

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the historical development of major areas of science and the philosophical examination of scientific methods and results.

HIST 3311 - Ancient Near East and Classical World

(3 /0/ 3) The development of ancient Near Eastern, Greek and Roman civilizations and their impact on the development of western civilization.

HIST 3312 - Near East in Middle Ages

(3 /0/ 3) The development of Byzantine and Islamic Civilizations and their impact on the development of modern Eastern Europe, Balkans, Near East, and North Africa.

HIST 3313 - Near East in Modern Times

(3 /0/ 3) A political social, economic, cultural and religious survey of the Balkans, Near East and North Africa, from the Ottoman Empire to the present.

HIST 3315 - Civilization of India

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to socio-cultural history of the Indian subcontinent focusing on the formative culture, and Western impact, the synthesis emerging in the 20th century, and the spread of Indian ideas to East and Southeast Asia. Students will normally be expected to have taken the basic courses in U.S. and Global History.

HIST 3318 - Africa through the Era of the Slave Trade

(3 /0/ 3) Selected themes in Pre-colonial African history: foundations of human settlement, the impact of religions, trade, state formation. The course will cover various regional developments from antiquity to the eve of European conquest.

HIST 3319 - The Making of Modern Africa, 1820-Present

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: HIST 1111 or HIST 1112 or HIST 2111 or HIST 2112

An survey of modern Africa from the end of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade to the present.

HIST 3321 - Western Europe in Middle Ages

(3 /0/ 3) The development of Medieval Latin Civilization and its impact on the development of Modern Europe.

HIST 3323 - 17th and 18th Century Europe

(3 /0/ 3) A political, social, economic and cultural study of Europe in the 17th and 18th centuries.

HIST 3326 - Colonial Latin America

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of Latin America from the pre-Columbian period through 1830, with special emphasis on the conquest, colonial administration and economy, race and society, international rivalries, and separation from Spain and Portugal.

HIST 3327 - Latin America Since Independence

(3 /0/ 3) A topical analysis of Mexico, Central America, South America, and the Caribbean states since c. 1820.

HIST 3341 - Britain to 1688

(3 /0/ 3) From the Roman invasion to the Glorious Revolution, this course examines the key events, institutions, and individuals responsible for the creation of a British kingdom and its emergence as a European power.

HIST 3342 - Britain since 1688

(3 /0/ 3) This class examines the political, economic, social, and cultural history of Britain and its empire from the Glorious Revolution to the present.

HIST 3350 - Introduction to Africana Studies

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to Africana studies as an area of critical inquiry, including a study of the theories and methods used in the field and readings of significant works that have shaped it. Required for the minor in Africana studies. Same as ENGL 3350.

HIST 3351 - Imperial Russia

(3 /0/ 3) An examination of social, political, economic and cultural development in Russian history from Peter the Great to the Revolution of 1917.

HIST 3361 - American Diplomacy

(3 /0/ 3) History of American foreign policy from the Revolution to the present.

HIST 3362 - African-American History to 1865

(3 /0/ 3) A survey history of African-Americans in the United States from the African past through the American Civil War.

COMM 4421P - Practicum: Bluestone Public Relations Firm

(1 /4/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 3313 and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 4451 and (COMM 4414 or COMM 4484 or COMM 4413) Practical experience with the student-managed public relations firm that primarily includes hands on experience through service learning and experiential learning projects for private, nonprofit, and public sector clients. Emphasis is placed on strategic planning, research, data analysis, campaign development, copywriting, promotional design, and use of social media across traditional and digital media platforms. Repeatable; Maximum of 3.0 credit hours may be applied to the Mass Communications major.

COMM 4421R - Practicum - The WOLF Internet Radio

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: COMM 3351 and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

Practical experience with the campus radio station, The WOLF Internet Radio, that primarily includes editing, management, on-air experience, producing, programming, promotions, production, and remotes across traditional and emerging digital media platforms. Repeatable; Maximum of 3.0 credit hours may be applied to the Mass Communications major.

COMM 4421T - Practicum - WUTV

(0 /2.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) ENGL 1102 Minimum Grade: C and COMM 1154 Minimum Grade: C and COMM 3352

Practical experience with the campus television station, WUTV, that primarily includes anchoring, directing, editing, field and studio camera operation, news gathering, producing, reporting, scripting, studio and field production, and switching across traditional and emerging digital media platforms. Repeatable; Maximum 3.0 credit hours may be applied to the Mass Communications major.

COMM 4425 - Documentary Production Practices

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 3353 and COMM 4405 or COMM 4406 or COMM 4407

Part film production workshop and part study in film history and aesthetics as this skills based class explores through action the methods, strategies, tools, and processes of non-fiction film communication.

COMM 4426 - Fiction Film Production

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 3305 and COMM 3353 and COMM 4405 or COMM 4406 or COMM 4407

Students will form the crew that will handle all aspects of production in this industry modeled film production workshop. This hands on production experience will cover the art and craft of producing works of fiction for visual media, including project development, set etiquette, crew hierarchy, set safety, on-screen blocking, staging, and teamwork.

COMM 4444 - Public Relations Campaigns

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 4413 and COMM 4414 and COMM 4451 and COMM 3313 and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C This public relations capstone course applies knowledge and skills learned in previous public relations courses in the planning, execution, and evaluation of a client campaign. Provides students the opportunity to gain a positive client evaluation and a quality product to use in their portfolios.

COMM 4450 - Broadcast News Writing and Reporting

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 3352 and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

Coaching and practice in gathering, writing, and reporting television and radio news under deadline. Particular attention given to news style and judgment as well as aesthetic, ethical, and legal issues. Ability to shoot and edit field video is required.

COMM 4451 - Public Relations Writing

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 3301 and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

A study and application of principles and techniques for writing across traditional and emerging digital media platforms. Emphasis on informational and persuasive writing for public relations.

COMM 4452 - Advanced Film and Video Production

(2 /2/ 3) ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 3353 with a minimum grade of C

Direct involvement with the scripting, planning, producing, direction and post-production of film, television, or video programs under the supervision of the instructor. Emphasis on the advanced creative, organizational and managerial aspects of film, television, and video production.

COMM 4454 - Media Law

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 2254 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

Examination of the legal context regulating print, telecommunication and electronic media as well as advertising and public relations industries. Emphasis on libel, slander, privacy, copyright, free press/fair trial and obscenity law. This course is restricted to Seniors.

COMM 4455 - Critical Issues in Mass Communications

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

Exploration and analysis of critical, contemporary issues concerned with the relationship between mass media and society. Emphasis on critical, creative, and collaborative thinking to reach considered judgments and position students to be media literate, responsible, and responsive 21st century mass media and public relations professionals.

COMM 4481 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Variable topic courses offered on an individual basis to explore or extend study of specialized mass media and public relations scholarship. Students must collaborate with instructor to outline learning objectives, and curriculum to achieve them.

COMM 4484 - Mass Communications Research Methods

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C and ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C

A survey of qualitative and quantitative research methods, data analysis and reporting procedures, including opportunities to conduct, analyze, evaluate, interpret, and communicate research.

COMM 4485 - Special Topics

(3 /0/ 3) Variable topic courses offered on a limited or pilot basis to explore or extend study of select, contemporary mass media and public relations issues.

COMM 4486 - Internship

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 with a minimum grade of C and COMM 1154 with a minimum grade of C

A hands-on, supervised, media field experience to apply and test knowledge and skills, and to network with professionals. Internship must be approved by internship coordinator. To be approved, internship must offer experiential learning in Convergence Journalism, Digital Media & Telecommunication, Film & Video Production, and/or Public Relations; require majors to intern 45 hours for each credit hour enrolled or 135 hours if enrolled 3 credit hours; assign interns an immediate supervisor who has academic credentials and/or professional experience in the discipline. Prerequisites: Major; Junior or Senior; ENGL 1102 Minimum Grade: C; COMM 1154 Minimum Grade: C; Nine credit hours of COMM 3000-4000 level courses; and Major GPA of 2.5 or above.

MathematicsMATH 97 - Beginning Algebra

(3 /0/ 3) This is a three (3) hour non-credit course in the fundamentals of arithmetic and elementary algebra. It is designed to prepare students who have deficiencies for MATH 99 and it does not carry credit for graduation. Topics include arithmetic, geometry, real numbers, polynomials, linear equations in one variable, inequalities, factoring, and linear equations in two variables.

MATH 99 - Intermediate Algebra

(3 /0/ 3) This course is a three (3) hour noncredit course that does not carry credit for graduation. It is designed to prepare students for college level mathematics by increasing their awareness of the structure of elementary mathematics. Emphasis is on principles, techniques, and applications of basic algebra. Topics include polynomials, rational expressions, exponents, radicals, calculator usage, linear equations and inequalities, quadratic equations, and graphs of equations in two variables.

MATH 1001 - Quantitative Skills and Reasoning

(3 /0/ 3) This course is an alternative in Area A of the Core Curriculum and is not intended to supply sufficient algebraic background for students who intend to take Precalculus or the Calculus sequence for science majors. This course places quantitative skills and reasoning in the context of experiences that students will likely encounter. It emphasizes processing information in context from a variety of representations, understanding of both the information and the processing, and understanding which conclusions can be reasonably determined.

MATH 1101 - Introduction to Mathematical Modeling

(3 /0/ 3) This course is an introduction to mathematical modeling using graphical, numerical, symbolic, and verbal techniques to describe and explore real-world data and phenomena. Emphasis is on the use of elementary functions to investigate and analyze applied problems and questions, supported by the use of appropriate technology, and on effective communications of quantitative concepts and results. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

MATH 1111 - College Algebra

(3 /0/ 3) This course is a functional approach to algebra that incorporates the use of appropriate technology. Emphasis will be placed on the study of functions and their graphs. This includes linear, quadratic, piece-wise defined, inequalities, rational, polynomial, exponential, and logarithmic functions. Appropriate applications will be included. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

MATH 1112 - Trigonometry

(3 // 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1111 with C or higher

This course is to introduce students to the trigonometric functions and their applications in science and Calculus and an introduction to Analytic Geometry.

MATH 1113 - Precalculus

(3 - 4 /0/ 3 - 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1111 or S02 500 or A02 20. Prerequisites: MATH 1101 - Introduction to Mathematical Modeling or MATH 1111 - College Algebra.

This course is designed to prepare students for calculus, physics, and related technical subjects. Topics include an intensive study of algebraic and transcendental functions accompanied by analytic geometry and trigonometry. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

MATH 1401 - Introduction to Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (MATH 1111 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1101 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C or MAT 151 with a minimum grade of C) and (ECOR C or ECCG C) or MATH 1113. Prerequisites: MATH 1101 - Introduction to Mathematical Modeling, MATH 1111 - College Algebra, or MATH 1113 - Precalculus or approved equivalent.

The course is a course in basic statistics. Topics include descriptive statistics, probability, distributions, hypothesis testing, inferences, correlation, and regression. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

MATH 1413 - Survey of Calculus

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1111 with a minimum grade of C or MAT 151 with a minimum grade of C

A survey of the differential and integral calculus of polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions is given. Detailed applications to problems and concepts from business, economics and life science are covered.

MATH 1501 - Calculus I

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: ECOR C or ECCG C and MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C and MATH 1113. Prerequisites: MATH 1113 - Precalculus or its equivalent.

Topics to include functions, limits, continuity, the derivative, antidifferentiation, the definite integral, and applications. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

MATH 1634 - Calculus I

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1112 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C

The first of a three-course sequence in calculus. Limits, applications of derivatives to problems in geometry and the sciences (physical and behavioral) . Problems which lead to anti-derivatives.

MATH 2008 - Foundations of Numbers and Operations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1111 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1001 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1101 with a minimum grade of C
This course is an Area F introductory mathematics course for early childhood education majors. This course will emphasize the understanding and use of the major concepts of numbers and operations. As a general theme, strategies of problem solving will be used and discussed in the context of various topics.

MATH 2009 - Sophomore Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: MATH 1112 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C

The impact of mathematics in the real world will be presented in the form of lectures, computer labs, and seminars offered by the department of mathematics faculty. The course includes problem solving sessions involving competition problems (e.g. Putnam, MCM, IMO,...) and the use of the technology and computer Algebra systems, such as Maple and Matlab. The course also explores applications of mathematics to the real world, its history and connection to other sciences through projects and reports. A final exam will assess their understanding of the subject matter discussed throughout the course.

MATH 2063 - Introductory Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1101 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1001 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1111 with a minimum grade of C or MAT 151 with a minimum grade of C or MAT 150 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634 with a minimum grade of C(Non-credit for mathematics major or minor) .

A non-calculus based introduction to methods of descriptive statistics, probability, discrete and continuous distributions, and other fundamental concepts or statistics. variance will be covered. Appropriate technology, a graphing calculator or statistical software package, will be used.

MATH 2644 - Calculus II

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 1634 with a minimum grade of C or MAT 262 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1501 with a minimum grade of C

A continuation of MATH 1634. The definite integral and applications, calculus of transcendental functions, standard techniques of integration, sequences and series.

MATH 2654 - Calculus III

(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C

A continuation of MATH 2644. Topics include functions of two, three, and more variables, multiple integrals, and topics in vector calculus.

MATH 2853 - Elementary Linear Algebra

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1634 or MATH 1501

A concrete, applied approach to matrix theory and linear algebra. Topics include matrices and their connection to systems of linear equations, Gauss-Jordan elimination, linear transformations, eigenvalues, and diagonalization. The use of mathematical software is a component of the course.

MATH 3003 - Transition to Advanced Mathematics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 2853 with a minimum grade of C

A transition course to advanced mathematics. Topics include logic, set theory, properties of integers and mathematical induction, relations, and functions.

MATH 3063 - Applied Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1111 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1113 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 151 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634

A non-calculus based introductory statistics course in which descriptive statistics, probability, discrete and continuous distributions, hypothesis testing, and confidence intervals are studied. Basic coverage of regression and analysis of variance will be included. Appropriate Admission to Teacher Education technology, a graphing calculator, or statistical software package will be used.

MATH 3243 - Advanced Calculus

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3303 with a minimum grade of C

A rigorous introduction to the fundamental concepts of single-variable calculus. Topics included the real numbers, limits, continuity, uniform continuity, differentiation, integration, and sequences and series.

MATH 3303 - Ordinary Differential Equations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644 with a minimum grade of C

Modeling with and solutions of ordinary differential equations, including operators, Laplace transforms, and series; systems of ODE's, and numerical approximations.

MATH 3353 - Methods of Applied Mathematics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3303 Solutions of PDE's using orthogonal function systems. Studies of classical boundary-value problems, including the heat equation, wave equation, and potential. Integral transform and numerical methods of solutions.

MATH 3413 - Survey of Modern Algebra

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2853 and MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

A survey of group, ring, and field theory. Topics include algebraic structures on the integers, the real numbers, and the complex numbers; modular arithmetic; the Euclidean Algorithm; group and ring homomorphisms and isomorphisms; and field extensions with applications to constructions.

MATH 3703 - Geometry for P-8 Teachers

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and MATH 2008 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634 or MATH 2703 and MATH 2008 with a minimum grade of C (Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.)

Special emphasis for teachers of grades P-8. Logic; real numbers; basic and transformational geometry; measurement, including the metric system; problem solving; methods and materials for teaching mathematics at the P-8 level. A continuation of MATH 2703.

MATH 3803 - Algebra for P-8 Teachers I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and MATH 2008 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634 or MATH 2703 (Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.)

Special emphasis for teachers of grades P-8. Broadens understanding of the fundamental concepts of algebra, with particular attention to specific methods and materials of instruction. Special emphasis for teachers of grades P-8.

MATH 3805 - Functions & Modeling

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1634 and MATH 2853 and UTCH 2002

This is a mathematics course designed to address the unique needs of future teachers of mathematics. It is required of UTEACH math majors and also counts toward their mathematics degree. In the course, students engage in explorations and lab activities designed to strengthen and expand their knowledge of the topics found in secondary mathematics. Course is restricted to UTEACH students.

MATH 3825 - Research Methods

(3 /0/ 3) Specially designed to meet the needs of future teachers, students design and carry out four in-dependent inquiries, which they write up and present in the manner that is common in the scientific community. Course is restricted to UTEACH students.

MATH 4003 - Dynamical Systems

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644

A computational introduction to dynamical systems. Topics include discrete and continuous systems, bifurcations, stability, and chaos: Julia and Mandelbrot sets, applications to biology and physics.

MATH 4013 - Numerical Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644

The practices and pitfalls of numerical computation. Topics include floating point representations; precision, accuracy, and error; numerical solution techniques for various types of problems; root finding, interpolation, differentiation, integration, systems of linear and ordinary differentiation.

MATH 4043 - Number Theory

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2853 and MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

An in-depth study of selected topics in number theory.

MATH 4103 - Operations Research

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644

An introduction to linear and nonlinear programming. Topics include the formulation of linear programming models; the simplex method, duality and sensitivity; integer programming, the use of spreadsheets and software applications to solve constrained optimization problems.

MATH 4153 - Applied Mathematical Modeling

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644

An introduction to the creation and use of mathematical models. Mathematical techniques will be developed and applied to real systems in areas including chemistry, biology, physics and economics. Students will be expected to make written and oral presentations in a professional manner. This course will emphasize the creation and testing of models and discussions of errors and forecasting. Students will work on projects singly and as part of a group.

MATH 4203 - Mathematical Probability

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2644

A calculus based statistics course with a strong emphasis on probability theory. Exercises are both theoretical and applied, including both discrete and continuous probability distributions such as the Binomial and Normal. The course provides the underlying theory and mathematically derived techniques of Statistics. Hypothesis testing for various parameters and regression are also discussed in this course.

MATH 4213 - Mathematical Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203 with a minimum grade of C

A continuation of MATH 4203, this course introduces certain discrete and continuous distributions such as the Poisson, Gamma, T and F. The course also provides an introduction to multivariate distributions. Estimation techniques such as the method of moments and maximum likelihood are discussed along with properties such as unbiasedness, efficiency, sufficiency and consistency of estimators.

MATH 4233 - College Geometry

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

An introduction to Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries developed with the study of constructions, transformations, applications, and the rigorous proving of theorems.

MATH 4253 - Real Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3243

An introduction to measure theory and integration. Topics include metric spaces, measure and integration, elementary functional analysis, and function spaces.

MATH 4313 - Advanced Ordinary Differential Equations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3353 Advanced topics in the theory of ordinary differential equations.

Topics include existence theory, linear systems, phase plane analysis, asymptotic behavior of solutions, stability of linear systems, Lyapounov's second method and applications.

MATH 4353 - Complex Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3243

A study of the theory of complex functions and their applications, including analytic and elementary functions; derivatives and integrals; The Cauchy Integral Theorem and contour integration; Laurent series; the theory of residues; conformal mapping; and applications.

MATH 4363 - Partial Differential Equations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3303

Studies of classical boundary-value problems, including the heat equation, wave equation, and potential equation. Solution methods including characteristics, separation of variables, integral transforms, orthogonal functions, Green's functions, Fourier series.

MATH 4413 - Abstract Algebra I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

The first of a two-course, in-depth, rigorous study in topics in the theory of groups, rings and fields.

MATH 4423 - Abstract Algebra II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4413

A continuation of MATH 4413. Topics include linear groups, group representations, rings, factorization, modules, fields, and Galois Theory.

MATH 4473 - Combinatorics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

An introduction to combinatorics. Topics include the pigeonhole principle, combinations, permutations, distributions, generating functions, recurrence relations, and inclusion-exclusion.

MATH 4483 - Graph Theory

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

An introduction to the fundamental concepts of graph theory. Topics include isomorphisms, Euler graphs, Hamiltonian graphs, graph colorings, trees, networks, planarity.

MATH 4513 - Linear Algebra I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2853 and MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

The first course in a comprehensive, theoretically-oriented, two-course sequence in linear algebra. Topics include vector spaces, subspaces, linear transformations, determinants, and elementary canonical forms.

MATH 4523 - Linear Algebra II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4513

A continuation of MATH 4513. Topics include rational and Jordan forms, inner product spaces, operators on inner product spaces, and bilinear forms.

MATH 4613 - Introduction to Topology

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3003 with a minimum grade of C

An elementary but rigorous study of the topology of the real line and plane and an introduction to general topological spaces and metric spaces. Emphasis placed on the properties of closure, compactness, and connectedness.

MATH 4713 - Probability and Statistics for P-8 Teachers

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and MATH 2008 with a minimum grade of C or MATH 1634 or MATH 2703 Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.

Special emphasis for teachers of grades P-8. Broadens understanding of the fundamental concepts of probability and statistics, with particular attention to specific methods and materials of instruction.

MATH 4753 - Trigonometry and Calculus for the P-8 Teacher

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2008 and Admission to Teacher Education program Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.

An introduction to the foundations of trigonometry, analytic geometry, and calculus. Designed especially for teachers of grades P-8. Helps promote a better understanding of the content, scope, and sequence of the P-12 mathematics curriculum.

MATH 4773 - Number Theory for P-8 Teachers

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 2008 and Admission to Teacher Education program Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.

Elementary number theory with emphasis on relevance to teaching at the P-8 level.

MATH 4803 - Analysis of Variance

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203

This course involves a thorough examination of the analysis of variance statistical method including hypotheses tests, interval estimation, and multiple comparison techniques of both single-factor and two-factor models. Extensive use of a statistical computer package, Minitab, will be a necessary part of the course.

MATH 4813 - Regression Analysis

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203

This course involves a thorough examination of both simple linear regression models and multivariate models. The course requires extensive use of statistical software for confidence intervals, statistical tests, statistical plots, and model diagnostics.

MATH 4823 - Applied Experimental Design

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203

This course provides an introduction to design and analysis of planned experiments. Topics will include one and two-way designs; completely randomized designs, randomized block designs, Latin-square and factorial designs. Use of technology will be an integral part of this course.

MATH 4833 - Applied Nonparametric Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203

This course will involve the study of several nonparametric tests including the Runs test, Wilcoxon signed rank and rank sum test, Kruskal, Wallis and Friedman F test. These tests will include applications in the biological sciences, engineering, and business areas. A statistical software package will be used to facilitate these tests.

MATH 4843 - Introduction to Sampling

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 4203

This course will consider applied principles and approaches for conducting a sample survey, designing a survey, and analyzing a survey.

MATH 4853 - An Introduction to the History of Mathematics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: ENGL 1102. Prerequisite: Completion of core-level mathematics, ENGL 1102 or consent of instructor.

The development of mathematics from prehistoric times through late 19th century/early 20th century is explored. Emphasis is given to key people, problems, cultural influences for various historic periods that have shaped what we think of as contemporary mathematics.

MATH 4863 - Algebra for P-8 Teachers II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 3803 Non-credit for mathematics major or minor.

A continuation of MATH 3803. Topics include inverse, exponential, and logarithmic functions; systems of equations and inequalities ;matrices and determinants; sequences and series; the Binomial Theorem; and mathematical induction.

MATH 4885 - Special Topics in Applied Statistics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Dependent upon course title.

This course will be taught from a variety of statistical topics such as statistical quality control, applied time series, game theory, etc.

MATH 4983 - Senior Project

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: Senior standing as a mathematics major.

A faculty-directed independent research project culminating in the writing of a paper and an oral presentation of the results of the project.

MATH 4985 - Special Topics in Mathematics

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Courses in selected areas upon demand. Titles will be specified at time of offering.

Media and Instructional Technology

MEDT 2401 - Introduction to Instructional Technology

(3 /0/ 3) An introduction to basic instructional technology theories, computer utilization, and selected instructional technologies. Selection and utilization of technology resources will also be addressed. GPA of 2.50 required.

MEDT 3401 - Integrating Technology into the Curriculum

(3 /0/ 3) Admission to Teacher Education (TE) required.

Hands-on technology integration techniques are provided, scaffolding from the student's basic computer skills to foster skills in five interrelated areas of instructional proficiency: (1) Georgia's Performance Standards for Curriculum, (2) integration of modern and emerging technologies into instructional practice, (3) classroom management in classrooms, computer labs and 21st century learning environments, (4) new designs for teaching and learning, and (5) enhanced pedagogical practices.

MEDT 3402 - Integrating Technology into the Classroom

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and (MEDT 2401 with a minimum grade of C or CISM 2201 with a minimum grade of C or CS 1030 with a minimum grade of C or GEOL 2002 with a minimum grade of C or CS 1020 with a minimum grade of C or MEDT EXAM)

Hands on technology integration techniques are provided scaffolding from the student's basic computer skills to foster skills in five interrelated areas of instructional proficiency: (1) Georgia's Performance Standards for Curriculum, (2) Integration of Modern and Emerging Technologies into Instructional Practice, (3) Classroom Management in Classrooms, Computer Labs and 21st Century Learning Environments, (4) New Designs for Teaching and Learning, and (5) Enhanced Pedagogical Practices.

Middle Grades Education

MGED 4261 - Methods for Integrating Language Arts and Social Studies

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course includes exploration of techniques and strategies for the effective teaching and integration of language arts and social studies; investigation of current issues, practices, materials, and curriculum development appropriate for teaching/learning in the middle grades.

MGED 4261L - Methods for Integrating Language Arts and Social Studies Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course consists of the field experience that accompanies MGED 4261. Must be taken concurrently with MGED 4261.

MGED 4264 - Methods for Integrating Science and Math

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course will provide an exploration of techniques and strategies for the effective integrated teaching of science and math and investigations of current issues, practices, and materials in teaching/learning science/math in the middle grades.

MGED 4264L - Methods for Integrating Science and Math Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course consists of the field experience that accompanies MGED 4264. Must be taken concurrently with MGED 4264.

MGED 4265 - Instructional Design and Classroom Management in the Middle School

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course will address the principles and techniques of planning and teaching with attention to differentiated instructional design and assessment and evaluation techniques to be used with middle grade learners. Students will plan lessons and units of study for middle level learners that apply the principles of differentiated instruction and a variety of assessment formats. In addition, this course will include an exploration and examination of approaches of instructional management of learners, resources, and learning activity. Techniques for integrating various approaches to classroom discipline into instructional management will be developed. Admission to Teacher Education program required.

MGED 4265L - Instructional Design and Classroom Management in Middle School Laboratory

(0 /2/ 1) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course consists of the field experience that accompanies MGED 4265. Must be taken concurrently with MGED 4265.

MGED 4271 - Middle Grades Curriculum

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course empowers the student to synthesize knowledge of professional concepts within a quality caring framework. Content is designed to prepare the student to apply leadership and management principles to achieve positive health outcomes within health care systems.

NURS 4201 - Health Care of the Client III
(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: NURS 3202 and NURS 3302 and NURS 3303.

This is the third of four concept based healthcare courses essential in preparing learners for safe and person centered care within a quality caring framework. Students continue to advance their knowledge associated with providing quality, holistic nursing care to persons throughout the lifespan. The course focuses on selected concepts, using exemplars, within the categories of biophysical, social, and psychological functions, and health, wellness, and illness.

NURS 4202 - Health Care of the Client IV
(4 /0/ 4) Prerequisite: NURS 4201 and NURS 4301.

This is the last of four concept based healthcare courses essential in preparing learners for safe and person centered care within a quality caring framework. Students analyze knowledge related to the provision of quality, holistic nursing care to persons throughout the lifespan. The course focuses on the interrelationship of multiple concepts, using exemplars, within the categories of biophysical, social, and psychological functions, and health, wellness, and illness.

NURS 4300 - Clinical Specialty Practice
(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: NURS 4301.

This course focuses on progressive knowledge and skills necessary for the professional nurse to deliver safe and person-centered care in a nursing specialty clinical immersion environment. Professional and healthcare related concepts will be applied in laboratory, simulation, and a variety of health care settings.

NURS 4301 - Clinical Practice III
(0 /10/ 5) Prerequisite: NURS 3302.

This course focuses on advanced knowledge and skills necessary for the professional nurse to deliver safe and person-centered care across the lifespan. Professional and healthcare related concepts will be applied in laboratory, simulation, and a variety of health care settings.

NURS 4302 - Clinical Practice IV
(0 /16/ 8) Prerequisite: NURS 4301.

This course focuses on the integration of knowledge and skills necessary for the professional nurse to deliver safe and person-centered care across the lifespan. Students will be expected to utilize leadership and management principles to achieve positive health outcomes within healthcare systems in simulated and actual clinical experiences.

(1 // 1) This course includes the basic principles of healthy eating and nutrition, nutrition in a changing world, and the relationship between nutrition and disease. The course will emphasize topics such as weight loss, fitness nutrition, healthy eating plans and strategies, the role of dietary supplements, smart strategies for eating out, and the diet-disease relationship. An evaluation of personal dietary habits using current dietary guidelines and nutritional assessment tools will also be completed to help students assess their own nutritional health and to determine healthy eating SMART goals.

PWLA 2611 - Special Activities

(0 /2/ 1) This course offers activities to accommodate student needs and interests--e.g., martial arts, roller skating, self defense, etc.

PWLA 2651 - Independent Activity

(1 /0/ 1) This course is available only to students with disabling conditions, medical restrictions, or similar unique situations. This course is available only to students with prior permission from the department.

PWLA 2685 - Special Topics in Physical Education

(3 /0/ 3) Titles and descriptions of specific course will be specified at time of offering. May be repeated for credit.

Physical Education

PHED 2000 - App Con of Fitness & Wellness

(3 /0/ 3) This undergraduate course is designed to develop skills and knowledge related to physical activity and physical fitness. Assessment labs for the five health-related fitness components will be included in this course. In addition, this course is designed to provide students with basic knowledge in the area of personal wellness, including nutrition, stress management, chronic diseases, and planning for and implementing a healthy lifestyle change.

PHED 2602 - Introduction to Teaching Health and Physical Education

(1 /2/ 2) This course introduces students to the teaching of health and physical education with emphasis on the social, historical and philosophical bases and the context for education in these fields. The students explore the roles and responsibilities of the teacher, including legal, ethical and effective practice. Field experience involves observing health and physical education classes in the public schools. 2.3 GPA required.

PHED 2603 - Human Anatomy and Physiology I

(3 /0/ 3) This course focuses on descriptive human anatomy and physiology with an emphasis on the skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems of the human body. The course provides in-depth analysis of the major bones, muscles and nerves used in a variety of movement activities. For physical education majors only.

PHED 2604 - Human Anatomy and Physiology II

(3 /0/ 3) Course focuses on descriptive human anatomy and physiology with an emphasis on the cardiovascular, respiratory, digestive and endocrine systems of the human body. This course provides an in-depth analysis of the processes of respiration, heart function, breakdown and absorption of nutrients and the integration of these processes within the human body. For Physical Education majors only.

PHED 2628 - First Aid and CPR for Education Majors

(1 /0/ 1) For Education majors only. Students will gain the knowledge and skills necessary to respond in an emergency to help sustain life, reduce pain, and minimize the consequences of injury or sudden illness until professional medical help arrives. Specific school based situations relating to child injuries and emergencies will be addressed. Certification in CPR and First Aid is awarded upon successful completion of the course. Students must make a grade of C or better in order to use the course in Area F.

PHED 2685 - Special Topics in Physical Education

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Titles and descriptions of specific courses will be specified at time of offering. May be repeated for credit. Requires approval of department chair.

PHED 3210 - Healthy Eating and Nutrition

(3 /0/ 3) Health and Community Wellness Admission (CMWL) This undergraduate course provides healthy eating and nutrition principles for fitness and wellness professionals. The course helps students understand the role of nutrition in improving health and applying these ideas to establish healthy SMART goals and eating plans. A review of current eating habits and patterns using nationally recommended dietary guidelines and nutritional assessment tools will be covered.

Course topics include the relationship between nutrition and various diseases, use of dietary supplementation, and nutrition for improved sport and fitness performance.

PHED 3220 - Health Promotion, Education, and Program Evaluation

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

This undergraduate course provides students with a comprehensive overview of the practical and theoretical skills needed to plan, implement, and evaluate health promotion programs in a variety of settings. The course helps students develop a health education program, work through examples and activities for program planning application, and review the essential tools for effective practices in health promotion, education, and evaluation.

PHED 3230 - Exercise Leadership

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: This course is restricted to CMWL majors.

This undergraduate course provides students with leadership skills and experience that directly apply to fitness programs. Topics include current trends in group exercise formats, exercise program design and implementation, methods of intensity monitoring, exercise risk factors, safety issues as they relate to proper alignment and technique, evaluation of existing programs and basic business practices, and professional certifications and educational organizations in group fitness instruction.

PHED 3240 - Current Issues and Trends in Fitness and Wellness Leadership

(3 /0/ 3) Health and Community Wellness Admission (CMWL) This undergraduate course gives students an overview of the current issues and trends in the health, fitness, and wellness industry, by providing quality opportunities for gaining in-depth knowledge of the most relevant topics impacting the field. The course specifically highlights career opportunities and code of conduct for professionals, legal issues and responsibilities, working with special populations, nutrition and weight control, fitness and wellness promotion, current certifications, healthcare, and the business of the industry. Additional content may vary based on recent trends related to epidemiology, exercise and aging, psychology of health and fitness, program adherence, research methods, exercise prescription and assessment, consumer choices, and sport concerns.

PHED 3401 - Integrating Technology into Health and Physical Education

(3 /0/ 3) Teacher Education Admission TE and (MEDT 2401 Minimum Grade: C or CISM 2201 Minimum Grade: C or CS 1030 Minimum Grade: C or GEOL 2002 Minimum Grade: C or CS 1000 Minimum Grade: C or CS 1020 Minimum Grade: C)

This course concentrates on ways to integrate technology into the health and physical education curriculum. Students will utilize the latest in technology to enhance instruction in the gym. Students will build on their basic computer skills and develop instructional proficiency in the following areas: (1) Georgia's Performance Standards for Curriculum, (2) Integration of Modern and Emerging Technologies into Instructional Practice, (3) Classroom Management in the Classroom and the Gymnasium, (4) New Designs for Teaching and Learning, and (5) Enhanced Pedagogical Practices. This course satisfies the Georgia Special Technology Requirement. Laboratory experiences will be included in the course. Requires a minimum of 9 hours of upper education course work. Requires a minimum of 9 hours of upper education course work.

PHED 3500 - Educational Games, Gymnastics, and Dance

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course focuses on the development stages of selected motor patterns fundamental to educational games, gymnastics, and dance. Students develop and practice the skill theme approach to teaching fundamental movement patterns to elementary and middle school students. Students also develop observation and analysis skills for diagnosing children's motor patterns.

PHED 3501 - Skills and Strategies in Strength and Conditioning

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course increases students' knowledge, skills and strategies related to strength and conditioning including weight training, cardiovascular endurance, health-related fitness, performance-related fitness, and flexibility. Focus is on skill development in order to provide K-12 students with accurate information, demonstrations and performance analysis.

PHED 3502 - Skills and Strategies in Target and Outdoor Activities

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course increases students' knowledge, skills and strategies in target and outdoor activities including golf, track and field, orienteering and softball. Focus is on skill development in order to provide K-12 students with accurate information, demonstrations and performance analysis.

PHED 3503 - Skills and Strategies in Net and Wall Games

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course increases students' knowledge, skills and strategies in net and wall games including badminton, pickle ball, tennis and volleyball. Focus is on skill development in order to provide K-12 students with accurate information, demonstrations and performance analysis.

PHED 3504 - Skills and Strategies in Invasion Games

(0 /4/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course increases students' knowledge, skills and strategies in invasion games including basketball, flag football, soccer, team handball and ultimate Frisbee. Focus is on skill development in order to provide K-12 students with accurate information, demonstrations and performance analysis.

PHED 3625 - Motor Behavior

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and PHED 2603 and PHED 2604.

This course focuses on the growth and development of the human being and the interaction of growth and development on human motor performance. Students examine the impact of motor development and motor learning, neuromuscular function and information processing on motor skill acquisition and make applications to teaching physical education. The course provides students with foundation knowledge concerning the development and acquisition of motor skills from birth to advanced age, with emphasis on P-12 children.

PHED 3630 - Coaching Methods: Baseball and Softball

(2 /0/ 2) Designed to provide students with basic information about coaching baseball and softball.

Planning and organizing practice and competition, selecting appropriate drills, teaching and analyzing fundamental skills, evaluating performance, understanding basic offensive and defensive strategies.

PHED 3631 - Coaching Basketball

(2 /0/ 2) Designed to provide students with basic information about coaching the sport of basketball.

Planning and organizing practice and competition, selecting appropriate drills, teaching and analyzing fundamental skills, evaluating performance, understanding basic offensive and defensive strategies.

PHED 3632 - Coaching Football

(2 /0/ 2) Designed to provide students with basic information about coaching football. Planning and organizing practice and competition, selecting appropriate drills, teaching and analyzing fundamental skills, evaluating performance, understanding basic offensive and defensive strategies.

PHED 3633 - Coaching Methods: Soccer

(2 /0/ 2) Designed to provide students with basic information about coaching soccer. Planning and organizing practice and competition, selecting appropriate drills, teaching and analyzing fundamental skills, evaluating performance, understanding basic offensive and defensive strategies.

PHED 3634 - Coaching Methods: Volleyball

(2 /0/ 2) Designed to provide students with basic information about coaching volleyball. Planning and organizing practice and competition, selecting appropriate drills, teaching and analyzing fundamental skills, evaluating performance, understanding basic offensive and defensive strategies.

PHED 3640 - History of Sport

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides a review of historical facts pertaining to the origin and development of games and sports, and the rationale for the support of these sports in America. The relationship of sport to social, economic, and political eras in this country, and the contributions for sport organizations and significant individuals in sport will be recognized.

PHED 3641 - Psychology of Sport

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides an overview of the psychological theories and principles explaining human behavior in sport, with an emphasis on applying those theories and principles to diverse sport settings.

PHED 3670 - Instructional Strategies of Health and Physical Education

(2 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course provides students with the basic pedagogical skills and knowledge related to teaching health and physical education in k-12 settings. The course includes a study of management and instructional strategies appropriate for health and physical education. Students develop and build teaching skills through observations and practicing effective teaching behaviors through peer teaching.

PHED 3671 - Physical Education in Elementary Schools

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and PHED 3670 and College of Education field experience documentation required

This course develops pedagogical skills and knowledge related to teaching physical education to children (K-5) . The course develops an understanding of the characteristics and needs of children, developmentally appropriate curriculum content in elementary school physical education and effective teaching skills for elementary school physical education. The course provides observation experiences in both the classroom and gymnasium and requires students to plan, teach and evaluate physical education lessons.

PHED 3675 - Physical Education in Middle and Secondary Schools

(3 /3/ 4) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and PHED 3671 and College of Education field experience documentation required.

This course develops pedagogical skills and knowledge related to teaching physical education to middle and secondary school students. The course develops an understanding of the characteristics and needs of middle and secondary students, developmentally appropriate curriculum content in middle and secondary school physical education and effective teaching skills for middle and secondary school physical education. The course provides opportunities to observe in the gymnasium and outdoor environments and to plan, teach and evaluate physical education lessons.

PHED 3676 - Elementary Physical Education Field Experience

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

Students will gain practical teaching experience in an elementary public school under the supervision of a qualified teacher and university supervisor. Take concurrently with PHED 3671.

PHED 3677 - P-5 Health Education Field Experience

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

Students will gain practical teaching experience in an elementary public school under the supervision of a qualified teacher and university supervisor.

PHED 3678 - Middle and Secondary Physical Education Field Experience

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

Students will gain practical teaching experience in middle and secondary public schools under the supervision of a qualified teacher and university supervisor. Take concurrently with PHED 3675.

PHED 3710 - Assessing Performance in Health and Physical Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course emphasizes accountability and the assessment of teaching, learning and performance using formative and summative evaluation procedures. Topics include selection and use of appropriate instruments and tests and assessments of the cognitive, psychomotor and affective domains in health and physical education. Take concurrently with PHED 3671.

PHED 3720 - Adapted Physical Education Field Experience

(0 /3/ 1) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and PHED 2603

This course provides practical field experiences in public school and community settings. Students observe and apply knowledge gained for adapting physical activities while working with exceptional children and youth in inclusive and adapted physical education settings and with special programs and events. Students gain an awareness of and appreciation for the challenges faced by exceptional individuals and their families.

PHED 4500 - Personal and Community Health Issues

(2 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course focuses on the behavioral, social, economic and community factors that influence health. Students examine the influences of the family, school and culture on a child's health and well-being. Emphasis is on current family health issues, relationships, communication, safety, consumer health, social-emotional needs, and gender issues. PHED 4501 - Contemporary Health Issues

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education or Health and Community Wellness.

This course focuses on the incidence, prevalence, distribution, and preventative measures of disease acquisition and other factors relating to health. Topics include but are not limited to the following: health-related fitness; obesity; nutrition and dieting; chronic and communicable diseases (e.g., diabetes, cardiovascular disease, stroke, cancer, respiratory disease, HIV/AIDS, stress and depressions, arthritis, osteoporosis, etc.) ; and how the environment influences human health and disease (air, water and soil, and also all the physical, chemical, biological and social features of our surroundings) .

PHED 4502 - School Health Education

(2 /3/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course focuses on current school health education topics. Topics include alcohol, tobacco and drug education; human sexuality; HIV/AIDS; sexually transmitted infections and school violence. This course also addresses qualities of effective curricula, content standards, instructional strategies and lesson and unit plan preparation for classroom based instruction. Students observe, develop and implement developmentally appropriate instructional strategies in public schools and in other community group settings. Take concurrently with PHED 4501.

PHED 4601 - Movement Analysis II

(0 /6/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course addresses the development and analysis of skills in a variety of activities. Students will gain an understanding of the appropriate teaching strategies and modes of assessment that should be utilized with the various activities.

PHED 4603 - Advanced Concepts of Personal Training

(2 /2/ 3) This class focuses on the physiological responses and adaptations of the human body during exercise. In depth analysis of the responses of the respiratory and circulatory systems will be a major focus. Laboratory activities include data collection and analysis of a variety of physiological processes.

PHED 4605 - Applied Biomechanics

(2 /2/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course applies the core concepts of anatomy and mechanical physics to human motion. Kinematic (distance, speed, acceleration) and kinetic (force, momentum, torque) concepts related to motion along a straight line (linear motion) and around an axis of rotation (angular motion) are major themes of this course. The student will apply these concepts in analyzing exercise and sport skills. Applied activities engage students with fundamental concepts and principles of biomechanics that are essential to effective movement analysis.

PHED 4625 - Management in Health, Physical Education and Sport

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: College of Education field experience documentation required

Planning, organizing, directing, and evaluating school physical education, health and sport programs.

PHED 4630 - Foundations and Principles of Coaching

(3 /0/ 3) Topics include individual differences in athletics, motivational and psychological dimensions of athletes, sport as a social phenomenon, factors affecting performance, physiological principles, coaching philosophy and styles, ethics in coaching, and working with parent, booster, and community groups.

(3 /0/ 3) This undergraduate course is an introduction to prevention, recognition, and care management techniques for acute and chronic fitness and sport-related injuries. Topics include environmental-related illnesses, musculoskeletal injuries, and psychological factors (stress, anxiety, self-esteem, depression, mood) that impact the prevention and care of fitness and sport-related injuries.

PHED 4632 - Administration of Athletic Programs

(3 /0/ 3) Provides a critical analysis of current issues that confront directors of athletics or athletic administrators in schools and colleges in the administration of athletics with special reference to national, state, and local control. Special emphasis is given to case scenarios which will provide the opportunity to think critically about strategies that may be employed to solve contemporary athletic administration concerns.

PHED 4633 - Coaching Practicum

(0 /0/ 3) The coaching practicum is designed to provide the student with an in-the-field coaching experience in which the student can, in a supervised situation, develop, test, and modify her/his coaching knowledge, skills and attitudes. The primary objective is to provide the student with a realistic coaching experience at a level and in a setting similar to that in which employment may be obtained. May be repeated for credit in a different coaching experience.

PHED 4635 - Sport for Children and Youth

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides a theoretical and applied basis for planning and conducting sport experiences for children and youth to fit their physiological, cognitive, and emotional development of growth stages.

PHED 4650 - Health and Physical Activity in Elementary Education

(2 /0/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This course provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary for teaching health and integrating physical activity in the elementary school curriculum. This course is designed for early childhood education majors.

PHED 4660 - Critical Issues in Health and Physical Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: College of Education field experience documentation required

Opportunities for students to identify and analyze critical issues in health, physical education, and sport through discussion, investigation, practical experience, and research will be provided.

PHED 4677 - 6-12 Health Education Field Experience

(0 /6/ 2) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

Students will gain practical teaching experience in middle and secondary public schools under the supervision of a qualified teacher and university supervisor.

PHED 4680 - Physical Education for Students with Disabilities

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and PHED 3625

Study of various physical and mental disabilities in school-age children as they relate to motor development and perceptual abilities in the physical education setting. Planning for involvement in several clinical experiences.

PHED 4681 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) This course is an independent study or project. The topic, content, and criteria is to be determined by the student in conjunction with the faculty advisor. Requires approval of instructor.

PHED 4685 - Special Topics in Physical Education

(1.0 - 3.0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) This course is to be taken on an individual basis depending on unique circumstances of student. Requires approval of department.

PHED 4686 - Teaching Internship

(0 /27/ 9) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program and College of Education field experience documentation required

Practical teaching experience in a public school under the supervision of a qualified teacher.

Laboratory experience included in course. Must be taken concurrently with PHED 4689. Requires completion of all other professional courses with a grade of C or better.

PHED 4689 - Teaching Internship Seminar

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education program

This seminar develops heightened professionalism through seminars and reflection focused on issues, topics, skills, materials, and technology appropriate to the teaching experience. PHIL 4300 - Senior Seminar

(3 /0/ 3) The aim of this course is to examine current theoretical and practical issues about the discipline of philosophy; to reflect upon and analyze implications of students' course of study; to read and discuss the debates surrounding the topic of the seminar; to develop, research, and execute a rigorous philosophical argument relating to the topic of the seminar; and to develop the skills of leading class discussion and presenting an academic paper. Required for Philosophy majors. Students must have obtained Senior level status.

PHIL 4381 - Independent Study

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Prerequisite: PHIL 2100 or PHIL 2010 or PHIL 2010

Guided investigation of a topic not addressed by regularly scheduled courses. Students must propose a detailed plan of readings, articulating precise learning objectives, and secure the written consent of both a supervising instructor and of the department chair. Not more than two (2) Independent Study courses may count toward the major in Philosophy without the chair's permission.

PHIL 4385 - Special Topics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHIL 2010 or PHIL 1001 or PHIL 2100

An examination of a topic in philosophy that transcends the boundaries of the fixed curriculum. Requires permission of the department chair to repeat.

PhysicsPHYS 1111 - Introductory Physics I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1113 or MATH 1112 or MATH 1634

An introductory course that will include material from mechanics, thermodynamics, and waves. Elementary algebra and trigonometry will be used.

PHYS 1111L - Introductory Physics I Laboratory
(0 /2/ 1) The lab component of PHYS 1111 which must be a co-requisite.

PHYS 1112 - Introductory Physics II
(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 1111
An introductory course that will include material from electromagnetism, optics, and modern physics. Elementary algebra and trigonometry will be used. PHYS 1112L

PHYS 1112L - Introductory Physics II Laboratory
(0 /2/ 1) The lab component of PHYS 1112 which must be a co-requisite.

PHYS 1211K - Principles of Physics I with Laboratory
(3 /1/ 4) Prerequisite: (MATH 1634 or MATH 1501) and (ECOR C or ECCG C) Prerequisites: Completion of Calculus I (differentiate, integrate, simple functions) .
An introductory course which will include material from mechanics, thermodynamics and waves. Elementary differential calculus will be used. This course has a laboratory component that requires a lab kit. For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

PHYS 1212K - Principles of Physics II with Laboratory
(3 /1/ 4) Prerequisite: PHYS 1211K and (ECOR C or ECCG C) Prerequisites: Completion of Calculus I (differentiate, integrate, simple functions) .
An introductory course that will include material from electromagnetism, optics, and modern physics. Elementary differential and integral calculus will be used. This course has a laboratory component that requires a lab kit. Completion of Physics I (includes material from mechanics, thermodynamics, and waves using elementary differential calculus) . For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

PHYS 2211 - Principles of Physics I
(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: MATH 1634 with a C or better
An introductory course that will include material from mechanics, thermodynamics, and waves. Elementary calculus will be used. PHYS 2211L

PHYS 2211L - Principles of Physics I Laboratory
(0 /3/ 1) The lab component for PHYS 2211 which must be a co-requisite.

PHYS 2212 - Principles of Physics II
(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2211 with a minimum grade of C and MATH 2644
An introductory course that will include material from electromagnetism, optics, and modern physics. Elementary calculus will be used.

PHYS 2212L - Principles of Physics II Laboratory
(0 /3/ 1) The lab component for PHYS 2212 which must be a co-requisite.

PHYS 3003 - History and Philosophy of Science
(3 /0/ 3) A study of the historical development of major areas of science and the philosophical examination of scientific methods and results. Same as CHEM 4003, HIST 3301 and PHIL 3301.

PHYS 3013 - Basic Electronics
(1 /4/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 or Permission of Instructor
Electronic principles, basic circuits and components, theory and applications of powers supplies, amplifiers and oscillators. (At level of Simpson.)

PHYS 3023 - Digital Electronics

(1 /4/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3013 or Permission of Instructor

Electronic applications of digital logic circuitry, flip-flops and registers, sequential logic circuitry and design. (At the level of Simpson.)

PHYS 3113 - Mechanics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a C or better

Principles of Newtonian mechanics, mathematical techniques, conservation laws, introduction to orbit theory, rigid body dynamics, and accelerated coordinate systems. (At the level of Davis.)
MATH 3303

PHYS 3213 - Thermodynamics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a C or better

Thermodynamic laws and applications. (At the level of Black and Hartley.)

PHYS 3313 - Electricity and Magnetism

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a C or better AND MATH 2654

Electrostatic fields and potentials, conductors, dielectrics, magnetic fields, magnetic materials, electromagnetic induction, and Maxwell's equations. (At the level of Griffiths.)

PHYS 3413 - Optics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3313

Reflection, transmission, and refraction of waves, electromagnetic theory applications and light properties. (At the level of Hecht.)

PHYS 3424 - Advanced Optics

(3 /2/ 4) This course involves both theoretical and experimental work on the latest development in optics. Topics covered are Fourier optics, theory and application of lasers, Gaussian beams and optical resonators, optical detectors, and nonlinear effects. (At the level of Verdeven) .

PHYS 3503 - Modern Physics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a minimum grade of C

A study of the failure of classical mechanics to describe experiments like Black Body Radiation, the Photoelectric Effect, the Michelson-Morley experiment and others which led physics into the worlds of special relativity and wave mechanics. Topics in wave mechanics include the Bohr Theory and its extension into the Schrodinger Equation with applications.

PHYS 3511 - Experimental Physics I

(0 /3/ 1) Selected experimental investigations in electrical measurement, atomic and nuclear physics, solid state physics, optics, and electronics. PHYS 3503

PHYS 3521 - Experimental Physics II

(1 /3/ 1) Prerequisite: PHYS 3503

Selected experimental investigations in electrical measurement, atomic and nuclear physics, solid state physics, optics and electronics (offered in spring semester)

PHYS 3703 - Physics, Energy, and the Environment

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the physical principles associated with energy, current energy sources, alternate energy sources, conservation of energy, environmental concerns, and research to develop new energy sources.

PHYS 3713 - Survey of Physics

(3 /0/ 3) Topics selected from mechanics, heat, optics, sound, electricity, magnetism, and twentieth century physics.

PHYS 3825 - Research Methods

(2 /2/ 3) Specially designed to meet the needs of future teachers, students design and carry out four independent inquiries, which they write up and present in the manner that is common in the scientific community. Course is restricted to UTEACH students.

PHYS 3913 - Special Topics in Electronics

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Title and description of the course is to be specified at the time of offering. Students can re-enroll for up to a maximum of 9 hours. Only three hours may be counted toward a minor or major in physics.

PHYS 4103 - Astrophysics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3503 or Permission of Instructor

An advanced overview of modern astrophysics, covering interactions between light and matter, stellar atmospheres and interiors, the Milky Way Galaxy, the interstellar medium, and galaxies and cosmology. (At the level of Carroll & Ostlie)

PHYS 4203 - Advanced General Physics for Teachers

(3 /0/ 3) A survey of general physics for pre-service science teachers.

PHYS 4313 - Modern Physics

(3 /0/ 3) A study of the failure of classical mechanics to describe experiments like Black Body Radiation, the Photoelectric Effect, the Michelson-Morley experiment and others which led physics into the worlds of special relativity and wave mechanics. Topics in wave mechanics include the Bohr Theory and its extension into the Schrodinger Equation with applications.

PHYS 4323 - Nuclear Physics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3503 and PHYS 3113

A study of the discovery of the atomic nucleus by Rutherford and nuclear properties; radii, masses, spins, binding energies, etc. from experimental data. The nuclear force. Radioactivity in general and alpha, beta, gamma and fission. Fundamentals of nuclear reactions. Models of the nucleus.

PHYS 4333 - Quantum Mechanics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3503 and PHYS 3113

The principles of wave mechanics, including one dimensional potential problems, the hydrogen atom, systems of identical particles, perturbation theory. (At the level of Eisberg and Resnick.)

PHYS 4413 - Introduction to Solid State Physics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 3503 and PHYS 3113

An introduction to crystal structure and the mechanical, thermal, magnetic, optical, and electrical property of solids. (At the level of Kittel) .

PHYS 4513 - Mathematical Physics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 AND (either MATH 3303 or MATH 2654) OR Permission of Instructor

Advanced mathematical methods required for the most comprehensive exposition of both classical and modern physics. (At the level of Boas.)

PHYS 4523 - Computational Physics

(2 /4/ 3) Prerequisite: PHYS 2212 with a C or better, OR permission of Instructor

Introductory numerical methods in physics, including the application of computer techniques to a variety of physical problems at the level of Cook.

PHYS 4683 - Physics Research

(0 /1.0 - 3.0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Individual research in any area of several branches of physics. The research is to be carried out under the direction of a faculty member, and the research can be of an experimental or theoretical nature, or both.

PHYS 4984 - Physics Seminar

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: PHYS 3113, PHYS 3213, PHYS 3313, or PHYS 3503 or Permission of Instructor

Discussion of topics by students in seminar format regarding current theoretical and experimental topics in physics.

PHYS 4985 - Special Topics in Physics

(1.0 - 3.0 /0/ 1.0 - 3.0) Title and description of the course is to be specified at the time of offering. Students can re-enroll for additional credit.

Planning

PLAN 3701 - Introduction to Urban and Regional Planning

(3 /0/ 3) An orientation to urban and regional planning with special emphasis on the United States and Europe. The course includes land use planning, the comprehensive planning process, transportation, community development and urban design. Planning as a governmental activity at the local, regional, state, and federal level is also a component of the course.

PLAN 3702 - Land Use Planning and Controls

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PLAN 3701 or PLN 330

Land use planning, with emphasis on methods of land use analysis and issues confronting land use decision makers. Methods of state regulation of land uses and growth management techniques, including zoning, will be studied with particular attention to the cases of Oregon, Vermont, Florida, North Carolina, and Georgia. Same as POLS 3702.

PLAN 3704 - Planning Methods

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to introduce the student to several of the methods and techniques used in public planning and policy analysis.

PLAN 4701 - Technology and Sustainable Economic Development

(3 /0/ 3) Examines economic development policy at all levels of government and the role technology can play in helping promote sustainable economic development.

PLAN 4704 - Planning Theory and Practice

(3 /0/ 3) This course provides an overview of the development of planning theory and practice and its usefulness in addressing the challenges facing the practice of public planning in modern society. Same as POLS 4704.

PLAN 4705 - Computers in Politics, Planning, and Management

(3 /0/ 3) This course will acquaint students with computer-based methods that are used in the fields of political science, planning, and public administration.

PLAN 4721 - Housing and Community Development

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to housing and community development issues, problems and policy. Attention is focused on the operation of the housing market, historical development of housing and community development problems, and the evaluation of public and private sector responses to these problems.

PLAN 4722 - Environmental Planning

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to the concepts of environmental planning through an overview of problems, potential solutions, and their relation to methodologies, existing institutions, and other public policy areas.

PLAN 4723 - Transportation Planning

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to the U.S. transportation system and how planning is done for it. Examines contemporary U.S. transportation problems, sources of funding, institutions, and legislation. Presents the theory and methods employed by planners in resolving transportation problems through investment decision plans, operating strategies, and government policies. Stresses the close relationship between transportation and land use decisions.

PLAN 4724 - Sustainable Development

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines both theoretical and practical aspects of sustainable development and its relationship to land use planning in an effort to provide students with the skills needed to evaluate and propose activities to plan for sustainable development.

PLAN 4785 - Topics in Planning

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: PLAN 3701 or PLN 330

An in-depth analysis of specialized planning topics with the specific titles announced in the class schedule and entered on the students' transcripts. Students may repeat the course for credit as topics change.

PLAN 4786 - Capstone Project or Internship

(0 /3.0 - 6.0/ 3.0 - 6.0) Prerequisite: PLAN 3701 or PLN 330

Experience working with agency/organization in which planning knowledge can be utilized.

Political Science

POLS 1101 - American Government

(3 /0/ 3) A study of government and politics, including the philosophical and constitutional foundations, governing institutions, political behavior and major public policy issues. (This course satisfies the State legislative requirement concerning the United States Constitution and the Georgia Constitution) . For more information on this institution's eCore courses, please see <http://www.westga.edu/~ecore/>

POLS 2101 - Introduction to Political Science

(3/0/3) This course is an introduction to the field of Political Science. The course surveys the general topics studied in the field (such as power, agenda-setting, collective action) as well as the sub-fields that are focuses of the discipline: American Government, Comparative Politics, and International Relations. At the core of the course is the question of how human societies decide who gets what, where, when, and how. The course will explore how common types of problems are resolved differently in different places and times. The course will use current events and other issues to explore the wider concepts of the discipline.

POLS 2201 - State and Local Government

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An examination of the structure, organization, and functions of state and local governments. The role of the state and local governments in the federal system is analyzed. Selected state and local problems are reviewed.

POLS 2401 - Global Issues

(3 /0/ 3) This course introduces the student to contemporary issues in international affairs. It is designed for those who have no prior knowledge of international relations or global issues. We will examine some of the most pressing, political, environmental and economic problems currently facing the global community today. The idea is to introduce the issues and discuss different points of view on them so that students can develop and articulate informed views on possible solutions to the world's most pressing problems.

POLS 2601 - Political Science Methods I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

Students are introduced to various qualitative and quantitative methods used in the social sciences. They learn how to find, evaluate and ethically use appropriate information to conduct political science research. They construct research questions and write research papers using case studies, comparative methods and statistics.

POLS 3101 - American Political Institutions

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An analysis of the roles of the policy making processes, power, procedures, relationships, and history of American national governmental institutions.

POLS 3102 - Gender and Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This course is an introductory course that examines the role of gender in the field of political science. This course will explore gender oriented approaches to the range of subjects in political science (comparative politics, American politics, political theory, and international relations.)

POLS 3103 - Media and Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

Analysis of the role of the mass media in American politics, including the impact of media coverage on public and elite opinions and the interactions between the media and public institutions.

POLS 3201 - Public Policy

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An analysis of diverse public policy issues, as well as the decision process leading to the formulation of government policy. An analysis of societal factors that influence policy, and the effect of government policy on society.

POLS 3301 - The Judicial Process

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An introduction and survey of legal process in American society.

POLS 3401 - Comparative Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101 Comparative Politics is the study of the political forces, institutions, and practices of countries in order to describe, explain, predict political events.

POLS 3402 - Politics of Western Europe

(3 /0/ 3) This course explores the political systems of Western Europe. It investigates basic issues of political arrangements, political parties, and the challenges faced by each nation. It also explores the rise and expanding powers of the European Union. Topics will include government formation, the role of political parties, and how policy is made, among others. Countries will include Britain, France, and Germany, among others.

POLS 3501 - International Relations

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This is an analysis of the contemporary international system. The course will examine foreign policy decision- decision-making, the use of power, the causes of war, and the role of international law and organizations.

POLS 3601 - Political Science Methods II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 2601

As a sequence of POLS 2601, this course focuses on quantitative research methods for political science. Students are introduced to quantitative data collection methods and basic statistical analyses.

POLS 3701 - Introduction to Urban and Regional Planning

(3 /0/ 3) Introduction to fundamental concepts, including physical planning, transportation, housing, land use, urban development, and preservation.

POLS 3702 - Land Use Planning and Controls

(3 /0/ 3) Land use planning with emphasis on methods of land use analysis and issues confronting land use decision makers. Methods of state regulation of land uses and growth management techniques, including zoning, will be studied with particular attention to the cases of Oregon, Vermont, Florida, North Carolina, and Georgia. Same as PLAN 3702.

POLS 3704 - Planning Methods

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to introduce the student to several of the methods and techniques used in public planning and policy analysis.

POLS 4101 - Legislative Process

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

A study of the role, functions, and organization of the U.S. Congress and state legislatures with special attention to the Georgia General Assembly. Theories of representation and legislative voting patterns are examined, and comparisons between the American political process and that of parliamentary systems made.

POLS 4102 - The Presidency

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This course focuses not only upon the institutional and legal frameworks set out in the constitution regarding the Presidency, but also upon the historical, philosophical, psychological, and sociological aspects of the office. The American system of checks and balances is compared to that of parliamentary democracies.

POLS 4103 - Public Opinion

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This course examines the nature and development of public opinion in America and the inter-action between public opinion and government. The influence of public opinion on government institutions and public policy formation in America and the impact of government upon citizens' attitudes and opinions are explored.

POLS 4186 - Internship in Government

(0 /1.0 - 6.0/ 1.0 - 6.0) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

Students may receive academic credit for personal experience in the political process and/or public employment. Credit hours only apply toward electives.

POLS 4200 - Principles of Public Administration

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An introductory examination of the characteristics of the public organization and its impact on society. Analysis of the theories of public administration, personnel issues, budgetary activities, legal dynamics, as well as historical development of the field are included.

POLS 4202 - Interorganizational Behavior

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

An examination of the interactions between various levels of government, nonprofit and private organizations in the federal system.

POLS 4204 - Public Finance

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

A study of the equity and economic effects of government spending programs, taxes, and debt. The course is primarily applied microeconomics. Same as ECON 4440.

POLS 4207 - Technology Policy

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

Technology Policy will emphasize the development of national and state energy, manufacturing, information, and medical technology policies and how they structure society, business, and, in turn, government. Interactive exercises foster student understanding of the issues, groups involved and the dynamics of change.

POLS 4208 - Health Policy

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This course examines the health policy process at the national, state, and local levels, with a detailed look at the steps in the process, groups involved, and resultant policies. Through group exercises, each student will experience the policy process, gain an understanding of the dynamics of change, and develop the ability to form coherent policies.

POLS 4209 - Environmental Policy

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

Environmental Policy will emphasize the national and state policy making process, focusing on the dynamics of pluralist change, policy implementation and current environmental status.

POLS 4210 - Public Management

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101 Various changes in the management of public organizations are identified and analyzed. Includes the role of technology, modification of the relationship between public and private spheres, and current trends in the management of change and supervision of a diverse work force.

POLS 4211 - State and Local Politics and Administration

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (POLS 1101 or PSC 101) and POLS 2201

An in-depth study of the political process and administrative procedures used in American state and local governments to address social, economic and political issues. Comparative analysis of relevant actors and strategies across the states is incorporated.

POLS 4212 - State and Local Government Finance

(3 /0/ 3) Exploration of rationale for public revenues and expenditures, with emphasis on practical application and current state and local finance issues.

POLS 4213 - Comparative Public Administration and Policy

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and (POLS 3201 or POLS 3401)

This course is an introduction to Comparative Public Administration and Policy. Focusing primarily on democratic states, it explores recent innovation in public administration and policy evolution and transformation within the context of the modern welfare state. It examines the institutions and political setting in several countries, which will include both advanced industrial countries and developing nations, and addresses policy areas ranging from social welfare to environmental politics.

POLS 4214 - Urban Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

This course examines the major areas of scholarly inquiry in urban politics. The course begins with an overview of theoretical foundations and systems model of urban politics. Contemporary approaches to studying urban politics from a political economy or regime perspective are given special attention. The remainder of the course is divided into two major areas of inquiry: (1) urban political institutions and (2) political behavior and political processes in urban settings.

POLS 4215 - Management of Non-Profit Organizations

(3 /0/ 3) This course is designed to explore the theoretical principles and practical applications of management for charities and/or nonprofit organizations. The underlying thesis of this course is that by understanding fundamental principles such as developing effective mission and objectives statements, fundraising, marketing and accounting strategies, nonprofits can become more effective and responsive to their constituency's needs. The course will include a field research component.

POLS 4217 - Grant Writing for Nonprofit Organizations

(3 /0/ 3) This course introduces students to the world of grant-writing and management, and provides an opportunity to experience writing actual grants. Students will learn the process of identifying prospective funders, developing relationships with funders, understanding the basics of writing grants, submitting proposals, working as a collaborative, and preparing for the follow up. Students will apply course learning to write and prepare actual grant proposals.

POLS 4301 - Constitutional Law I

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (POLS 1101 or PSC 101) and POLS 3301

Study of the constitutional divisions of power among the branches of the national government and between the national and state governments.

POLS 4302 - Constitutional Law II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: (POLS 1101 or PSC 101) and POLS 3301

Study of the application and interpretation of the constitutional protections by the American courts.

POLS 4401 - African Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

Designed to be an introductory course, this course examines, in historical perspective, the current politics systems, movements and cultures of sub-Sahara Africa. The course will also examine the African diaspora to the U.S. and its impact on the American political system.

POLS 4402 - Russian Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This is an examination of the domestic politics and foreign policy of the Russian Federation. The course analyzes the institutions of the Russian government as well as the influence of ideological, political, social, economic and international factors in the decision-making process.

POLS 4403 - Latin American Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This is an examination of the government and politics of Latin America. The course analyzes political culture and socialization, party and interest group activity, government structures and public policy formation, issues of political and economic development.

POLS 4405 - Politics in the European Union

(3 /0/ 3) This course is an introduction to the history, political institutions, and policy of the European Union. In the past half-century, the EU has grown from a set of weak and poorly defined institutions with a limited policy domain and an emphasis on national sovereignty into an extensive political system with increasingly strong supranational actors influencing all aspects of political and economic life.

POLS 4406 - British Politics

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101.

This course analyzes the politics of the United Kingdom, investigating the Norman roots of British politics. It focuses on the evolution and functioning of the current political system and the institutional structure of Britain. We discuss who has the power and how it is used. The course also addresses the interplay between a unitary state structure and regionalism in Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and England as well as cultural and political identity in those regions.

POLS 4407 - European Environmental Policy

(3 /0/ 3) This course is a survey of the critical issues that define the relationship between environmental quality and the course of European integration. These include the historical origins of environmental policy, the difficulties of implementing changing regulations, the role of EU governance in policy implementation, and the future prospects for the EU's success in environmental regulation (with an occasional glance at environmental policy in the United States).

POLS 4408 - EU Science & Technology Policy

(3 /0/ 3) This class will examine Science and Technology Policy, with particular attention to the European Union and (for comparison) the United States. The course begins with an overview of technological innovation, and of the current state of science and policymaking in the EU and the US. The class then examines how governments can encourage scientific and technological innovation, and concludes by asking whether government and society can (or should) try to limit or control technological innovation.

POLS 4409 - Democracy and Democratization

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 and POLS 3401

This course analyzes the concept of democracy and the process of democratization around the world. First, we will discuss the range of definitions of democracy, and some of the difficulties associated with the concept and its measure. Second, we will examine how key regime characteristics lead to different modes of democratic transitions, and we will identify the key determinants of democratic consolidation. Finally we will study the process of democratic erosion and breakdown through the experiences of Germany, Chile, Russia, and other cases around the world. At the end of the central problems that plague transition and consolidation processes, and synthesize the key findings and conclusions about democratization.

POLS 4411 - Federalism and Multilevel Governance in the EU

(3 /0/ 3) Students taking this course will learn about the different types of federalism in a comparative (US-Europe) context. In examining the relationship between various levels of government in the EU, the multi-level character of the Union will emerge. The complex relationship between levels of government will be examined.

POLS 4412 - Democracy & the EU

(3 /0/ 3) This course analyzes the concepts of democracy and the process of democratization around the world. First, we will discuss the range of definitions of democracy, and some of the difficulties associated with the concept and its measures. Second, we will examine how key regime characteristics lead to different modes of democratic transitions, and we will identify the key determinants of democratic consolidation. Finally, we study the process of democratic erosion and breakdown.

POLS 4413 - Social Policy in Europe

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines the history of social policy in the European Union, and the course focuses on the current social policy arrangements in Europe and in the European Union. We will examine gender policy, education, child care, elder care, and other policies in the context of improving social conditions in the domestic policy arena.

POLS 4414 - History of European Integration

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines the different integrational pushes in Europe, including the EU. We will compare various regional organizations and examine the reasons that the EU has survived, grown, and prospered when several other alternatives did not.

POLS 4462 - American Politics since 1933(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

A study of the history of American politics from the New Deal to the present, with emphasis on the history of the presidency, electoral changes, political ideologies, political parties, and national political trends.

POLS 4501 - International Law(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This is an introductory course designed to familiarize students with the body of international law, its applicability, and the existing organs or arbitration and adjudication. The course examines the role of international courts, laws of war and peace, human rights law, migration law and the role of the individual in international law.

POLS 4502 - Gender and Ethnicity in International Politics(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

The course introduces students to the interconnectedness of gender roles and ethnic classifications with international relations. Thus, this course takes an interdisciplinary approach to the study of colonialization, war and peace, revolutionary theory, social movements, development, and human interaction with environment.

POLS 4503 - International Organizations(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101 or PSC 101

This is an analysis of international organizations with an emphasis on the United Nations. The course examines the role of the UN in peacekeeping, collective security, economic development, and human rights.

POLS 4504 - International Political Economy(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

This course analyzes the politics of international economic relations, investigating the roots and evolution of the international political economy since World War II, and focusing on the rise and implications of global economic governance and globalization. The course will address the interplay between politics and economics in a range of different issue areas, including the international financial system, international trade, and attempts at regional economic integration.

POLS 4505 - American Foreign Policy(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

This course is designed as an upper division reading course in American foreign policy. This course will discuss the foreign policy process, a brief history of American foreign policy and its traditions, the inputs and outputs that make up foreign policy and a variety of approaches to understanding foreign policy. The goal of the course is to provide students with the theoretical and analytical tools needed to be intelligent consumers of foreign policy. The course will incorporate current events in American foreign policy as a means of demonstrating the academic concepts of the course in practice.

POLS 4506 - International Conflict and Conflict Management(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

This course is about violent conflict in the international system. The course will focus on the sources of conflict in international relations and the factors that contribute to conflicts of interest escalating to violent conflict. This course will examine the types of violence in the international system (interstate war, internationalized civil war, state failure, and violence by non-state violent actors) and the steps that have been taken to reduce and eliminate armed conflict (traditional alliances, collective security, arms reduction, non-proliferation efforts, and inter-national law) . In addition, this course will explore the changing nature of violence in the international system in areas such as the privatization of military force and the increasing role of non-state violent actors in international politics.

POLS 4507 - US-EU Relations

(3 /0/ 3) This course examines political institutions in the European Union and the United States and how the factors of culture, ideology, history, structure, and political leadership shape action in key policy arenas. The course is focused on the history of the relationship between the EU and the US and on current issues in the transatlantic relationship.

POLS 4508 - European Economic and Monetary Union

(3 /0/ 3) This course addresses the core policies of the enlarged European Union, focusing on those relating to money and monetary decision making. It analyzes the evolution of the major policy areas and institutions, as well as the evolution of the European Monetary System as a whole. The goal of the course is to provide a solid foundation of knowledge relating to the national security apparatus of the United States.

POLS 4517 - Global Human Rights

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

The issue of human rights is not a new one. Instead, its roots can be traced to antiquity, beginning with the Magna Charta. However, the importance of human rights in global relations if a post-World War Two phenomenon. The genocidal acts committed by Hitler's Germany placed human rights on the international agenda. Since then, the significance of human rights in the global system has grown. In addition, the study of human rights has become a major area of intellectual inquiry. Against this background, this course is designed to examine some of the major issues in the human rights field-ranging from the conceptual and methodological tool boxes to critical issues such as the right to work, the right to education, torture, genocide, the rights of women and children, minorities, indigenous peoples, and the responsibility to protect. Importantly, these issues will be examined within the context of morality, international law, and realpolitik.

The course will discuss the inter-relationship between the power politics of nations and the politics of identity. The Arab-Israeli conflict will be situated within the wider regional politics in the Middle East as well as temporally in the context of the post WWII international system. This course will explore the complexity of the conflict as well as various attempts at its resolution. The course will also explore the potential impact of the changes of the Arab Spring on the dynamics of the conflict.

POLS 4519 - Genocide

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: POLS 1101

The commission of genocidal acts represents the height of human inhumanity to human. Human history is filled with cases of groups-the state, elites, dominant ethnic groups, among others-committing genocidal crimes against other groups-marginalized racial, ethnic, religious and other groups-based on the perennial "us" versus "them" serving as the motor force. Although, the international community has committed itself to the prevention of genocide as reflected in the famous expression "Never again!," the rhetoric commitment has not been matched by consistent action. Accordingly, there have been cases of the commission of genocidal crimes as a recurring phenomenon-from the Holocaust to Sudan's Darfur region. Against this background, this course will seek to explore the various issues that underlie genocide, such as the explanations for the commission of genocidal acts, the typology of genocide, context, international norms, the efforts to prevent and punish genocidal crimes, and various case studies. The course begins with the issues, and this is then followed by the case studies. The rationale is to link the issues to the cases.

improvisational techniques, community-oriented research skills and non-textual performance practices, students will explore and write plays based on their communities, interests and concerns. Prerequisites may be waived with the permission of the instructor.

THEA 4111 - Production and Performance Capstone

(1 /4/ 3) Prerequisite: THEA 1112 and THEA 1112 and THEA 2111 and THEA 2112 and THEA 3111 and THEA 3112

A capstone course designed to build on all experiential work in the students' college career. Topics will vary with instructors. Prerequisites may be waived with permission of the instructor.

THEA 4412 - Acting III

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: THEA 2291 and THEA 3392

For the graduating actor, this course explores audition technique for monologues and cold readings. The actor will build a repertoire of monologues and songs to be performed in class for use in future outside auditions. Prerequisites may be waived with permission of the instructor.

THEA 4415 - Playwriting II

(2 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: THEA 1100 and THEA 2100 and THEA 3415

A continuation of THEA 3415, concentrating on the theory and mechanics of traditional playwriting as well as the processes and skills of playwriting as a profession. Students will experience the writing, development and rehearsed reading of performance works.

THEA 4457 - Theatre History II

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: THEA 1100 and THEA 2100

Study of selected plays, conventions and movements in drama from Ibsen to present.

THEA 4485 - Special Topics in Theatre

(3 /0/ 3) Course offered on a one-time or experimental basis to examine selected issues related to the Theatre Arts and performance.

THEA 4486 - Internship

(0 /3.0 - 6.0/ 3.0 - 6.0) Permission of instructor required. Opportunity for selected students to intern at theatre, film, commercial and entertainment companies. Repeatable to a maximum of 6 credit hours.

UTEACH

UTCH 2001 - Inquiry Approaches to Teaching

(1 /0/ 1) The purpose of Step 1 is to have students explore teaching experiences in science or mathematics. Students teach science or mathematics lessons in local elementary classrooms and obtain first-hand experience with planning and implementing inquiry-based curriculum. The instructor introduces students to the theory and practice behind inquiry-based science and mathematics instruction and guides them through the process of designing and preparing to teach lessons. The course requires field experiences at local schools and requires a satisfactory result on the College of Education Criminal Background Check.

UTCH 2002 - Inquiry Based Lesson Design

(1 /0/ 1) Prerequisite: UTCH 2001 with a minimum grade of C

Students who want to explore teaching careers become familiar with the middle school setting by observing and discussing the middle school environment, and by teaching several lessons to a middle school class. They build upon and practice lesson design skills that were developed in Step 1 and also become familiar with excellent science and mathematics curricula for the middle school setting. As a result of the Step 2 experiences, students generally are able to make a decision as to whether they want to pursue a pathway to teacher certification through the UTeach program.

UTCH 2001 is a prerequisite for this course.

UTCH 3001 - Knowing and Learning in Mathematics and Science Education

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: UTCH 2001 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 2002 with a minimum grade of C. Prerequisite 2.5 gpa

The goal of this course is to develop a powerful tool kit of approaches to knowing and learning in science and mathematics. This course focuses on issues of what it means to learn and know science and mathematics.

UTCH 3002 - Classroom Interactions

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: UTCH 3001 with a minimum grade of C. Pre-requisite 2.5 gpa.

This course continues the process of preparing pre-service teaching candidates to teach mathematics and science in secondary settings by providing opportunities to see how theories explored in Knowing and Learning play out in instructional settings. You will design and implement instructional activities informed by your own understanding of what it means to know and learn mathematics and science, and then evaluate the outcomes of those activities on the basis of student artifacts (i.e., what students say, do, or create) .

UTCH 3003 - Project Based Instruction

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: UTCH 3001 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 3002 with a minimum grade of C and College of Education field experience documentation required and Admission to Teacher Education program

The course Project-Based Instruction (PBI) supports continued development as a teacher, building on your previous UTeach courses. PBI provides opportunities to observe and teach in the secondary science or mathematics classroom, continuing field experiences from UTCH 2001, UTCH 2002, and Classroom Interactions. PBI also provides the basis for building on the theoretical knowledge base of the courses Knowing & Learning and Classroom Interactions. This course will also provide opportunities to generate artifacts for a professional portfolio to meet requirements for teacher certification. This course aims to help close the research-practice gap by developing your capacity to identify and evaluate best teaching practices as presented in research literature.

UTCH 3004 - Inclusive Secondary Mathematics and Science Classrooms

(3 /0/ 3) Prerequisite: UTCH 3001 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 3002 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 3003 with a minimum grade of C and Admission to Teacher Education program

This course engages students in observations, interactions, and analyses of educational issues related to inclusive secondary Mathematics and Science classrooms. The course includes a thorough examination and practice of instructional strategies and accommodations required to meet the needs of students with special needs in inclusion settings. Application of reading and writing strategies to support content acquisition is emphasized. This course will satisfy the requirement of course work in the identification and education of children with special education needs as mandated by Georgia House Bill 671.

UTCH 4000 - Apprentice Teaching

(9 /0/ 9) Prerequisite: UTCH 3001 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 3002 with a minimum grade of C and UTCH 3003 with a minimum grade of C and College of Education field experience documentation required and Admission to Teacher Education program

The course requires Candidates to teach for one full semester in the public schools at the secondary level under the supervision of an experienced, qualified classroom teacher. Weekly 90 minute seminars are scheduled on campus as an integral part of the Apprentice Teaching experience. In a supportive environment Apprentice Teachers share their experiences and work on solutions for difficulties they are experiencing. They learn about legal and logistical issues in teaching, become familiar with how the diverse components of a high school or middle school are organized into a highly effective system, and prepare for the GACE Exams. For their final product, Apprentice Teachers submit a portfolio, which documents their progress toward meeting the GA PSC standards for new teachers.

eCore Courses

University of West Georgia is one of many institutions participating in a University System of Georgia initiative of making general core classes available through the Internet. The registration process is the same as registering for any other UWG course, but the fees and dates of the course may be different.

The University System's central eCore information website is located at: <http://ecore.usg.edu>. More information specific to UWG can be found at <http://ecore.westga.edu>. Core curriculum courses offered online and their UWG equivalent, or substitution, are listed below. These courses are equivalent or a substitution and are accepted as transfer credit by most all USG institutions to satisfy core requirements or prerequisites required for a particular major in a specific program. If you have questions about how an eCore course will apply to your program of study, please consult with your program advisor.

Visitors Welcome

The University welcomes visitors to the campus. All administrative offices are open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

University Police

All emergencies (fire, medical, crimes in progress) should be reported to the University Police. The University Police will respond to all calls for assistance and coordinate the response of other emergency personnel as needed.

The University community is encouraged to report any on-campus crime for which they are a victim or witness. The University Police investigates all reported crimes and assist the victim in prosecuting the case through the criminal courts. Students who commit crimes on the campus are subject to both criminal prosecution as well as disciplinary action through Student Judiciary.

The University Police operate the campus warning network (Wolf Alert) and Wolf Guardian which is a service that turns your cell phone into a campus panic button. Both services are free and you can register for both by logging into the Portal and clicking on the icons within the University Police Box. Information about campus crime (Clery Act) can be found on the web page as well.

University Police Emergency - Area 678-839-6000 (24/7/365)

Criminal Investigations - Are 678-839-4974 (8:00am to 5:00pm- Monday through Friday)
